

SM889

"If You'll Walk With Me."

3

Words by
EDGAR SELDEN.

Music by
PAUL RUBENS.

INTRO. Moderato.

mf poco rall.

If you'll walk with me, if you'll talk with me, I've a
If a lane's not near, we need have no fear, For the p

no - tion you'll be pleased; — If you do not mind, or you're Av - e - nue will do; — We'll se - lect a time, when the not un - kind, If by chance, your hand is squeezed. — A church-bells chime, And we'll walk in - to a pew. — If ride's ve - ry nice but don't en - tice Like a while we are there, you feel you'd care To walk stroll down some cool green lane; With a girl just like you, to tell on with me all through life; 'Tis a most sim-ple thing, to ar - love sto-ries to; Sure-ly none would ev - er com - plain.

range for the ring, That will make you girl-ie a wife.

poco rit.

CHORUS.

If you'll walk with me, if you'll come a-long, I'll tell you what we will

p - f

do, if you Will be my dove, I'll tell my love, And we two will kiss and bill and coo. If the moon's too bright, it would serve him right, If clouds won't give him a chance to see; We'll find some nook, where he can't look; If you'll walk with, walk with me. If you'll me.

If you'll walk with me. 3