

SM 4552

2

When Two Hearts Discover

Words by
EARL DERR BIGGAR

(Minot and Cynthia)

Music by LOUIS A. HIRSCH

All^{to} moderato

Piano

p

(Cynthia) Love's sort of fun - ny, You will find, Some - day when you are (Minot) Love is de - light - ful, I've heard that, And I'm not one to in it, You meet the ver - y one who seems The doubt it, Then too, per - haps I may know more Than one you've pic - tured in your dreams, You know it in a peo - ple give me cred - it for, I may know all a - min - ute; You won - der if the oth - er feels The - bout it! There's just a chance that I have met The lit - tle thrill that soft - ly steals In - to your heart but sort of girl I can't for - get, And when I speak, you

poco rall.
I for - get Of course you've not been through it yet.
un - der - stand My views may not be sec - ond hand.

poco rall.

Refrain
When two hearts dis - cov - er they're one and the same, -

p. f.

You find that it's kind of a won - der - ful game, — No word need be spok - en, in si - lence un - brok - en, You stand there a -

- dor - ing, you don't find it bor - ing, Your world seems as bright as the gold of the sun,— Your life seems to be but that mo-ment be-gun,— And oh, how you glo-ry to hear that old sto-ry, When two hearts dis-poco rit

-cov-er they're one. When one.

a tempo