Wait 'll You See My Gal

A Dancing Song

Words and Music by JERRY SULLIVAN
and LUCKY WILBER

Moderato

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand plays a rhythmic pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a steady bass line. The music is in the key of D major and 2/4 time. A dynamic marking of f (forte) is present at the beginning.

The first system of the song features a vocal line on a single staff and piano accompaniment on two staves. The lyrics are: "There's some-thing both-er - ing me, There's on - ly one thing to do,". The piano accompaniment includes a dynamic marking of mf (mezzo-forte).

The second system continues the song with the lyrics: "ev -'ry night and day, watch us in the spring, It does-n't wor-ry me much, that's why I'm so I have the queen of them all, you can hear me".

The third system concludes the song with the lyrics: "gay, sing, Not com-plain-ing, just ex-plain-ing, lis en while I say: — Brown eyed Susan, I'm not los - en June will bring the ring. —".

CHORUS

I've got a se-cret but I'll nev-er keep it, Wait-'ll you see my gal,

She is a win-ner just a new be-gin-ner, Wait-'ll you see my gal.

Fair as a flow-er, ev-'ry sin-gle hour— She's on my mind,

Cu-pid's a won-der nev-er made a blun-der Love can't be blind,

There are so man-y but there is-n't an-y That are just like my Queen,

She's o-ver sev-en and I am in heav-en, You know just what I mean;

Out of all the mil-lion girls there are, she shines out just like the ev-ning star,
When she rolls her pret-ty eyes at you, there's no tell-ing what you're apt to do,

I've got a se-cret but I'll nev-er keep it Wait-'ll you see my gal. gal.
