

Students May Witness Total Election Coverage Tuesday Night In MU

News being made can be seen Nov. 6 in the MU ballroom beginning at 6 p.m. when KASN covers the election returns.

KASN student news director Allen McCarley will be in charge of the election coverage. About 25 radio-TV and journalism students will help.

The ballroom will be open to all students.

The main purpose of the operation, according to McCarley, is to give students a chance to see how election returns are handled and to become acquainted with the campus radio station.

THE OPERATION will be known as "election central" and will have complete facilities to compile voting results.

Television sets tuned to all the networks and a UPI teletype will be used to receive election returns. These returns will be tabulated by volunteers and recorded on large blackboards in the ballroom.

"Election central" will have direct telephone hook-ups to city hall, Republican headquarters and Democratic headquarters.

KASN also will conduct interviews during the evening with political science professors and ASU students to find out their opinions on the elections.

THE KASN broadcasting studios in the Engineering Center will serve as "election control" to handle the technical portion of the operation.

Broadcasting and coverage will continue until midnight.

The coverage will concentrate mostly on the local elections, but some of the major national contests and trends will be watched.

KASN has handled major elections since the station's beginning in 1952.

The 1960 election report, however, was the most extensive one to date.

Crowning Of Royalty Slated For Tonight

Parents Day—

REGISTRATION — Moms and dads visited ASU Saturday, toured the campus and attended the football game. Above, parents register for the day's activities.

'Ole West' To Return

A queen will be chosen and beards will be grown during next week as the first signs of the approach of Western Week on campus.

Western Week will be Nov. 26 through Dec. 2.

Judging for queen will be Nov. 2 and 3.

Beard registration and growing will begin Nov. 5.

Queen contestant applications are still available at the MU information desk and in women's dorms, but they must be turned in by noon tomorrow.

ALL WOMEN students are eligible to be queen contestants. No sponsor is needed.

Beard-growing candidates must register between 9:30 a.m. and noon, Nov. 5 and 6 on the Devil's Den patio.

Candidates must be clean shaven at registration.

Queen contestants will be judged on horsemanship, poise and personality.

Horsemanship judging will be the afternoon of Nov. 2 at the Triple A training center.

POISE AND personality judging will be in the MU the morning of Nov. 3.

The queen's buckle and two attendants' bracelets are on display in the MU bookstore.

Beards will be judged Nov. 30 at the Western Week dance.

Prizes will be awarded for the longest, scrubbiest, most original and most colorful.

Pep Rally Offered Thursday

After a televised campus caravan, 28 royalty candidates will arrive at the MU tonight for the premiere dance of "Famous Flicks," theme of ASU's 1962 Homecoming Week.

Announcement and crowning of the king and queen elected last Thursday will be made by the 1958 Homecoming king and queen, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Anderson.

MRS. ANDERSON is the former Diane Eldridge.

After their crowning, the new king and queen will be presented a long list of gifts donated by Valley merchants.

Climax to their reign over Homecoming activities will be their presentation at the football game Saturday.

Women will be given late nights for the 8-11 p.m. dance.

Dress-up attire with heels or flats for women and sport coats for men will be in order.

Tomorrow evening the traditional Homecoming pep rally will begin with a parade at 6:30 from behind Hayden Hall and will proceed down College Avenue to 8th Street.

LED BY the Homecoming king and queen the parade will move north on Van Ness to a huge bonfire built below the buttes around Sun Devil Stadium.

Coach Frank Kush will introduce the football team and will comment on the Homecoming game with Utah State.

Cheerleaders, pompon girls and the Sun Devil band also will take part.

Free coffee and doughnuts will be served.

Just In Case—

State Designates Fallout Shelters

By STAN WHISENHUNT

A loud wailing tone of three minutes duration is a signal that this area is under attack from enemy missiles.

It urges everyone to "take cover" in a speedy, yet orderly manner.

But in the event a "take cover" signal is ever sounded on this campus, where will students and teachers go?

Jim Gibson, director of operations, Arizona Department of Civil Defense, said Monday Civil Defense is planning six fallout shelters on this campus with space for 6,092 people.

The shelters' tentative locations and their capacities are:

Memorial Union, basement, 2,517;

Goodwin Stadium, east side, first and second floors, 1,086;

Life Sciences building, basement, 640.

Physical Sciences building, basement, 640;

Library, basement, 521;

Tunnel, Orange Street to Forest avenue, to general stores, 75.

ASU security officers will indicate to students and teachers which shelters to report to.

Roy Bigelow, public relations coordinator for Maricopa County Civil Defense, said Monday stocking and marking of these shelters will be completed within 60 days.

Signs will be placed, on the outside of each building, giving the capacity of the shelter inside.

Directional signs will be placed inside each building.

Bigelow also said each shelter will be stocked with enough supplies to last the occupants two weeks.

Supplies will consist of:

Food kits, containing high-calorie biscuit-like wafers; medical kits, sanitation kits and 17-gallon water drums.

Radiological instruments also will be supplied in every shelter, and a trained monitor assigned to each.

The sanitation kits are being built in Phoenix by Blind Industries. Similar kits are being shipped throughout the Southwest.

Cost of the supplies is about $3 per person, and 1 1/4 cubic feet of storage space is required per person. The supplies are designed for five-year "shelf life" storage.

WORLD NEWS

Soviets Applaud Nikita's 'Wisdom'

MOSCOW — Soviet people were told last night by the government newspaper Izvestia that the Soviet decision to dismantle rocket bases in Cuba showed "the wisdom of the Soviet government."

The newspaper said that when Khrushchev's letter was released announcing the Soviet decision that the news produced a "multimillion sigh of relief."

Nothing was said about Soviet sighs of relief.

U.S. Complies With UN Request

WASHINGTON — The White House announced Monday night that the United States would lift its blockade of Cuba at the request of Secretary-General U Thant, of the United Nations, during his two-day negotiations.

Whether the blockade against shipments of offensive materials will be reimposed after the two-day period will depend on the situation.

Cycle Derby Meeting Set

Campus cyclists will have an opportunity to display their two-wheel talent in the Desert Bicycle Derby before the ASU-UofA football game Nov. 24.

Sponsored yearly by Alpha Tau Omega fraternity, the relay contest will begin in Tempe this year and will end in Tucson.

All fraternities, men's organizations and dorms may compete. Sponsors of entrants must have a representative at a meeting tonight at 10 in the ATO house.

Chairman Tony Cerkvenik will explain the derby details at the meeting.

Traffic Fines Refundable Through Traffic Appeals

Students, if your parked car breaks out in a rash symptomized by slips of paper under the windshield wipers (i.e. parking tickets) — there is a cure if you can prove extenuating circumstances or some valid excuse.

The department of traffic appeals holds meetings to review students' appeals of campus traffic citations, moving as well as parking violations.

Upon acceptance of an appeal, it is empowered to "order refund of any monies previously held in bond from a student for a traffic citation."

Members of this department of the ASASU judicial branch are Dave Mills, chairman; John Burnett, staff adviser, and committeemen Mike Snyder, Jim Goldsberry, Hart Smith, John Ash and Walt Baety.

An innovation suggested at the recent Payson Workshop would include a member of campus security at meetings to advise on legal questions.

Students wishing to appeal campus traffic citations should:

- Take the citation to the university cashiers office where he will be required to post a bond equal to the amount of the fine and will be given an appeal form. This must be done before the time limit for payment of the fine indicated on the citation.
- Fill out the appeal form and give it to the secretary of the department of security.

- Appear before the department of traffic appeals the first Wednesday after the appeal is made. Meetings are in MU 208 at 3 p.m. each Wednesday.

The decision of the committee will later be mailed to the applicant, and if his appeal is accepted, a refund slip, which can be taken to the cashier's office, will be included.

Negro Students Offered Ten Medical Scholarships

The National Medical Fellowships, Inc., and the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation have announced 10 four-year medical scholarships will be available to qualified Negro men in the fall of 1963.

To qualify for a National Medical-Sloan Foundation scholarship, a student must have demonstrated outstanding achievement in college, have been accepted for admission by a medical school and must be a U.S. citizen.

Amounts of the scholarships vary according to student needs.

The deadline for registration is Mar. 1, 1963. No registration will be accepted after that date.

The medical scholarship program is designed to help relieve the critical shortage of Negro physicians and surgeons.

ROTC Honors 8 At Fall Parade

Army ROTC honored five military students and three cadets of the month at the fall military parade yesterday.

Honored were Major Gary Avery, Capt. Robert Monroe, Major Udall Merritt, Lt. Col. Hugo Zettler and Lt. Col. Roger Baymiller.

Private Robert Stephenson and Sgt. Grant Steinberg were named freshman and sophomore cadets of the month.

First Lt. James T. Forris was named platoon leader of the month.

Institute Offers European Study

Seven undergraduate scholarships for European study are offered by the Institute of European Studies for unmarried sophomore and junior students between the ages of 18-24.

Three scholarships, worth $2,230, $500 and $1,000, are available for study at the University of Vienna.

Quad Girls Start Aid, CD Plan

In view of the world crises the women of the Quad, which includes South, West and North halls, have initiated a "be prepared program," including a 30 hour course in first aid and civil defense.

The course in first aid and civil defense preparedness will begin October 30 under direction of the American Red Cross.

Classes will meet on Tuesday from 7-9 p.m. and on Thursday from 8-10 p.m. upon completion of the course, the girls will be qualified as Red Cross instructors.

Any group which is interested in starting a "be prepared program" should contact the Phoenix Red Cross or call WO 7-9844 and ask for Dody Froelich, Connie Scott or Betty Monemith.

THIS program offers English-taught liberal arts courses and intensive German language instruction.

Two scholarships, worth $1,000 and $2,125, are available for study at the University of Freiburg.

This program stresses political science, German language, philosophy and literature study.

All classes will be conducted in German.

ONLY JUNIORS are eligible for these scholarships.

Two scholarships, worth $2,457 and $500, are offered for study in Paris.

This program offers liberal arts study and opportunities for independent study at the University of Paris and other institutions of higher study.

All scholarships will be awarded on basis of academic achievement and financial need with recommendation of the applicant's college or university.

COMPLETED applications must be submitted by Feb. 15.

Forms are available from Institute of European Studies, 35 E. Wacker Drive, Chicago, Ill.

The winners of the award will be announced around May 1.

'Statesman' Is Sent To Seniors

The Alumni Office has mailed the first issue of the "Arizona Statesman," the quarterly alumni magazine, to seniors. Its purpose is to acquaint them with the Alumni Association before they graduate.

In the September issue are excerpts from President Durham's faculty conference speech, "The State University and the Campus Culture." Also featured are JoAnne Gunderson, '61, three time U.S. Women's Amateur Golf Champion, and Dick Gilbert, '57, editor of Phoenix' "Point West" magazine.

Alumni Secretary Jim Creasman said that any seniors who did not receive a copy of the magazine may pick one up at the Alumni House.

ASU seniors have been reminded that they will be alumni in only seven months.

Police Director Lauds Conduct

Conduct of the student section during the football games has been excellent this season, according to John B. O'Leary, director of ASU police department.

O'Leary last week stressed the importance of student warnings to friends that it is against the law for anyone to bring intoxicating beverages to the games.

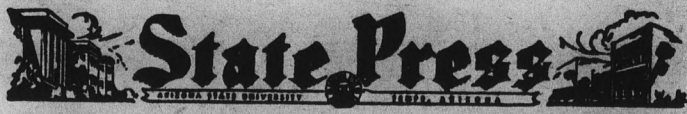

In addition, students face suspension from school if they are involved in a situation involving the possession or use of intoxicating beverages on campus.

Editorially Speaking

In response to the letter to the editor about the drinking of liquor at football games, the editorial column will be used to quote the state law on the consumption of alcohol on public property.

Whether you are violently for or completely against imbibing at football games is beside the point.

There are certain state laws that control alcoholic beverages.

Therefore, these laws are printed here as a service to students. They have already been thoroughly memorized by policemen and liquor control authorities.

Whether you abide by them or not is your choice. Nevertheless, the penalties for violations also have been printed for your consideration.

* * *

I. SECTION 4-244 ARIZONA REVISED STATUTES:

It is unlawful:

- 19. For a person to consume spirituous liquor from a broken package in a public place, thoroughfare or gathering, and the license of a licensee permitting a violation of this paragraph on his premises shall be subject to revocation. This paragraph shall not apply to sales of spirituous liquors in individual portions by an on-sale licensee.
9. For a licensee or other person to sell, furnish, dispose of, give, or cause to be sold, furnished, disposed of or given to a person under the age of twenty-one years, or for a person under the age of twenty-one years to buy, receive, have in his possession or consume, spirituous liquor.

II. SECTION 4-241 ARIZONA REVISED STATUTES:

Selling or giving liquor to minor; penalty

- D. A person who influences or attempts to influence the sale, giving or serving of spirituous liquor to a person under twenty-one years of age by misrepresenting the age of such person, or who orders, requests, receives or procures spirituous liquor from any licensee, employee or other person for the purpose of selling, giving or serving it to a person under twenty-one years of age is guilty of a misdemeanor.
E. A licensee, employee or other person who causes a person endeavoring to procure spirituous liquor to exhibit a twenty-first birthday card as prescribed by subsection A, and who fails to carefully compare the signature of the card required to be presently signed with the signature on the birthday card, or who fails to retain the card presently signed and offer it in court at any hearing in which he is charged with selling or furnishing liquor to a minor is guilty of a misdemeanor.

III SECTION 4-246 ARIZONA REVISED STATUTES:

Violations; penalties

- A. A person violating any provision of this title is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable, upon each of the first two convictions, by a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than three hundred dollars, by imprisonment in the county jail not less than thirty days nor more than six months, or both.
B. A person convicted more than twice under the provisions of this title shall be punished for each successive conviction by a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, by imprisonment for not less than thirty days nor more than one year, or both.

Letters To The Editor

TO THE EDITOR:

It must be a coincidence that a member of the banner committee lives in Sahuaro Hall "B" wing, and that "B" wing has taken 1st and 2nd places on all of its banners. It also seems odd that "B" wing's latest banner took 1st place even though it was entered two hours after the designated deadline. Everything concerning the situation seems odd, and I think that it's about time somebody found out about it.

Mike De Muro

TO THE EDITOR:

Many questions have arisen in my mind, and in the minds of others, concerning the validity and fairness in the selection of the winning football poster each week.

Why is a member of Sahuaro B, or Hunt Hall, also a member of the panel of judges?

Why has Hunt Hall been taking more first places than any other participant?

Why did Hunt Hall win first place last week, even though its poster was not displayed until two hours after the deadline?

Why did Sahuaro C have its poster disqualified, in spite of the fact that it was far less risqué than many of the organized cheers at the games?

Perhaps I am being overly critical, but I think someone other than the Miners has been getting the shaft as of late.

Al Timmerman

TO THE EDITOR:

It is stimulating indeed to have such discussion in the fashion between Dean Helland and Dr. Bruce Mason. We feel, however, that dodging the issue behind the "moral aspects" is not going to solve the problem intellectually.

The Constitution of the United States cannot be defined clearly in any part. It is, therefore, extremely difficult to say that "the Supreme Court can rightly interpret one part of the Constitution in a manner that violates another part of the Constitution."

The decision of the court, we realize, has changed from time to time or even reversed itself. Shouldn't the people be more grateful to the founders of this great country, who wrote the Constitution flexible enough for the country to adjust itself to progress and to the changing of time?

Is it immoral, may we ask, for the Supreme Court to interpret the Constitution? Who has the authority to give a final decision on morality and on what criteria should he base the level of morality?

Somporn Sangchai
Mary Avery

TO THE EDITOR:

It gets pretty disgusting when all you see at the football games is people getting progressively more inebriated and all you hear is the clanking of bottles and the shout for more "mixer."

It seems that some people think a game would not be complete without their "bottle."

Can't these people who want to indulge do so after the game and abstain from turning the ball game into a "weekly cocktail party"?

Disgusted Students

TO THE EDITOR:

The head of the department of security at Arizona State University has been to other campuses during his career and has talked with others in prominent positions on the campus who have also served at other colleges and universities — and it is my opinion and their opinions that the vast majority of the students at ASU have conducted themselves at football games in an exemplary manner.

Not once, thus far, during the football season has the student section caused any trouble.

IT HAS been said by those who have both served and visited other campuses that "the conduct of the student section is the best that has been seen anywhere."

We of campus security welcome just and constructive criticism as it tends to strengthen rather than weaken us.

We feel the student body welcomes constructive criticism based upon facts, which will make for a stronger rather than a weaker student body.

CAMPUS security enlists your support to abide by the laws of the state and the rules and regulations of the university and local communities.

As to the drinking of spirituous liquors while in attendance at football games, of which not only the students alone are guilty, it would seem that each of you should be concerned lest the enviable reputation you have built be destroyed.

Why let this happen?

We of the department of security are thankful and grateful to you students and have a feeling of pride in your conduct. We hope you will not permit the fine image at a fine institution to be besmirched by a small minority.

WE HOPE the honor of the many will not be shamed by a small minority. Each of you should stress upon your friends, your steadies, your roommates, your fraternity brothers, your dormitory acquaintances, your sorority sisters and others the idea that happiness, fun and joy can be had at a football game without a bottle.

Remember the sacrifices made by mom and dad to send you here. Think of their pride in you when they discuss their son or daughter with their acquaintances.

Are you willing to ignore your blessings just to enjoy a short reprieve from reality with alcohol? We think not!

JOIN THE good guys and gals here, which are many, and the great majority. Be proud to belong to an enviable student body. Start now and you will be amply rewarded both here and in later years.

Shouldn't you help campus security? Shouldn't you cooperate with the university?

This we know you will do. Our thanks to all of you.

All of US at Campus Security

Assistant Director

Here's to Homecoming 1962!

May the enthusiasm shown in Thursday's king and queen contest spur our energies to produce a campus spirit that will pride returning alums, the administration, Valley friends and most of all ourselves.

TO COIN the hot-dog jargon, the campaign was definitely "all time!" Let's hope it sets a precedent.

Hats off to Jack Johnson who took over the election board chairmanship just in time to completely organize the general election.

Now, will the real king and queen please stand up. Rumors have it that 28 of the 28 candidates won.

Tonight we'll cheer for "our" king and queen. They will reign over ASU's most enthusiastic Homecoming week.

The walk from the Alpha row to campus each day has me in shape for tomorrow evening's pep rally parade down College Ave. I'll be in front — not for free donuts and coffee, but to join in those "quizefrizels."

TRADITIONALLY the Homecoming pep rally is the best of the year. This year's should be the noisiest for sure since everyone is splurging with the Tempe merchants to buy out their Halloween overstock.

No classes Friday! This takes out some of the fun of bragging about how many classes you cut to finish your decoration. But, it also means that no one has an excuse for not pitching in on the work.

The "Famous Flicks" theme was well chosen as it offers a wide open field of imagination. The variety of individual themes makes this obvious.

WHISPERS about campus reveal impressive preparations for the decorations. Sounds like they might top anything ASU has ever seen.

And, if anyone has had time to hustle a date, we'll be tramping over the tracks to the Sun Devil Stadium Saturday to watch another team fall under ASU's spirit.

Last Saturday I hiked over to the TWC side to see if I could find any familiar Texans from my high school days.

Everyone should do it once!

THOSE one word yells I've been making fun of came across like dynamite blasts. I couldn't believe it. Neither could my Texas friends.

Seeing the card section flash its colorful designs convinced me that ASU is definitely "of age." The orange and white fans were as awed as I was.

To say the least, I was proud.

Next Saturday we must prove to every returning class that no Homecoming has ever surpassed 1962's.

Now, what's the word-of-the-week? SPIRIT!

ASU Professor Visits West Germany

Dr. Alfred von der Hydte was one of 12 USA professors invited to Germany last summer to investigate educational progress.

"FOR METHODS of teaching, we only visited classrooms of foreign students, mostly American. We were impressed by their grasp and understanding of the language," Dr. von der Hydte said.

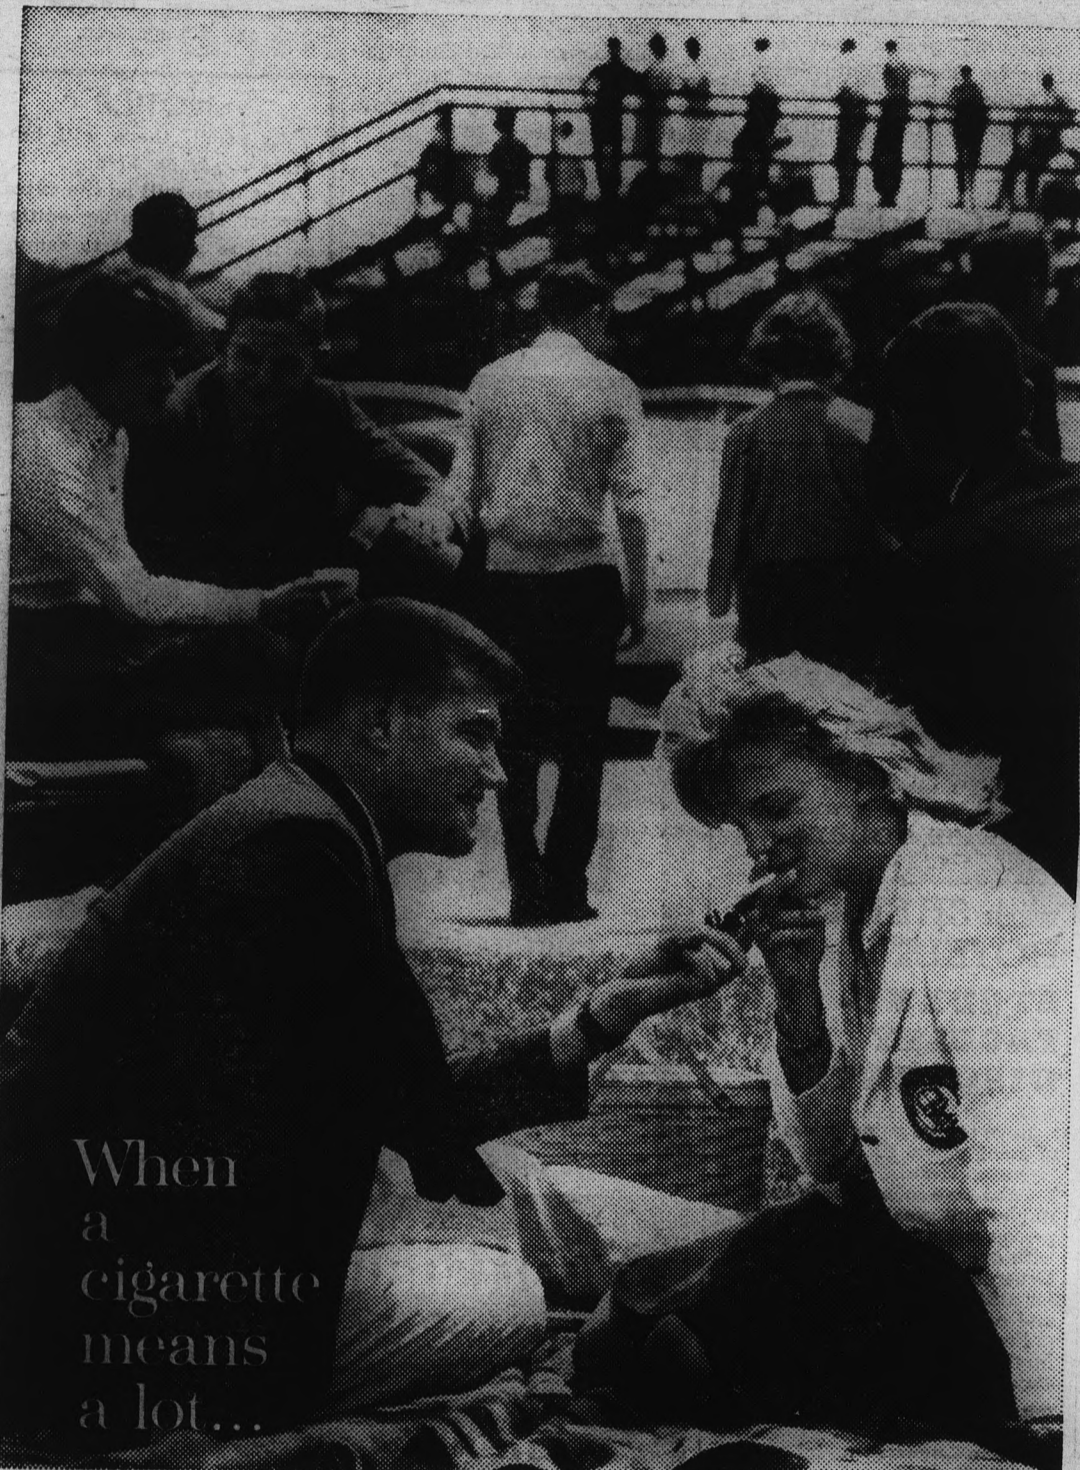

There are approximately 25,000 foreigners studying in West Germany. This is 12 per cent of the entire student population. A total of 1,400 are sponsored by the Academic Exchange Service

THE USA professors were permitted to visit East Berlin. "In street after street large blocks of ruins, shells of buildings, still look at you like so many skeletons. The Russians did not permit the East Berliners to clean up the mess — as a lesson and reminder not to start another war," he said.

Dr. von der Hydte also said that "Some circles in West Germany don't want East Germany's 17 million population who have had 15 years of socialist indoctrination and who might endanger West Germany's democratic regime. Finally it would lead to lower living standards and some fear it might upset West Germany's economy. In spite of this," he added, "there can be no doubt as to the sympathy of the average German — even behind the iron curtain — for the East German reunification with the West."

"We had perfect hosts," said Dr. von der Hydte. "They were indeed friendly and hospitable and the dinners provided were extravagant and abundant."

Fallout Shelters

Maricopa County Civil Defense is furnishing the supplies for the campus shelters.

Supplies will be stored at Luke AFB until they can be transferred to the campus.

Bigelow said foodstuffs are being shipped from Washington, D.C.

Gibson said Phoenix is one of 26 U.S. cities to accelerate stocking of fallout shelters. He added that Phoenix is the first city to incorporate full stocking of each shelter.

Bigelow estimated that after the "take cover" signal sounds, students would have 15 minutes to reach the shelters.

"If missiles are used," he said, "the 'take cover' signal is the only one the students will hear."

"If attack is other than by missile," he added, "students will have from six to 10 hours warning."

In the second instance, students first would hear an "alert" signal — a steady blast of three minutes.

At this time, radio stations should be turned to 640 or 1240 (Conelrad) for civil defense information.

Following this alert, the "take cover" signal will be sounded, indicating students should go to the shelters.

"Students in dorms are advised to take blankets into the fallout shelters," Bigelow said.

No radios will be provided. Those who have transistor radios are advised to take them along."

Cuba Crisis Forum Topic

A panel on "The Situation Of Quarantined Cuba" tomorrow at 10:40 a.m. in the MU upper lounge will be the first part of the new monthly President's Forum.

The panel is sponsored by President Bob Carter.

Panelists will be Drs. Heinz R. Hink and John R. Martinez and U.S. Army Lt. Col. Theodore Wyckoff.

The second discussion of the President's Forum will be "Current Direction U.S. Economy" on Nov. 29.

Panel To View Arizona Taxes

ASU President Dr. G. Homer Durham, will participate this week in a panel discussion of the Arizona tax outlook on Western Business Roundup, a radio program sponsored by the ASU bureau of business services.

The program will be carried on several Phoenix radio stations from Oct. 30 to Nov. 4. First broadcast will be Oct. 30 at 6:30 p.m. over KOY, 55 on the radio dial.

Dr. Ralph Hook, director of the ASU bureau of business services, will be panel moderator.

BOARD TO MEET

The Board of Traffic Appeals will meet today in MU 208 at 3 p.m.

Royalty Contests Commended By Security Chief

Student behavior during the three day election campaign drew praise today from the head of the Department of Security.

Security chief John B. O'Leary said "except for a few individuals who undoubtedly acted through enthusiasm and exuberance for a particular candidate," the campaigners' actions were "most commendable."

The main complaint came from professors who protested the noise during class time, said O'Leary. Students were asked to comply with a rule confining noise to class breaks, the dinner hours and after evening classes.

On the Challenge record featuring "Stringray" and "Wayfarin Stranger" they are The Pledges.

At ASU they were the marathon musical campaigners on the MU corner last Thursday.

The record by the four Sigma Nu guitarists and Pi Kappa Alpha drummer will be released soon.

The group, guitarists Rusty Randolph, Hart Smith, Page Decker and Mike Lester and drummer Cullen Hollister, waged a six-hour musical campaign on the MU corner last Thursday for Homecoming king candidate Steve Montgomery.

The Tornadoes, a Texas group whose latest release was "Bustin' Surfboards."

Page Decker cut several records with Johnny and the Hurricanes, whose hits include "Red River Rock."

Drummer Hollister last played with a local rock and roll group called The Disciples.

He is on a full ASU music scholarship and is drum major for the band.

Randolph, Decker and Lester are freshman; Hollister and Smith are sophomores.

NOTICE

As usual, there will be a State Press on Friday.

The issue will be the extra-special Homecoming edition, so try to get over to campus on the weekend to pick up your paper.

The Pledges have played on the ASU campus at several Sigma Nu parties.

The group's talent is shown by the experiences of its members. Randolph formerly played with

CCUN Sets Future Goals

The Collegiate Council for the United Nations recently met in the MU to organize an ASU chapter.

Campus organizers Mike Skolnik and Steve Sargent explained the purposes and ideals of the CCUN. Some of the possible projects for the organization include: 1) Debates by students and faculty on UN issues; 2) Joint programs with the local AAUN chapters; 3) UNICEF Christmas card sales drive; 4) Model General Assembly for valley high schools and 5) Discussions by foreign students on their criticisms of the US policy in the UN.

A constitution committee was chosen to draft the chapter constitution.

A car pool was organized to transport students to Phoenix to hear Dr. Mainci Jiu speak on "What Americans Want to Know About the UN."

Faculty advisors for CCUN are Dr. DeJong of the History dept., Dr. Price of the School of Engineering and Dr. Meador of the College of Education.

Correction

The State Press inaccurately reported the deadline for applications for National Defense Loans as Dec. 31.

According to Dr. Woodrow V. Nold, financial aid officer, the deadline is Dec. 1.

HIGH TEST, LOW TEST, NO TEST

Just the other night I was saying to the little woman, "Do you think the importance of tests in American colleges is being overemphasized?" (The little woman, incidentally, is not, as you might think, my wife. My wife is far from a little woman. She is, in fact, almost seven feet high and heavily muscled. She is a full-blooded Chiricahua Apache and holds the world's hammer-throw record. The little woman I referred to is someone we found crouching under the sofa when we moved into our apartment several years ago, and there she has remained ever since. She never speaks, except to make a kind of guttural clicking sound when she is hungry. Actually, she is not too much fun to have around, but with my wife away at track meets most of the time, at least it gives me somebody to talk to.)

But I digress. "Do you think the importance of tests in American colleges is being overemphasized?" I said the other night to the little woman, and then I said, "Yes, Max, I do think the importance of tests in American colleges is being overemphasized." (As I have explained, the little woman does not speak, so when we have conversations, I am forced to do both parts.)

Actually, she is not too much fun to have around

To get back to tests—sure, they're important, but let's not allow them to get too important. There are, after all, many qualities and talents that simply can't be measured by quizzes. Is it right to penalize a gifted student whose gifts don't happen to be of the academic variety? Like, for instance, Gregor Sigafoos?

Gregor, a freshman at the New Hampshire College of Tanning and Belles Lettres, has never passed a single test; yet all who know him agree that he is studded with talent like a ham with cloves. He can, for example, sleep standing up. He can do a perfect imitation of a scarlet tanager. (I don't mean just do the bird calls; I mean he can fly South in the winter.) He can pick up B-B's with his toes. He can say "Toy boat" three times fast. He can build a rude telephone out of two empty Marlboro packs and 100 yards of butcher's twine. (Of all his impressive accomplishments, this last is the one Gregor likes to do best—not building the telephone, but emptying the Marlboro packs. Gregor doesn't just dump the Marlboros out of the pack. He smokes them one at a time—settling back, getting comfortable, savoring each tasty puff. As Gregor often says with a winsome smile, "By George, the makers of Marlboro took their time finding this fine flavor, this great filter, and by George, I'm going to take my time enjoying 'em!"

Well, sir, there you have Gregor Sigafoos—artist, humanist, philosopher, Marlboro smoker, and freshman since 1939. Will the world—so desperately in need of talent—ever benefit from Gregor's great gifts? Alas, no. He is in college to stay.

But even more tragic for mankind is the case of Anna Livia Plurabelle. Anna Livia, a classmate of Gregor's, had no talent, no gifts, no brains, no personality. All she had was a knack for taking tests. She would cram like crazy before a test, always get a perfect score, and then promptly forget everything she had learned. Naturally, she graduated with highest honors and degrees by the dozen, but the sad fact is that she left college no more educated, no more prepared to cope with the world, than when she entered. Today, a broken woman, she crouches under my sofa.

© 1962 Max Shulman

And speaking of tests, we makers of Marlboro put our cigarette through an impressive number before we send it to the market. But ultimately, there is only one test that counts: Do YOU like it? We think you will.

Confederate Rat's Skills Merit Yankee Praise

By BILL SALOMONE

Rodent E. Lee is a hard-working rat from Charlottesville, Va.

She is proficient in such skills as climbing stairs, riding cable cars and elevators, playing the piano and operating drawbridges.

In fact, just to eat, she must first climb a spiral staircase, cross a drawbridge, climb a ladder, ride a distance in a cable car, climb another staircase, sound a note on a piano which raises a cross gate in front of a tunnel, crawl through the tunnel, climb into an elevator, then let herself down to the bottom floor where she presses a bar and is fed. All this she does in 15 seconds.

It took Dr. Arthur Bachrach, chairman of the psychology department at ASU and his assistants two months and lots of patience to train Rodent E. Lee to do her tricks.

The training started with teaching her to press the bar for the food. Then she was taught all the other tricks in reverse order.

The procedure used is called chaining. Altogether 11 steps are involved.

RAT RACE — Illustrating the process of learning known as chaining, Rodent E. Lee completes a problem maze in 15 seconds flat.

Cosner Show Stars Kaye

"Knock on Wood," a movie starring Danny Kaye and Mai Zetterling, will be shown at Cosner Auditorium, 7:30 p.m., Nov. 15-16.

Kaye plays a famed international entertainer and ventriloquist, who is alarmed to discover his dummy talking back to him, without his control.

The remainder is absolute pandemonium as two spy rings attempt to gain control of secret plans for an atomic weapon hidden inside the dummy.

Naiads, women's swimming honorary, selected 18 new members for 1962-63.

New members are Patti Blue, Mary Ann Everley, Irene Metz, Emma Flores, Karen Kolb, Viki Lee Norrish, Kathleen Barmettlor.

Also, Julie Loper, Jackie Neunzig, Jackie Lucas, Charlotte Wake, Pam Walker, Judi Smith, Chris Reed, Gale Smith, Jo Ann Stewart, Luanne Henningsen and Nancy Foster.

Votes Pile Pennies Up In Ugly Person Contest

Delta Gamma's entry in the Ugly Person contest, Kimbeth Wehrle, currently leads in the second annual charity contest sponsored by Pi Delta Epsilon, journalism honorary.

The contest on the Den patio started Monday and ends this afternoon, in conjunction with Halloween.

Votes for the seven contestants are a penny apiece.

The contest is a service project of the club.

The contest proceeds help clothe the needy children for the Arizona Republic's "Dress a Living Doll" Christmas charity.

Other organizations entering are Gamma Phi Beta, Pi Kappa Alpha, Dawa Chindi, Lambda Chi Alpha, Alpha Epsilon Phi and Palo Verde.

Last year's winner was Delta Gamma's entry.

HERE'S ALL YOU DO TO WIN A MONSTER-RALLY KIT FOR YOUR GROUP:

1 Pass the hat and buy one Parker Arrow pen or borrow one—the new clean-filling, smooth-writing cartridge pen. It only costs $3.95.

3 Mail your list to: Monster Contest, P.O. Box 5049, St. Paul, Minn. We'll mail kits to winning groups, within 30 days. Sorry, but only one kit to a college or university and only 20 kits nationwide. Be sure to appoint a group leader and include his or her name and address with your entry.

2 Use this pen to acquire at least 200 (two hundred) signatures of fellow students. They need not be perfectly legible and we'll even accept artful aliases. Neatness does not count, but length does (the 20 longest lists of names win). Duplicate prizes in case of ties.

4 Consolation prizes will be awarded to each group submitting 50 signatures or more. You'll receive one FREE Parker Quink cartridge for each name (we're no dopes, they'll all have to buy Parker Arrow pens to put 'em in).

5 Decisions of judges final. All entries become the property of Parker. Contest void in Nebraska, Wisconsin, and anywhere else prohibited by law. All entries must be post-marked on or before midnight, Nov. 9, 1962, and received on or before Nov. 16, 1962.

Hostesses - Name Tuesday For Ribboning Ceremony

A ribboning ceremony for freshman women interested in becoming Freshman Hostesses will be in MU 218 at 3:30 p.m., Nov. 6.

Dress for the occasion will be dark sheaths and heels.

Women who cannot make this meeting may join anytime during the year by contacting Mrs. Trudy Thomas at the MU information desk.

Hostess officers are Sue

Springer, president; Joan Yenerick, vice president; Ann Malene, secretary; Christine Kajikawa, treasurer; Linda Oakley, publicity; Marty Stelhorn, reporter and Sue Hinkel, historian.

Karla Payne and Pam Lichty are junior advisors, and Mrs. Thomas is faculty sponsor.

A Halloween party and brainstorming session were highlights of the Oct. 30 meeting.

Honorary Receives Award

The Alpha Iota chapter of Gamma Alpha Chi, women's advertising honorary, has been announced as the winner of the national Chapter Achievement Award.

Local president Virginia Nebiolo was presented with a certificate while attending the national convention in St. Louis Oct. 19-21. The chapter will also receive a traveling trophy.

The chapter was judged on activities, relations with national, scrapbook completeness, and promotion of advertising on the campus and in the community.

Florence Zimmer, past professional sponsor of the ASU chapter was elected Southwestern vice president at the convention.

Also representing ASU at the convention was Roxanna Berry, 1962 graduate.

Lorick Paces Devils

Tony Lorick, Sun Devil left halfback, continues to be ASU's statistical leader after six games.

Lorick, a 200-pound speedster, maintained his rushing lead, having now gained 443 yards in 62 carries, a 7.1 average.

Lorick also leads the team in scoring with 42 points, kickoff returns and punt returns.

John Jacobs improved his passing record to 48 for 86, a .558 percentage, for 10 touchdowns and 748 yards.

Jacobs also is the team total offense leader.

Dale Keller also maintained his receiving lead. He has now caught 18 for 329 yards and five touchdowns.

Lorick is second in this department with nine catches for 213 yards.

Henry Carr moved to fourth among rushing leaders against Texas Western and improved his average to a scintillating 8.9 yards on 17 carries.

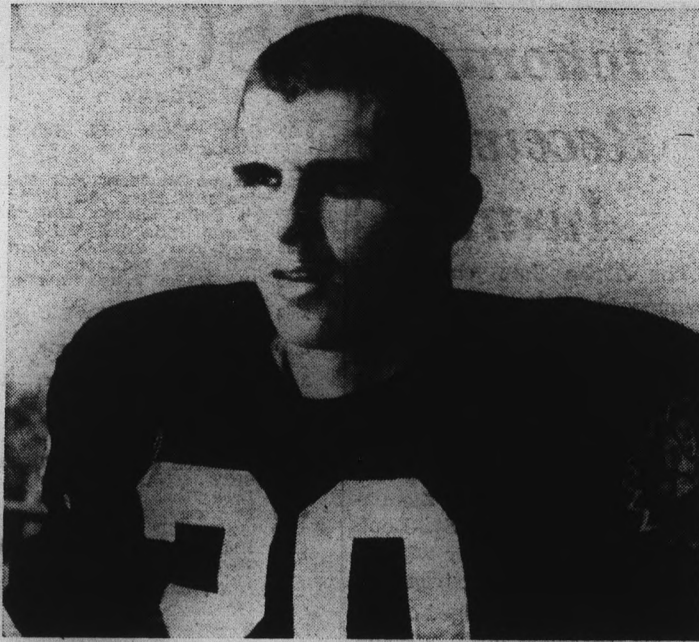

Kicker John Seedborg punted for a remarkable 46-yard average Saturday to bring his season average to 40.8.

He also booted five more extra points. He has kicked seven in a row.

ASU has four games remaining.

The Devils meet Utah State, Utah and New Mexico State the next three Saturdays.

The trip to Tucson for the meeting with annual rival UofA Nov. 24 will close the season.

DIRECTS SUN DEVIL OFFENSE — John Jacobs, currently the leading passer in the Western Athletic Conference, will lead the Sun Devils into battle Saturday night against the Utah State Aggies in ASU's Homecoming game.

Basketballers Head Into Team Phase Of Training

ASU's Sun Devil basketballers, after spending two weeks on conditioning and fundamentals, now head into the team phase of training with hopes that the next two weeks will see development of the starting five.

"It's hard to judge our progress thus far," commented Coach Ned Wulk. "We have no first team, as such, and upcoming scrimmage sessions should answer a lot of questions."

The Sun Devils will open their 26-game schedule Dec. 1 at home against Whittier College. During the season ASU will meet such teams as Pepperdine, Kansas, Kansas State, Wichita, Colorado, Minnesota, Texas Western, Canisius, Creighton, plus all members of the Western Athletic Conference.

Arizona Wildkittens Whip ASU Sun Imps In Finale

By NORDY JENSEN

Some say if you haven't got it up front you haven't got it.

And up front in the line is exactly where the UofA Wildkittens earned a 14-7 victory over the ASU Sun Imps last Saturday in the little-big game at Tempe.

A BIG Arizona line, averaging 238 pounds, limited the ASU rushing game to 38 net yards and seriously crimped the Imps' aerial game while wearing down the ASU line.

Quarterbacks Chuck Kolb and Rick Davis repeatedly were thrown for losses on crucial pass situations.

After a scoreless first half, the Arizona line sprang halfback George Jackson loose for a 35-yard touchdown run midway through the third period.

MINUTES LATER, on a fourth down and three inch play at the Imps' goal line, Wildkitten quarterback Dick Martinez followed the center of his line into the end zone for a score.

The only Sun Imp counter came on an 85-yard pass-and-run play from halfback Billy Smith to halfback Ben Hawkins.

HAWKINS ended the season scoring all of ASU's touchdowns. He finished with four as the Imps compiled a 1-2 record. Hawkins was the leading ground gainer against Arizona with 38 yards. He also caught two passes for 140 yards.

The game was marred with penalties and fumbles. ASU was charged with 100 yards in penalties and Arizona, 97. The Wildkittens fumbled 10 times, losing half of their miscues.

Off The Cuff

By JOE HEATH

Eldon Fortie, WAC's strongest contender for All-America honors, put on a one-man show again last weekend.

Moving at will against Utah State, he passed for two scores and legged for another.

It was in vain though, for when the final gun sounded he was an effort short — Fortie 21, State 27.

HIS SIX-POINTER, 119 yards rushing and 163 yards passing did raise his conference leadership in all three departments; but, as far as BYU is concerned, it would have been better off with a bye.

The rest of the Sun Devils' opponents came out equally as clean as Utah State.

Utah and New Mexico added wins to their records, but the big story came from Tucson, where West Texas State blew its class as well as its seven-straight win skein, 8-3.

Texas punter Hoot Gibson just wasn't quick enough on the draw.

Wildcat end Mike O'Mahoney broke through the line just in time to get a face full of football that turned the tide of the game.

THE SLIPPERY-FINGERED Sun Devils spotted a fired-up bunch of Texans a 7-0 lead. However, the clipboard-inspired sprinters finally held onto the ball long enough to build up a 14-7 lead before half-time.

The Devil line opened holes in the 4-5-2 Miner defense to let Tony Lorick gain 72 yards, Charley Taylor 60 and Mitch Siskowski 56.

With gains like this, the league's leading passer, John Jacobs, kept his red-hot arm at his side most of the night.

Just to keep Texas Western honest, though, he hit on eight aerials for 136 yards and two touchdowns.

AFTERTHOUGHT — If Utah State can employ a 6-5-4 defense, it might spoil the ASU Homecoming!

Devils Down TWC; Await Aggies

By BOB JACOBSEN
Sports Editor

Fresh from lopsided victories over San Jose State (44-8) and Texas Western (35-7), the once-beaten Sun Devils host the beefy Utah State Aggies Nov. 3 for Homecoming.

No romp is expected against USU as Coach John Ralston's forces come to town with a 6-1 record.

THE DEVILS are 4-1-1.

Despite the solid win over TWC Saturday, Coach Frank Kush termed some play spotty, and said some changes were going to be made before the Aggie contest.

"I'd say we'll have to play 50 per cent better against Utah State than we did against Texas Western if we expect to win," Kush said.

"The Aggies are big and strong and will try to beat us physically. We'll have to be ready for a peak performance."

Utah State's lone defeat came at the hands of New Mexico, who edged them 14-13.

The Aggies held a 13-0 half-time lead in that contest but couldn't hold it.

They have whipped San Jose State (29-18), Idaho (45-7), Montana (43-20), Montana State (41-13), Colorado State (21-0) and Brigham Young (27-21).

Heading the solid USU defenses will be the biggest man on the field for either team — 270-pound tackle Bill Williamson.

The Aggie line will average 221 pounds and from tackle to tackle, the line will average 234 pounds.

The Sun Devils' forward wall will average 206 pounds, giving up 15 pounds per man.

However, the Sun Devils' backfield will hold a 19-pound per man average over the Aggies.

ASU averages 193 to 179 for USU.

Ralston plans heavy pass defense practice this week for the Aggies as they relinquished their fifth touchdown pass in seven games Saturday.

As evidence of the ferocity of the Utah State offense, the Aggies have not run from scrimmage this season in excess of 30 yards, yet they are averaging 31 points per game and the majority of the points have come on ground offense.

The Devils will enter the contest with a scoring machine averaging 28.8 points per game.

The Aggies' starting line-up includes:

LE — John Matthews, LT — Bill Williamson, LG — Steve Cohen, C — Randall Tyson, RG — Jim Smith, RT — Lionel Aldridge, RE — Paul Mortensen, QB — Steve Shafer, LH — Larry Bryan, RH — Roger Leonard, and FB — Charles Claybaugh.

ASU WILL START:

LE — Dale Keller, LT — Mike Krofchik, LG — Joe Kush, C — Steve Fedorchak, RG — Bob Kec, RT — Pat Appulese, RE — Roger Locke, QB — John Jacobs, LH — Tony Lorick, RH — Charley Taylor, and FB — Dornel Nelson.

Fullback Mitch Siskowski and guard Kush were nominated for "Back and Lineman of the Week" honors in the Western Athletic Conference.

The Saturday night contest will be the sixth between ASU and Utah State.

The Aggies took the first contest in 1948 (22-17), but ASU has won the last four, 1949 (27-12), 1950 (28-0), 1951 (33-27) and 1959 (34-12).

Game time will be 8 p.m. at Sun Devil Stadium.
