and dream about you I don't think I can live with-out you that moon-light mad-ness Has oft-en caused a lot of sad-ness

But lit-tle girl you haven't heard the half of it yet you naugh-ty naugh-ty boy you bet-ter lis-ten to me

Chorus

When that old man in the moon shines down up-on the la-agoon It's that old man in the moon that makes you craz-y to spoon

— I'm filled with vis-ions of your two beau-ti-ful eyes of blue — And all the shy lit-tle boys and in-no-cent girls grow bold

And though I've oft - en been told that moon-light's there is no heav - en - ly bliss quite like a aw - ful - ly cold I don't be - lieve it, be - cause I'm burn - hug and a kiss While that old man in the moon is bath -

- ing with love for you If I were your Rom - e - o
- ing the night in gold He makes each boy want to pet each moon - light night I should go And climb your some pin - ing. "Miss Cap - u - let" each girl a bal - co - ny so we both could spoon fair Jul - i - et, each night like June

Oh lis - ten to me can't I get you to a - gree
 So take it from me old dear I'll nev - er a - gree to make a fuss o - ver me Beneath the old man in the to let you cud - dle with me Beneath the old man in the
