

2 SM7795

Moonlight Madness

(Then You Were Gone)

Tune Ukulele

Put Capo on 1st Fret

By LOU DAVIS and
J. FRED COOTS

Moderato

Piano

p rit

Voice

The world was sleep - ing I of - ten meas - ure The stars were peep - ing The dreams I treas - ure

a tempo

The moon - beams kissed the sand. Each one a price - less pearl.

And thru the gloam - ing You filled your mis - sion, I found you roam - ing a - You're but a vis - ion from

Arr. by Joseph M. Weiss

Copyright 1928 by De Sylva, Brown and Henderson Inc., 745 Seventh Ave., New York

Copyrighted in South America by Harry Kosarin, Rio de Janeiro

International Copyright Secured

Made in U. S. A.

All Rights Reserved

lone dream - dear land With heart a - fire —
The hopes I squan - dered

There came de - sire — It thrilled me through and through.
The roads I wan - dered Just pray - ing we will meet.

E - ven though you're gone — That night of nights lives on.
My sleep - y eyes you kissed Then van - ished like the mist.

Chorus

Thru — the palms you came with — your soul a - flame

Moon - light mad-ness, then you were gone.

L.H.

3

It was love at sight. Thrills — just filled the night.

Moon - light mad-ness, then you were gone.

3

Ve - ry soon I learned — That you loved eve-ry-thing ro - man - tic, How your kiss-es burned,— Their mem-ry near-ly drives me

fran - tic I heard the pas-sion call I (optional) The sea of thrills we crossed We gave my soul, my all Moon-light mad-ness,

 met I loved and lost

L.H.

Then you were gone. gone.