There at an-chor proud and grand lay the ships of U. S. A. And haps the ships at an-chor there bring back fond mem-o-ries, Of how his heart yearned for his dear old home. The loved ones and of those you left at home. It's mf band be-gan to play those dear old South-ern mel-o-dies, And mf man-y years a-go since I have heard those dear old strains, Of tunes of Yank-ee-land so far a-way. They brought him back to Dix-ie land so Dix-ie land my home so far a-way. A sweet-heart who is wait-ing and a far a - cross the sea, And loved ones that he left one sum-mer's day.

moth-er old and gray, In fan - cy I can see them once a - gain.
