

SM7532

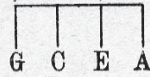

"Lucky"

That Little Something

The right to make arrangements of or otherwise reproduce this composition is expressly reserved

(Lucky and Jack)

Tune Ukulele

Words by BERT KALMAR
and HARRY RUBY

Music by
JEROME KERN

Moderato

Piano

p

pp JACK

May - be you'd think me bold or rude, To al - lude to what's on my Lucky: Just like you love a feel - ing too, That I nev - er knew of, be -

pp

LUCKY

mind. That de - pends you will find, fore. Jack: That just ev - ens the score;

gva.

How your mind is in - clined. There's a thing that's been Won't you tell us some more? Lucky: I con - fess it is

pp JACK

pp

blos - som - ing Like a bud in spring since we met; I'd let you speak your hap - pi - ness, But I'm more or less in a daze. Lucky: May I an - swer the

LUCKY

rall.

mind out. Jack: Here's what you can't help me find out:
 quest - ion? Lucky: You might of - fer a sug - gest - ion:

rall.

Burthen Quasi allegretto ma espress.
 What is - that some - - - thing, that lit - tle some -

p-mf

— thing, Bump - ing and thump - ing

down in my heart?— I can't ex - press — it,

nev - er - the - less — it must have a name,

May - be you've felt — the same; When you're near

it goes pit - a - pat, Real - ly dear,

uke silent
I don't know where — I'm at; What can such bliss — be?

Tell me can this — be That lit - tle some - thing, called

Love? Love?

dim.