Gimme This- Gimme This- Gimme That

By L. WOLFE GILBERT,
NAT VINCENT
and ALEX SULLIVAN

Piano

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand features a rhythmic melody with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a steady accompaniment with chords and single notes.

I've got a gal who com-pares with an - y gal She's some prize Eyes so large, so
As soon as my gir-lie o - pens up her eyes This is true She says please,oh

The first system of the song features a vocal line with lyrics and a piano accompaniment. The piano part continues with a similar rhythmic pattern to the introduction.

large, so large, Good Lord what a won-der-ful size. She has ev - 'ry thing that's beau-ti-ful please,oh please. What have you for me that's new. I dont know just how she gets that way

The second system continues the vocal and piano accompaniment. The piano part includes some chordal textures and melodic lines.

The fourth system concludes the vocal and piano accompaniment. The piano part ends with a final chordal structure.

Chorus

Ear-ly in the morn-ing late at night Gim-me this, Gim-me this, Gim-me that.

I could be a pawn-ing ev-ry thing Gim-me this Gim-me this Gim-me that.

We can't pass an old shop win-dow with-out that "Oh thats grand" In her eyes there's

"let me have it dear" but I dont un-der stand Ear-ly in the morn-ing late at night I thank the Lord a-bove That I've got my sen-ses yet All she asks for she dont get

I dont mind the "Gim-mes" whenshe says Gim-me just a lit-tle love. love.

GIMME THIS — GIMME THIS — GIMME THAT

I've got a gal who compares with any gal,
She's some prize.
Eyes so large, so large, so large,
Good Lord, what a wonderful size;
She has every thing that's beautiful—
Lips and teeth and hair.
I discover, although I love her,
For one thing I don't care.
She has a habit very bad—
It's enough to make you mad.

Chorus

Early in the morning, late at night,
Gimme this, gimme this, gimme that.
I could be a-pawning everything,
Gimme this, gimme this, gimme that.
We can't pass an old shop window without that "Oh, that's grand."
In her eyes there's "Let me have it, dear," but I don't understand.
Early in the morning, late at night, I thank the Lord above
That I've got my senses yet.
All she asks for she don't get.
I don't mind the "Gimmes" when she says,
"Gimme just a little love."

As soon as my girlie opens her eyes,
This is true.
She says please, oh please, oh please,
What have you for me that's new?
I don't know just how she gets that way,
She wants all in sight.
My brain's hazy, she's got me crazy,
Some day I'll say "good-night."
I've tried to satisfy each whim.
Why it's got my bank roll slim.
