

SM 522

"The Melancholy Sunbeam and the Rose"

Words by WILLIAM JEROME.

Music by
JEAN SCHWARTZ.

Allegretto.

1. A sun - beam in a
2. The vi - o - let might

mf rall. pp p
molto lunga.

gar - den fair, Quite sad at heart one day; — Fell vic - tim to a prize your love, Re - plied the rose with glee — For I'm en - gaged to blush - ing rose, That stole his heart a - way — The some - one else Don't waste your time on me — Why

Copyright 1904 by Shapiro, Remick & Co.

International Copyright Secured.

All Rights Reserved.

sun-beam whis-pered words of love, And kissed a - way the dew — "Oh oth - er ros - es just as sweet, Are grow - ing by my side — "I pret - ty Rose" the sun-beam said Please let me shine for you. — want no oth - er Rose but you" The sun-beam sad - ly sighed. —

REFRAIN. con moto grazia.

"Rose pret - ty rose Ev' - ry gen - tle breeze that blows And ev' - ry flow'r in cu - pid's bow'r, My se - cret knows Clouds in the sky Seem to pause and won - der why You keep me wait - ing Ag - gra - va - ting Rose, sweet Rose.

Tempo I.

rit. mf

Rose sweet Rose.

lunga.

rall. pp D.S. rit. dim-e-rit. pp

molto lunga.