

51877

Public Performance Prohibited Without Permission.

"Gee, Aint I Glad I'm Home?"

3

GEO. M. COHAN.

Moderato.

mf

§

SOLO.

till ready.

I If

CHO.

don't know how to take this aw - ful fuss you make, Wel - come home,
I could make a speech I'd certain - ly pull a peach, Wel - come home,

p

SOLO.

wel - come home; Hon - est it's a fact, I dont know how to act, wel - come home; Im migh - ty glad Im back A - way from ev' - ry track, Copyright 1907 by F. A. Mills 32 W. 29th St; New York.

English Copyright Secured.

CHO. SOLO.

Wel-come home, wel-come home. Right on the square, folks, I feel proud, Wel-come home, wel-come home. Give me my health and three square meals,

You'll nev - er un - der - stand — Af - ter the dead cold
I'll be the world's one king — Im ver - y strong for the New York crowd, Gee, ain't the jays just grand. — old green fields, Im for the small town thing. —

Chorus.

Gee, ain't I glad that Im home a - gain, Hope I will nev - er have to roam a - gain,

p.f

Back from the hur-ly bur-ly of Broad-way, Back to the coun-try and the new mown hay; Here's where your pal al-ways is your pal,

Here's where your gal al-ways is your gal; An-y old town's a grand old town, If it's home sweet home. home. —

1. 2. D.C.