

SM 5696

Pay The Piper

(Helen, Digby and Girls)

Words by HARRY B. SMITH

Music by EDUARD KÜNNEKE

Allegretto

(DIGBY)

p

In flirt-ing di-vert-ing, Co-quet-ing

Piano

mf

p

for-get-ting - You'll find I'm rea-dy quite at a-ny time, —

The mad love, the sad love Con-sum-ing and gloom-ing I've seen so

(HELEN)

man-y times a fail-ure bloom-ing, Love's pleas-ure I treas-ure

p

A - muse - ment for our lei - sure, I don't mind jol - ly fel - lows lov - ing me;

The dole - ful, The soul - ful, Po - e - tic, Pa - thet - ic

(GIRLS)
For me too ser - i - ous would be. Love and laugh - ter al - ways to - gether be - long. He who fain would win, must woo with a song, _____ If you be a prince or po - et When the true love comes you'll know it "If" has mag - ic to com - pel you, And I tell you:

(DIGBY)

(HELEN)

Refrain
(DIGBY)

When you hear the song of love call - ing you Just like the gay -

- pipes of Pan, _____ Dan - ger lies in mag - ic en - thrall -

(HELEN)

ing you, Try to es-cape— if you can! — Pan pipes for—

— danc-ing, Lov-ers en-tranc-ing, steal-ing their— hearts a-way.—

(BOTH)

Soon or late you sure-ly will find— some-day Those who dance, the pi-per have to pay. — pay. —