Just at the close of a sum - mer day, Not long a - go,
 "Go to sleep dar - ling," these words I heard; "Close your bright eyes,

Strolling a - long an old coun - try road, Where soft breez - es blow,
 An - gels are keep - ing their watch o'er you, From out of the skies,

A moth - er's voice on the still eve - ning air, An an - gel's voice it seemed,
 A sil - v'ry boat on a sil - ver - y sea, Sweetheart has come for you,

Came soft - ly to me in low sweet strains, That it all was like a dream.
 Takes you a - way to the land of dreams, Where your fai - ry tales come true."

ten.

CHORUS

p-f dolce

'Twas a soft sweet song like mur - mur - ing trees, — That came drift - ing to me with sweet mem - o - ries — Of a moth - er with her babe on her knee; — 'Twas my old cra - dle song that's al - ways dear to me. — 'Twas a me. —
