

Council Plans Handling Of Hall Discipline

Talking it over with
Dr. Grady Gammage

Semester examinations will soon be here! This may be a terrifying thought to some and a matter of indifference to others. If you are nervous, hyper-sensitive, high strung and fearful, you likely will not do your best on an examination. Likewise, if you are nonchalant and blasé you will not do so well.

Sometimes in fine-spun theorizing about education, examinations may be criticized. Yet tests are a part of life. Everything from battleships and locomotives to electric light bulbs and the smallest part of a watch are tested. If we want a life insurance policy or a job, a test is applied to us. If we join a lodge or fraternity, a glee club or a football team rigid tests are applied.

How Approach

Most student organizations decline to accept one for membership until an examination or test is given. In good sporting spirit most novices approach these tests willingly. Cowardice or indifference stamps one as made of poor stuff.

The best preparation for a semester examination is consistent day by day preparation during the semester. One who has done this is usually willing to be tried out in a fair test. During the lectures and study through the semester we may have been all but overwhelmed. We may have concluded that a college education means 130 semester hours and nothing more. The examination may give an opportunity for us to get a comprehensive view of what we have been doing.

"What It's All About"

It is a real inspiration at the end of the semester if one can rise above hours, classes and formulas and look over the whole subject as one who has a fair idea as to "what it's all about." This is somewhat like the batter stepping up to the plate or the runner getting on to the track. He has trained faithfully. He's ready to give his best. There are no alibis when the game's over.

Not changing the subject, but I should like to congratulate the basketball teams and the coaches on the victories at Tucson!

Debaters Leave For California To Enter Meets

The college debating team left Wednesday evening for Glendale, California, where they will enter a coast debating tournament, after having returned from the University of Arizona Tuesday where they were defeated by an audience vote.

Kenneth McKee and Katherine Greenwalt argued the affirmative side against the University and Fred Wilson and Lee Rustin took the negative.

Dr. Merle Ansberry and the U. of A. Coach were so well pleased with the showing the Tempe club made, that another debate was scheduled for February 11, here. The teams will debate: "Resolved the United States neutrality should be strengthened." This argument will be published with a collection of inter-collegiate debates published annually.

In this week's tourney, after debating in the Glendale meet, the team will journey to Redlands, California where they will meet the Redlands University team and then will debate the California Institute of Technology team at Pasadena.

Courses Added To Art Schedule

Several new courses are being added to the curriculum of the art department, with the addition of commercial arts, which will be taught by Thomas B. Harter.

Allied crafts will be taught next semester by Miss Ruth Mooers, and those added in the commercial line will be lettering, sign writing, and advertising art.

Eastern Teacher Replaces

Professor Resigns To Use Time For Writing Of Books

The resignation of Dr. Frank S. Salisbury, member of the College faculty for several years, was announced this week by the administration, after the educational professor had presented his severance with the college for the second semester.

The unexpected action was taken by the professor in order that he might have more time to devote to his writing. His resignation follows that of his wife, Dr. Miriam Blanton Huber, who quit a year ago.

Writing

It was understood that they will unite their efforts in the publication of books. Many of Dr. Huber's writings have already been published and received national recognition. They are now planning to write a series together.

Action to replace Dr. Salisbury has already been taken and an Eastern professor selected, though the administration was reluctant to announce the name at this time.

Surprise Move

The retiring professor came to Tempe in 1934 and has taught in the education department. His resignation came as a complete surprise to the campus, though it was known that he had aspirations to write more extensively.

The replacement of Dr. Salisbury will be the only change in the faculty for next semester other than the acquisition of a teacher for the home management course, according to President Gammage.

Pleiades Pledge Two In Rites

Betty Hotchkiss and Annie Setka were pledged to the Pleiades, honorary women's organization, at rites held on the campus early this morning.

Following the traditional chant, breakfast was served in the home economics department and former pledges were initiated with Miss Ruth Douglass, sponsor, and Rose Revello, member, performing the ceremony.

Hotchkiss

Miss Hotchkiss, who is a member of the Philomathian sorority, president of Matthews hall, and a member of Sigma Tau Delta, national English fraternity, is very active in educational circles on the campus.

Miss Setka is president of the Commerce club, a member of the Newman club, and an officer of Kappa Delta Pi, national education fraternity.

Scholarships Go To Four

The annual Alumni Scholarship awards of fifty dollars were presented last Friday to four graduating seniors.

The recipients of the awards were Joe Cobb, Milne Gregory, Mildred Smith and Jamie Hart who were chosen on the basis of scholarship, leadership and need.

A committee composed of Dr. Grady Gammage, Miss Leona Haulot, Dean J. O. Grimes, Chester Wycliffe (President of the Alumni Association), Gilbert Cady, Marvin Palmer and Gerald Dart, made the selections.

Campbell Not Coach Prospect

Applications Pour In As College Postpones Selection

With Tilden Campbell, the Alabama probability for head coach, definitely stating he was no longer interested, the replacement of Coach Rudy Lavik became a problem in which no early settlement is expected.

Campbell stated, in a letter received on the campus this week, that he was obligated to remain at Alabama and would no longer be interested in the Tempe position. This explained his failure to meet athletic heads here a week ago to discuss terms for the position.

Hobbs Adams

Word has been received from Hobbs Adams, the Southern California assistant coach, implying that he would consider the change. Local authorities were wondering, however, if the contemplated salary would interest him, as it is understood that he gets $5,000 at his present place.

Bobbie Grayson of Stanford, to whom a letter has been sent, had failed to answer to date.

Many Apply

Meanwhile, President Grady Gammage said that applications have continued to pour in. Many of them are from high school coaches, graduates, and football mentors of small colleges.

The college is seeking a man of proven ability at some other college, but according to the president, may be forced to take a high school or small college coach.

Gloomy After The University Win

The two captains, Harold Clemence (left) and Melvin Owens (right), Bulldog leaders, talk over the complete sweep of the U. of A. basketball series with Coach Earl Pomeroy.

Concert Artists Heard In Joint Recital Today

Two highly rated artists, Rose Paidar, mezzo-soprano and May Gilbert Reese, concert pianist, will be heard at the regular assembly in a joint recital, as the third of the Hollywood Musical Arts series.

Miss Paidar, whose voice and charm have won her the approval of music critics, who predict for her a skyrocketing career, received all her training in this country.

The record of her rise in the world of music reads like the "Home Town Girl Makes Good" story.

Miss Reese also received her training in the United States, graduating from the Chicago Musical college and doing post graduate work at the American conservatory. Her teachers and the music critics have highly praised her talents.

Miss Reese's dynamic, almost masculine style of playing, is a threefold manifestation of faultless technical skill, compelling interpretation, and dainty yet vivid presence, it is reported.

These two young artists have left Hollywood and their work there for a tour of the Southwest. Both are known at motion picture studios for their technical skill.

Science Exhibit Is Added By Bateman

After working four years to gather material, Professor George M. Bateman, head of the science department, announces an extensive scientific exhibit located in the lower hall of the science building.

Features in the exhibit include progressive steps in the manufacture of spark plugs, porcelain, oils, and other commercial products. Laboratory utensils and chemicals are displayed along with raw minerals, pigments, and a variety of other things.

Professor Bateman has urged student attention to this free and valuable exhibit.

Courses Added In Commerce Field

Five new courses are to be offered in the commerce department next semester.

Among those never before in the college curriculum are a course in investments under E. O. Dille, who has specialized in the field; secretarial science 162 designed for students having had shorthand in high school, but not able to enter the advanced classes in college; and a course in auditing theory and practice.

One Home Game Scheduled For Fall Football Season As Graduate Manager Negotiates For Four Other Contests

Contract Being Drawn Up For Hardin-Simmons Tilt On November 11; Greeley State Out

A five game home schedule for next year's football season seemed possible this week with the Aggie game definite, a contract being drawn up for the Hardin-Simmons tilt on Armistice day, and negotiations for three other home games entering the final stages.

The University of Arizona definitely cancelled football relation with Tempe for next year, according to word received here last Friday. This action left the September 24 date unfulfilled. The Greeley State negotiations also fell through.

According to present plans, the open dates will be filled in with home contests with LaVerne college of California on either October 8 or 29, Hardin-Simmons of Texas on November 11, California School of Technology (date indefinite) and St. Mary's University of Texas on September 24.

St. Mary's University, the new addition to the tentative list, is a widely known team, having played games last year in Montreal, Canada, Pennsylvania and San Francisco, California.

Mu Rho Alpha To Present Students In Musical Recital Here Thursday

The second in a series of recitals sponsored by the Mu Rho Alpha music fraternity will be presented by pupils of Miss Bess Barkley, Mrs. Hazel Harvey Quaid, and Harry Harelson, Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the college auditorium.

These recitals are open to the student body, faculty, and townspeople. Several others have been planned for the coming semester.

Piano and vocal students who will appear are Elaine Gildea, Benworth Hansen, Eileen Hill, Jewel Mae Jacobson, Louise Payne, Mabel Sharp, and Clara Caldwell.

Also Celestine Tomlinson, Kenneth McKee, Glenn LeBaron, Merrill Millam, and Sherman Stevens.

Myers Says Book Is Part Nonsense

"From These Roots" by Mary Colum is a curious combination of interesting examination and absolute nonsense, according to Dr. Louis M. Myers in his review of that book Monday in the North hall sun room.

The author, an Irish expatriate, sometimes writes prose as symbolistic poetry with a tendency to fall under the influence of beautiful, meaningless words. The book advances the theory that literary criticism is not comparative evaluation but a creative delving into underlying principles.

Since the time of Wordsworth and Coleridge, critics extraordinary, English literature has produced only four persons worthy in Mrs. Colum's estimation of a whole sentence each. The artistic "dead end", now reached by English speaking countries, can only be broken by the development of critics similar to those of the romantic period.

James Thurber in "Let Your Mind Alone," second book reviewed by Dr. Myers, offers an antidote to the contemporary streamlining of personality by easy correspondence lessons and amateur psychoanalysis.

Student Teaching Assignments Made

The final assignments of student teachers for the first quarter of the second semester have been made and posted at the Training school and general bulletin boards, according to Ira D. Payne.

The placement bureau has also announced the placing of five more January graduates: Allen Spett to Eloy; Mrs. Sibyl Watson, Avondale; Mrs. Irene Keller, Buckeye; Rosie Mae Bice, Gilbert, and Roberta Allen, Mesa.

Greater Control Sought In Council

EXECUTIVE BOARD PLANNED BY GROUP

Committee Suggests That Definite Fund Be Obtained

Moving to consolidate more power in the student council, first action of the committee on student constitution revision tentatively placed supervision of major activities under the council, even hall disciplinary problems.

In considering the constituency of the council, the committee suggested that it be composed of the president of the Associated Women Students, four class officers, four elective officers, six representatives from the halls, the president of the inter-sorority and inter-fraternity councils, of the Off-campus women, Off-campus men, and the editor of the STATE PRESS.

New Board

In addition, there will be originated a student-faculty executive board, composed of the student president, secretary or treasurer, two council members, president of the college, the two deans, and two faculty members. The college president will act as an ex-officio member and not vote except in the case of a tie.

Duties of the new board will be executive and judicial and the handling of student-faculty relations.

Through this committee will be handled the hall disciplinary problems, an issue that invoked quite some debate in the council meeting. Dean J. O. Grimes believed that it would be a good move if the students would take the responsibility.

Other suggestions for the new constitution included the supervision of rule-making for the dormitories, control of spending of the departments, of social activities, and appointment of editor and officers of student publications.

Another proposed change was to seek a definite fund from the administration, and an arbitrary amount of $8 per student was set. At the present time, the fund is unstable, the administration releasing the amount it sees fit.

FORUM and AGAINST 'EM

Student Opinion of Current Topics

By Henry Davis

Question—Do you consider student body government vital to a college?

Edwin Scott—No, but it is of benefit to the students.

Walter Weissback—No, things would be run just about the same without it. It could be made better here if more students co-operated.

Carl Hossler—Yes. What would we do without those lovely weekly dances the Associated Student Body provides us?

Thomas Inman—Yes, there should be a governing body over the activities in which the students participate and in our democratic country. Why not let those being governed have a voice in the government?

A. Crandall—No institution has ever been able to get along without some sort of an organized leading group. Are we so good that we can carry on recreational and business activities without student-body government?

R. Greene—Yes! Here we are to be educated. By this experience we can learn more of government—of the type of government we want our nation to have. Would you want the college president to be your dictator?

NOTICE—A meeting of all prospective candidates for the varsity or freshmen tennis team are requested to meet in the men's gym at 12:30 today in order to organize tryouts for the teams.

The new constitution is brief and elastic, serving the purpose of uniting the fraternities and fostering cooperation among them.

Dealing mainly with the organization and work of the inter-fraternity council, the constitution stipulates rules for membership eligibility and pledging. Unless fraternities decree otherwise there will be no regulation of grades for pledging.

To be eligible for initiation in any fraternity a student must have completed 10 hours of work in residence with no lower an index than 2 point. Regarding the dates for pledging, the document instructs the council to fix a date each semester prior to which pledging is illegal.

Tucson Series Is Swept By 'Hot' Bulldog Team

University Cagers Lose First Series In Fifteen Years

CLEMENCE, JONES LEAD INSPIRED DOG ATTACK

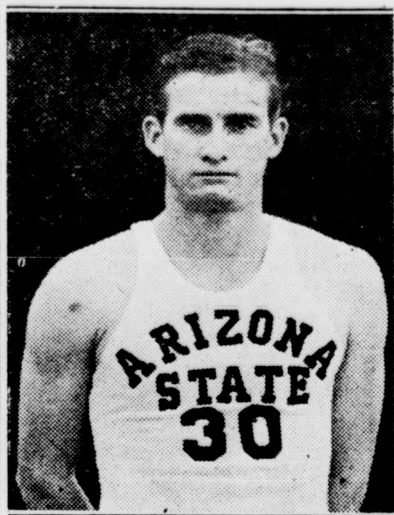

A fifteen year record in the athletic relationship between the University of Arizona Wildcats and the Bulldogs was broken last week-end when the highly touted Tucson team lost two straight basketball games to the superior Tempe team.

The first game of the series went to the Dogs by a score of 52-41 while the second was nip and tuck during the entire second half and won by a score of 37-34.

Rough playing by both teams featured the first game with Peterson of the Dogs and Helm and Conway of the Cats being eliminated on personal fouls. Jackson of the Cats was also put out of the game for unnecessary roughness when he struggled with Gus Glitsos for possession of the ball.

Tempe was on the short end of a score of 26-24 at first but were soon able to gain a lead and go on to win. Harold Clemence, Dog co-captain, was high point man with a total of 14 points while Lorry Di Grazia led the Cats with 10. Di Grazia, who was the leading scorer for his team last year with a total of 8.36 points per game, was held to four in the first half by the guarding of Melvin Owens. In the second half Clyde Phillips took over the guarding duties and held him to two bas-

All Conference?

Harold Clemence, Dog co-captain, who is leading his teammates in scoring and is Tempe's leading contender for All-conference honors.

Clemence and Owens were easily the best men on the floor for either team and if they continue to show the same ability should undoubtedly be selected on the 1938 all-conference team.

In the second game the Dogs showed little of the ability they evidenced the night before and were behind 23-16 at the end of the first half. With the start of the second half, the Dogs showed a new spirit, however, and led by Earl Jones, who scored 12 points in the nine minutes he played, they drew out in front with four minutes to go and were able to hold the lead till the end of the game, which they won 37-34.

Bullpups Lose Two, Win One In Games During Past Week

Splitting a two game series with the University of Arizona frosh, and losing one to the Phoenix Junior college, the Bullpups opened their season for 1938, last week.

Although a win would have helped the standing of the Frosh, losing did not mean so much due to the bears holding a win over the New Mexico Mines, a team which defeated the Texas Miners and the Flagstaff Lumberjacks, both members of the Border conference.

McEwin Stars

Al McEwin of the frosh and Earl Connor of the Bears tied for high point place in the last game with 11 points each. This did not help the frosh to win however, because of the Bears having the second and third high point place. The final score of the game was 36-28. Arnett of the frosh was the outstanding player on the court.

In the University series the Pups won the first game by a score of 43-41 in the final few minutes of play, only to drop the second game by an overwhelming score of 50-36. The Bullpups could not seem to hit the basket during the first half, which gave the Wildkittens a lead they kept the entire game.

Hockey Murals End WAA Season

WAA hockey intra-murals ended last Wednesday afternoon with the Off-campus women taking possession of the championship for this year.

The Off-campus women, captained by Nellie Setka, won their title by tying the West hall team and then defeating the North hall women by a score of one to nothing. It is the first time in three years that the Off-campus group have won the title.

Slants From the PRESS BOX

By DART

After interviewing a member of the college board last week anent the coach possibilities for the college, we buttonholed a member of this year's freshmen team the other night in an effort to get both sides of the affair. From what we gathered, we will attempt to give the opinion of the member as nearly as it was presented to us.

IT SEEMS

that the consensus is against a California coach. For various reasons, the freshmen would rather play next year for some man from the Midwest or the East. "We have all taken a vow," the freshman said, "that if one of us quits college, the others will go too. We are afraid that we wouldn't get along with a California coach, and we would rather not have one. This fellow, Campbell looks all right to me. He would be the ideal man to get if we could, and I think that we would all like him fine."

MOREOVER

the freshmen are loath to break up a combination that worked pretty well this year against the first year men of the state. They are afraid of imported players and want to stick together as a unit. They intend to practice together in the spring, if possible, and polish up a machine in preparation for some of the larger squads of the Conference. It is their feeling that the only way they can win next year is to preserve the unity they are accustomed to.

THERE IS

a certain amount of logic in this feeling. One of the main sources of trouble with the college's football teams in the past was non-cooperation. Players who thought that they were playing football would not play quite so hard when they did not care what happened to the runner. This individuality business has contributed largely to the ruination of Tempe's chances in more than one game. Still there are many arguments on the other side, we will admit.

THE DOUBLE WAXING

that was handed the University of Arizona in basketball last week-end was a source of great joy both to students and alumni.

Ambitious Schedule Is Set For Dog Fighters

Large Turnout Marks Opening Work For Track

With the best turnout in several years, the Bulldog tracksters began training extensively for the dual clash with the University of Arizona squad here, April 9.

Outstanding on the squad is Curtis Burns, who is a crack quarter-miler and of whom much is expected. Bud Arnett holds a high school javelin record and will give Conference opponents plenty of competition.

Loss of several stars by way of graduation will be felt severely in that Howard Wynn, ace dash man; Kenneth Heywood, Conference record holder in the high jump; Burton Moore, distance; Bennett Davis, shot; and Charles Hart, discus, did not return.

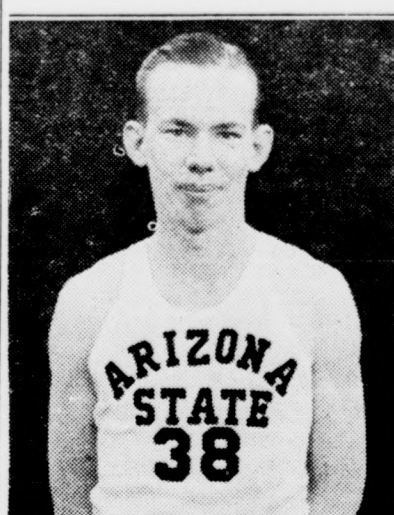

Reported for training are: sprints, Pohle, Fritch, and Aker; quarter, C. Burns, L. Burns, Brady and Meeke; half, Alvarado; mile and two mile, Malloque, Ryland and Hilburn; hurdles, Harvey, Smith, Downey and Arnett; shot, Rockwell; javelin, Arnett and Foster; discus, Kalastro and Harvey; pole vault, Parker and DeKellis; high jump, Parker and Palmer; broad jump, Aker and Smith, this year's captain.

NINA MURPHY TO ADDRESS MEETING

Nina Murphy, physical education director, has been asked to serve as one of the speakers at the American-Southwestern Physical Education Association convention at Salt Lake City during the Easter holidays.

For the past year Miss Murphy has been the state sports chairman and state representative for basketball.

Linksters Work For Loop Crown

For the first time in the history of the Border conference, golf will take a start as a major sport this season. Last year the act was given its approval by the committee composed of one member from each school.

With many divot diggers already touring the valley cow pastures, Coach Earle Pomeroy has high hopes of taking all titles in view this season. To date only one meet has been scheduled, that being with the Border conference schools to be played on May 14 in Tempe. Several other meets are pending, the annual Chandler trophy meet, and a dual meet with the University of Arizona and one with Phoenix Junior college, should be closed in the near future.

Only two lettermen will return to the squad this season, these being, Clare Van Hoorbeke and Wes Hastings. Both of the men round the fields in the low 80's and show promise of holding their own with the best in the sport. To date only two others have shown interest in this sport, these being Robert Swakhammer and Jack Tyler. They also tour the meadows in the 80's and should find a good spot on the Bulldog squad.

All turf-removers are urged to report to Van Hoorbeke as soon as possible so as to give enough time to pick the best four men to represent this school in the above meets.

Bulldog Boxers To Fight Five Teams During 1938 Year

TEMPE CHOSEN FOR COLLEGIATE FIGHT TOURNEY

With their first meet less than a month away, Coach Frank Linhart has been working his boxing team overtime the last two weeks in hope of placing his Arizona State mittmen in the first division again this season.

Meeting several strong teams this season, the Dogs have hopes of winning both the Inter-collegiate title and the Border conference crown this year.

Many new men have reported to the Bulldog coach, some of whom show promise of holding their own against the best the opposing teams can offer this season. With the exception of Tom McGarry, Bobby Hilburn and Barry DeRose the Maroon and Gold team will be as powerful as last year.

126 Pound Class

Coach Linhart has been grooming Howard Herman for the 126 pound class with hopes that he can take over the crown left by Hilburn this season. Herman fought Dick Kerr, the Pacific Coast Inter-collegiate champion last season and barely lost on points in the final round.

In the 155 pound division, Linhart is planning on Leland Johnston to again win the title held by Barry DeRose last season. In his last fight Johnston decided his opponent, Tom Serrano, in a fast three round match.

Heavyweight

For the 175 pound weight, Coach Linhart is developing Carl Hackworth, a freshman who shows promise of filling the big shoes left vacant by Tom (Dynamite) McGarry this season. Although short, Hackworth makes up for it in his punching ability.

To date the 1938 boxing schedule stands:

- February 5—University of Arizona at Tucson.
- February 19—University of New Mexico at Tempe.
- March 2—San Jose State College at Tempe.
- March 12—Flagstaff Teachers at Tempe.
- March 19—Inter-collegiate championship meet at Tempe.

STILL "TOPS"... after 31 Years As a Tobacco Auctioneer

Veteran Jim Edwards tells why tobacco experts prefer Luckies 2 to 1...

"I recently sold 489,000 pounds of tobacco in one 6 1/2 hour day," says Mr. J. N. Edwards of Farmville, North Carolina.

"There was a buyer, naturally, for every one of those 489,000 pounds... But there was as much difference between the best grades and the inferior, as between a pretty girl and a homely one.

"At auction after auction, I've seen Lucky Strike go after the prettiest lots of tobacco. It's no wonder Luckies taste so good. I've smoked them since 1917.

"And another thing... even after yelling out tobacco bids all during a seven hour day, Luckies are still just as easy as ever on my throat."

Only Lucky Strike offers you the finest tobacco plus the throat-protection of the exclusive process "It's Toasted". This process takes out certain irritants found in all tobacco—even the finest.

Men who know tobacco from A to Z—experts like Mr. Edwards—are surely good judges of cigarettes... Sworn records show that, among independent tobacco experts, Luckies have twice as many exclusive smokers as have all the other cigarettes combined.

Gleaned From The Exchange From Other Campii

By DICK SANDOZ

A University of Oregon professor of public speaking has invented a "sit-down" light with which he signals speakers to stop talking. It was stated that this was preferable, of course, to the sounding of the gong, which would awaken the other students.—Collegian.

It's better to be broke than to never have loved at all.—Arkansas Tech.

College men are a lazy lot. They always take their ease. Even when they graduate They do it by degrees.

Students at Kansas State, dissatisfied with college life, have organized "gripe sessions" at which they pan the faculty and air their grievances. Chief complaint of students, as voiced at a recent meeting, is that of compulsory military training.

I'm not so smart, but I can cram. And get a "C" on my exam. But partner, you're not smart at all. You haven't cracked a book this fall; But there you sit in back of me. And crane your neck so you can see. What I'm writing in my book—Well, pal, just take a darn good look. I don't mind if you plagiarize. The half-wit answers I surmise, But must you even dot my "Ts"? —Daily Trojan.

A straw is something which you drink something through two of them—

Graduate Course Bulletin Issued

Announcements for teachers in service will be published in the form of a bulletin, to outline a course of study for the second semester for graduate students, and made available in the near future.

Provisions have been made for graduate training leading to the degree of Master of Arts in education for those interested in (1) the administration and supervision of public schools; (2) high school training; (3) elementary school teaching; (4) educational pursuits other than public school teaching. The requirements are not rigid since the program is based on the needs and interests of the individual student.

SWINGING AROUND THE CAMPUS WITH TILLIE

I think that I shall never see, A soul despicable as me; A Tillie whose hungry eyes are pressed, Against each keyhole to catch the unblessed. A gal who looks for dirt all day, And doesn't give a darn if someone says nay.

THE WORD "BORROW" GOADS Ray McCally into seeing red, for last week he loaned a pair of pants to a good friend (?), and aside from the usual wear and tear, he burned a hole in them, spilled soup on the leg and fell into a creek. (PS—He would like the remnants returned.)

TILLIE SAW A FRANTIC Change in the minutes of the student council being made this week when the prexy slipped and termed a certain social affair as the Lambda Phi beer bust. After the change, the minutes referred to it as a smoker.

A PUZZLER FOR TILLIE is why the president of the Off-campus women does not live off campus because she can manage the affairs of the Off-campus women better if she doesn't live off campus and consequently lives on campus.

OF COURSE NOT LISTED in the catalogue is burglar catching, but Leonard Sharman took the full course when he caught one in his room, wrestled him about the floor for a while, and then turned him over to the authorities.

THE OLD URGE TO WAGER must be pretty strong when the boys sit around the dinner table at a local confectionery and open the game with sugar bowls, bet the salt cellars, and raise a few spoons.

THE COMPOSITE OPINION of a college "bull session", which Tillie listened in on, was that this country should either adopt the Mexican siesta hour or the Jewish sabbatical year (one year's rest every seven) and that a law should be passed to shoot everyone on sight who was seen out of bed before 10 o'clock.

Circulating Library Books

Several books have been added to the library department of the English circulating library. The rental fee for any student is one cent per day.

Newest in the collection are Anthony Adverse by Hervey Allen; Silas Crockett by Mary Ellen Chase; The Street of the Fishing Cat by Jolan Foldes; Summer Time Ends by John Hargrave; Back Street by Fannie Hurst; A Note in Music by Rosamond Lehmann; Personal History by Vincent Sheean; Week-end by Phillip Strong; Vanessa by Hugh Walpole, and My Country and My People by Lin Yutang.

Draper Will Speak At 4-H Leaders Meet

Mr. Fred Draper, county agent, will speak on "The Training of a Judging Team". Following the speech he will lead a discussion on his demonstration.

Facing Life On Our Campus V. Concerning Campus Etiquette.

This is the fifth of a series of articles by Ruth Douglass, Home Economics head.

As I walk about our campus day after day I find myself repeatedly a victim of two rather distinct, yet diverse impressions concerning student behavior.

First of all, I am constantly aware of the friendliness of our students. Your cordial "Hello", your sincere and contagious smiles, would serve to buoy up most any depressed or irritable spirit. This friendliness is impressive because of its constancy and because of its sincerity. It rather typifies our student feeling and colors the personality of our entire student body. It is truly something of which to be proud and in which to find enjoyment. We may rightfully be called "a friendly college."

Bad Impressions

The second impression does not serve as a daily inspiration. Rather it tends to disgust and aggravate. This feeling is created by the failure of many of our students to give heed to some of the fundamental rules of etiquette. I observe doors swung carelessly into the face of the second person about to enter them. I watch college girls carrying heavy loads across the campus without offer of assistance from the friends they pass enroute.

More than once I have passed a group of visiting students all of whom have spoken to me in the friendliest manner and yet not one of them thought to step aside so that I would not be forced to step off the sidewalk to get around the group. Such neglects annoy and make some of us more than a little ashamed.

Not Silly Ideas

Good manners are not merely superficial expressions, or silly ideas about how to do things in social gatherings. They are based on an ethical principle—the idea of consideration for others.

"Rules of etiquette" might better be called "expressions of thoughtfulness". They are the outward and visible signs of your feelings toward your friends and associates. These habits of action have become rules of etiquette only because they have been tested and found to be sound as expressions of good-will and consideration. Is not thoughtfulness of others equally as important as friendliness to others? Might we all not benefit from "refinement of conduct" on our campus?

Press Staff To Inaugurate Teas

Members of the STATE PRESS staff will this semester re-establish the policy of having weekly teas in the PRESS office each Monday from 4 until 5:30 o'clock.

The purpose of the teas is to further ideas for the paper, to discuss the past issue, and to plan policies for improvement.

Those who will attend the first in the series next Monday afternoon are President Grady Gammage, Dean J. O. Grimes, Mr. C. E. Southern and his office staff, Gerald Dart, student body president, the annual staff, Coach Rudy Lavik and the PRESS staff.
