

Street Dance On Tap For Western Week

The second ASU Western Week, Nov. 26-Dec. 2, will feature a barbecue, street dance, queen crowning, western sing, western dance and the two-day intercollegiate rodeo competition.

A kangaroo court will be in effect Tuesday through Thursday to promote the 'ole west' spirit by encouraging western dress.

The court will probably be located on the East Hall lawn.

The queen to reign over the week will be crowned Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. following the western barbecue sponsored by Alpha Gamma Rho.

The barbecue will begin on campus at 5 p.m., at which time two queen attendants will also be named from the nine queen finalists.

The queen will be presented a silver buckle with gold engraving and the attendants will receive gold bracelets engraved with gold.

Alpha Epsilon Pi will present a street dance following the barbecue.

Wednesday's Western Week highlight will be a western sing for all university organizations, groups and students at 7:30 p.m. at East Hall.

The week's highlight Western Week Dance Friday evening at 8 in the university cafeteria will feature the music of recording artist Ray Sanders.

Bulletin!

Mike Swartz, ASU's popular head cheerleader, was suspended yesterday afternoon by the Rally and Traditions Board.

Mike, in San Diego visiting his ailing father, was unavailable for comment.

Judging of the 44 beard growing contestants will be during the 9:30 intermission of the dance.

Prizes will be awarded for the longest, scrubbiest, most colorful and most original.

The two-day rodeo on Saturday and Sunday afternoons will include 10 teams from western colleges and universities, including, the Sun Devil team.

Rodeo events will begin at 1 p.m. in the Scottsdale rodeo arena at 2nd St. and Hinton St. in Scottsdale.

The 10 rodeo teams will be competing for points toward winning the championship of the West Coast region of the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association.

The regional championship team will then compete for the national championship in a post-season rodeo.

Competing teams will be: ASU, University of Arizona, Eastern Arizona Junior College, Pierce College, Mt. San Antonio College, Cal Poly at Pomona, Cal Poly at San Luis Obispo, Fresno State, University of Nevada, and Blythe Junior College.

Phi Sigma Epsilon fraternity will stage gun duels on campus throughout the week in an attempt to add to the western spirit.

Admission to the rodeo and the Friday western dance will be by activity card.

Senior Day -

NEARLY 4,000 high school seniors invaded the ASU campus Saturday for the annual Senior Day agenda of tours, talks and attendance at the football game.

Stub Pick-Up Slated

Tickets for the first home game of the 1962 ASU basketball season will be available to students and faculty at the Men's Gym ticket office beginning Tuesday, promotion director Al Stephan announced.

THE SUN DEVIL hoopsters will start the season at home against Whittier College Dec. 1.

Stephan announced that the same ticket-stub pick-up procedure as last year would be used for the 1962 season.

Tickets will be distributed on a first-come, first-served basis for the 2,316 seats available in the east side section of Sun Devil Gym.

THE TICKET office will be open daily at 8:30 a.m. next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday for ticket pickups.

Students and faculty members also may pick up tickets for the Dec. 3 game with Pepperdine and the Dec. 8 tilt against Fresno State at this time, Stephan said.

Lewis Leaves Campus

Hollywood star Jerry Lewis and Paramount Studios completed work midday Saturday on movie shots taken on the ASU campus for "The Nutty Professor" production.

Jerry left Saturday afternoon to lead the exodus of Hollywood personalities and crews from the campus. They returned to Hollywood to complete inside set shots for the movie.

LEWIS did not stay for the ASU-New Mexico State football game Saturday night because of fatigue.

William Davidson, unit production manager for Paramount, presented a check for $1000 to the Student Loan Fund.

Inside shots for the movie should be finished by mid-December and released in July.

COLLECTION for the muscular dystrophy fund, of which Jerry Lewis is national chairman, continues through today. So far $230 has been raised as a token of appreciation by the ASU students.

A scroll expressing the students' desire to make a contribution to the fund was presented to Mr. Davidson at the game Saturday.

WORLD NEWS

Reds Pour Into India

NEW DELHI — Chinese communist troops turned the undeclared border war into a full-fledged invasion, threatening northern India 25 miles away, when they overran the Indian mountain air base town of Bombila Monday.

Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru has asked the United States and Britain for "massive" military aid for what he calls India's fight to maintain independence.

Adenauer Coalition Survives

BONN, Germany — West Germany's coalition government has declared it will continue to operate even though the Free Democratic Party's five cabinet members quit Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's cabinet Monday.

The resignations were made as part of a drive to force the removal of Defense Minister Franz-Josef Strauss, head of the Bavarian section of Adenauer's party.

UN Urges Geneva Talks To Resume

UNITED NATIONS — The U.N. General Assembly's political committee urged the 18-nation disarmament committee to resume negotiations in Geneva "expeditiously."

The disarmament conference, which has been in recess since September, is scheduled to resume in Geneva next Monday.

President Kennedy, Soviet Premier Nikita Krushchev, and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan have all expressed readiness to resume negotiations "with renewed determination and vigor."

Solar Violins Presented To ASU By Longs

A matched set of stringed instruments, known as the Solar Quartet de las Palmeras, has been presented to ASU by Mr. and Mrs. Hugh W. Long, of Westfield, New Jersey, President G. Homer Durham has announced.

MADE BY Fernando Solar, Spain's most eminent violin maker, these instruments will stimulate the growing activity in chamber music now underway on the ASU campus, said Dr. Wendell Rider, chairman of the music department.

"Plans have been made," he said, "to establish a yearly series of string quartet concerts, to be known as Las Palmeras concerts, at which the instruments will be used."

Eugene Lombardi, concert master of the Phoenix Symphony and conductor of ASU's Symphony, said that the instruments — two violins, a viola and a violincello — are made from selected curled maple, 400 years old.

"THE YELLOWISH orange finish is achieved by means of a secret formula varnish, known only to the violin maker," Lombardi said. "And, since the wood is aged, the tone is not glassy as in new instruments, but instead is mellow and responsive, a little on the darkside, deeper in tone."

Mr. Long, an investment company executive, and his wife, the former Barbara Vaughn, a graduate of ASU, have also given

ASU a Guarneri violin as well as paintings and substantial financial gifts.

KASN Off For Holidays

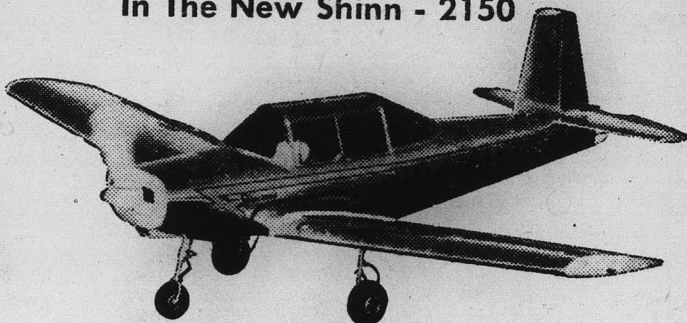

KASN, campus radio station, will not broadcast tomorrow or Friday.

The station will sign off at 6 p.m. this evening and return to the air at 1 p.m. Nov. 26.

KAET, ASU's educational television station, will present a limited number of programs tomorrow and Friday.

There will be no telecourses either day.

YR Meet Features Shoftstall Address

Dr. W. P. Shoftstall, ASU Dean of Men, spoke to the Young Republican Club last Thursday on the subject of Individualism vs. Collectivism. He discussed the aims and principles of each.

Dean Shoftstall said that collectivism as the Communists practice it today can not work because, "Communism stands or falls upon the possibility that man can be forced to be completely unselfish." The dean concluded that since complete unselfishness was impossible, Communism will fail.

Dean Shoftstall also said, "Unless we accept divine law, we must accept the law of man." He told the meeting that since individualism accepts divine law it eventually will overtake collectivism.

In other club business YR President Gary Walston announced that the state Young Republicans Convention will be held in Tucson Dec. 7-9. Walston also said that a faculty forum on the State Department will highlight next month's meeting.

Freshman Hurt; Falls 3 Stories

Brian Webb, freshman from Wickenburg, escaped severe injury last week when he fell from the third floor of Sahuaro A onto a bike on the patio below.

Webb was reported to have been on the third floor when the door suddenly opened and he slipped and fell under the guard rail and onto a bike, crushing it.

He was taken to Scottsdale Hospital where he was reported to have a broken wrist.

Cultural Affairs Exhibit

An exhibit of prints by outstanding artists, entitled Hayter and Atelier 17, will be in the MU lower lounge Nov. 20 through Dec. 11.

Sponsored by the cultural affairs committee, the exhibit includes a display of wood forms by Bob Stockdale.

Bulletin

Mike Swartz was suspended as Head Cheerleader by the Rally and Traditions Board yesterday afternoon.

Mike does not yet know about his suspension as he was on his way home to California when the decision was made. He had planned to visit with his family early and return in time for the UofA game. According to a Board member, Mike will be telephoned about his suspension.

The Board acted under the orders of administration officials and other powers that be. However, the Board did not make any effort whatsoever to notify the State Press of its action. We learned of it "by way of the grapevine." When we attempted to get an official comment from one of the Board members, he was too busy to comply.

The decision was sheepishly announced at the bonfire rally last night and was greeted with much student protest.

Several ASU Sun Devil football players who attended the bonfire rally expressed their disapproval of this action. We of the State Press express ours.

Suspension of our head cheerleader will only intensify any resentments that might exist. This is a foolish way to try to quell 13,000 students. This is a foolish way to try to squelch what enthusiasm our student body has.

Whenever young enthusiasm is stifled, it will find a way to express itself someday. Except that it is no longer enthusiasm, it is commonly called revolt.

Why not try the latter means of expression and ask for Mike's reinstatement as head cheerleader before the crucial UofA game.

A voice vote would ring loud and clear.

Editorially Speaking

What does Thanksgiving mean to most students here at ASU?

After taking a small straw poll of several fellow students, it seems as though Thanksgiving means a good home-cooked meal, a rousing football game, and of course, a holiday.

However, this attitude is not despicable, or apathetic or sacrilegious.

Instead, because Thanksgiving is completely an American invention, it has gone the road of so many other American inventions: it has become a casual day not taken seriously, yet always observed.

Americans love Thanksgiving, but they do not belabor the Pilgrim origins. Thanksgiving has grown up with the American people who have outgrown many of their Puritan traditions.

The meaning has changed a bit and now reflects 20th century America — a land of casual, luxury loving people who do not worship the past because they have so much future.

Many people have said many things about Thanksgiving, so instead of repeating the hundreds of well-worn phrases, we shall cease by saying, "happy Thanksgiving to all of you from all of us."

Letters To The Editor

TO THE EDITOR:

I am one of the 18,375 students who attend the University of Arizona and one of the many who read the Arizona State Press.

In your article of the Nov. 7 issue, "I Cover College Avenue," you seemed to be a bit upset over the shortage of tickets available to Arizona State students, who, naturally, want to cheer their nationally ranked team in the "big game."

This is sad that only 1,500 tickets were given to ASU students, but UofA students will receive only 9,000—which isn't too many for the over 18,000 students attending the "U."

Besides, all 12,000 of you at Arizona State should be thrilled to leave that Normal School to see a real University with a real campus.

Too bad ASU is still known as Tempe Normal and UA as "tops in the Southwest."

J. W. Giovando
Tucson, Arizona

I Cover College Avenue

By BILL OVEREND

Football at ASU is rapidly approaching the degree of professionalism previously associated with the "top ten" teams around the nation.

But one aspect of our weekly gridiron productions is lagging dramatically behind the other segments. It's the uniform of the Sun Devil mascot.

NOW WE know that the student who gives his time to don the ugly costume now used by this university is a very loyal Sun Devil. We hope he's back in action soon.

But his loyalty could be better expressed in a costume less repugnant to students and alumni.

Since the Rally and Traditions board is interested in improving things like this, we might suggest that they start compiling suggestions for new costumes for student mascots to wear.

A shiny red devil uniform would be far more attractive than the shabby, cheap, second rate uniform now used.

THIS COLUMNIST thinks that a first class team like ours has shown itself to be should be led to future victories by a well-dressed mascot.

The R&T board is the logical group to see that our mascot gets some new clothes when he returns to top action.

It was shocking to learn yesterday that ASU's best loved student, head cheerleader Mike Swartz, was suspended by the R & T board.

His suspension reflects disgrace on the board, which, apparently, cannot tolerate the controversy sometimes aroused by the efforts of a genuinely talented individual.

The sudden departure of Jerry Lewis and crew from ASU has obviously shaken some starry-eyed student extras who apparently thought his arrival here last week was the beginning of their film careers.

The efforts of some student extras to be discovered last week were, we must note, far more humorous than most of Lewis' antics.

THE EXTRAS, we speak of were, of course, easy to spot. They were carrying sun glasses, wearing new sweaters and hogging the camera throughout Lewis' stay.

We hope they're not too disappointed that all they got for their trouble was fun, money and experience.

After all, I've never noticed any Clark Gables or Liz Taylors around here before "The Nutty Professor" arrived.

You won't find a story about it in this paper, but, if you haven't heard, Thanksgiving is tomorrow.

November is one month for which this student is very thankful.

GLOOM AT THE TOP

Oh, sure, you've been busy, what with going to classes, doing your homework, catching night crawlers, getting married—but can't you pause for just a moment and give thought to that dear, dedicated, lonely man in the big white house on the hill? I refer, of course, to the Prexy.

(It is interesting to note here that college presidents are always called "Prexy." Similarly, trustees are called "Trixie." Associate professors are called "Axy-Pixy." Bursars are called "Foxy-Woxy." Students are called "Algae.")

But I digress. We were speaking of the Prexy, a personage at once august and pathetic. Why pathetic? Well sir, consider how Prexy spends his days. He is busy, busy, busy. He talks to deans, he talks to professors, he talks to trustees, he talks to alumni. In fact, he talks to everybody except the one group who could lift his heart and rally his spirits. I mean, of course, the appealing, endearing, winsomest group in the entire college—you, the students.

It is the Prexy's sad fate to be forever a stranger to your laughing, golden selves. He can only gaze wistfully out the window of his big white house on the hill and watch you at your games and sports and yearn with all his tormented heart to bask in your warmth. But how? It would hardly be fitting for Prexy to appear one day at the Union, clad in an old rowing blazer, and cry gaily, "Heigh-ho, chaps! Who's for sculling?"

No, friends, Prexy can't get to you. It is up to you to get to him. Call on him at home. Just drop in unannounced. He will naturally be a little shy at first, so you must put him at his ease. Shout, "Howdy-doo, sir! I have come to bring a little sunshine into your drear and blighted life!" Then yank his necktie out of his vest and scamper goatlike around him until he is laughing merrily along with you.

Then hand him a package and say, "A little gift for you, sir." "For me?" he will say, lowering his lids. "You shouldn't have."

"Yes, I should," you will say, "because this package is a carton of Marlboro Cigarettes, and whenever I think of Marlboro, I think of you."

"Why, hey?" he will say curiously. "Because Marlboros have taste, and so do you," you will reply.

"Aw, go on," he will say, blushing furiously. "It's true," you will say. "Moreover, Marlboro has a filter, and so do you."

"In my swimming pool, you mean," he will say. "Yes," you will say. "Moreover, Marlboro has a soft pack, and so do you."

"My limp leather brief case, you mean," he will say. "Yes," you will say. "Moreover, the Marlboro box has a flip-top, and so do you."

"But I don't have a flip-top," he will say. "But you will," you will say. "Just light a Marlboro, and taste that tasty taste, and you will surely flip your top."

Well sir, you will have many a good chuckle about that, you may be sure. Then you will say, "Goodbye, sir, I will return soon again to brighten your lorn and desperate life."

"Please do," he will say. "But next time, if you can possibly manage it, try not to come at four in the morning."

Prexy and undergrad, male and female, late and soon, fair weather and foul—all times and climes and conditions are right for Marlboro, the filter cigarette with the unfiltered taste.

14 Groups Enter Bicycle Derby

Cyclists representing 14 ASU organizations will begin competition in the Desert Bicycle Derby from the west MU entrance at 8 a.m. Nov. 24.

Sponsored annually by Alpha Tau Omega fraternity as a prelude to the ASU-UofA football game, the relay contest will begin in Tempe and end in Tucson.

The 10-lap relay averages 11.3 miles per lap.

At each relay station refreshments will be served by sorority women.

RELAY STATIONS will be at the Baseline and Highway 87 intersection, Hamilton's Corner; the Pima Indian Agency; Stephens' Trading Post, La Palma; First Baptist Church in Picacho and Red Rock.

Other stations will be at the Farmers' Store in Marana and Cortaro's Store. An even 10-mile stretch to the Ghost Ranch Lodge will end the derby.

ARIZONA STATE Highway patrolmen will safeguard each cyclist and control traffic during the race.

Trophies will be awarded by ATO at the football game for first, second and third places.

The large traveling trophy also will be presented to the winning organization.

PRIZES WILL be awarded to the fastest peddler in each lap.

Entered in competition are Phi Sigma Kappa, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Delta Sigma Phi, Newman Club, Alpha Epsilon Pi, M.O. Best "A", Hayden Hall,

Other entries are Phi Delta Lambda Delta Sigma, Theta Chi and Alpha Gamma Rho.

Rabbi Presents Judaism Lecture

Rabbi Albert Plotkin, of Temple Beth Israel, will speak on Chasidic Judaism Wednesday, Nov. 28, at 8 p.m. in the MU upper lounge.

His speech is part of the regular Rabbincial Lecture Series of Hillel and coincides with the Frontiers of Faith Series of Spiritual Exploration Week.

Rabbi Plotkin is a frequent guest speaker in Phoenix. He has been rabbi of Temple Beth Israel for seven years. He also teaches a course in Introduction to the Old Testament at ASU.

Staff Improves Library Service

A number of problems have been aided by new services initiated by Matthews Library during the past eight weeks, students and faculty members have discovered.

Dr. Allan Covey, who took over as head librarian this fall, has developed several programs designed to remedy past difficulties.

Among these is a lecture about the effective use of the library which is given to all EN 101 classe and planned for EN 201's.

The loan period has been expanded from seven days to 14, thus giving students a longer time to use the books.

The reserve book collection has been reduced to get more books out in the stacks. Only those books which the faculty has designated as assigned reading for the current semester will be on reserve.

Student library cards were initiated to speed up checking out books. About 5,500 students have registered to date.

Vacation At Thanksgiving: We Owe It To Sarah Hale And Abe Lincoln

Thanksgiving — the national holiday—exists today through the efforts of Sarah Josepha Hale.

In 1863, 99 years ago, Sarah Hale persuaded President Abraham Lincoln to issue a proclamation setting aside the last Thursday in November as a day of Thanksgiving.

THANKSGIVING itself began long before, of course.

Its origin goes back beyond the time of John Smith and Pocahontas.

The practice of giving thanks for a plentiful harvest goes back almost to the time when man first gave up wandering and hitched himself to a plow.

Along the Mediterranean, ancient peoples had festivals at harvest time in honor of a mother goddess.

THE SEMITES called her Astarte, while the Phrygians named her Semale.

The Romans honored Ceres, the goddess of agriculture, in a celebration called the Cerealia.

The Greeks paid tribute to Demeter in secret rites called the Eleusinian Mysteries.

CHRISTIANITY put an end to many of these festivals, but a pagan-inspired belief in the Corn Mother, or the Mother of Grains, survived among some peasants in the British Isles and Europe.

Her spirit, it was thought, lived in the last sheaf of grain left standing in the field.

During the Middle Ages the most common Thanksgiving and harvest festival was the Feast of Saint Martin of Tours, or Martinmas, on Nov. 11.

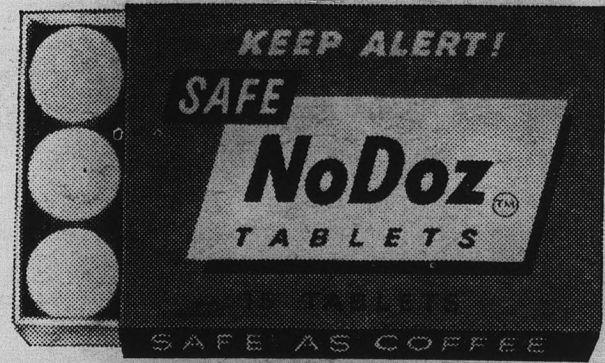

PEOPLE throughout Europe still celebrate this day with feasts.

The Pilgrims probably became familiar with this celebration when they went to Holland to escape religious persecution in England.

Perhaps the remembrance of this holiday inspired them to hold a Thanksgiving feast after their first prosperous year in the New World.

Latin American Confab Slated For Next Month

"The Political-Military Defense of Latin America" is the theme of a two-day conference slated next month on campus.

The event is the first annual faculty-student conference on political-military affairs.

Sponsored by ASU's departments of military science, political science and mass communications, it will be Dec. 7 and 8 in the MU.

Three noted guest speakers from out of state, Professor Ronald Hilton, of Stanford University, Dr. James L. Busey, University of Colorado and Dr. Russell H. Fitzgibbon, UCLA, will lecture.

ASU faculty members to participate include Dr. Arnold Tilden, dean of the college of liberal arts; Dr. Marvin Alisky, chairman of the department of mass communications; Dr. Bruce Mason, chairman of the department of political science, and Lt. Col. Theodore Wyckoff, chairman of the department of military science.

Student coordinator will be Roger Baymiller, a senior in the college of liberal arts.

Critic Acclaims Concert By Loewenguth Quartet

By SPERO THEODORE

The accolades the Loewenguth Quartet has gained in performances around the world were stamped with validity for all in attendance Sunday at the MU ballroom.

The program included Roussel's "Quartet in D Major," Honegger's "Quartet No. 3" and Ravel's "Quartet in F Major."

ALL THREE composers were contemporaries in an age of experimentation and innovation, tolerated if not encouraged by such teachers as Faure and d'Indy.

Like Roussel, Dukas and others, Ravel came under the influence of impressionism of the early 20th century.

THE HIGH spot of the Loewenguth Quartet's program was the Ravel Quartet, which was the composer's first triumph, performed in 1904.

Though Ravel is most famous for his relatively shallow ballet score "Bolero," it is in some of his lesser known works, such as the quartet, that his genius is better demonstrated.

Roussel's "Quartet in D Major" has the qualities of his more famous second and third symphonies.

THEY INCLUDE a precision of thought and refinement of expression that come from an aristocratic mind endowed with sensitive perceptions and insights.

The other work on the program was the "Quartet No. 3" by Honegger.

Honegger's style, noted for its virility, vigorous rhythms and dissonant harmonies, is less apparent in this quartet than in his earlier works.

Artist Experiments In Style And Media

By JANET BERGMAN

Among the 5,500 freshmen at ASU, there is one, Robie Allen, who has the "quality and wit of a first rate artist."

This was the comment of Robert Davey, curator of education at the Phoenix Art Museum, after reviewing Miss Allen's work recently on display at McClintock B dorm.

ACCORDING to Davey, "Miss Allen's work clearly shows broad sensitivity of feeling and great ability in dealing with varied media.

"Style is most important to her and she is fortunate in having already found one which is her own. She displays a refreshing courage by experimenting. Her works are well thought out and rational," Davey said.

A SECOND semester freshman majoring in art education, Robie graduated from Camelback High School in Phoenix, where she was assistant editor of the yearbook and news editor of the newspaper.

In her words, "I have to draw to satisfy a need to create. Until I give away a painting, it has no meaning."

Dr. Theodore A. Gill, president of the San Francisco Theological Seminary, will be the keynote speaker at assemblies during Spiritual Exploration Week, Nov. 26 to Nov. 30.

The theme of the week is "Frontiers of Faith."

Dr. Gill will speak at three assemblies in the MU ballroom. At 3 p.m. Monday his topic is "Images for Smashing"; at 7:30 p.m. Monday, "Theology in a New Key"; and at 3 p.m. Tuesday, "Uncorseted Christianity."

DR. GILL, a noted author, lecturer and religious educator, received the bachelor of theology degree at Princeton Theological Seminary and the doctor of theology degree at the University of Zurich, Switzerland.

The purpose of Spiritual Exploration Week is to give students and faculty the opportunity to explore their own and other religious points of view. Its purpose is not to indoctrinate a certain concept, according to the Rev. Charles Crouch, sponsor of the Student Religious Council.

Outstanding resource leaders will be on campus all week. They will speak at informal sessions, conduct personal conferences, and be available to speak before various campus groups.

DEAN GARY Anderson will preside at a faculty luncheon at 12:30 p.m. Monday in MU 218C. All resource persons will be present.

Afternoon buzz sessions will be in SS 209; night sessions will be in the MU upper lounge. Buzz sessions are scheduled as follows:

- 4:00 p.m. — Monday — Religious and Foreign Policy — Rev. Donald Griggs and Rev. Paul Hutchins.
- 4:00 p.m. — Tuesday — "Made In Whose Image?" — Rev. David C. Marshall and Rabbi Maurice Corson.
- 7:45 p.m. — Tuesday — "Has Religion Failed the Campus?" — Dr. Theodore Gill and Dr. Dwight Allen and Dr. Chilton McPheeters.

3:45 p.m. — Wednesday — "Religion Before Adam and Eve: Prehistoric Religion" — Dr. Colwell, Rev. Joe C. Smith, and Dr. Gerald Bright.

7:45 p.m. — Wednesday — "Crazy, Mixed-up Marriages" — Rev. Frank Knebel, Rev. Cecil L. Prior and Rev. David C. Marshall.

3:45 p.m. — Thursday — "The Old and New Reformation" — Rev. William Jeffs, Rev. Frank Knebel and Rev. David C. Marshall.

3:45 p.m. — Friday — "Communism's Exploitation and Suppression of Religion" — Rev. Paul Hutchins and Rabbi Philip Jeffa.

International Contest Lures Rifle Team To New Mexico

Starfires, the ASU rifle team, will take 16 members to Alamogordo, New Mexico, for an international gallery, position shooting match this weekend.

THE ASU team recently placed second in the state shooting tournament. Williams Air Force Base won by one point.

Twelve countries will be represented in the match including many teams from the United States.

Although all teams will shoot this weekend, 12 different locations in the U.S. will be used.

POSITIONS for firing are prone, sitting, kneeling and standing. They will be firing at a target 50 feet away which has a bullseye the size of a pencil point.

The Starfires, coached by T/Sgt. Fred O. Brown of the Air Force detachment and sgt 1/c William T. White of the Army detachment, have 38 members whom they have formed into small bore and high power teams.

THE TEAM has hopes that Andrea Canning, ASU coed, will gain the women's title, according to Vic Elsberry, team president.

Salesmen Meet

Pi Sigma Epsilon, professional sales fraternity, met this morning for a business and pledge testing meeting in the MU.

"If I had it to do over again, would I take Army R.O.T.C.?"

My wife and I are in Panama at the moment. She likes it. You know, Officers' Club, dances—that sort of thing. I like it, too. But whether I stay in the Army or not, the question is: Would I take Army R.O.T.C. if I had it to do over again? Yes, I certainly would. In spades, I didn't realize how lucky I was. At the time I figured: Okay, so I'll get my degree—get an Army commission, too, and pick up some extra money along the way! I wasn't the leadership type, I thought. I was wrong. Boy, was I wrong! Looking back on it, I wouldn't trade the leadership training I got for anything! Take my word for it, leaders are made—not born! Whether I stay in the Army or not, nobody can take away what I've learned. And let's face it, where can anybody my age step out of college and walk into a standard of living this good? Look, if you have already invested two years in college ROTC, take it from me: Stick it out! It'll be one of the smartest things you ever did. I say so."

'Preacher' Stars; Devils Triumph

By JOE HEATH

The maroon and gold closed their 1962 home stand Saturday night by stunning an individually led New Mexico State team, 45-20.

When the final gun sounded, Aggie fans had but one thing to cheer: James (Preacher) Pilot's 149 yards on 25 carries gave him the national leadership in rushing.

However, as a unit, the Aggies sat back and watched the powerful Sun Devil offense roll up a 21-0 first period lead that proved enough to win the game.

NOT CONTENT with this, the Devils added three more points before half-time and 21 in the third quarter.

The only man to hit paydirt twice was Gene Foster, who completed the longest gain of the night — a 73-yard TD pass play from John Jacobs.

Foster's other tally came on a one-yard plunge.

Having his best night of the year, John Seeborg hit six straight point-afters and added a 25-yard field goal to contribute nine points to the fray.

SEEBORG now has made good on 20 straight PATs and has hit 35 of 37 on the season.

In the game, marred by 119 yards in penalties, ASU kept its 15th spot in the UPI grid poll.

Once again the Devils rolled up over 400 yards with 402, gaining 257 rushing and 145 passing.

A highlight of the Devil attack was Chris Stetzar's defensive duty, as he picked off two Aggie passes and converted one into a 45-yard TD.

Cougars Defeat Cowboys

Brigham Young's victory over Wyoming Saturday clinched the first Western Athletic Conference football title for New Mexico's Lobos.

The Cougars, who got limited action from the nation's total offense leader, Eldon Fortie, pushed over a third period score to break a 7-7 deadlock and held on to whip the Cowboys.

Two weeks before, BYU also smashed New Mexico, 27-0.

It marks the first football title for New Mexico since 1938 when it tied New Mexico State for the Border Conference title.

New Mexico never won a football championship in the Skyline Conference.

Utah absorbed its second consecutive loss, at the hands of Utah State 19-6, and saw its chance for a better than .500 season ride on an upset against UCLA.

Arizona scored its second win in a row, shutting out Texas Western, 7-0.

The Wildcats scored on a 19-yard pass from sophomore quarterback Eddie Bricker to sophomore halfback Lou White in the fourth period.

The win brings the Wildcats' record to 4-5 with the ASU contest remaining.

Devils Pace WAC

Arizona State has four team titles wrapped up and John Jacobs and Dale Keller have individual titles in the Western Athletic Conference as the league closes out its campaign Nov. 24 with ASU at Arizona and UCLA at Utah.

The Sun Devils pace the conference in total offense with 400.3 yards per game, in rushing offense with 247.1 yards per game, and in forward passing offense with 153.2 yards per game and in rushing defense with 108.2 yards yielded per game.

Jacobs is the league's top passer with 66 completions in 120 attempts for 1,140 yards and 13 touchdowns.

Keller has nabbed 18 passes for 329 yards and five touchdowns.

Roger Locke, ASU's preseason All-America candidate, probably will not make too many All-America football teams this season, but it is not due to a lack of effort on his part.

It is a widely-known fact All-America ends are picked because of their pass receptions during the season, but due to ASU's balanced attack and fine array of receivers, Roger has only caught 11 for 203 yards and two touchdowns.

"Roger has been outstanding for us this season," said head coach Frank Kush. "His blocking and defensive work have been excellent, and he would be up there in pass receiving if we threw more, or if we threw specifically to him."

LOCKE'S OFFENSIVE VALUE was shown in ASU's recent win over Utah, 35-7.

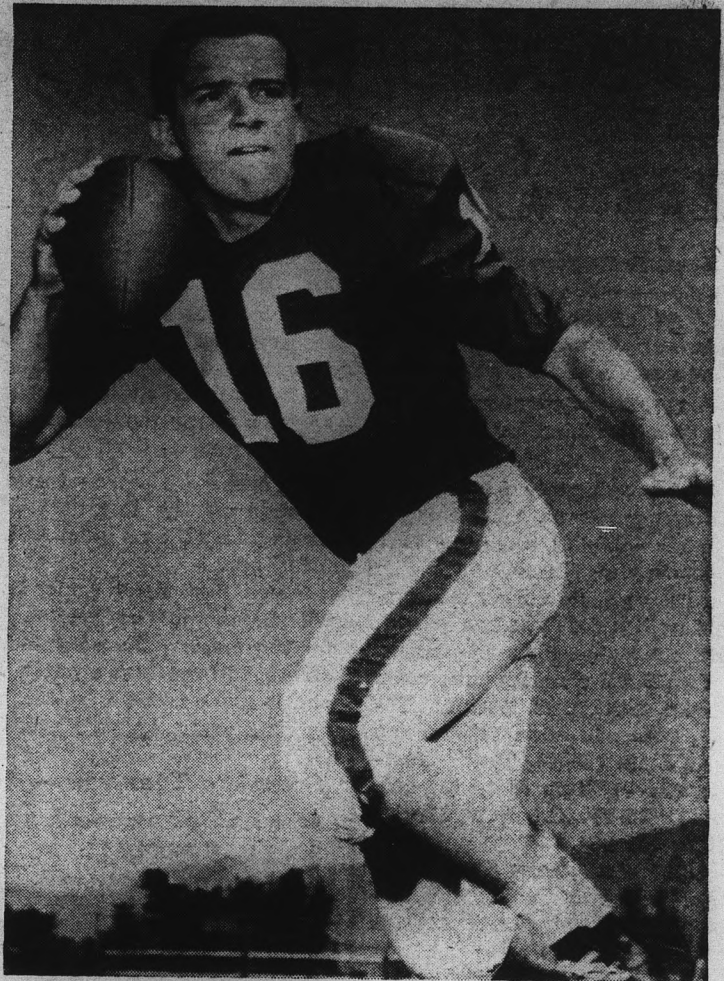

In that game he caught three passes for 86 yards and scored on a 56-yard TD pass from John Jacobs, as he bowled over two Utah defenders.

Roger's plans for the future include a try at pro ball. "If someone will give me a look, I sure intend to give it a try," he said.

Sun Devil seniors Dale Keller, Mike Krofchik, Steve Fedorchak, Dornel Nelson, Roger Locke, Bob Widmer and Bob Minitti will be playing their last Sun Devil game Saturday against Arizona's Wildcats, and it's a fact — ASU will miss them.

KROFCHIK, NELSON, WIDMER and Locke have been around four years and it has been three years since ASU has seen victory over Arizona.

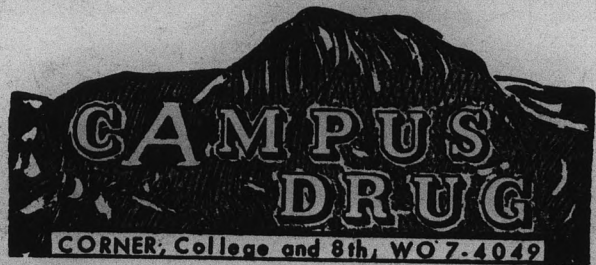

It might be safe to say — maybe the drought has ended.

ARIZONA SIGNAL-CALLER — Bill Brechler, junior Wildcat quarterback, will direct the Arizona attack Nov. 24 in the 26th annual meeting between the Sun Devils and the Wildcats. Brechler has carried the ball only four times all season but has a 7.5 per carry average.

Devils Tackle 'Cats KTAR-Basketball In Season's Finale

Tucson's Arizona Stadium will be the place Nov. 24 for the 36th renewal of the football rivalry between Arizona State's Sun Devils and Arizona's Wildcats.

A record crowd of more than 27,000 is predicted for the 8 p.m. kickoff.

Approximately 5,500 Sun Devil partisans, 1,500 being students, are expected to journey to Tucson.

Arizona State enters the contest with a 7-1-1 season record, while Arizona sports a 4-5 mark.

Sun Devil victories have come at the expense of Wichita (21-10), Colorado State (35-0), San Jose State (44-8), Texas Western (35-7), Utah State (34-15), Utah (35-7) and New Mexico State (45-20).

Only West Texas State managed to slip by the Demons, 15-14, while Washington State was held to a 24-24 tie.

In fashioning their 7-1-1 mark, the Sun Devils have amassed 287 points, while holding the opposition to 106.

That's clipping along at better than 31 points per game, while limiting foes to less than two TDs per game.

But this being the traditional "big game," previous records can be discarded. Many times in the past the underdog has emerged the victor in this contest.

One prime example was in 1955.

The Sun Devils entered the game with the identical won-loss record of this year's edition and were rudely shocked by Arizona, 7-6.

And, come Saturday, Sun Devil Head Coach Frank Kush expects no easy time.

"We won't score any 30 points," he said. "We'll have to be at our best to win. It's a matter of getting yards and we'll fight for our lives to score."

Last season, before a throng in Sun Devil Stadium of 40,164, the largest crowd ever to watch a sporting event in the state, the 'Cats won by 22-13 after the Devils had taken a 13-3 half-time lead.

Many fans came away from this encounter feeling they had seen two games in one: The first half ASU won, the second half Arizona triumphed.

Arizona enters this year's fracas on the crest of a two-game winning streak, its first two straight victories of the season.

And the Wildcats can boast the resurgence of an experienced line that played a major role in last year's best-ever team which was 8-1-1.

"They were picked to win the WAC, and they're just now coming into their own; this is a good team," said Kush.

Highlight of the 'Cats' four wins was the 8-3 standoff against West Texas State.

Arizona held off BYU, late season WAC power, 27-21. Kansas State fell 14-13, and last week, Texas Western toppled 7-0.

Losses were to New Mexico, 35-25, Missouri's Big Eight defensive powerhouse, 17-7, Air Force, 20-6, Wyoming, 31-8 and Idaho, 14-12.

The Sun Devils' brilliant quarterback, junior John Jacobs, enters the game close in pursuit of two ASU passing records.

He needs 68 yards passing to top the mark of 1,208 set by John Hangartner in '58 and needs two TD passes to top the 14 thrown by Hangartner in 1957.

With one more season to go, he stands on the threshold of becoming the all time great ASU quarterback.

Seven Sun Devil seniors will be seeing final action for the maroon and gold — unless ASU receives, accepts and is given consent by the Board of Regents for a bowl game.

The seniors are ends Roger Locke and Dale Keller, tackle Mike Kroschik, center Steve Fedorchak, guard Bob Widmer, fullback Dornel Nelson and defensive back Bob Minitti.

If ASU wins, the Devils will be the "uncrowned champions" of the Western Athletic Conference.

WAC rules require a minimum of four conference games to qualify for the title. Utah and Arizona were the only WAC opponents scheduled.

Phoenix radio station KTAR has been granted rights to represent ASU as the official play-by-play outlet during the 1962-63 basketball season, Clyde B. Smith, athletic director, has announced.

Bob Vache, KTAR sports director, will do the play-by-play.

The station will cover all games from the point of origin. KTAR, 620 on the dial, is affiliated with the National Broadcasting Company.
