

SM 4469

SPOONING

(UNDER HAWAIIAN SKIES)

Words by C. J. MacMEEKIN

Music by J. A. MacMEEKIN

Moderato

mf

Old Ha-waii seems haunt - ing, And its spell is taunt - ing, Lov - ers can't re - Mys - tic breez - es blow - ing, Sea waves gent - ly flow - ing, Ev - er soft - ly sist it Once they have felt its charms; Man - y a heart - ache has sing - ing Love's sweet - est mel - o - dy; Na - ture is call - ing and turned in - to joy, Man - y a maid - en has ceased to be coy, lov - ers must hear; Cu - pid is sing - ing oh ev - er so near;

Bound up in Ha - wai - i's lov - ing arms.
 Come let's join the dream - y har - mo - ny.

rit.

CHORUS

There's a shel-tered nook where moon-light beam - ing Is just re-veal-ing two lov-ers

mp

dream-ing; Old Ha-waii has cast its spell a - bout them, It seems to call them to love a - gain. Soft-ly in her ear he whis-pers words of love

While the rippling waves re-lect the stars a - bove; You're the on - ly girl that I can i - dol - ize, Spoon-ing un - der Ha-waiian skies. skies.

1 2