

Homecoming Week Preparations Set

Parents To Visit ASU; Campus Activities Slated For Day-Long Program

By TOM WING

ASU Parents Day steering committee, under the chairmanship of Steve Putman, is finalizing plans for the Oct. 27 arrival of Moms and Dads on Campus.

Invitations have been mailed to parents of students who addressed envelopes during semester registration, and the day's program is completed, according to Doug Zimmerman, coordination chairman.

PARENTS DAY will begin with registration of parents at 9:30 a.m. in the Devil's Den Patio.

Two sophomore honorary groups, Spurs and Sophos, under the chairmanship of Beth Mitchell and Hank Keneally, will direct registration.

Spurs and Sophos also will sell "mums for mom" to be worn by mothers on campus during the day.

A buffet luncheon will be offered at 12:15 p.m. in the MU ballroom, followed by introduction of the deans of the colleges and the university administration at a special assembly at 1:30 p.m.

PRESIDENT G. Homer Durham will address the assembly moderated by Doug Zimmerman.

Tentative plans call for Executive Vice-President William J. Burke to speak at this time too.

Mary Avery, AWS representative, is in charge of the assembly.

At 2:30 there will be a reception in the MU ballroom and guided tours of the campus.

Parents will be able to meet the deans and university administrators at the reception and tour the campus afterwards.

The reception is being arranged by the Freshman Hostesses, and Paul Cottrell and Bob Bramlet are in charge of the tours.

PARENTS MAY visit student living quarters from 4-5:30. Dormitories, fraternity and sorority houses and religious centers will be open for visitors.

Daryll Winn and Dick Peterson are in charge of this activity.

Special half-time ceremonies, honoring parents, during the football game will be directed by Tom Whitelock.

Parents with the largest number of students attending ASU and parents who have traveled the longest distance to attend Parents Day will be honored.

The after-game dance, beginning at 10 p.m. in the MU ballroom, will be the final activity of the day.

Rick Lavis is in charge of invitations and publicity of Parents Day.

Colds Still Plague ASU

ASU students are still coughing, sneezing and sniffing, as the rate of upper respiratory infection remains nearly the same as in previous weeks.

Mrs. Elaine McFarland, director of student health service, said October appears to be the peak month for colds.

King, Queen Petitions Due

Petitions for Homecoming king and queen are due by 4 p.m. Friday in the ASASU secretary's office in the MU.

A photograph and information sheet must accompany each candidate's petition.

King and queen candidates must have either junior or senior class standing with at least a 2.00 cumulative index preceding the time of candidacy.

Candidates will be notified when the meeting for campaign rules will take place.

Homecoming week will begin this year with the king and queen elections Oct. 25.

The elections will be preceded by two days of campaigning, in which any type of posters, banners and props may be used, according to the Homecoming steering committee.

Crowning of the king and queen will be the highlight of a dance in the MU ballroom Oct. 20.

Chairmen of the dance and coronation are Pam Lichety and Mary Swartztoean.

Theme Contest Deadline Today

By ROSS FISH

Preparation for ASU's 1962 Homecoming week, Oct. 25-Nov. 4, is well on its way, according to steering committee chairmen Leslie Farnsworth and Bob Frennd.

To harmonize with the over-all homecoming theme, "Famous Flicks," all decorations are to be based upon past or present motion pictures.

Theme entries for the decorations contest are due today at 4 p.m. in the ASASU secretary's office, after which production of the "Famous Flicks" decorations may begin immediately.

THE steering committee has recommended that the idea of football be included in the composition of decorations to make them more pertinent to homecoming.

Prominent personalities from the Valley will judge the decorations on both day and night appearances.

Six areas of imagination will be considered by the judging committee.

These include originality, animation, theme, design, effort and color.

Conformity to theme, neatness and total effect will also have influence.

EACH GROUP building a decoration has a maximum $175 expense account including all donations.

Accounts must be turned in to the office of the ASASU secretary by 4 p.m. on Nov. 2.

Maximum specifications for decorations of organizations are 30 ft. long, 10 ft. wide and 20 ft. high.

Dormitories will be allotted larger decoration dimensions: 50 ft. long, 20 ft. wide and 20 ft. high.

ANY GROUP may petition for an extension of the specifications.

No professional aid may be used in constructing the homecoming decorations. If such help is received, the sponsor will automatically be disqualified.

Homecoming decorations chairman Stan Wood is responsible for enforcing the decorations rules.

Any problems regarding decorations should be directed to Wood.

Decorations and subcommittee chairmen are Bobbie Szeze-pankowski, Wayne Strebe and Sharon Habib.

$386,091 In Contracts Okayed By Regents Board

The Board of Regents Saturday ratified eight contracts for construction at ASU totaling $386,091.

A $160,000 contract for erection of dairy, poultry and horticulture facilities at the ASU farm was awarded to William S. Porter Construction Co. of Mesa.

Modifications of the Physical Education building, a $99,329 contract, went to Taneyhill & Thomas of Phoenix.

CONSTRUCTION of tennis and basketball courts was awarded to Burr & Sons of Mesa in a $17,153 contract.

Installation of an underground conduit between College and Orange streets and the Business Administration building was awarded to Washburn Electric of Phoenix in an $8,720 contract.

Renovation of toilet facilities in East Hall, a $10,987 contract, was awarded to Elmer Schler of Phoenix.

Installation of air conditioning in the Home Economics building, $33,962, was awarded to Valley Sheet Metal Co. of Phoenix.

ADDITIONS and alterations of the gymnasium annex will be done by Valcon Builders of Phoenix in a $19,605 contract.

Construction of three farm houses at the ASU farm was awarded to CSE General Contractors of Phoenix in a $36,334 contract.

In other action, the regents awarded a $13,747.40 contract to Wheat Nursery of Phoenix and Mesa for landscaping and site improvements for the 10 fraternities of Alpha Drive.

THEY ALSO awarded a net contract of $1,361,840 to Manhattan Dickman of Phoenix,

Guitarists Open Series

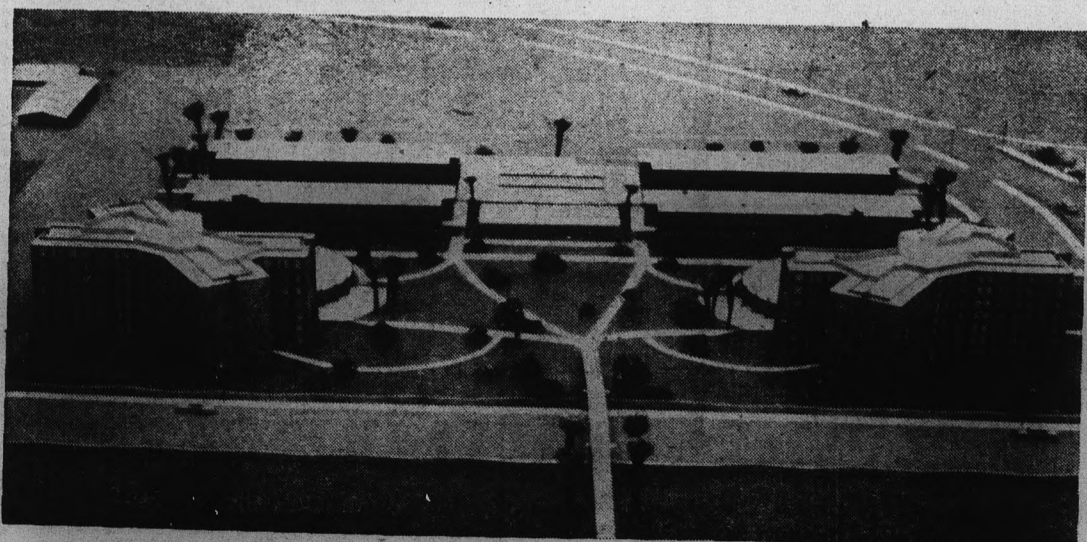

Celestino Romero and Sons, classical and flamenco guitarists, will appear on campus at 8:15 tonight in the MU ballroom.

The guitarists are appearing at ASU as part of the Concert and Lecture Series, which opens tonight.

The Romeros are often called the royal family of the guitar.

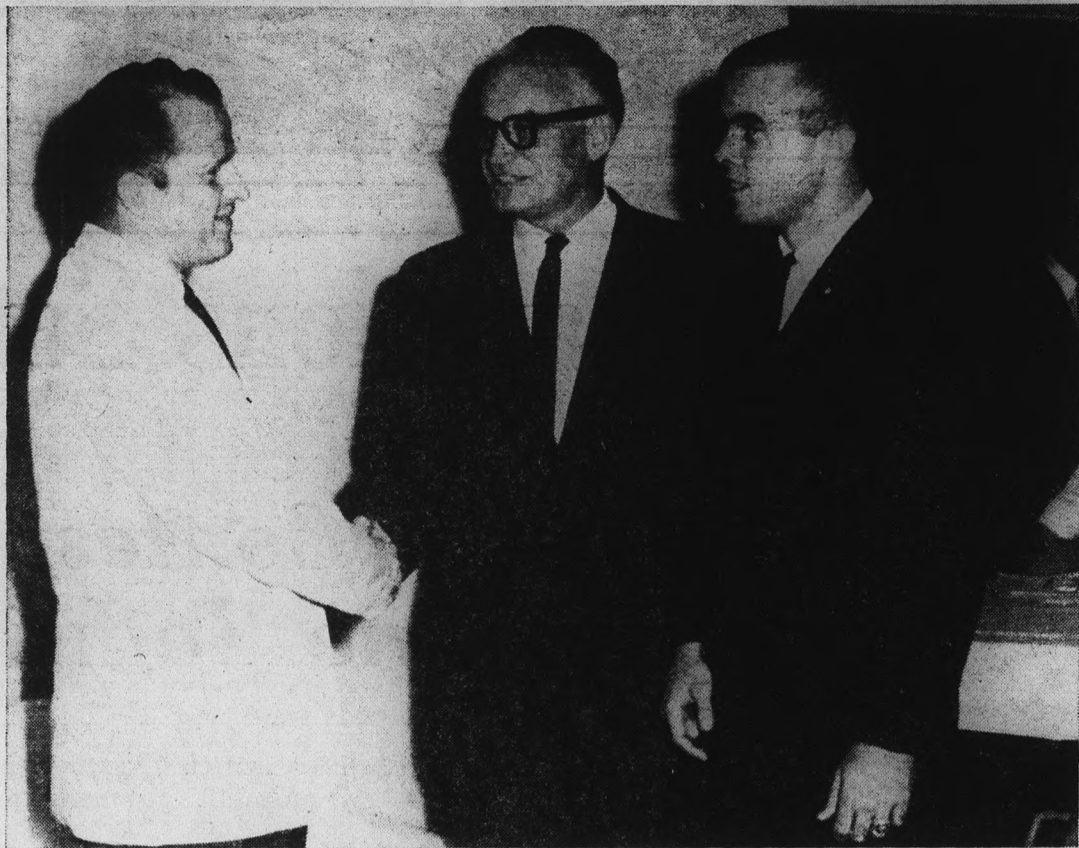

Students will be admitted on presentation of their activity tickets.

'Meet The Senator' -

ASU DEAN OF MEN Gary Anderson (left) is introduced to Senator Barry Goldwater by Bob Hobbs, president of ASU's chapter of Sigma Chi. The introduction took place at The Safari in Scottsdale, scene of a banquet in honor of the dedication of the fraternity's new house on Alpha Drive.

Barry Goldwater Speaker At Sigma Chi Dedication

Senator Barry Goldwater was the principal speaker at a banquet at the Safari hotel in Scottsdale Sunday evening honoring the dedication of Sigma Chi's new fraternity house.

Addressing the alumni of Sigma Chi, Sen. Goldwater stressed the importance of maintaining a strong alumni chapter and the responsibility of these alumni to help the undergraduates in every way possible.

Also, he emphasized the importance for members to help and support the present universities in this state and those in the future.

He went on to laud the interest shown in fraternity and sorority systems, saying that all members must strive to maintain the system as one method of combating the tendency to drag society to one common level.

OTHER SIGMA Chis introduced by the chapter president, Bob Hobbs, included Robert F. Wright, assistant executive secretary of the Sigma Chi fraternity; Frank M. Moore, chairman of the board of grand trustees.

Also, Orland W. Ward, grand practor of the Rocky Mountain province; Harry V. Wade, grand proconsul of Sigma Chi; William P. Hoffman, grand consul and William T. Bringham, executive secretary.

Dr. Roy C. Rice, chapter adviser, gave the invocation.

ASU Faculty Members Continue Outside Activities

Thomas J. Harter, ASU professor of art, will enter his prize-winning painting "Canal" in the California Water Color Society's 42nd National Exhibition of Water Color Painting.

The exhibit will be at the Long Beach Museum of Art, Long Beach, Calif., from Oct. 7 through Nov. 11.

The painting won a first place in the Arizona State Fair last year.

Dr. Gordon B. Castle, chairman of the zoology department, is attending a National Science Foundation panel which opened yesterday in Washington.

Dr. Castle left Sunday to participate in the three-day panel, which will evaluate proposals on conferences for college teachers.

Dr. A. C. Littleton, ASU visiting professor of accounting, was a featured speaker at the recent International Conference on Accounting Education at the University of Illinois.

Dr. Littleton, who has been at ASU for three years, is a professor emeritus at the University of Illinois.

The title of his address was "The Purpose of Accounting Education."

Smithsonian Art To Be Displayed At ASU Soon

"Contemporary Swedish Architecture," an exhibition from the Smithsonian Institute, will be on display at ASU from Oct. 22 to Nov. 10.

James W. Elmore, director of school of architecture, said the exhibition will be located on the third floor of the Engineering Center and may be viewed by the public from 9 to noon on Saturdays.

The exhibition is a photographic study of community architecture in Sweden today, showing the work of more than 30 architects in homes, schools, apartments, churches, libraries and other buildings.

There are also photographs of traditional Swedish churches, castles and manor houses.

The exhibition was organized by the National Association of Swedish Architects and the Swedish Institute.

Editorially Speaking

Some people are able to join Greek organizations, but others cannot due to a variety of reasons.

Perhaps they cannot afford the extra financial burden.

Maybe they don't want to join in the first place, or maybe they're not asked.

OR IT COULD BE that they don't even consider joining because they know that they're not wanted.

Therefore, we propose "Independents Only," with a branch for the men and one for the women.

These groups are not to be selective. They will require only that members must not be affiliated with a Greek organization.

Also, members must be especially willing to work to build a life for the independent on this campus.

They could vie with the Greeks for posts in student government. They could sponsor drives and fund-raising campaigns. They could sponsor home-coming decorations. They could organize social events for the lonely independent.

IT'S PATHETIC TO SEE unaffiliated students try to find some sort of entertainment ON CAMPUS on the weekend.

Try as they may, the MU Board, Social Board, Cultural Affairs Board, etc., cannot provide simple parties or outings to accommodate them.

This "Independents Only" group could provide such an outlet for the non-Greek students.

Everyone likes to belong to something, and on a college campus there are many groups from which to choose. However, most of these groups function for other specific reasons.

THE ORGANIZATIONS we advocate would provide the "fun part" of college life that is often lacking in an independent's environment.

The Greeks would benefit from such organizations, for "Independents Only" would provide the rival element necessary to stimulate unification among the many branches of Greeks.

There is a huge independent population here at ASU, and it's about time it stopped griping about its meager share of the good times and do for itself what needs to be done.

Letters To The Editor

TO THE EDITOR:

The recent addition of Dick Smith to the ASU faculty was welcomed by all. However, few realized that Mr. Smith would sign a contract only if he was guaranteed two hours a day at the pool.

This in itself is not wrong, but the fact that he was given the 2:30 to 3:30 recreational swimming time and the 3:30 to 4:30 women's swim team hour is quite unfair.

These are both unfair because: 1) the pool was built for the students and faculty of ASU, not a select group. 2) when the students paid their activity fees, there was a charge for the privilege of using the pool. 3) the women's swim team was organized and assigned the 3:30 hour long before any thought was given to Dick Smith. 4) there are a number of the girls on the swim team who are taking it as a class and are receiving credit for it.

It appears to me that with a little juggling of times and not so much priority given to Mr. Smith that the students, the swim teams and diving teams could all have equal privileges with the pool.

Sincerely,
An Exiled Swimmer

TO THE EDITOR:

I have heard that all classes will be dismissed on Friday Nov. 2 for the Arizona Education Association convention on the campus.

Now I am just as glad as the next student to get a day off. My parents pay for my education, and if they don't get their money's worth, it is for them to complain.

But what puzzles me is that educators, devoted to education, would hold a convention on education when and where it would cause thousands of students to lose a day's education.

How would an anti-education association have done it

Sincerely,
Elmer Abbott

... Every lot is full tonight and you sit there and say you can't find more loop-holes for tickets!

SOUNDING OFF—

Yells Pore; So Is Score

By LINDA WARREN SIMS

The cheering Saturday night certainly missed the leadership of Mike Schwartz.

It seems as though Mike was called out of town unexpectedly. Situations like this often occur in all sorts of enterprises.

But usually there is someone to step in the shoes that have been vacated and carry on.

HOWEVER, IT WAS APPARENT that no one can fill Mike's shoes, and we'll be more than glad to see him back again.

The crowd's attitude Saturday night was absolutely "blah." What's wrong anyway?

We're young and living (supposedly) in the best years of our lives. Why get old and subdued long before our time?

What a disappointment it was to see the Sun Devils take a defeat like the one Saturday.

Disappointments are dangerous things. They tend to hang on like a chronic disease and lapse into apathy or depression. Let's all try to forget last Saturday's performance. And let's attend next week's game with a better attitude.

As a student body we must be optimistic lest we let the small amount of spirit we have plunge further into nothingness.

JUST IN PASSING, WHY isn't smoking allowed in the lobbies of the women's residence halls?

We've always understood that the lobby of a dorm serves as a living room in which to receive guests. Well, nowadays most people permit smoking in any room in their house.

The days of the old-fashioned parlors are gone. Shall we keep up with the times, or is it too much to ask?

(After thought: I am not encouraging anyone to smoke. I am merely taking the side of the many thousands who have already begun. OK?)

LETTER TO A JOURNALIST

Journalists are usually an inarticulate lot when it comes to praise. We spend most of our time practicing a hard-to-please-attitude. We expect, and grow by criticism. We look with suspicion on the do-gooder and the hail-fellow-well-met types.

No one knows the efforts a new journalist expends writing a story. Re-writing and plotting for that one final supreme moment — and there will never be another — when your first feature story blossoms out with your by-line.

Such a moment came to a reporter in the Oct. 12 issue of the STATE PRESS. The story was sweated over, eluded the fanatical blue pencil of the copy-editor, proofed and in one instant of mistaken identity, was assigned the wrong by-line.

The story — "Reefers Grow on Campus," the reporter — ED GASSER.

As a fellow journalist, I can only offer you my sympathy; as a hard-headed realist I would like to say, "I WISH I HAD WRITTEN THAT."

When Jerry Lewis comes to ASU next month to begin filming "The Nutty Professor" fans can rush up to him for an autograph and rest assured they are getting his real name, according to "Who's Who in Celebrities."

THE SAME cannot be said of many of the other stars, past and present, of Hollywood.

In fact, very few of them have kept their original names.

Usually it's not very hard to see why.

For instance, Kirk Douglas. Can you imagine the name Issur Danielovitch on a marquee? Or Webb Parmallee Hollenbeck? That was Clifton Webb's given name.

Janet Blair, appearing at the Sombrero Playhouse next week, started life as Janet Lafferty. She was born in Blair County, Pa., and took the county's name for her own.

HENRY FONDA kept his own name. (A professor was heard to say he'd like to see Rhonda Fleming marry Henry and become Rhonda Fonda.)

Rhonda Fleming was originally Marilyn Louis. She should have changed her last name to Monroe, maybe.

Actually, the "Blonde Bombshell" started in Los Angeles as Norma Jean Baker.

Jayne Mansfield was Vera Jayne Palmer, and get this, Lana Turner was christened Julia Jean Mildred Francis Turner. She would never have gotten top billing with that.

THIS ISN'T a new thing. Mary Pickford was known as Gladys Mary Smith.

Groucho Marx was Julius Henry Marx back in 1895, when he was born.

Marlene Dietrich was Maria Magdalena.

Name changing isn't restricted to the films either. Rocky Marciano is really Rocco Francis Marchegiano.

Lewis's former partner, Dean Martin, was Dino Crocetti. Danny Thomas, Amos Jacobs. (yes we know, — 'n' Andy would have been a good choice, too).

John Wayne was Marion Michael Morrison back in Winterset, Iowa. Rock Hudson was Roy Sherer in Winnetka, Ill.

Bob Hope was born in England as Leslie Townes Hope.

WHO WOULD EVER recognize Doris von Kappelhoff. She's Doris Day now.

Barbara Stanwyck was Ruby Stevens, originally, and Shelley Winters was Shirley Shrift.

Wonder why she changed that?

Loretta Young changed her first name from Gretchen because it sounded too "Dutchy." Jane Wyman was Sarah Jane Fulks.

So take heart, fans, the autograph you get may really be authentic.

Library Poll Seen

The ASU Student Education Board is currently studying student opinion of Matthews Library, with special emphasis on the library hours.

This investigation stems from the main duty of the board: to study and express student opinion regarding all phases of student life.

According to the chairman, Dave Matthews, "a student opinion poll considering such aspects as the extent and nature of student use of the library, will probably result."

Other areas which the board plans to study later in the year are academic honesty and cheating and the number and value of academic scholarships.

HAPPINESS CAN'T BUY MONEY

Can education bring happiness?

This is a question that in recent years has caused much lively debate and several hundred stabbings among American college professors. Some contend that if a student's intellect is sufficiently aroused, happiness will automatically follow. Others say that to concentrate on the intellect and ignore the rest of the personality can only lead to misery.

I myself favor the second view, and I offer in evidence the well-known case of Agathe Fusco.

Agathe, a forestry major, never got anything less than a straight "A", was awarded her B.T. (Bachelor of Trees) in only two years, her M.S.B. (Master of Sap and Bark) in only three, and her D.B.C. (Doctor of Blight and Outworms) in only four.

Academic glory was hers. Her intellect was the envy of every intellect fan on campus. But was she happy? The answer, alas, was no. Agathe—she knew not why—was miserable, so miserable, in fact, that one day while walking across campus, she was suddenly so overcome with melancholy that she flung herself, weeping, upon the statue of the Founder.

By and by a liberal arts major named R. Twinkle Plenty came by with his yoyo. He noted Agathe's condition. "How come you're so unhappy, hey?" said R. Twinkle.

"Suppose you tell me, you dumb old liberal arts major," replied Agathe peevishly.

"Have you ever smoked a Marlboro cigarette?"

"All right, I will," said R. Twinkle. "You are unhappy for two reasons. First, because you have been so busy stuffing your intellect that you have gone and starved your psyche. I've got nothing against learning, mind you, but a person oughtn't to neglect the pleasant, gentle amenities of life—the fun things. Have you, for instance, ever been to a dance?"

Agathe shook her head.

"Have you ever watched a sunset? Written a poem? Smoked a Marlboro Cigarette?"

Agathe shook her head.

"Well, we'll fix that right now!" said R. Twinkle and gave her a Marlboro and struck a match.

She puffed, and then for the first time in twelve or fifteen years, she smiled. "Wow!" she cried. "Marlboros are a fun thing! What flavor! What filter! What pack or box! What a lot to like! From now on I will smoke Marlboros, and never have another unhappy day!"

"Hold!" said R. Twinkle. "Marlboros alone will not solve your problem—only half of it. Remember I said there were two things making you unhappy?"

"Oh, yeah," said Agathe. "What's the other one?"

"How long have you had that bear trap on your foot?" said R. Twinkle.

"I stepped on it during a field trip in my freshman year," said Agathe. "I keep meaning to have it taken off."

"Allow me," said R. Twinkle and removed it.

"Land sakes, what a relief!" said Agathe, now totally happy, and took R. Twinkle's hand and led him to a Marlboro vendor's and then to a justice of the peace.

Today Agathe is a perfectly fulfilled woman, both intellectually and personalitywise. She lives in a darling split-level house with R. Twinkle and their 17 children, and she still keeps busy in the forestry game. Only last month, in fact, she became Consultant on Sawdust to the American Butchers Guild, she was named an Honorary Sequoia by the park commissioner of Las Vegas, and she published a best-selling book called I was a Slippery Elm for the FBI.

© 1962 Max Shulman

The makers of Marlboro are pleased that Agathe is finally out of the woods—and so will you be if your goal is smoking pleasure. Just try a Marlboro.

Payson Workshop Benefits Students

By NANCY TENNEY

Participants in the Fall Leadership Conference in Payson last weekend not only learned "who's leading whom?", but "where in the world are they taking us?"

Student participation was stressed as representatives of all boards and committees on campus presented goals and objectives of their specific groups and opened the floor for ideas from the delegates.

BUZZ SESSIONS Saturday afternoon by each respective group examined and categorized these ideas and added suggestions for carrying them out.

Complete lists of these ideas, compiled by Cindi Buchanan, Susan Poe and Lucy Lynch, may be picked up in the ASASU government offices this week.

Several of the suggestions which are being considered this year and the groups which are concerned:

Election Board — The use of IBM ballots, with ballots counted at IBM center in Phoenix; change statutes to hold fall elections later; publish a pamphlet of candidates, their qualifications and platforms.

MU BOARD — study expansion of MU; arrange book storage for students; provide a master calendar in cooperation with the activities vice president.

Organization and Leadership — Include State Press and Sahuaro representatives at next Payson Workshop; stress eligibility of all students to attend; compile a list of student government groups and campus organizations to be distributed at MU desk.

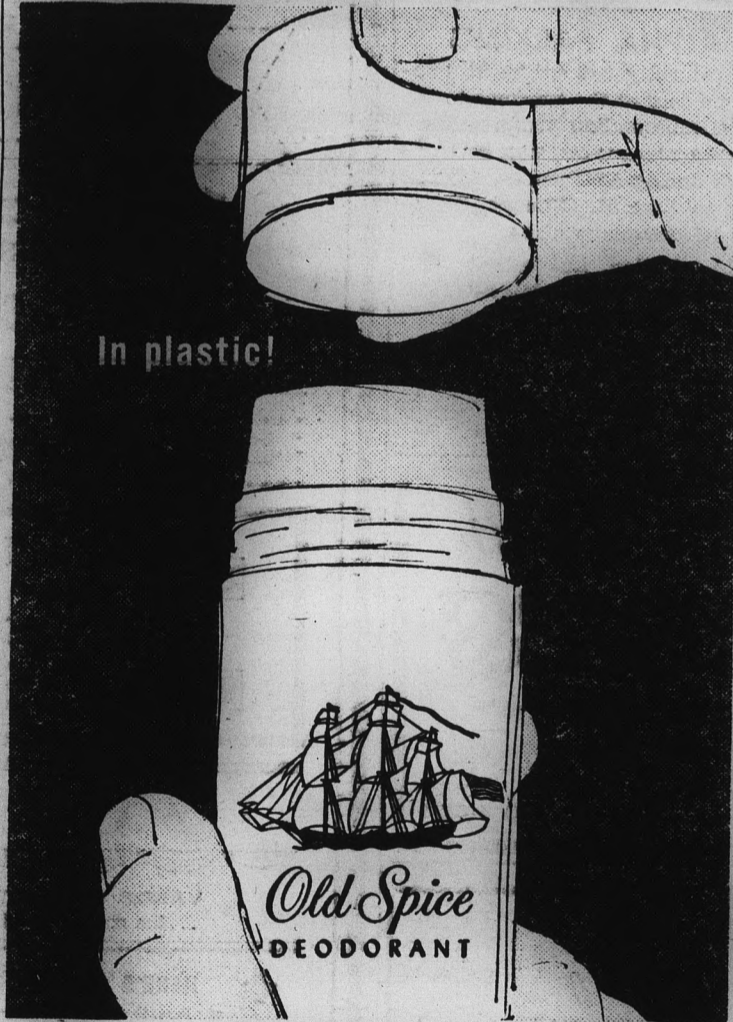

Education Board — Extend library hours; adopt an honor code at ASU; open study facilities in the MU.

Handbook Committee — List cultural as well as social and sports events in the activities calendar; expand information on organizations; include explanation of drop-add procedures; give handbooks to Senior Day participants.

STUDENT SUPREME Court — Elect judges; broaden jurisdiction; publicize availability of court.

Traffic Appeals — Give designated time for students to appear; have officer who gave ticket appear at session with student; appoint ASASU legal system for moving violation.

Market Research Studies Housing

A study of the type of housing available to married students and new faculty members will be conducted by Dr. Kendall Adams and his marketing research classes.

A survey will be made by mail on the temporary housing married students and faculty are occupying at present.

Facts and figures compiled through the survey will be used by the university administration and city developers to control problems that arise as the result of growth.

THE STUDY will be conducted in cooperation with the bureau of business services, a division of the College of Business Administration.

Areas of the bureau's activities are research, publications, executive development and radio broadcasts.

Students and faculty do basic and applied research on business and economic problems through the bureau.

From its office located on the first floor of the Business Administration building the staff, under the direction of Dr. Ralph C. Hook, Jr., publishes the "Arizona Business Bulletin," which reports research finding.

FACULTY and students are encouraged to submit articles for publication in this bulletin.

It is mailed to Arizona residents on request.

A program of education and service for the surrounding business community is carried on by the bureau.

Seminars, conferences and institutes are sponsored and staffed by faculty members from the College of Business Administration.

UNDER THE category of executive development, the bureau furnishes facts and figures to groups studying business problems.

Campus Groups Asked To Help Underprivileged

Twenty one underprivileged students are attending Valley high schools because of a community effort of the Greater Phoenix Branch of the American Association of University Women.

Eight hundred dollars still is needed to keep the young people in school. Student service organizations may help by conducting clothing drives or money projects.

Those interested may contact Mrs. Paul A. Manera at 109 Moeur Activity building.

Arizona's Town Hall recently conducted by a group of prominent businessmen to discuss Arizona tax problems used data supplied by the bureau.

The weekly radio program, "Western Business Roundup," under the direction of Dr. Hook, brings topics of interest to businessmen and the general public.

Grants Ready For Research

Grants totaling $40,000 are available for any ASU faculty member who wishes to do research of any nature.

Faculty members wishing to apply must write up a proposal and submit it to the university research committee.

President G. Homer Durham has authorized the committee to make recommendations concerning the research proposals from the faculty.

All proposals must be submitted before Dec. 1.

ALPHA PARKING

Fraternity alumni must present a card at the entrance to the area surrounding the new fraternity row authorizing them to park during ASU games, according to John B. O'Leary, director of campus security.

In addition, he requests that fraternities print visitors' cards for guests planning to leave their cars on Alpha Drive between 2-7 a.m.

Otherwise these cars will be ticketed.

Pershing Rifles Host Meet

Pershing riflemen of Company D-10 and 10th Regimental Headquarters at ASU will be host to the annual meeting of the 10th Regiment here Oct. 20.

Regimental headquarters in Goodwin Stadium expects 40 representatives from seven Southwestern Pershing Rifle companies to sign in at 8 a.m. registration.

Members of Pershing Rifles, a national honorary military society, will discuss problems of the expansion program and details of the spring convention and drill meet.

The regimental commander for the year is scheduled to be officially designated during the meeting.

Lt. Col. Theodore Wyckoff, professor of military science at ASU, will speak to representatives from Arizona, New Mexico, Texas, California, Nevada and Hawaii at a luncheon at Tempe Sands.

Delegates will attend the football game between ASU and San Jose State.

Air Force Tests For Officers Set

The department of air science at ASU will administer the Air Force Officers Qualifying Test Oct. 27 in Life Sciences 191.

Testing will begin at 7:30 a.m.

The examination is expected to take nine hours to complete.

All qualified sophomore cadets and veterans interested in the Air Force commissioning program are required to take this test as a prerequisite for advanced corps consideration.

The department of air science points out that testing does not constitute application or incur obligation.

Tomorrow Night -

ASTRONOMER Harlow Shapley (right) discusses the scientist's relationship to nature during "The House We Live In," to be shown over KAET-TV, Channel 8, tomorrow night at 8:30 p.m. Ian McHarg is the host for this National Educational Television presentation.

TV Program Views Modern Man

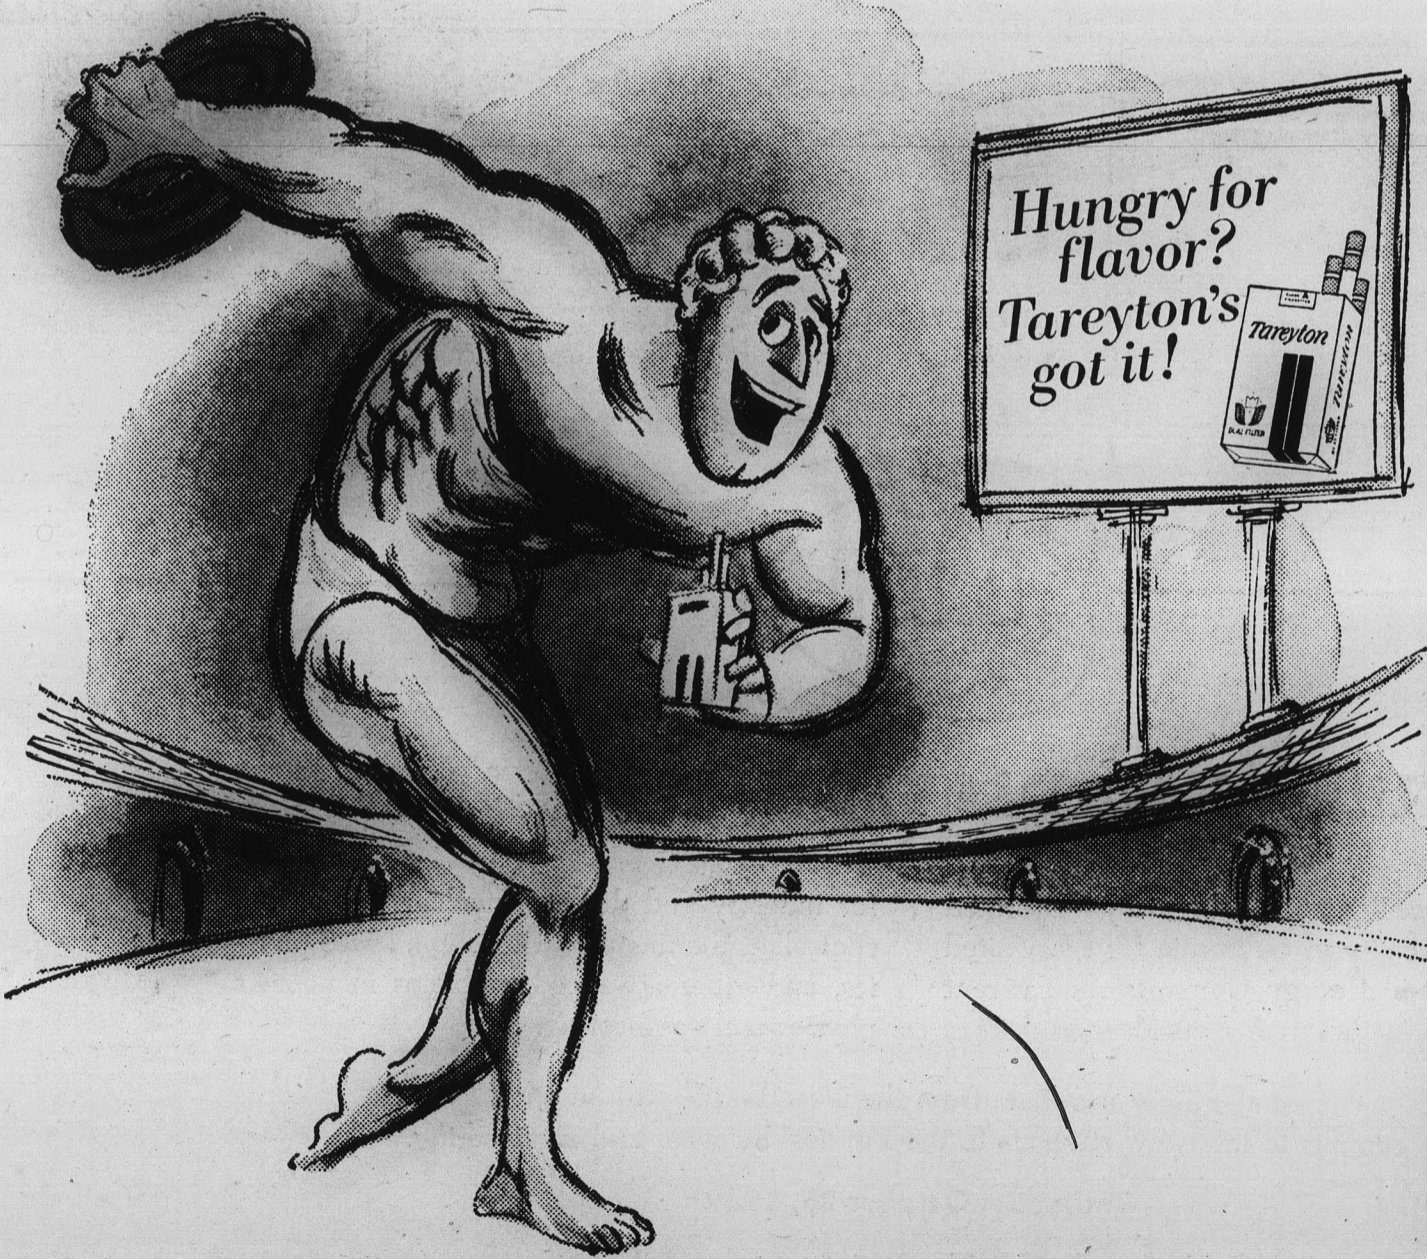

"The House We Live In," a television examination of modern man, will premiere tomorrow at 8:30 p.m. on channel 8, KAET.

The program, one in a series of 18, will bring viewers face to face with many of the greatest thinkers of these times, including anthropologists Carleton

Coon and Margaret Mead.

During each half-hour program, host Ian McHarg, a professor at the University of Pennsylvania's School of Fine Arts, will act as moderator while different guests will examine man in the light of his relationship with a physical environment which he can alter or destroy.

On The Go

By MARY GORMAN

A new approach to college entertainment will be offered to interested students this week and next with the opening of the Concert and Lecture series tonight and the beginning of the fall series of lectures given by the ASU faculty next week.

Tonight the Concert and Lecture Series opens with the appearance of Celendonio Romero and his three sons, a nationally known guitarist group.

THE ROMERO FAMILY has achieved triumphant success on television and the concert stage and as recording artists for Mercury Records.

The concert begins at 8:15 tonight in the MU ballroom, with an activity card as the admission price.

Beginning next week, the ASU faculty will introduce a series of lectures entitled "Expression of the American Spirit."

The lectures will be every Wednesday, starting next week, at 2:45 p.m. in the MU ballroom.

Dr. Ben Gossick, professor of physics, will present "Ben Franklin, Scientist," next week for the opening of the series.

FOR ALL OF YOU who planned to take in the weekly movie in Cosner, don't go this week. There isn't one.

The movies will begin again next week with Otto Preminger's "Anatomy of a Murder."

The latest in records finds Dolan Ellis playing with the Christy Minstrels on a Columbia album titled, "The New Christy Minstrels."

The album features "Big Rock Candy Mountain," "900 Miles," "Railroad Bill" and "This Land Is Your Land."

A TEMPE RADIO station announcer has been hinting about the Minstrels appearing in Phoenix, but no booking has been made yet.

Hills Record Shop in the Tempe Center plans to have the members appear for an autograph session if they come to Arizona.

EVERY COLLEGE STUDENT CAN BENEFIT

by reading this book

An understanding of the truth contained in Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy can remove the pressure which concerns today's college student upon whom increasing demands are being made for academic excellence.

Rodeo Club To Search For Queen

A rodeo queen contest will be sponsored by the Associated Students Western Week committee on Nov. 2-3.

Interested girls should meet in the lobby of Wilson Hall Nov. 2 at 3 p.m.

The horsemanship phase of the queen selection will be conducted at the Triple-A Training Center.

The finalists will be judged on poise, personality and appearance at a tea Nov. 3, at 9 a.m. in the MU.

A queen and two attendants will be selected to reign over the Western Week festivities, Nov. 26-Dec. 2.

The queen and her attendants will be announced and crowned at a barbecue given by Alpha Gamma Rho, at 406 Adelphi Drive.

Entry blanks are available at all the girls' dorms and at the MU information desk.

They are to be turned into the information desk by Nov. 1.

R-T Sponsors 'Grubby' Night

Rally and Traditions Board will sponsor a "grub night" the night of Oct. 20 at the football game with San Jose State.

Rally and Traditions Board hopes that all students will welcome this change of pace and come in their very grubbiest garb — like sweat shirts, cutoffs, Levi's, capri pants and dirty old sneakers.

Meet ASU Strutters

Devil Band Performers Lead Show

By TOVA PETERSEN

Meet the ASU Sun Devil band's new drum major and majorette, Page Decker and Aretta Toops.

Aretta, an unofficial good will ambassador for Arizona, spends three months of the year on tour.

Good will isn't the only reason for these trips.

She also uses them to further her own goal as a champion twirler.

Miss Toops and her family plan summer vacations to include major twirling contests.

Aretta has participated in contests in ten different states.

She has won the National Baton Twirling Association state championship for six consecutive years.

Aretta has a collection of 83 medals.

Aretta began taking baton lessons eight years ago.

The last two summers, Miss Toops has been chosen to attend Don Sartell's Camp of the Dells Twirling School in Wisconsin. He is a former Wisconsin state champion.

Only 50 out of 300 applicants are accepted each summer to attend this nationally known school for a week of personal instruction.

Aretta's other teachers have been Duke Miller and Sandy Finley, a former ASU twirler.

Miss Toops likes her role as twirling champion because of the many friends she has made throughout the country.

She hopes the experience will help her to attain her ambition to be a high school counselor.

This is Page Decker's first year in Arizona. Page came to Arizona from Michigan last June.

Page became a drum major when he was a sophomore in high school.

DRUM MAJOR — Freshman Page Decker, the new drum major of the Sun Devil marching band, has been leading bands since his sophomore year in high school in Michigan.

Groups Postpone UF Drive

The United Fund drive scheduled for today by members of Sophos and Spurs has been postponed a week because of conflicts with the Tempe Community Chest drive.

Plans are being made to hold the drive Oct. 24 on campus.

Competition will not be between members of Greek organizations and independents as announced earlier, but it will be between ASU men and women.

The "mums for mom" sale, sponsored this week by Spurs and Sophos, sophomore honoraries, will end Oct. 22.

Mums may be ordered from any member of the groups, and will be distributed on Parents Day, Oct. 27, on campus.

Rooms will be specified for pickup in all dorms.

The mums will sell for $1.50.

HIGH STEPPING COED — Aretta Toops, ASU head majorette, brings national fame to the campus and the Sun Devil marching band. The blonde freshman has held the national baton twirling association's state championship title for six consecutive years.

An official goodwill ambassador for Arizona, the twirler spends three months of the year on tour.

Disc Star Featured At Dance

"Fly Me to the Moon" is the theme of the Kappa Kappa Psi semiformal dance Friday from 9-12 p.m. in the MU ballroom.

Folk singer Henry Thome, whose recording of "Scotch and Soda" topped the 100,000 sales mark, will be featured.

Thome's interest in folk music originated at the Baboquivari in Scottsdale.

HE JOINED Loy Clingman, owner of the coffee house, and a third associate and organized the Clingman Clan.

The troupe toured during the spring of 1960, entertaining at clubs in Los Angeles, Lake Tahoe, Great Falls, Mont., and Vancouver, B.C.

In addition to his 1961 hit, "Scotch and Soda," Thome boasts the recordings "Michelle" and "Candy."

He is currently rehearsing a new act which will form the basis of his next road show.

THOME'S STYLE features vocal-guitar renditions of folk songs coupled with humorous background interpretations of the songs.

Also on the musical agenda of the semiformal dance will be the 10-piece dance band comprised of Kappa Kappa Psi members and alumni.

Leo Wood, lead alto saxophone, will direct the band.

Wood has the distinction of being selected to play in the All-State bands during the last four years in four different states: Idaho, Oregon, Washington and Arizona.

HE ALSO was asked to play in the All-Northwest band, comprised of musicians from six states. Proceeds from the dance will be applied toward the band scholarship fund.

The band honorary's goal is to give both an in-state and out-of-state scholarship next year.

Revenue from the April jazz festival will supplement the fund.

AAUW Awards Scholarship

The Tempe chapter of the American Association of University Women had open house at Palo Verde Hall last week.

Arlene Przanowski, elementary education senior, was a guest.

She recently received the annual scholarship awarded by AAUW to an ASU girl of outstanding scholarship and leadership.

The AAUW is an organization for women who hold degrees from colleges and universities approved by the association.

Each chapter of the organization works out its program according to the interests of its members.

Mrs. Joyce Hook leads the Tempe group.

In May the AAUW will have an open house for graduating seniors.

KING KONG — Dale Keller, end for ASU's Sun Devils, has twice been nominated for "lineman of the week" in the Western Athletic Conference. The 6-2, 212-pound senior caught two touchdown passes against Washington State University and snared six passes for 90 yards Saturday night in the Devils' 15-14 loss to West Texas State.

(Photo by Ed Ryan)

Off The Cuff

By BOB JACOBSEN
Sports Editor

Dale Keller, Arizona State University's genial "man of the hour," has a smiling face. And rightly so.

It was Keller who made a sliding catch on the seat of his pants of a two-point conversion last year to give the Sun Devils their thrilling 24-23 victory over Northwest foe, Oregon State.

IT WAS KELLER who caught two touchdown passes against Washington State two weeks ago to give the Devils an early and late lead.

And it was Keller who caught six passes last Saturday night for 90 yards to give the Devils an early lead again.

Keller, a 6-2, 212-pound end who twice has been nominated for the Western Athletic Conference's "lineman of the week," has not always had things so rosy as they are now.

He graduated from Atherton High School in Flint, Mich. in 1956 with 16 varsity letters behind him, four each in football, basketball, baseball and track.

BUT EVEN WITH ALL THESE credentials, he did not receive any scholarship offers from anywhere.

So he enrolled at the University of Michigan and played football there without a scholarship.

One day, someone, who he can't even recall, approached him and asked him if he would be interested in playing football for Arizona State University.

After writing a letter but receiving no answer, Keller packed and started driving to Arizona.

His car broke down on an Indian reservation, but he borrowed some burlap bags from the Indians and hitchhiked to Tempe.

Once again he practiced football without a scholarship, and once again he made the team.

INTRAMURAL Scene

With the tennis doubles and swimming finals over, intramurals shift to volleyball next week.

Corecreational volleyball is now being played on the courts adjacent to the swimming pool.

Winners of tennis doubles were Patton-Cullom of Phi Delta Theta over Sebree-Allen of Sigma Chi 6-2, 9-11, and 6-2.

Tom Van Zandt and Frank Burk of Pi Kappa Alpha placed third.

The Hooters placed on top in swimming with 40 points. Close behind was Sahuaro B with 37 points.

Results of swimming were as follows:

200-yard medley relay—Hooters (2:00.2);

50-yard freestyle — Keswick, Sahuaro B (23.9);

50-yard breaststroke — Holly, Hooters (34.2);

50-yard backstroke — Reitow, Hooters (31.1);

50-yard butterfly — Keswick, Sahuaro B;

200-yard freestyle relay — Hooters;

Diving — Wrightson, Sahuaro B.

Gymnastics Team Awaits Initial Season In WAC

Arizona State University's gymnastics team has begun preparations for its initial Western Athletic Conference season with a promise of good depth and potential, but lack of experience.

Four returning lettermen and two squadmen will form the nucleus of Coach Norris Steverson's 1963 team.

Leading the corps of veterans is team captain Jerry Stansbury, of Phoenix, a junior. Last season he placed ninth in the all-around category of the Western Intercollegiate Gymnastics championships and 19th in the national's all-around.

Other returning letterman are Tom Kalos, a junior from Phoenix, former state parallel bar champion; Chris Evans, Scottsdale, top ASU still rings performer, and Bennie Bishop, Phoenix, a standout in tumbling, free exercise and trampoline. The squadmen are Rod Rubisk, Scottsdale, and Doug White, Phoenix.

LEADING A strong contingent of freshmen are all-around men Skip Johnson, fifth place in the state 1962 all-around category and Dennis Sullivan, all-around high school champ for the past two years in Minnesota.

Other frosh are Les Christianson, State AAU still ring champ, John Nowak, state high school trampoline champ, and Jim Nelson, state high school runnerup in tumbling. All are from Phoenix. Christianson and Nelson attended Washington High and Nowak went to Phoenix Union.

Buffaloes Whip Devils; San Jose Spartans Next

By DENNIS ANDERSON

"We weren't up for the game as we should have been, West Texas was a stronger team than it was given credit to be, and we had somewhat of a psychological letdown after the Washington State game."

These were the words of Coach Frank Kush regarding Arizona State's unexpected 15-14 loss to a defensively alert West Texas eleven before 27,639 fans in Sun Devil Stadium last Saturday.

Once more it was breaks coupled with the youthfulness of the Sun Devils that paved the way for the West Texas victory.

ASU fumbled six times, losing possession on three occasions.

More significant were three pass interceptions by an alert Buff secondary, one a 99-yard return by Jerry Logan for the winning margin.

ASU TOOK the lead after 13 minutes of the first quarter when John Jacobs found Larry Todd in the end zone with a nine-yard TD aerial.

Earlier, the Devils had failed to score on an opening kickoff fumble by West Texas. The Demons took eight plays before losing possession on a fourth down situation on the West Texas 11-yard line.

With five minutes remaining in the second quarter, Jacobs hit end Roger Locke with a nine-yard score.

The Devils upped the lead to 14-0.

West Texas stormed back on a 60-yard scoring drive, which took five plays, topped by a 38-yard scoring pass from Jim Dawson to halfback Jerry Richardson.

IN THE third quarter ASU came back on a 94-yard drive, which took 18 plays and most of the quarter.

But it was to no avail as Jacobs tossed the unfortunate pass that Logan intercepted on the one-yard line and went the route for the touchdown.

Then Logan caught a lateral pass on the conversion attempt good for two points and the 15-14 outcome.

Kush lauded the effort of Jacobs, who set two new team passing records, despite the disastrous interception.

Jake set new marks by attempting 32 passes and completing 18. His total yardage, 199, was 13 yards short of the team best.

End Dale Keller also gained plaudits as did his counterpart Roger Locke.

Keller was on the receiving end of six passes good for 90 yards, while Locke caught three for 38 yards and one TD.

Wrestling Practice Begins

Varsity wrestling practice began here Monday with 40 prospects attending.

The wrestling program, under the guidance of Coach Ted Bredehoft, will advance to intercollegiate competition this year after functioning on a club basis in the past.

The Sun Devils will be eligible for the Western Athletic Conference crown.

"We'll be green," Bredehoft said, "as we're starting almost from scratch."

However, he said he hoped keen competition in the various weight classes would help the athletes develop faster.

ASU will open its season at home Dec. 1 against Long Beach State.

The Sun Devils also will host the first annual Arizona State University Invitational tournament Dec. 15 in which eight teams will participate.

The Sun Devils will compete in the UCLA Invitational Dec. 8, the state AAU Holiday tourney Dec. 29 and the state AAU tourney, March 1.

Swimming Workout
The first swimming work-coach, will conduct the practice will be Tuesday Oct. 23, at 2:30 p.m. at the ASU swimming pool. Walt Schleuter, tice.
