

SM4561

2 Who Played Poker With Pocahontas?

Words by SAM M. LEWIS and JOE YOUNG

Music by
FRED E. AHLERT

Marcia

Piano

Till Ready

Voice

Look - ing through my his - to - ry, I found a lit - tle Cle - o - pat in his - to - ry, Just made a mark of mys - ter - y, a - bout a cer - tain dame;

An - tho - ny, old An - thy, knew it too;

Copyright MCMXIX by Waterson, Berlin & Snyder Co.

893-4 Copyright Canada MCMXIX by Waterson, Berlin & Snyder Co. International Copyright Secured

How did lit - tle Po - ca - hon - tas, Take John Smith for. all his wam - pus,
When Na - pol - e - on went bust - ed, Jos - e - phine was sure dis - gust - ed,

Bet _____ I know her game. — He taught her how
At _____ his Wa - ter loo. — Take off your hat

— to play pok - er, — She sent him home, — with - out his — to Co - lum - bus, — He put Queen Is - a - belle in dough; — Ev - ry time that he came back, He found her with a hook; — All these facts are bon - a - fide, But here's a thing we larg - er stack, And here's what I'd like to know: _____

 must de - cide, And dont think I mean to knock: _____

Chorus

Who played pok - er, with Poc - a - hon - tas, When John Smith went a - way? _____ She al - ways dressed up so pret - ty,

Some - bod - y must - have fed the kit - ty; She wore a blush just like ev-'ry In - di-an, That led John a - stray; — Poor He

John-ny's pipe of peace was out the day he quit, When he came back he called on her one cold night in an aw - ful storm, She had no coal but found his piece of pipe was lit; Now who played pok-er, with Poc - a - still she kept her old wig-wam;

hon-tas, When John Smith went a - way? — way? —

f D.S.