I WOULD STILL LOVE YOU.

Words by
HARRY CASTLING.

Music by
C. W. MURPHY.

Moderato.

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand starts with a triplet of eighth notes (G4, A4, B4) marked f cresc., followed by a series of eighth-note chords. The left hand provides a steady accompaniment of chords. The piece concludes with a triplet of eighth notes (G4, A4, B4) marked dim. and f.

The first system shows the vocal melody and piano accompaniment for the first two lines. The vocal line is on a single staff, and the piano accompaniment is on two staves. The lyrics are:

1. 'Twas a luck-y day I met you, Gir-lie Mine _____ 'Twas a

2. 'Twas a case of love at first sight, Gir-lie Mine _____ When I

The second system shows the vocal melody and piano accompaniment for the final two lines. The vocal line is on a single staff, and the piano accompaniment is on two staves. The lyrics are:

luck-y day I saw the love-light shine _____ From those two bright eyes of met you by the cling-ing i - vy vine _____ I was hop-ing you, my
