

SM980

2

4236

SWEETHEART TOWN.

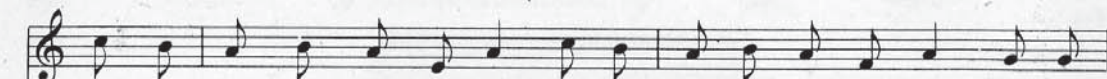

Lyric by
EDWARD BOLTWOOD.

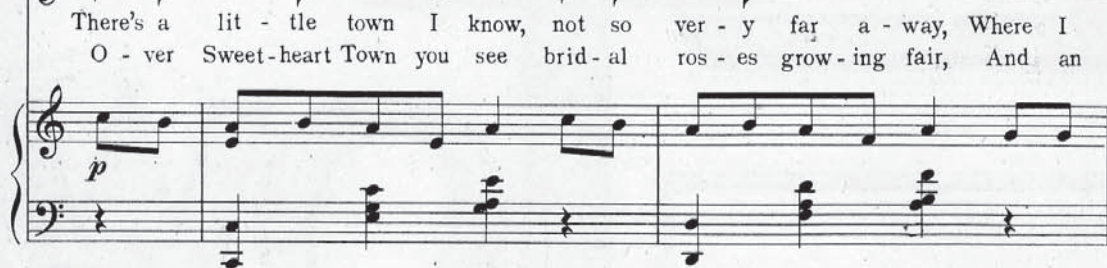

Music by
J. A. RAYNES.

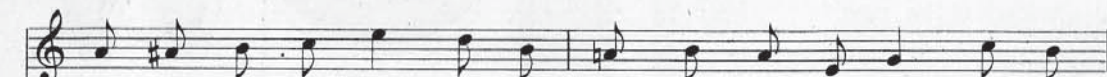

Allegro moderato.

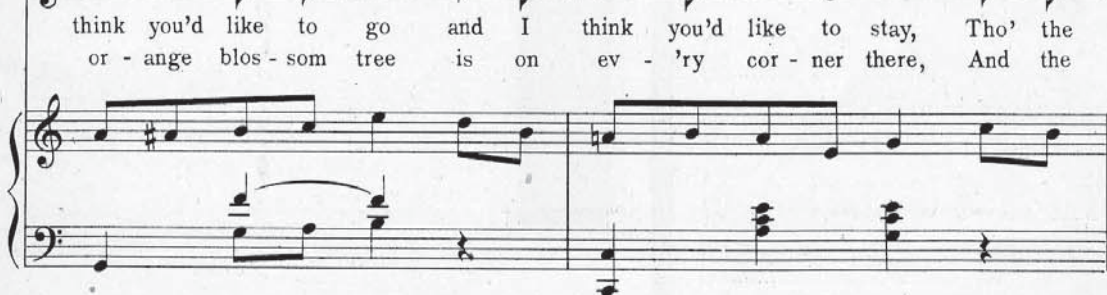

VOICE.

PIANO.

There's a lit - tle town I know, not so ver - y far a - way, Where I O - ver Sweet-heart Town you see brid - al ros - es grow - ing fair, And an think you'd like to go and I think you'd like to stay, Tho' the or - ange blos - som tree is on ev - 'ry cor - ner there, And the Copyright MCMVII by M. Witmark & Sons.

Rights For Mechanical Instruments Reserved.
International Copyright Secured.

M.W.&SONS 8150-4

size of it is small, room for two and that is all, Yet a clock can tell the time on - ly by a wed - ding chime, While the place it is of great re - nown. — It is not up - on the maps, but is tur - tle doves are coo - ing down. — Made for din - ner, so they say, there are fa - mous far and wide, You can find the way per - haps, with a kiss - es by the score, And the or - ches - tra can play wed - di girl to be your guide, For this cit - y, un - der - stand, Is a march and noth - ing more. Ev - er since the world be - gan, Ev - 'ry sort of fair - y land And the name of it is Sweet-heart Town. So maid and ev - 'ry man Has been "all a - board" for Sweet-heart Town.

REFRAIN.

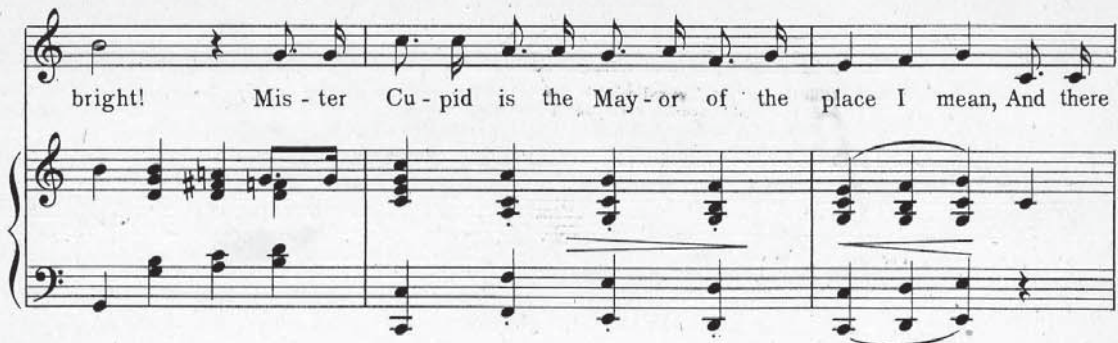

won't you come a - long with me to Sweet - heart Town? Oh, mp - f won't you come a - long with me to - night? I can show the road to you, It is broad e - nough for two, With a silv - er hon - ey - moon to make it bright! Mis - ter Cu - pid is the May - or of the place I mean, And there is - n't an - y cha - per - on to frown, There'll be sost.

on - ly you and I, With no oth - er peo - ple by. — Won't you come a - long to Sweet heart Town? So Town?

1. 2.

f sfz

