

5M696

2 "Are You Coming out to-night Mary Ann?"

Words by ANDREW B. STERLING.

Music by
HARRY VON TILZER.

Moderato.

PIANO.

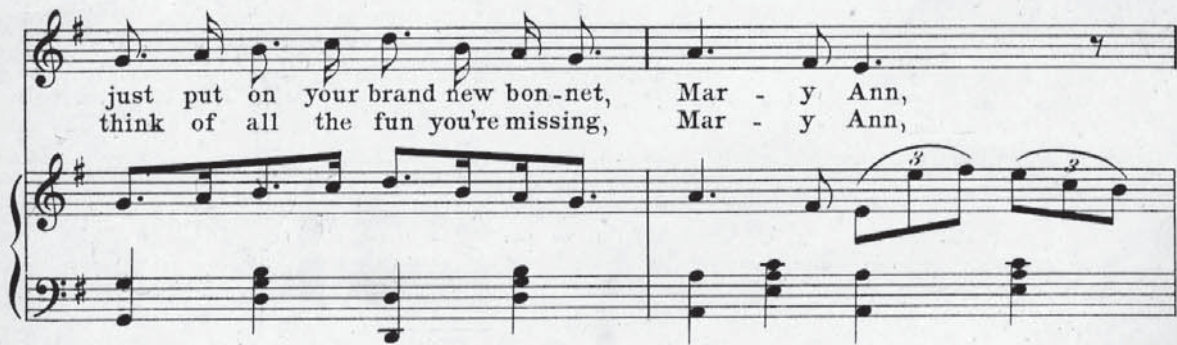

Till Ready.

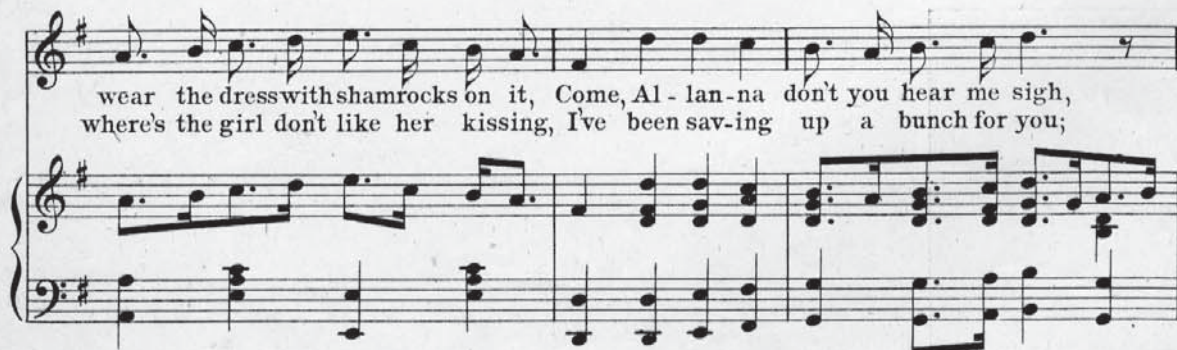

Mar - y Ann,
Mar - y Ann,

just put on your brand new bon-net, Mar - y Ann,
think of all the fun you're missing, Mar - y Ann, wear the dress with shamrocks on it, Come, Al - lan-na don't you hear me sigh, where's the girl don't like her kissing, I've been sav-ing up a bunch for you;

Copyright 1906 by Harry Von Tilzer Music Pub. Co. 37 W. 28th St. N. Y.

All Rights Reserved.

English Copyright Secured.

See the moon is shin-ing in the sky, Mar - y Ann,
Now just whis-per you'll come down, Ah do, Mar - y Ann,

What a love - ly night for spark - ing, Mar - y Ann,
Don't think that I'll wait for - ev - er, Mar - y Ann,

boys and girls are all sky - lark - ing, Don't keep me here,
come out now, its now or nev - er, Don't be vex - ing, wait-ing like a clown, Mar - y Ann will you come down.____

teas-ing me this way, Mar - y Ann come down I say.____

CHORUS.

Are you com-ing out to-night Mar - y Ann, ————— Ar - rah

p-f

don't say that you can't, for — you can, ————— There's a f

gos - soon wants to spoon, Un - der - neath the har - vest moon sure its me, can't you see, Mike Mc - Gee, its me! There's a tale I want to tell, Mar - y Ann, ————— Oh 'tis you that knows it well, Mar - y Ann, ————— There's a kiss goes with it too, Mar - y Ann what's keep - ing you, Are you

com - ing out to - night Mar - y Ann? ————— Are you Ann? —————

1. 2. D.C.