

Language Week Begins Sunday

Unusual entertainment and a variety of activities are offered free in observance of National Foreign Language Week, Feb. 15-21.

NFL week, sponsored by Alpha Mu Gamma, national honor society for foreign language students, will consist of a candy sale, variety show, exhibits, radio programs and a foreign language forum. A floor show and dinner in the Memorial Union cafeteria Feb. 22 at 5 p.m. will conclude the week.

The candy sale is sponsored by the local Alpha Mu Gamma chapter, of which Bertha Barnett is president and Dr. Irma Wilson, professor of Spanish, is sponsor. The proceeds will go to the scholarship fund of the chapter and the national organization.

The variety show will consist of Spanish dances by the Eddie Fernandez Dancers, Hebrew and Israeli folk songs by Mrs. Merriam Root, Alpine and folk dances by the Phoenix German Club, and Scottish bag-pipe, drums and dances by Major N. Sterling Briggs.

La Liga Panamericana and Los Conquistadores will sponsor radio programs on KIFN, Phoenix Spanish radio station, Feb. 17-19, between 2 and 5 p.m.

Three hundred and seventy-five Arizona high school students from 18 schools are expected to attend the Foreign Language Forum, Saturday, Feb. 21.

Mike Reilly is president of the Foreign Language Club, and Larry Smith is program committee chairman. Edwin P. Grobe, assistant professor of German and French, is sponsor.

Mrs. Ida Ruth Davis is president of the French Club. Alexis Caron, instructor in French, is sponsor.

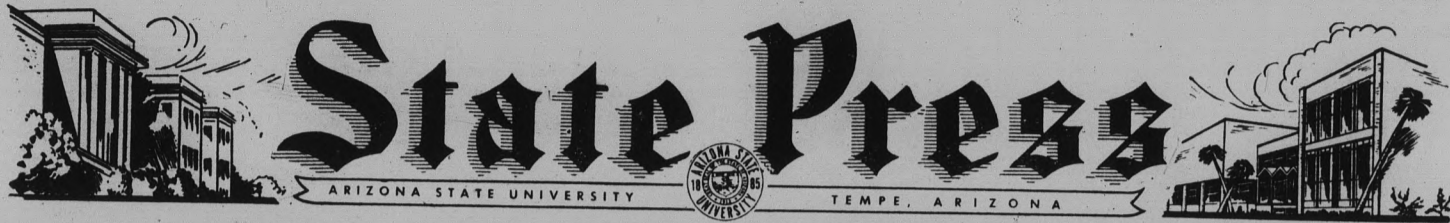

Dr. Alfred Von der Heydt, assistant professor of German, sponsors the German Club.

Astrid Durazo is president of La Liga Panamericana, which is co-sponsored by Drs. Mary J. Escudero, associate professor of Spanish, and Quino Martinez, professor of Spanish.

Los Conquistadores, Frank Hernandez president, is sponsored by Dr. Irma Wilson, professor of Spanish.

Dr. Mary J. Escudero, chairman of the local and state chapters of Alpha Mu Gamma said the aim of foreign language week is to bring before the public the values of languages in general education. She stated, "All these activities carry a big message towards brotherhood and world understanding."

OSU Expert To Address A-V Meeting

Dr. Edgar Dale will be the dinner speaker at the day-long spring conference of the Arizona Association of Audio-Visual Education Friday.

"The Long Look Ahead" is the subject of the speech at the 7 p.m. dinner in the Memorial Union.

Professor of Education at Ohio State U and a nationally recognized authority on the use of audio-visual aids in teaching, Dr. Dale is the author of a number of books in the teaching field. One, "Audio-Visual Methods in Teaching," is a text book for upper class and graduate students taking audio-visual aids in education courses at ASU.

Now chairman of the motion picture committee of the National congress of Parents and Teachers, Dr. Dale served during World War II as head of the coordination division, Bureau of Motion Pictures, Office of War Information.

Taliesin Artist's Work Displayed

The works of Eugene Masselink are being exhibited in the MU lower lounge until Feb. 28.

The collection, "Studies and Abstractions for Integral Ornament," includes models of murals and decorative panels which have been used in structural designs. Studies in pastel, decorative screens and photographs of the buildings for which the art work was done also are included in the exhibit.

Since 1933 Masselink has been associated with the Taliesin Fellowship, an architectural, educational and cultural foundation which carries on its work at Spring Green, Wis., and Taliesin West, Ariz.

Masselink has designed and executed murals, screens and wall panels for buildings designed by Frank Lloyd Wright, and he has been Wright's secretary.

The exhibit, open to the public, is sponsored by the Art department and the Cultural Affairs board.

DRESS REHEARSAL . . . of Flamenco dancers for their part in Foreign Language Week is watched by members of the Foreign Language Council.

HAWAII CALLS

Reservations Open At 'U'

Air and steamship accommodations have been set on all major lines for the 1959 summer session at the University of Hawaii.

This year's session will convene June 21st through Aug. 1st, Dr. Robert E. Cralle, Hawaii, director of the University study tour, announced.

On the agenda for the six week session are dinner dances, island trips, beach parties, fashion shows plus the many courses offered by the University of Hawaii's faculty. Credits earned are transferable to Mainland colleges.

Reservations for travel and enrollment at the University program are now being accepted. Special student and teacher package rates for the 54-day summer session begin at $495. Complete information about the program is available by writing Dr. Robert E. Cralle, University Study Tour, 3305 Wilshire Blvd., Los Angeles 5, Calif.

Junior Class Council members are urged to meet Tuesday at 7 p.m. in the MU. Discussion will cover the coming western dance and the MU Birthday Party.

'Universe' Is Party Theme

"University of the Universe" is the theme for this year's Memorial Union Birthday Party. The Activities Coordination Board set March 21 as the date.

The class councils will work with the Cultural Affairs committee, Student-Faculty and Social boards in decorating the various sections of the MU.

Each committee will work on a different aspect of the solar system. Plans for decorating the Den and Clancy's Bar in the outer space theme are being considered.

A total of 26 musicians making up three bands will play during the party in the ballroom, Clancy's and the Devil's Den.

Leroy Whitson, activities vice president of ASASU, has asked that student interested in working on the party contact him at the Associated Students office in the Union.

Cool Cats, Not Black, Will Howl

On Friday the 13th black cats traditionally send cool shivers up and down the spines of the superstitious.

However, ASU cool cats will get their shivers tonight from the strictly non-traditional sounds laid down by some of the Valley's best instrumentalists in a jam session in Clancy's in the MU from 7:30 to 9.

In addition to the jam session, the Social Board will sponsor a second "At Home with Maverick" in the MU upper lounge Sunday from 8:30 to 10:30 p.m. Free refreshments will be served.

Date Night is being inaugurated as part of games room activities Thursday evening. Purpose of Date Night is to acquaint campus co-eds with the games room in the MU basement.

Thursday from 7:30 to 10 p.m., male students can use the ping-pong or pool tables free, if they are accompanied by a co-ed.

AWS-AMS Urge Donations For All-Out Blood Campaign

AMS and AWS are urging ASU students to go all out for the Campus Blood Drive, Feb. 17-19 at the Student Health Service.

Students who donate blood during the drive will receive an insurance policy guaranteeing receipt of, or payment for, all the blood they may need for one year anywhere in the United States, Mexico or Canada.

The drive has been formed to donate blood to the Veteran's Administration Hospital. Ordinarily, a pint of blood costs a veteran $20.

Permission cards for students under 21, wishing to donate blood, will be distributed in dorms and Greek houses. Parental signature is required for minors, if not married or in the service.

AWS is offering a trophy to the dorm, fraternity or sorority with the highest percentage of donors.

Magic For '13th' Featured Tonight

Magic for Friday the 13th will highlight the Faculty-Student dinner tonight from 5 to 7:30 in the MU.

Officers of Greek organizations and dorms will be special guests, as Lee Webb presents the magic show.

Reservations must be made by noon today at the MU information desk. Meal tickets will be honored.

ASU Educators Present Show 'Viewpoints' On TV Saturdays

A new ASU TV series, "Viewpoints on TV", is presented each Saturday from 5:30 to 6 p.m. The program is produced and directed by members of the ASU division of Behavioral and Social Sciences. Dr. Karl H. Dannenfeldt, head of the division, is moderator.

Purpose of the program is to assist individuals in formulating their own viewpoints on political, world and domestic problems.

Topic for this week's program is "Is the Berlin Crisis Insoluble?". Panelists are: Wallace Adams, assistant professor of history; Dr. Heinz Hink assistant professor of Political Science, and Dr. Robert Coonrod, chairman of the department of History and Political Science.

Other subjects to be discussed in future programs include "Why Anti-Americanism?" "What's Taking the Place of the Family?" "Why War?" "Population Pressure" and "The Changing Status of Women."

Faculty Members To Meet Today

Faculty members will attend a general meeting at 4 p.m. this afternoon in BA 203.

Guest speaker Dr. Edgar Dale will talk on "How Can Audio-Visual Materials Be Used to Improve College Instruction?"

Dr. Dale is the featured speaker at the annual Conference of the Arizona Association of Audio-Visual Education.

Department Announces Conference

The theme for the Annual Spring Conference sponsored by the Education department is "Communication: The Pursuit of Understanding."

The conference will be held February 20 and 21. Part of the conference will be held on campus and the rest in Phoenix.

Several of the conference meetings are a part of the Western Radio and Television Conference, being held at same time.

Topics to be covered by the conference will be "Classroom Use of Radio Television," "Instructional TV," "Communication: A Basis For Understanding," "Helping Children Grow Up," "Broadcasting in Other Lands," and "What's New?"

Conference speaker will be Dr. Darrell Mase, dean of the College of Health Related Services at the University of Florida.

Stout To Speak At Atlantic City

"Teenagers' Opinions on Their Bringing Up" is the title of Dr. Irving W. Stout's address to the American Educational Research Association in Atlantic City, N. J., Tuesday.

Dr. Stout is dean of the ASU Graduate College.

AERA is the research agency of the National Education Association. It will be meeting in conjunction with the annual convention of the American Association of School Administrators.

Dean Stout, ASU's director of Graduate Study since 1953, is co-author of four books in the child development and education field: "These Well-Adjusted Children," "The Discipline of Well-Adjusted Children," "Teacher-Parent Interviews" and "Telling Parents about Their Schools."

Phoenix Concert Scheduled Feb. 24

The Phoenix Symphony Orchestra has scheduled a concert for Feb. 24, 8:30 p.m. at Phoenix Union High School.

The program will include Ravel's "Introduction and Allegro for Harp and Orchestra; Liszt's "2nd Piano Concerto in A," played by Samuel Lipman; and Moussorgsky's "Pictures at an Exhibition." Dr. Leslie Hodge will conduct.

Reserved seats are $1.25 and up. Reservations may be made through the Phoenix Symphony office, 24 W. Lynwood, or by calling AL 8-8309.

"Doesn't he know they have cannons to do that sort of thing?"

By PETEY OLMSTED

Seems a shame so many of you will have to miss the show Monday evening in the MU ballroom.

Beginning at 7:30, dances from 19th century Spain, German folk dances, Scottish bagpipe music, and a choreographed impression of a bullfight will be part of the program free to students.

Hebrew and Israeli folk songs, with guitar accompaniment, are also planned.

The program kicks off Foreign Language Week at ASU, a week packed with unusual foreign exhibits and programs, sponsored by Alpha Mu Gamma, foreign language honorary.

Lots of hard work has gone into the week's agenda. Students with Monday evening free couldn't find a better free show of talent.

Wish more of you could be there, but sorority and fraternity meetings must begin on time.

The following discourse is a cooperative effort by two of the most effervescent optimists ever to grace the State Press office, Vic Figarelli and Les Leiter:

Oh no! Tomorrow's Valentine's Day again!

That's the glorious day when you open your mailbox, thumb through insignificant envelopes ranging from a threatening letter from the public library advising you to return your copy to 'Peyton Place' immediately since it is now eleven months overdue, a kindly note from your draft board notifying you of your 1-A classification, to a message from the Cancer Society congratulating you on the positive results of the X-Ray test you took last October.

Quickly tear open the small envelope with lipstick smudges on the back and read:

"Roses are red, violets are blue, when I pass the stockyard I think of you."

"Holy cow," you lament, "the old girl remembered." Your mind drifts back to another Valentine's Day at the stockyards when you first saw her — loading sides of beef onto cattle trucks. You experienced a throbbing sensation in your aorta and you knew right then it was love.

Either that or the peanut butter and lox sandwich you had for breakfast...

To the Editor:

I have been watching the activity in your column regarding the timeliness of news stories. I'm referring to the recent deaths of students in traffic accidents, in particular.

I want you to know the complete letdown and sinking I experienced, when I read the "editor's" infantile reply to two serious and legitimate letters last Wednesday.

Having valued the friendship of one of the students killed, it's hard to stand by and watch a seemingly immature person use this newspaper to display her lack of discretion.

BARTON KANZLER

EDITORIALLY SPEAKING —

Universal Tool

One day about three years ago a number of the members of the present State Press staff were taking a course in reporting. The teacher that morning told us to take five minutes to think, then to write in a word or a phrase what we considered the most important invention Man ever made.

We still remember how the answers ran... The wheel... The wireless... Anesthesia... Surgical techniques... The alphabet.

The teacher agreed most of them were pretty good. But none was right. Then, when he told us what he considered the correct answer, we launched a furious bull session.

Teacher won, of course. He proved, so that none of us ever has forgotten, that language is Man's most important invention.

Naturally, with sophomore enthusiasm, we proclaimed language is not an invention. But he showed us it is. "Language is an arbitrary system of vocal symbols accepted by a given society for the purpose of communication."

Without language, we saw, each person would have to learn whatever he learned almost entirely by trial and error. A frightening and almost incomprehensible thought! Civilization would be almost nil if it were not for Man's ability to communicate with his fellows.

Too frequently, however, this ability is limited to members of a person's own language community. Failure to understand another person's language leads to basic problems in semantics, which, in turn, can and often do lead to misunderstandings of international proportions.

Some linguists contend there never will be an international language, although it is almost universally agreed such a language would make the world a much pleasanter and more peaceful place to live. However, this goal would be a lot closer to attainment if every person in the world understood at least two or three of the world's more commonly spoken languages.

The State Press extends hearty congratulations to Alpha Mu Gamma, national honor society for students of foreign languages; to Dr. Irma Wilson, its sponsor; to Dr. Mary Escudero, faculty chairman of Foreign Language Week; and to all who have worked to focus the attention of the ASU community on the importance of foreign languages.

It is through efforts such as that that the world can hope for an eventual improvement in Man's ability to live with his fellow man.

Demands on and obligations same subject carried in this edition, I frequently will plead guilty to Mr. Kanzler's charges of immaturity, lack of discretion, and even infantilism. I'm perfectly capable of being any and all of them on occasion.

In this instance, however, I must plead not guilty. Recently nine New York newspapers were forced to suspend publication because of a strike by their carriers and distributors. When they resumed publication, their first issues carried background material of news situations still current. They filled in the gaps of such continuing news stories as the Cuba revolt, for instance, so their readers would have a better understanding of what was going on at the time of the current edition.

Their obituary columns made no attempt to go back and catch up. If these experienced, qualified editors and publishers are immature, indiscreet and infantile, I am happy to be counted as one of their company. The State Press, in its first edition after semester break, ran a summary of ASU basketball news that had happened during the holiday because the Border Conference competition is a continuing story; for our readers to be informed of the significance of current games, it was necessary that they know what happened during the interval when the State Press was not published.

Thus, the function of the newspaper has become more one of providing background, continuity and development than initial coverage. Russia invades West Berlin... Castro captures Havana... Spot news flashes over the air almost immediately after the event has taken place. It is the newspaper's job to make spot news understandable to the public after the public has heard the bald fact over the air.

In the case in point, the deaths of the ASU students during the semester break were covered fully by newspapers then in publication, as well as by radio and TV. By the time the State Press resumed normal publication there was nothing else to be said.

Here we will let the matter rest. In reply to the letter on the rest.

The less you know about a subject, the easier it is to criticize. (See today's cartoon by Ted Miller.)

Here we will let the matter rest. In reply to the letter on the rest.

Management, Rodeo Clubs Begin Membership Drives

By LEONA STAPLEY

Students in economics, business administration, engineering and any others interested in the art and science of management are invited to join the Management Club during their membership drive, from now until Feb. 20. Members will be on the first floor of the BA building, outside the deans' offices, for those interested. Also, interested students may see Francis Kelly in BA 102D.

Anyone interested in entering the Rodeo on April 18 and 19, sponsored by the Rodeo club, must join the club by March 4 in order to be eligible. Colleges from Calif., Wash. Ore., Idaho, and Arizona will enter teams.

The Rodeo Club meets Wednesday.

Members of Liga Panamericana will participate in a panel discussion on the topic of teaching Spanish in the Arizona elementary schools during Foreign Language Week, Feb. 15-21. It will be presented over the local Spanish radio station, KIFN, and the campus station, KASN. Members participating in the discussion are Darryl Morrison, Mickey Acosta, Paul Juarez, Francis Flajnik, Astrid Durazo and Miriam Iglehart. Los Conquistadores will furnish program music.

Foreign Language Week will be discussed at La Liga Panamericana's meeting Tuesday at 3:30 p.m. in Main 105. Co-sponsor of the club, Dr. Mary J. Escudero, is Arizona chairman for the week.

Problems facing primary teachers will be discussed by Dr. Keith Perkins, child psychologist consultant, at a meeting of the Association for Childhood Education, Monday at 3:45 p.m. in Education Annex 2, room 4. Kindergarten-primary and elementary school education majors are invited.

ASU's Industrial Arts club awaits notification of affiliation with the national organization, the American Industrial Arts Association.

Regular club meetings are on the first Wednesday and third Thursday of every month.

The Arizona State chapter of Alpha Mu Gamma, National Foreign Language Honorary, will be selling candy today through Feb. 21 from 11:30 to 1:30 in dormitories and in front of Old Main. Proceeds will furnish posters on campus advertising National Foreign Language Week, Feb. 15-21, and will go toward the local chapter's donation to a national Alpha Mu Gamma scholarship for foreign language students.

Do You Think for Yourself? (ANSWER THESE QUESTIONS AND FIND OUT!*)

- 1. If you were about to buy an automobile, would you (A) study the road-test reports in the magazines, or (B) select the car that looks best to you?
2. When confronted with a menu with lots of foreign terms, do you (A) ask what is in each dish, or (B) accept the waiter's recommendation?
3. When invited to play an unfamiliar game, do you (A) refuse to play until you fully understand the rules, or (B) pick up the rules as you go along?
4. When invited to a party, do you (A) accept, hoping to enjoy yourself no matter who attends, or (B) try to learn who will be there before accepting?
5. In buying a radio, would you be influenced more by (A) low price, or (B) product features despite a slightly higher price?
6. When deciding on what movie to see, do you usually prefer films that (A) are gay and diverting, or (B) have a social message?
7. When you run into a foreign phrase in a textbook, do you first (A) head for a dictionary to find the meaning, or (B) try to dope out the meaning yourself?
8. When reading the paper, do you (A) catch yourself concentrating on scandal stories, or (B) spend your time on news and editorial matter?
9. In choosing a filter cigarette, (A) are you easily swayed by bold claims, or (B) do you think for yourself and stick by your decision?

If you're the kind of person who thinks for yourself . . . you use judgment in your choice of cigarettes, as in everything else. Men and women who think for themselves usually smoke VICEROY. Their reason? Best in the world. They know that only VICEROY has a thinking man's filter and a smoking man's taste.

The Man Who Thinks for Himself Knows — ONLY VICEROY HAS A THINKING MAN'S FILTER . . . A SMOKING MAN'S TASTE!

Globetrotters Triumph, 77-69

An overflow crowd of 4500 fans squeezed themselves into Sun Devil Gym Wednesday night to watch the renowned Harlem Globetrotter clown to a 77-69 victory over the classy but overmatched Hawaiian 50th-Staters.

Featured attraction for the Trotters was fantastic Wilt

Chamberlain, 3-year high school All-American at Philadelphia's Overbrook HS, and later national scoring leader at Kansas.

Known as the "Big Dipper" or "Wilt the Stilt", Chamberlain scored a point a minute for his 30-minute stint.

IMPS IN ACTION

Vincent AFB, EAJC Next

Arizona State's Sun Imps try to break a two-game losing streak tomorrow in a 6:15 p.m. engagement with Vincent Air Force Base at Sun Devil Gym. Monday night the Imps get their first look at the tall Eastern Arizona Junior College Gila Monsters in another varsity preliminary.

The ASU frosh cage fortunes have suffered in the past two weeks, the Imps losing to Phoenix College and the University of Arizona Wildkittens.

Vincent's Airmen possess both speed and rebounding ability. Their chief offensive threats are Huey Phillips, Jim

Walls and John Jones.

Coach Fanny Markham's group has found the going easy against other service teams, having beaten Williams and Luke twice and Fort Huachuca once.

EAJC's Gila Monsters are a tall, rugged bunch, whose defense is rated in the top ten among the nation's junior colleges. In two meetings with Phoenix College, the Monsters succumbed both times, but gave the Bruins fits. One game was decided in overtime. PC has beaten the Imps twice.

Con Bateman, 5-10 guard, has been EAJC's leading scorer all year, and a pair of 6-4 forwards, Gary Phillips and Charlie Bearup, handle the rebounding chores.

Markham will go with his regular starters: Harvey Darche and Ollie Payne, forwards; Mike McConnell, center, and Les Kuhn and Chico Morrison, guards.

Payne Leading Imp Scorers

Four Arizona State Sun Imp cagers are averaging in double figures, with Ollie Payne leading at 15.2 points per game.

Mike McConnell is averaging 14.2, Chico Morrison, 12.5, and Harvey Darche rounds out the quartet at 12.4.

The team's scoring average has slumped considerably since they scored 95 points in beating Flagstaff Jan. 17. Since then, the Imps have averaged slightly better than 66 points per game. Overall, they are scoring 76.0 per game.

Darche and McConnell are fighting a tight battle for rebounding honors, Darche at present leading, 13.2 to 13.1 rebounds per game.

Morrison continues to lead in the accuracy department, having sunk 63 of 138 field goal attempts for a .456 percentage. His nearest competitor is McConnell, with 74 of 178 and a .416 pct.

Morrison is also tops in the free throw department, having converted 38 of 53, a .717 pct. McConnell is five percentage points away at .712, with 42 conversions out of 59 attempts.

As a team, the Sun Imps are shooting at slightly better than 44 per cent in field goal accuracy.

The AS crew has been raking in the rebounds at an average of 57 per game.

The Border Conference basketball race is heading for the blue chips stage, as Ned Wulk's league-leading Sun Devils face with a pair of home court challenges tomorrow and Monday.

Insurance for the local five would best come in the form of a packed gym, something like the crowd that attended the Globetrotters' appearance Wednesday night.

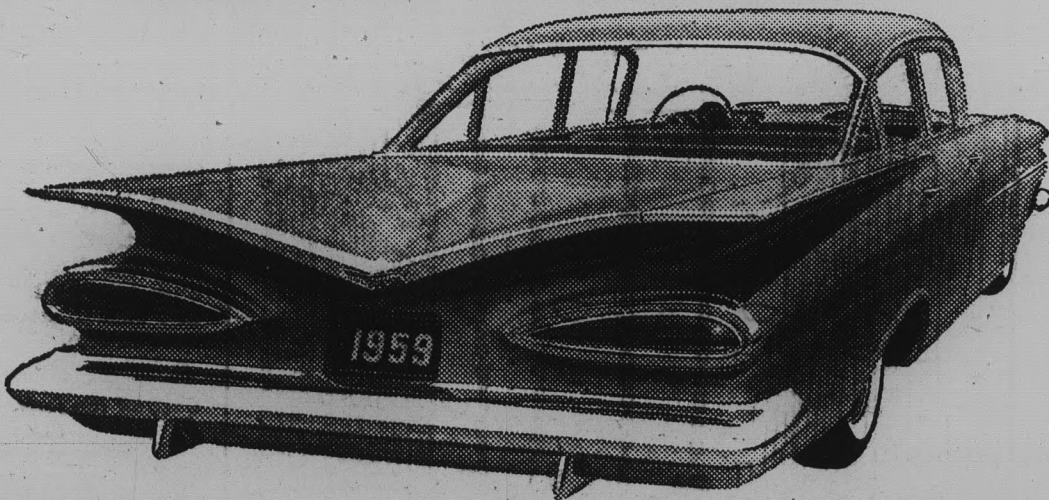

If you don't see the boys in action this weekend, you'll have only one more chance, since ASU plays four of its last five games on the road. That last home game will be played Wednesday, Feb. 25, against Pepperdine.

University of Arizona basketball coach Fred Enke had his neck stretched in effigy earlier this week after his team lost its 18th straight game.

Not many people know about it, but the same thing happened a couple of weeks ago, when the Tucson constabulary was called out at 7 a.m. to remove an Enke effigy from a tall tree on campus.

A fairly reliable source, the lookout on the first job, informed me that a larger crowd would see the next hanging, since they were going to use Memorial Union as their gallops. I didn't believe him, but obviously, he kept his word.

CHEVY'S NEW HI-THRIFT 6

More miles are back in a gallon of regular-grade gas—up to 10% more—and Chevy's new Hi-Thrift 6 engine puts them there. It also gives you more "git" in the speeds you drive the most.

Here's an engine that always seems able to coax extra miles out of a tank of regular-grade gas. In fact, if you're one of those drivers who keep tab on things like gas mileage, you'll soon see for yourself that this new Hi-Thrift 6 gets up to 10% more miles a gallon.

Another thing you'll like about this 135-h.p. 6 is the extra pep it gives you for passing and climbing hills. This is due to higher torque at normal speeds.

It may be hard to believe anything that looks and moves like this '59 Chevy can be such a stickler for economy. But—whether you pick the Hi-Thrift 6 or a vim-packed V8—this is just one more reason Chevy's the car that's wanted for all its worth. Stop by your dealer's and see.

The smart switch is to the '59 Chevy!

Globetrotters Triumph, 77-69

An overflow crowd of 4500 fans squeezed themselves into Sun Devil Gym Wednesday night to watch the renowned Harlem Globetrotter clown to a 77-69 victory over the classy but overmatched Hawaiian 50th-Staters.

Featured attraction for the Trotters was fantastic Wilt

Chamberlain, 3-year high school All-American at Philadelphia's Overbrook HS, and later national scoring leader at Kansas.

Known as the "Big Dipper" or "Wilt the Stilt", Chamberlain scored a point a minute for his 30-minute stint.

IMPS IN ACTION

Vincent AFB, EAJC Next

Arizona State's Sun Imps try to break a two-game losing streak tomorrow in a 6:15 p.m. engagement with Vincent Air Force Base at Sun Devil Gym. Monday night the Imps get their first look at the tall Eastern Arizona Junior College Gila Monsters in another varsity preliminary.

The ASU frosh cage fortunes have suffered in the past two weeks, the Imps losing to Phoenix College and the University of Arizona Wildkittens.

Vincent's Airmen possess both speed and rebounding ability. Their chief offensive threats are Huey Phillips, Jim

Walls and John Jones.
