Hannah Dooley.

Lyric by GEORGE V. HOBART.

Music by MAX HOFFMANN.

Allegro moderato.

There's no rag-time girl in Ire-land With her shin - ing teeth and Sure we have no minstrels sing-ing Of a girl named Lin-dy eyes, But there's Han - nah My Han-nah dear! You can Lou! But there's Han - nah My Han-nah dear! Sure you'll find no Man - dy danc - ing For a wa - ter - mel - on prize, But there's hear no ban - jos ring - ing By the far a - way bay - ou But there's

Han - nah My Han - nah dear!
Han - nah My Han - nah dear!

Han - nah is as pret - ty as an I - rish rose,
Han - nah fas - ci - nates me with her rogu - ish eye

Han - nah has a se - cret which I wish she would dis - close: Oh!
Han - nah she is teas - ing, but shell love me bye and bye! Oh!

CHORUS.

Han - nah, Miss Han - nah Doo - ley! Say that you

p-f

love me My Han - nah do!

No girl in Bal-ly - hoo - ley. Could ev - er win me a - way from you!

Han - nah, my heart un - ru - ly is beat-ing

for you and that is true!

Han-nah! Han-nah! change your man-ner Be your Pad-dy's own a - lan-na!

Han-nah Dooley! Pride of Bal-ly - hoo - ley! ley!
