When June Comes Along With A Song

8

Fox Trot Song

Words and Music by GEORGE M. COHAN

Moderato

June time, June time, Hap-pi-est of the year,

p a tempo

Don't you wish it were here? June time, June time,

Time for mar-ry-ing, dear, Wed-ding time is near. Month of June, month of June, With your wonder-ful sun and moon, Month of June, month of June,

Strict tempo

Oh, please hur-ry up, month of June! Come back soon!

REFRAIN

There's a song we sing in June, When the world is all in tune And the sweet mel-o-dies of the breeze Seem to please all the trees — It's the song of romp and play That the youth will sing all day, Mis-ter

Cup-ids do - ing his darn - dest, The sun is shin - ing a - way — There is mus - ic in the air, There is laugh - ter ev - 'ry - where, There's a smile on the face of the earth, At the mirth, at the mirth, There's a danc - ing, prancing throng, And the bells all ring ding - dong, There's a God up a - bove, All is right, all is love, When June comes a - long with a song. song.
