To Be Together Is The Thing

Lyric & Music by
B. C. HILLIAM

Moderato

When a man feels that he's

head ov - er heels in love with a girl, It's a ter - ri - ble state of af - fairs! He does n't care a darn if he lives in a barn, So long as the girl of his choice his hap - pi - ness shares.

p lento

- Time and place mean noth-ing to you and me.

REFRAIN

To be to-get-her is the main thing, The on-ly sen-si-ble and sane thing,

No mat-ter where or how, To be the same as now, Like lit-tle bird-ies on the wing. So in the summer or the win-ter, And in the fall and in the spring. We may be bask-ing in a bun-ga-low be-side a ba-by ri-ver.

We may be bath-ing down at Co-ney or at some se-clud-ed clam beach,

Loung-ing in a lim-ou-sine or flirt-ing in a fliv-er,
 Up the Ad-i-ron-dacks or a-mong the crowd at Palm beach,

In New York or in the wilds, Mis-ter Ritz or Mis-ter Childs;
 May-be poor, or else a lord, Mis-ter Stutz or Mis-ter Ford;

To be to-gether is the thing. (Myum, myum, myum, myum,) To be to-gether is the thing.
