Regents Elect Head; New Member Named

Elwood W. Bradford was elected president of the Board of Regents of the Universities and State College of Arizona at last Saturday's session at ASU.

Bradford will replace Samuel H. Morris retiring board president; also retiring is Lynn M. Laney.

Other board members re-elected to office Saturday include O. D. Miller, secretary; Mrs. Vivian L. Boysen, treasurer; George W. Chambers, assistant secretary; and Leon Levy, assistant treasurer.

AT THE SAME session this morning, the Regents were presented with modification of plans for a $780,000 addition to the ASU engineering center.

The modification of the building designed by Ralph Haver and Associates of Phoenix would reduce the glass exposure on the south side of the structure.

W. P. Gross was named to the Board of Regents by Governor Paul Fannin on Jan. 3. Gross is the president, director and general manager of Magma Copper Co. since 1944. From 1937 to 1941, he was superintendent of a copper mine in South Africa.

Members of the Board of Regents are appointed in such a manner that their terms expire at different times.

THERE ARE 13 Regents; two are ex-officio, the Governor of Arizona Paul J. Fannin, and the State Superintendent of Public Instruction W. W. Dick.

The appointed members of the board are O. D. Miller, secretary; Vivian L. Boysen, treasurer; Samuel H. Morris, John G. Babbitt, Elwood W. Bradford, president; George Chambers and Leon Fred Levy.

James Byron McCormick is the adviser to the board; Myron R. Holbert is the budget officer, and Alvred B. Nettleton is now serving as the general examiner for the board.

ASU President Homer Durham also serves as an ex-officio member of the Board of Regents.

The Regents recently voted to change the name of the College of Applied Arts and Sciences to the College of Engineering Sciences. They also voted to raise the registration fees to $115 per semester.

Should Fine Arts Program Be Given Federal Support?

(First of Two Part Series)
By SPERO THEODORE

Most of us can agree that like the population explosion and the technological revolution, there is an arts explosion going on. That like the cold war and the nuclear arms race, it is of basic importance and something has got to be done about it.

The arts is a stilted phrase, but it means that there are deeper hungers inside every human being that we have fully understood. With increasing leisure, the hunger is growing quietly fierce, to be lifted out of humdrum life, out of ourselves into scenes and sounds and situations which bring out the dignity and delight and drama that life possesses. That is what the arts do.

WHEN THAT hunger goes unappeased, or is teased rather than met, you find crime and delinquency rising five times the rate of population growth as is now happening, as people, mostly young people, slake the hunger by violence.

The nations of Europe have been in the business of nationhood from ten to twenty times as long as the United States has. All of them have long since recognized that the arts are, as President Kennedy once said, not an interruption or a distraction in the life of a nation, but are close to the very center of a nation's purpose.

THE PARIS OPERA, like the Comedie Francaise, enjoys direct support from the government of France. The Kabuki Theatre of Japan and other art forms in that country are considered a primary national interest, like public health or the trade balance. Our good neighbor Canada directly supports the arts, like the annual drama festival which is world famous.

The Italian government not only supports opera in Italy, that relatively poor country has sent monetary contributions to the opera of wealthy America to stimulate the recruitment of singers it hopes to use.

BUT THE BIGGEST official support for arts occurs in our adversary — Russia. The Bolshoi Ballet is looked on as a prestige weapon in the cold war as vital as missile or guerilla war training.

The United States is the only major nation in the world in which the central government gives no direct aid or recognition to the arts. Probably most Americans do not know it, but for the majority of the world's best young pianists are American, yet we did not honor one of the best of them, Van Cliburn, until he first won the acclaim of Russia by winning the Soviet state supported Tschai-kovsky competition in Moscow.

Clearly something is going to be done. The demand for action has become irrepressible. Part 11 of this series will explore what has been done by the federal government thus far in aiding the arts and will study a Senate bill that would, in part, give such support.

Make-up Is In Beauty News

Cosmetic make-up in '63 will be more sculpture than painting, predicts "Mademoiselle" this month.

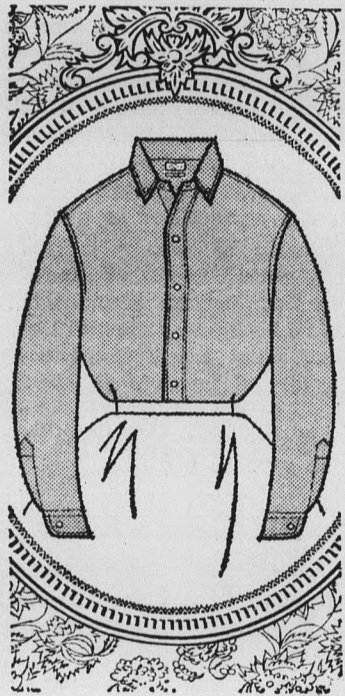

Jane Blair, the magazine's beauty editor, suggests using color to mould your best features, to curve an eyebrow, shape a cheek, or soften the mouth.

One should select colors that are almost no-color, sepias, golds, taupes for a faintly luminous effect, she advises.

Miss Blair also suggests a hairdo to crown the luminous look. Try the new paradox hairdo. The back hair is slicked up and tucked under while the sides curl down and checkward, often caught up with nursery-school bows.

To keep a constant glow and a fresh look on your skin, "Mademoiselle" suggests you alter your beauty routine for long-range rewards.

You might try the shock treatment of a stimulant after your usual cleansing, or try a mask or cream pack once a week to leave your skin clean, rosy and rested looking.

On The Go

By MARY GORMAN

Finals are approaching rapidly and the ideas of places to go seem to be fading from the scene. Despite the presence of non-activity week and final week, there are still those who are interested in something to do — besides study.

If you've been hitting the books all semester, then you'll have plenty of spare study time in the next few weeks. If you haven't been studying, then perhaps you'll probably be looking for something to do anyway.

REMEMBER THE VOICE of Maria in the soundtrack of "Westside Story"? Well, you can see the "voice", Marni Nixon — tomorrow afternoon in Cosner Auditorium at 2:45.

Miss Nixon, who is scheduled to appear with the New York Philharmonic Orchestra later this year, is an internationally known soprano. She will be accompanied by Ivan Brown.

Also scheduled to appear at the same time is Peter Hewitt, pianist, widely known for his contemporary works.

NEXT MONDAY, Jerome Hines, famous bass of the Metropolitan Opera will appear at Phoenix Union High School Auditorium, at 8:30 p.m.

Hines has appeared at the Metropolitan Opera house as well as in Europe and South America.

Interestingly enough, Hines does not have a degree in music, he holds a doctorate degree in mathematics.

Like to twist? Then compete in the twist contest this Saturday at 2:30 p.m., at the intersection of Scottsdale and Main.

The contest of the Parada Del Sol Rodeo activities will include music by Wild Bill's band. Prizes of $15, $10 and $5 will be given.

There is finally a place in Tempe where a guy can take a date without worrying about getting into a brawl as has happened in other popular places around campus.

THE LOUNGE of the Tempe Sands, supervised by Ron Winquist, caters especially to ASU students. The prices have not only been lowered, but the atmosphere is great and the company good. Drop in sometime and say hello to Ron. He'd like to meet you I'm sure. It's a good place to go for a break during finals and for TGIF all the time.

The newest contest on campus is the "Ole Wooden Bucket" award sponsored by the wrestling team. The bucket is given annually to the club, organization, dorm, etc., which has the largest turnout at the ASU-UofA wrestling meet on Jan. 18.

The Western Athletic Conference will open league play this weekend with three games: Utah at Arizona, New Mexico at Wyoming and Brigham Young at ASU.

The third-ranked Sun Devils (AP) will play host to a BYU crew with a 5-9 record, which includes victories over Baylor, Oklahoma City and an overtime loss to Wichita.

BYU also was edged by only six points by Ohio State on the Buckeyes' home floor.

Utah, 6-7, will visit the University of Arizona, 8-5, in the second of three conference games.

The Utes, possessors of the nation's leading scorer last season in Billy McGill, will feature 6-2 jumping jack Bo Crain and John Allen.

Al Johnson, of South Mountain High in Phoenix, is Arizona's leading scorer and rebounder.

Other Wildcat stars include sophs Warren Rustand and Dennis Albright, junior Larry Harris and senior Wes Flynn.

IN THE OTHER CONFERENCE clash, New Mexico will match its 9-3 record and rebounding aces 6-8 Ira Harge and 6-5 Mike Lucero against Wyoming's Flynn Robinson, a 20-plus scorer per game, and the Cowboys' height.

ASU's Art Becker recently broke a school record for consecutive free throws by hitting 28 of 28 attempts.

The record formerly was 17 straight by Sun Devil Dick Daugherty.

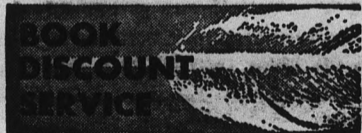

Daugherty also was national free throw leader that season, so . . .

The five Sun Devil starters' statistics are truly amazing.

THEY ARE AVERAGING 54.1 per cent of their shots from the field, are pulling down close to 40 rebounds a game and are averaging 73.8 points per game.

Devils Smash Aggies; Nip TWC Miners, 63-60

By JOE HEATH

The Sun Devil basketball squad brushed up for its league opener Friday night by painting losses on New Mexico State University and Texas Western.

New Mexico's Aggies were the first to succumb to the Devil machine, dropping last Friday's contest, 87-60.

Making good 30 of 72 floor shots for 54.9 per cent, the Devils coasted in after building a 43-28 halftime advantage.

Art Becker's 12 field goals and 4 for 4 from the foul line led all scorers.

Russell Mathews was high man for the home team with 13.

Two other Devils hit double figures as the bench was cleared midway through the second half.

Dennis Dairman tossed in 16 points and Joe Caldwell 14.

Although Becker sat out the last five minutes of the game, his 10 rebounds were enough to lead both squads.

While holding the Aggies to a 37.6 floor average, 10 of the Devils hit the scoring column.

The two will meet again Feb. 4, this time in the Sun Devil gymnasium.

Texas Western posed somewhat more of a problem for the Devils.

With less than two minutes showing on the clock at El Paso, ASU was trailing, 60-59.

A field goal by Caldwell with 1:28 left provided the winning margin.

A pair of insurance free throws were added by Bob Howard and the Sun Devils came away with a 63-60 victory.

Coming from nine points back, the Devils knotted the score at 34-34 by the end of the first 20-minute period.

The second half lead see-sawed several times with the Texans holding the majority of the point advantages.

The 49-45 Western lead was the largest bulge by either club.

Three men tied for high point honors at 19 apiece.

Becker and Caldwell gathered the points for ASU, while guard Nolan Richardson was high for the Miners.

Hot on Richardson's trail was 6-8 Jim Barnes, who was "held" to 18.

CLUTCH FREE SHOTS — Bobby Howard, brother of former ASU guard great Paul Howard, provided the Sun Devils with two vital points last weekend in El Paso. He converted a one-and-one free throw attempt with six seconds left to ice the game for the Devils, 63-60. Bobby will be in action Friday and Saturday when ASU hosts Brigham Young and Utah. ## Gymnasts Edged By Denver

ASU's gymnastics team took six of eight first places from Denver University, but lost the dual meet, 65½-62½, Friday in the gym annex.

Team captain Jerry Stansbury was high point man for the meet with 25 points. He captured firsts in parallel bars, long horse and side horse.

However, it was a lack of depth which hurt the Devils as they netted only one second place and a tie for second.

Top Denver performer was Jerry Beckett who took both DU firsts. He ended with 21 points and top honors in free exercise and horizontal bar.

First place winners:

Free exercise — Beckett, DU, 88; trampoline — Dennis Sullivan, ASU, 83; side horse — Stansbury, ASU, 83.5; horizontal bar — Beckett, DU, 90; long horse — Stansbury, ASU, 86.25; parallel bars — Stansbury, ASU, 86.5; still rings — Chris Evans, ASU, 92, and tumbling — Jim Nelson, ASU, 85.
