

ASU Sun Devils Ranked Third

Anderson To Stage Tragedies

By GWEN ZUPANCIC

Judith Anderson and Company will present William Shakespeare's "Lady MacBeth" and "Medea" on Feb. 1.

The program is sixth in the Concert & Lecture series sponsored by the Cultural Affairs Board. It will begin at 8:15 p.m. in the Tempe Union High School auditorium.

Dame Judith, hailed by critics as the outstanding classical actress of the English speaking stage, has had her greatest challenges and triumphs in these roles.

She has won two TV "Best Actress" Emmies for her two different performances in "Lady MacBeth."

Though born in Australia, she is one of the foremost ornaments of the American stage. She first starred in "Cebra" then "Strange Interlude," "As You Desire Me," "Mourning Becomes Electra," "Come of Age" and "The Old Maid."

Sir Laurence Olivier played opposite her in "Hamlet." Dame Anderson played in Robinson Jeffers' "Tower Beyond Tragedy" and in the Katherine Cornell production of "Three Sisters" opposite Maurice Evans.

Perhaps most exciting was her being knighted by Queen Elizabeth II as Dame Commander of the British Empire in 1960.

As "MacBeth" and "Jason", opposite Judith Anderson, is William Roerick, discovery of the late Alexander Woollcott, who saw him in a college production of "MacBeth."

General admission is $3 and no charge with student ID cards.

ANDERSON — Shakespearean actress, Judith Anderson, acts out a scene from "Medea" which will be presented Feb. 1 at ASU, as part of the Concert and Lecture series.

Highest Arizona Ranking Ever

By BOB JACOBSEN
Sports Editor

Arizona State University's Sun Devils reached a new height Wednesday in Arizona basketball history as the Devils were ranked third in the nation on the latest AP poll.

ASU, 12-1, shot ahead of Illinois, who bowed to Notre Dame, 90-88, on New Year's Eve, but who knocked off fourth-ranked Ohio State 90-78 Monday night to give the Buckeyes their second loss.

Cincinnati's Bearcats retained their perfect lead with 440 points based on 44 ballots.

THE BEARCATS have an 11-0 record.

Loyola, Chicago, 13-0, also retained second place with 378 points and three victories last week.

After ASU's 256 points came Ohio State 9-2 with 229 and Illinois, 10-1, with 220.

Duke climbed three places to sixth while unbeaten Georgia Tech, 9-0, jumped into seventh place.

WICHITA, 9-3, the only team to succumb to the Devils this season, climbed to eighth, West Virginia, 8-3, jumped to ninth, and North Carolina, 6-1, completed the top ten in tenth place.

ASU hosts Brigham Young tonight and Utah tomorrow night in Sun Devil gym, as the Devils open their bid for the first Western Athletic Conference basketball crown.

Correction

The front-page article, "Regents Elect Head . . ." of Wednesday's State Press misspelled the name of the newly appointed member of the Board of Regents as W. P. Gross.

His correct name is W. P. Goss.

Second Semester Activities To Liven Campus Schedule

By TOM WING

The ASU campus literally will be a whirlpool of activity for students again next semester as the multitude of scheduled events indicates.

Numerous concerts, appearances of nationally and internationally famous entertainers and personalities, plays and dances attest to the impressive programs available to ASU students.

STUDENT government activities, sports events, socials and vacations further testify to the variety provided.

The semester working period will be between Feb. 4, when classes begin, and May 31, the end of final examination week.

Three days, which are normally scheduled for class, will be free for vacations. There will be no classes Feb. 22, Washington's birthday, and no classes April 12 or 16 due to Easter.

The second annual Grady Gammage Memorial lecture, on Feb. 7, will bring internationally known Dr. Paul A. Schilpp to discuss "The Crisis in Science and Education."

The annual AWS-AMS Fashion Show will be Feb. 12 at 7:30 p.m. in the MU ballroom.

ASU Founders Day is scheduled for Feb. 15.

THE ANNUAL Military Ball is slated for the evening of Feb. 15 in the men's gym.

The Heart Fund Ball, sponsored annually by Alpha Phi sorority, will also be Feb. 15.

The Wallfich Duo, appearing Feb. 17, will be the semester's second presentation of the Concert and Lecture Series.

THE AMERICAN Heritage series will begin a five-week series Feb. 20 with the theme "Expressions of the American Spirit." The series will feature an ASU professor speaker each Wednesday at 2:45 p.m. in MU.

The Sun Devil Band Formal Concert will open with presentations on March 1-2 at Tempe Union High School.

ASU's baseball season will open March 1 against Los Angeles State College on the ASU field.

ASU'S OUTDOOR track and tennis seasons will open March 2 with the Long Beach Invitational track meet and the UofA coming to ASU's tennis courts.

Annual Derby Day, sponsored by Sigma Chi fraternity, will also be March 2, with field events and a dance.

March 9 will be highlighted with the seventh annual Memorial Union Birthday Party.

"The Consul" by Gian-Carlo Minotti will be the University Players' first presentation of the semester, appearing March 14-16 and 21-23.

'Mademoiselle' Appoints Coed To Fashion Board

CINDI

ASU will be represented this year on Mademoiselle's national college board by Cindi Buchanan, an ASU junior.

Miss Buchanan, a student in the College of Education, is an English major.

As a college board member, she will report news from ASU to Mademoiselle and she is eligible to compete for one of the 20 guest editorships that will be awarded by the magazine in May.

College board members who win guest editorships will go to New York City in June to help edit, write and illustrate Mademoiselle's 1963 August college issue.

Advisement

Tomorrow noon is the last day for second semester curriculum advisement. Students unable to make appointments during this period will not be able to meet with their advisors again until late in registration week.

All students planning to carry more than six semester hours must meet with their advisors to get an approved program of study.

WORLD NEWS

WASHINGTON — Sen. Carl Hayden, 85-year-old dean of the Senate, won by voice vote his re-election as president pro tempore of the Senate Wednesday.

The Tempe, Arizona, pioneer was escorted by his 70-year-old runner-up, Sen. George O. Aiken (R-Vt.), to the rostrum where he repeated his oath of office from Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson.

ELISABETHVILLE — President Moise Tshombe, with his control of Katanga, walked from the U.N. house arrest yesterday and drove far into the jungle.

"I want to save my people from massacre," the secessionist leader declared as he urged his forces not to fire on advancing U.N. troops.

Along the route, villagers and small bands of Katangan gendarmerie formed honor guards greeting and cheering Tshombe.

Behind Tshombe were U.N. armored cars and armored troop carriers to open the supply route from Northern Rhodesia to Elisabethville.

Tshombe, who was placed under U.N. arrest Tuesday, granted freedom of movement of U.N. troops to Sakania, where his disorganized forces have fled.

Business Meet To Preview '63

Dr. John A. Cochran, professor of economics and chairman of the economics department, will be the principal speaker Jan. 24 at the 1963 Business Outlook Conference in the MU ballroom.

The conference, sponsored by the economics department, the bureau of business services and the Small Business administration, Washington, D.C., will open with registration at 5:45. A welcoming address by Dr. Glenn D. Overman, Dean of the College of Business Administration will be followed by dinner.

Dr. Cochran will talk on the business outlook for 1963 and Dr. Ralph C. Hook, Jr., director of business services, will moderate a panel discussion.

Panelists will be James Byers, president, First National Bank; Dr. C. Lester Hogan, vice president of Motorola; Walter T. Lucking, president, Arizona Public Service Co. and Phoenix Chamber of Commerce; Lawrence Mehren, vice president, Valley National Bank; James A. Rork, administrator-director, Arizona State Employment Service; and Dr. Martin T. Farris, professor of economics.

The panel will discuss questions such as:

Will 1963 set a new all-time high in national and Arizona property or see a general stagnation? What can be expected from 1963 tax changes? What is ahead in trade, labor, real estate, gold, banking, agriculture, manufacturing and the stock market?

For further information on the conference, contact the economics department, BA 307, ext. 496.

Debate Team To Compete In Last Meet

Fourteen ASU debate team members will compete tomorrow morning in an intrasquad forensic tournament.

Three rounds of debate are scheduled for 8:30, 10 and 11:30 in SS 104, 105 and 106.

All teams will be power-matched following the initial round with first place positions being determined in the winner and consolation brackets.

Squad participants will debate both the affirmative and negative sides of the current national topic: Resolved that the non-communist nations of the world should establish an economic community.

The intrasquad competition is the last debate activity of the semester and is used, in part, as preparation for tournaments of second semester. The debates are open to students and faculty members.

MU Faculty Show

Have you seen the Faculty Show in the MU lower lounge?

The show will be presented through January by the faculty members. It includes paintings, sculpture and some pottery.

Packard Analyzes Society

Vance Packard, author of "The Status Seekers," "The Waste Makers," "The Pyramid Climbers" and "The Hidden Persuaders," spoke to an overflowing crowd Tuesday night in the MU ballroom.

Packard emphasized the great loss of prudence, too many people in debt and the great amount of morality condolence in his speech.

"The young are not willing to wait for their rewards," said Packard. "They want everything their parents have worked all their lives for in a short time," he continued.

More About Spring Activities

On March 17, Ferruccio Tagliavini will appear in the Concert and Lecture Series.

The University Orchestra Concert will be March 18.

POET W. H. AUDEN will speak in the MU on March 20 as part of the Concert and Lecture Series.

The I.F.C. Sing will be March 22.

Convocation on March 25 will open the annual Greek Week with the Grecian Ball closing the week on the 30th.

"Othello," a play by Shakespeare, will be presented by the University Players on March 28-30 and April 4-6.

Dr. Juscelino Kubitschek, former president of Brazil, will speak April 1 in the Concert and Lecture Series.

THE ORCHESIS' spring dance concert at Tempe Union High School will be April 9 and 10.

Pianist Mieczyslaw Horowitz will play April 18 in the Concert and Lecture Series.

AWS Women's Day banquet and assembly will be April 25.

The Sun Devil Twilight Concert will be April 30 on the West Hall quad.

LOLA MONTEZ and her Spanish dancers will appear May 6 in the Concert and Lecture Series.

"The Room" by Harold Pinter and "The Great Rage of Phillip Hotz" by Max Frisch will be presented May 2-4 and 9-11 as the University Players' final productions of the year.

In My Opinion—

Trying Times? .....Not Really

By BOB ZACHE

THESE ARE the times that try mens' souls; and their patience and their pocketbooks.

The summer student and the sunshine scholar will, in this crisis, shudder and clutch his wallet to the breast.

'Tis the time of registration,
Time of planned procrastination.
Once again we stand in line
In football fields and pass the time
Checking schedules, choosing classes,
Defending places from the masses,
Finally enter. Tempers burst;
Some young freshman got there first.

BUT TAKE heart! Have courage! All is not lost. We are assured by Alfred Thomas Jr., registrar and director of admissions, that things are not really so black as they could be; or even as they used to be.

Note: The class schedules, previously printed in minuscule type, are actually readable this semester.

Note: The repetitious forms (library, church, associated students, health, security, etc.) which we have had to fill out prior to this last fall, are now condensed into one.

Note: Nobody can come up with a real improvement over the present system of central distribution of class cards.

THE REGISTRATION staff has studied the situation and is always striving to improve it. They considered the computer system used at Purdue then wondered why, if it were so great, the other big ten universities haven't converted to it.

We suggested that maybe after picking up registration materials students could get class cards from the colleges concerned; education majors at the Education building; engineers at the Engineering center; PE majors from the gym; etc.

They are planning to conduct a pilot study for this summer's session whereby students will pick up class cards from four points around campus instead of one.

BUT IT turned out this system was abandoned for the general sessions about eight years ago. Seems it was really confusing with everyone running around campus picking up cards for various classes. The UofA still does this and suggestions have been voiced there that maybe they should convert to our system.

According to Thomas, the present system doesn't work as well as it should because of students trying to beat it.

Registration materials will be available at the Moer building during nonactivity week and on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of finals week. The Registrar suggests not waiting until the last minute to get them.

ALSO THERE are certain times listed in the class schedules for students to pick up their class cards at the gym. They will not be admitted before these times, so there is no use waiting for hours on the football field to get in.

Students will be admitted according to class and alphabetical placement of last names. By following this schedule the student will save himself much time and shoe leather.

Try it. You may be pleasantly surprised.

ANOTHER COMPLAINT invariably heard following every registration is that a few individuals were treated rudely, or brusquely by some of the workers — staff and campus security.

Processing up to 13,000 students in two and one half days is no picnic. The registration staff is no less pleased than students when patience prevails and chaos is cancelled.

Try smiling. You may be pleasantly surprised again.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

HOW'S HE COMING ALONG ON TH' COURSE DESCRIPTIONS FOR THE NEW CATALOG?!!

I Cover College Avenue

By MARY GORMAN

Since it's that time of year for final examinations, today's "I Cover" will have its own little final test for the "real" students.

These questions cannot be found in any club files; nor can they be picked up in the trash cans of the Business Administration building, where so many finals are first taken.

NO, THESE questions are directed at those students who believe they have learned something while in college. The only trouble is, the acquired knowledge sometimes has nothing to do with questions asked on tests.

Okay, everyone, whip out your paper and pencils and get ready. Do not mark on your test sheets ahead of time, please.

The questions are:

1. Name eight brands of beer. Double credit for foreign brands.

2. Mr. _____ is a bald-headed man who can clean your house and everything that's in it.

3. What rock 'n roll group played "Charlie Brown?"

4. What is the recipe for "Purple Passion?"

5. What newspaper does Clark Kent work for? Has he any other outstanding accomplishments to his credit?

6. Complete the following quotation: Do not pass _____, do not collect _____ dollars.

OKAY, TIME. How many passed the test? According to the Arkansas State Teachers College student newspaper, The Echo, any college student could pass the test. Well "students," how did you fare?

What does this test prove? It gives you something else to read on this page besides the final schedule.

GOOD LUCK to all those taking examinations. If you're one of the trash can diggers, I suppose I should say "happy hunting."

There are a few honoraries on campus which are looking for a reason for existence. Any suggestions anyone?

The mascot will get his new uniform yet. The Circle K club is sponsoring a car smash to raise money for the uniform to replace the "red jobs" the devil mascot has been sporting this past year.

IF YOU FEEL like beating anything next week, why not go out to the Social Science building Tuesday and Wednesday of final week, January 22 and 23, and try out your luck on the car at 10 cents a smash.

We Get Letters --

TO THE EDITOR:

I have hesitated writing this letter for sometime, but a nagging pain somewhere and everywhere in my body has culminated; I write now in search of relief.

It all began when the simple, flowing lines of the fish pond in the Social Science building were interrupted by an abortive mass of something designed, I think, to function as a fountain.

Having spent little of my education in the formal study of art, I know not the origin of this pain which has me on the brink of nausea.

May I request from the person or persons responsible for this creative placement a full artistic explanation of its function relative to the established scheme of things?

I would like to learn more of why I hate it so.

STUDENTS RIOT

EDITOR AVEY TELLS REASONS FOR RIOT

When asked to comment on recent student riots, Sahuaro editor Gary Avey said:

"It all started when some of the proof pages from this year's Sahuaro began circulating on campus. I warned my staff not to let any of the proofs out of their sight. Unfortunately, ly, one of my assistants, Jane Keaton, failed to heed my warning. She left them unguarded in the ladies room in the MU." Miss Keaton was arrested this morning for inciting a riot and was unavailable for comment.

Yearbook Editor Gary Avey

This is Avey's second year as editor of the yearbook. When asked how many years he had been attending ASU, he, also, was unavailable for comment.

The yearbook staff is generally pleased with its newly acquired quarters in the MU basement.

Ann Schneider, organizations editor, can find only one fault with the new men's room arrangement, "The seats were a bit uncomfortable at first but after a while we got used to them. However, we all have our own private offices — small, but private."

"No special problems have occurred in the production of this year's book," Avey said. "Well, we did lose one staff member, Alfhred Slingbottom. He slipped and fell into the press. He came out the other end with a beautiful full-color print of the Administration building on his back. But, since we are using a lighter weight paper, he couldn't be used."

Avey lists the improvements in this year's Sahuaro as: "Well, this year we are using the type paper found in most books. Last year too many students were using their Sahuaro's for paper towels."

"However, our major improvement will be a cover. And, let me make it clear right now that this year ASU students will not find any of the pages duplicated in the Tempe High School annual. We copied from Scottsdale High instead," Avey said.

RIOTING — ASU students riot in front of MU. Reason for riot: "We just wanted to make sure we placed our orders in time for the 1963 Sahuaro," declared a student participant.

Yearbook Office Mobbed

ASU students mobbed the Sahuaro yearbook office located in the MU basement early last night when a student reportedly found a few proof pages from the 1963 yearbook.

"We wanted to make sure we got our '63 yearbooks," said riot leader Cindy Buchanan.

As the mob began forming, the Campus Commandos mistook the uprising for a panty raid and immediately surrounded the women's residence halls.

By the time the fire trucks and human barricades were in position around the dorms, the mob had already marched on the MU. Information desk attendant Steve Montgomery claimed that he was helpless to avert the rioters.

The yearbook staff members could hear the chanting mob when it had reached the games room. Yearbook business manager Tony De Prima quickly replaced the men's sign on the entrance to the office. "It reduced the number of students to rush into the office," De Prima said.

"Bob Carter and John Brooking dramatically walked up to Avey and placed their six dollar orders on his desk," a staff member reported. Avey rushed into the hall and appealed to all demonstrators to wait until registration to purchase their yearbooks.

The crowd slowly dispersed. Bob Hulme, game room desk operator, said it was the busiest night the games room has had all year.

The yearbook staff was warned by the administration that no such outbursts will be tolerated during non-activity week.

QUEEN — The 1963 Sahuaro Queen is Zelda Fontain (with trophy). Runnersup are: Melinda Mildew, Ruby Zelchet, Hairless Joe and Beulah Bulgebottom. The '63 yearbook will include a special fold-out middle page featuring Zelda and her court.

Library Change Almost Finished

Matthews Library will assume a new look beginning with the second semester.

The walls are now being painted and most of the moving will take place during semester break.

The reference service now at the north end of the main lobby, will be divided into three sections.

THE DESK at the south end of the main floor lobby will handle general reference and humanities materials. Science, social science and business administration materials will be at the south end of the second floor. The current periodicals section at the north end of the second floor will be for educational reference only.

The card catalog section will be moved to the south eastern section of the main floor.

CURRENT periodicals will be where the card catalog and reference reading rooms are now located.

The reserve book section will be moved from the south end of the second floor to the desk at the north end of the main floor lobby.

THERE WILL be some shifting of materials within the stacks. Scientific periodicals presently in the stacks will be moved to the scientific reading room.

The turnstile and checkpoint to the stacks will be eliminated. They will be re-located at the main entrance facing College Avenue.

Campus, County To Host Annual Safety Confab

The first annual safety conference sponsored by the College of Education and the Maricopa County Medical Society is scheduled for Jan. 25 and 26 at the ASU campus.

It is designed for elementary teachers, parents, school administrators, and health and safety instructors throughout the state.

The current stature of safety education in Arizona will be discussed and suggestions proposed for an improved program. Registration will be at 9 a.m. in room 101 of the education building.

Dr. G. D. McGrath, dean of ASU's College of Education is general chairman, assisted by Dr. Donald E. O'Beirne, chairman of the department of elementary education and Dr. R. Craig Rover, associate professor of education.

The boxes which contain State Press papers have been painted yellow.

Mac B Defeated In Bowl Match

Congregational Fellowship defeated McClintock "B" 222-63 in yesterday's College Bowl match.

The Congregational Fellowship team, consisting of Mary Avery, Shiela Sample, Ann Okada and Nick Hagen, increased their number of wins to four.

The Mac "B" team consisted of Jo Ellen Swain, Sheri Lane, Rose Ann Herman and Phyllis Hoffman.

The next College Bowl match will be Feb. 14 at 4 p.m. in the MU ballroom. At this time, Congregational Fellowship will meet Alpha Delta Pi sorority.

Senate To Study Security Moves

The ASASU Senate passed a motion yesterday to appoint a special subcommittee under the jurisdiction proceedings by Campus Security.

Senator Rick Lavis moved, "... that the Senate appoint a special subcommittee under the jurisdiction of the Student Government Operations committee to study all phases and operations of the Campus Security department via public hearings and transmit the findings of the special subcommittee to the Senate, the executive branch of ASASU, and to the President of the University."

Senator Lavis presented two notarized statements at yesterday's Senate meeting. One claimed that the owner's car had been broken into, "hot-wired," and moved to Campus Security headquarters by Campus Security.

THE OTHER stated that an attempt had been made to "hot-wire" his car under the supervision of a Campus Security officer.

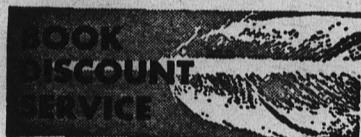

"Hot-wiring" is a term used for starting a car without the ignition key by connecting ignition wires under the dash.

Both cars were reported to have been parked illegally.

Students Clear Bogus Checks

With one exception, restitution has been made on all faulty checks written by students since October according to Detective Leroy Wick, Campus Security.

Forty-one faulty checks totaling approximately $1000 were passed. Most of the checks were drawn on accounts with insufficient funds, Wick said.

Economic Outlook Of Arts Termed As Critical In U.S.

By SPERO THEODORE
Second in a series of three

The first article in this series gave the partial case for the defense of the position that federal aid should be directly given to the arts in the United States. It pointed out that the United States is the only major nation in the world in which the central government gives no direct aid or recognition to the arts.

Part III of this series will give those arguments against direct federal aid to the arts as well as voice the opinions of students and faculty members on campus.

When our State Department sends some of our good work abroad, like Porgy and Bess, every performance is a sell-out. The appetite for appreciating and pursuing the arts exists in America and even is growing urgent. More young Americans go to concerts each year than go to baseball games. More than thirty million Americans play some kind of musical instrument, yet many and indeed most of our arts are in critical economic condition.

Clearly something is going to be done. The demand for action has become irrepressible. Late last year, the Lincoln Center for the performing arts was opened in New York City.

A survey shows that a third of a billion dollars is being spent on merely building centers and structures for the display or performance of arts in cities throughout America, making art a factor for the first time in the nation's industrial life.

In the last session of Congress Senator Jacob Javits of New York proposed a federally supported Arts Foundation. The proposal got the backing of a Senate committee for the first time in American history.

President Kennedy explained on closed circuit television recently why the arts of America are just as important if not more so, than matters of hardware which Congress eagerly acts on: "Thus art and the encouragement of art is political in the most profound sense, not as a weapon in the struggle, but as an instrument of understanding of the futility of struggle between those who share man's faith. Aeschylus and Plato are remembered today long after the triumphs of imperial Athens are gone. Dante outlived the ambitions of thirteenth century Florence. Goethe stands serenely above the politics of Germany. And I am certain that after the dust of centuries has passed over our cities, we too will be remembered not for victories or defeats in battle or politics, but for the contribution to the human spirit."

We'll be on the campus on the dates listed below, ready to give engineering and science seniors information on space-age careers in a dynamic industry.

If you are looking for a company offering assignments on programs of unique interest and career potential, you'll be interested in the advantages Boeing can offer you.

Boeing, for instance, is a major contractor on such advanced programs as the Saturn S-IC first-stage rocket booster, the X-20 Dyna-Soar manned space glider, the solid-fuel Minuteman ICBM, and the Bomarc defense missile system. Boeing is also the world's foremost designer and builder of multi-jet aircraft, including the eight-jet B-52H missile bomber, the KC-135 tanker-transport, the C-135 cargo-jet, and the famous Boeing 707, 720 and 727 jetliners. In addition, Boeing's Vertol Division is one of America's leading designers and builders of helicopters.

Research projects at Boeing are under way in such advanced fields as celestial mechanics, solid state physics, nuclear and plasma physics, flight sciences, space flight and propulsion.

Expanding Boeing programs offer exceptional opportunities to holders of B.S., M.S. and Ph.D. degrees in aeronautical, mechanical, civil, electrical-electronic and industrial engineering, and in engineering mechanics, engineering physics as well as in mathematics and physics. Assignments are available in Washington, Pennsylvania, Kansas, Louisiana, Alabama, California and Florida.

You'll work in a small group where individual ability and initiative get plenty of visibility. You'll enjoy many other advantages, including an opportunity to take graduate studies at company expense to help you get ahead faster.

Drop in to your Placement Office and arrange for an interview. We're looking forward to meeting you!

'Car Smash' Prescribed For Final Exam Therapy

A novel way to relieve tensions during finals and to raise funds for the new Sun Devil Mascot uniform has been planned by Circle K, ASU service club.

The club will sponsor a "car smash" on the sidewalk in front of Social Sciences on Tuesday and Wednesday of final week.

Nine-pound sledge hammers will be provided to complete the demolition of an old car. Students will be permitted to let off pent-up emotions to their psychological benefit by smashing at the car with the sledge.

Fee for this therapy is ten cents a smash or three strokes for a quarter.

The motto of Circle K is "We Build." The 400 clubs on college and university campuses in the United States and Canada are sponsored by the Kiwanis International. The ASU organization was started last year. Membership is open to all male students in good scholastic standing.

Officers are Bill Harrington, president; Andy Gibbons, vice president and Bob Chrisman, secretary.

Chi Omega Car Wash

Chi Omega pledges will have a car wash from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. tomorrow at Pitt's Mobile Station, corner of Eighth St. and Mill Ave.

Tickets are $1 each.

Colorado Cadets Challenge Rifle Teams To Match

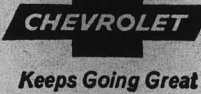

Cadets from the Air Force Academy at Colorado have challenged the Starfires, ASU rifle team; the AFROTC and AROTC rifle teams to a re-coupable rifle match this month, according to Capt. R. B. Jensen of the ASU Air Force ROTC department.

The first match is set for 8 a.m. tomorrow in the Goodwin Stadium shooting range. The second match is scheduled for Jan. 16 at the Air Force Academy.

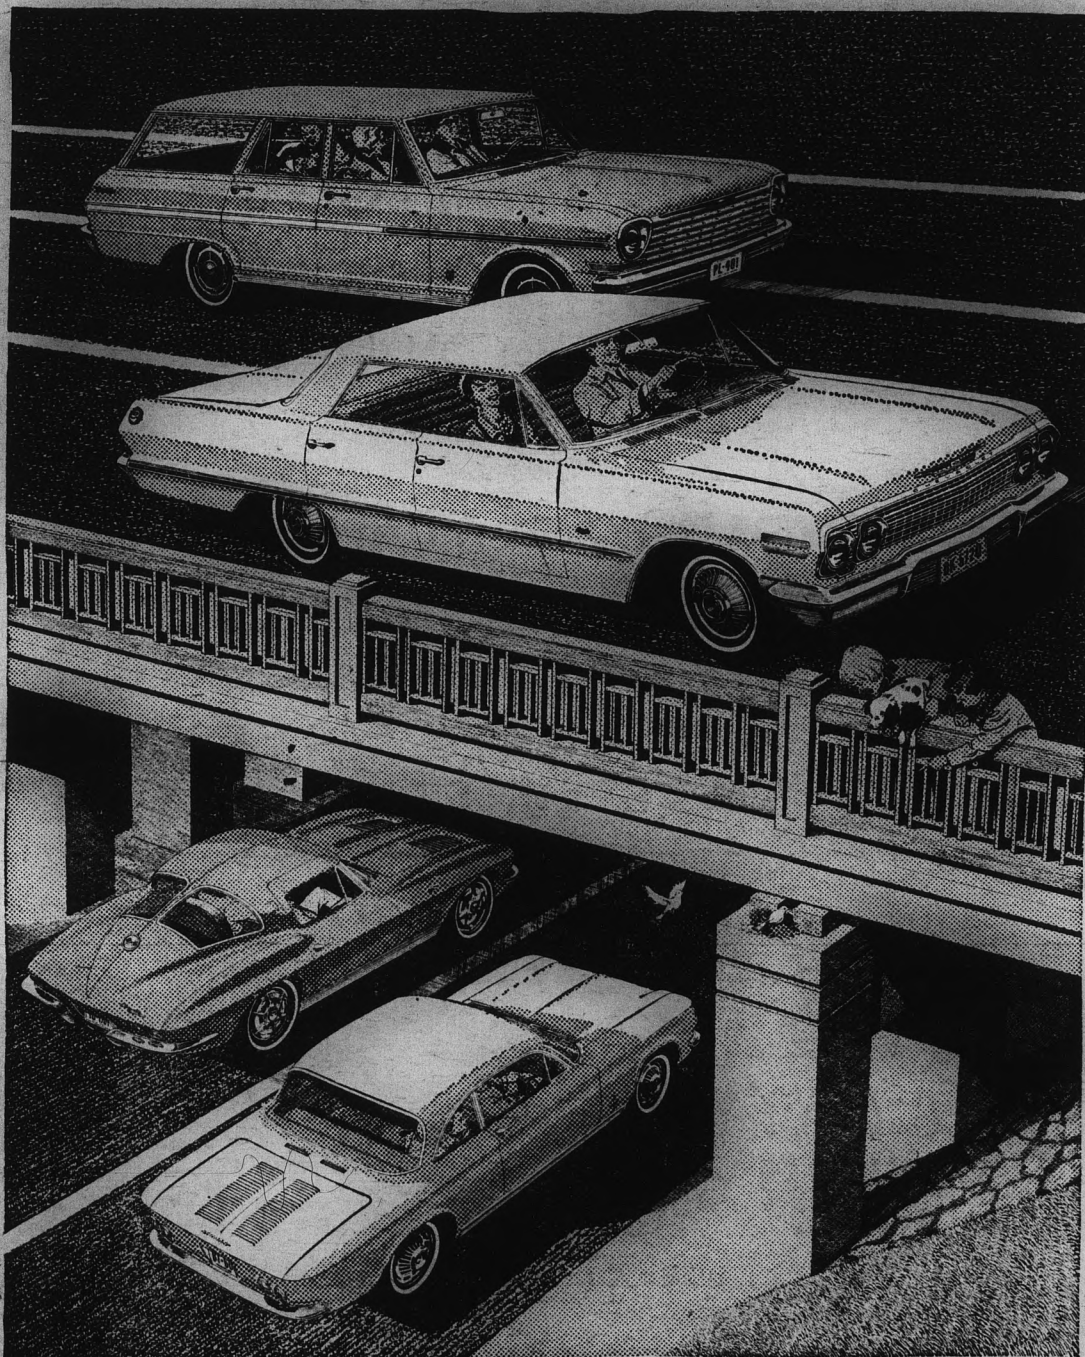

A permanent trophy will be awarded to the team scoring highest in the combined scoring points of both matches. Certificates will be awarded to outstanding individual marksmanship.

A GUIDE FOR THE UNMONEYED

R. L. Sigafos was a keen, ambitious lad, and when he finished high school he wished mightily to go on with his education. It seemed, however, a forlorn hope. R. L.'s father could not send the boy to college because a series of crop failures had brought him to the brink of disaster. (R. L.'s father raised orchids which, in North Dakota, is a form of agriculture fraught with risk.)

It was, therefore, squarely up to R. L. He could go to college only if he worked his way through. This was a prospect that dismayed him. He had a deep-seated fear that the task would be too great, that he would never be able to carry on a full, busy college life and still find time to do odd jobs and make money.

Racked with misgivings, R. L. paced the streets, pondering his dilemma. One day, walking and brooding, he came upon a park bench and sat down and lit a Marlboro cigarette. R. L. always lit a Marlboro when he was low in his mind. R. L. also always lit a Marlboro when he was merry. The fact is there is no occasion—happy or sad, pensive or exuberant, cheery or solemn—when Marlboro with its fine filter and fine flavor is not entirely welcome, as you will discover when you go to your favorite tobacconist and buy some, as we—the makers of Marlboro and I and R. L. Sigafos—hope you will do real soon.

Sitting and thinking and smoking a Marlboro on the park bench, R. L. was suddenly interrupted by a small, quavering voice which said, "My boy, you are troubled. Can I help?"

I gave a fencing lesson to the Dean of Women

Seated beside R. L. was a tiny, gnarled man with wispy, snow-white hair. His skin was almost transparent, showing a delicate tracery of fragile bones beneath. His back was bent, and his hands trembled. But his eyes were bright and clear. R. L. looked into those eyes, into the wrinkled face. He saw wisdom there, and experience, and kindness. "Do you think, sir," said R. L., "that a boy can work his way through college and still enjoy a rich, full campus life?"

"Why, bless you, son," replied the stranger with a rheumy chuckle, "of course you can. In fact, I did it myself."

"Was it very hard?" asked R. L.

"Yes, it was hard," the stranger admitted. "But when one is young, all things are possible. I, for example, used to get up at five o'clock every morning to stoke the furnace at the SAE house. At six I had to milk the ewes at the school of animal husbandry. At seven I gave a fencing lesson to the Dean of Women. At eight I had a class in early Runic poets. At nine I gave haircuts at the Gamma Phi Beta house. At ten I had differential calculus. At eleven I posed for a life class. At twelve I watered soup at the Union. At one I had a class in Oriental languages. At two I exercised the mice in psych lab. At three I gave the Dean of Women another fencing lesson. At four I had qualitative analysis. At five I went clamming. At six I cut meat for the football team. At seven I ushered at the movies. At eight I had my ears pierced so that at nine I could tell fortunes in a gypsy tearoom. At ten I had a class in astronomy. At eleven I tucked in the football team. At twelve I studied and at three I went to sleep."

"Sir," cried R. L., "I am moved and inspired by your shining example!"

"It was nothing," said the stranger modestly, shaking his frail white head. "It was just hard work, and hard work never hurt anybody."

"Would you mind telling me, sir," said R. L., "how old you are now?"

"Twenty-two," said the stranger.

Faculty Wives Club Plans Dinner-Dance

The Faculty Wives Club of ASU will have La Grande Soiree, a semi-formal dinner dance, Jan. 19 from 7 p.m.-midnight in the MU.

The event will be highlighted by a buffet dinner at 7 p.m. and the Honorary Waltz at 8:30 p.m., led by Dr. and Mrs. Edward E. Burgoyne. Mrs. Burgoyne is current president of the club.

Gordon Wallace and his orchestra will provide music for dancing and bridge tables will be set up in the upper lounge as added entertainment facilities.

Reservations should be made by Jan. 16 with Mrs. Bruce Meador at 967-2468 of Tempe. Tables for from four to 12 persons will be available.

Baptist Talent Show

The Baptist Student Union will present a talent show tomorrow evening at 7 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall of First Southern Baptist Church, 711 W. Eighth St.

The show, featuring vocal, instrumental and variety acts by BSU members, will be open to the public without charge.

Coronation To Highlight Military Ball

"Through The Years," will theme this year's annual ROTC Military Ball on Feb. 15 at 8:30 p.m. in the men's gymnasium.

Highlighting the ball will be the crowning of the Military Ball queen. The queen will be chosen from eight finalists.

Army cadets will choose four nominees from the Kaydettes, Army women's student auxiliary. Air Force cadets will choose four more finalists from the Angel Flight, Air Force women's student auxiliary.

A local orchestra will provide three hours of dance music from ballroom to twist.

'Finals Fling' Set For Term's End By Social Board

Have yourself one more fling before the crisis.

The Social Board will sponsor its last dance of the semester, a "Flunk-out Fling," tomorrow night in the MU ballroom after the Sun Devil-Utah game.

The Carl Hultman Quintet will provide the music and the Corral will be open for refreshments.

Dress will be casual.

Devils Host Dark Horse Cougars; Utah's Redskins Here Tomorrow

By JOE HEATH

Records are forgotten and rankings never heard of as Arizona State opens conference play tonight against Brigham Young University.

Six teams will be out to capture the first WAC hoop crown, all getting underway tonight.

Brigham Young brings a deceiving 5-9 record to Tempe tonight against the 12-1 Sun Devils.

DEVIL COACH Ned Wulk feels that the BYU record is misleading. "They have played a lot on the road," said Wulk, "and two of their wins have come against Eastern powerhouses, La Salle and Providence."

After 38 minutes against Ohio State, the Cougars had a five point lead; however, the last two minutes on the Ohio home floor proved too much for them.

COACH STAN Watts' Cougars are led by 6-5 Bruce Burton.

Burton has carried the bulk of the BYU scoring most of the year.

Two of the Brigham Young losses came at the hands of Wichita. Both of the contests were close, one of them going into overtime.

THE SUN DEVILS' only loss was an overtime defeat by the same Wichita club.

Tomorrow night the University of Utah (less Billy McGill) will visit Sun Devil gymnasium. Utah, 23-3 and Skyline champions last year, have a 6-7 record to date.

WULK REGARDS Jack Gardner, Utah coach, "as one of the best in the business. He's the kind of coach who will be coming up with something to replace the great McGill."

Lacking the height that they have possessed for the last three years, the Utes have come up with a running game.

The Redskins had Texas Western by a point with 28 seconds left, but dropped the game by four.

THE IMPRESSING factor however, is that the shorter Utes held big Jim Barnes to two field goals.

Bo Crain, second team All-Conference on last year's team, leads the running Redskins.

Crain averaged 12.3 points per game last year, making good on 44 per cent of his floor shots.

THE DEVILS, the nation's number three team, are expected to be at full strength for the league openers.

Raul Disarufino, who missed the last two games due to an ankle injury, was released by trainer Art Dickinson and returned to practice sessions this week.

Dave Reid, the only other injured Devil, "may not be ready," but will definitely be ready soon.

Wulk is expected to stay with the same line-up that has given his team the number three rating in the nation.

INSIDE WILL be Caldwell, averaging 20.1 points per game, Becker, 18.9, and Cerkvenik, 12.4.

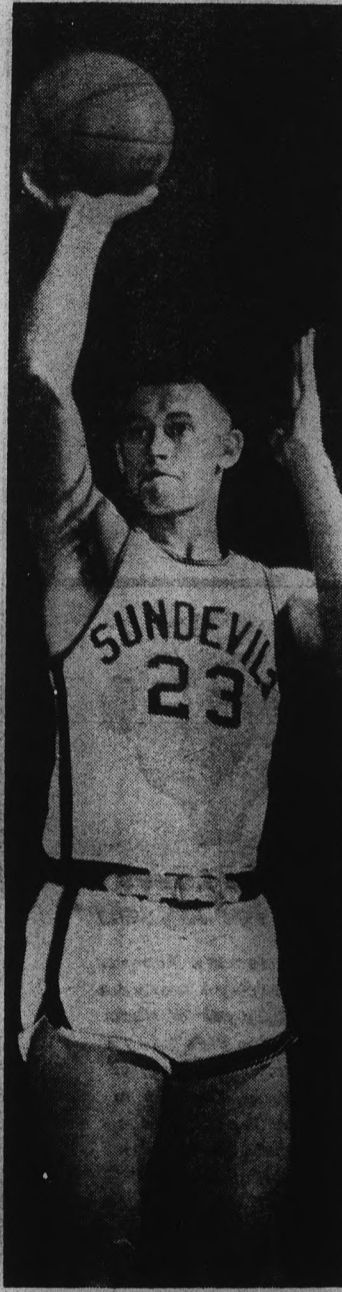

Outside positions are occupied by Dairman, 14.2, and Senitza, 8.2.

Caldwell leads the team in rebounding with 11.5 grabs per game.

Sun Devil Facts

Roger Locke, end for ASU's football team, has signed a professional contract with Winnipeg of the Canadian League.

Locke won first team, All-Western Athletic Conference honors and recently was a participant in the Blue-Gray and North-South post-season football games.

RECORD BREAKER — Art Becker, a product of Camelback High in Phoenix, recently set a new school record for consecutive free throws as he hit on 28 of 28 attempts. "Beck" hopes to add to his mark this weekend against BYU.

Wrestlers Visit California; Triangular Meet Scheduled

By JOHN NADEL

The Arizona State wrestling team, with four matches under its belt, left for Long Beach State College today, to prepare for the meeting with the University of Arizona Jan. 18.

Coach Ted Bredehoff, after being notified of the cancellation of a scheduled meet with Los Angeles State Saturday, scheduled a triangular match with Long Beach State College and Cal Poly of Pomona.

Two top wrestlers, Buzz Hays and Rex McConaghy, will not be available for today's match. Hays is now confined to the infirmary, while McConaghy has a shoulder injury. Both are expected to be ready against Arizona.

Hays and McConaghy, both sophomores, are also state AAU champs. Hays was first in the first annual ASU Wrestling Tourney Dec. 15.

The next meets for the Devils are against the UofA Friday, and Arizona State College Saturday. These are the last home matches for Sun Devil grapplers this year.

At stake in the match against Arizona is the Old Wooden Bucket, which goes to the winning team.

The Wildcats have a majority of last year's squad returning, a team which finished third in the PCI. They had a 1961-62 dual meet record of 8-2. They definitely should be contenders in the upper division of the WAC, according to Coach Bredehoff.

Without Hays and McConaghy in the line-up, the probable wrestlers tonight at Long Beach are:

- 123 lb.—Manual Magon or Andy Ulisky
- 130 lb.—Pete Russo
- 137 lb.—Jon Evans or John Hagan
- 147 lb.—Oliver Carter
- 157 lb.—Dave Greer
- 167 lb.—Rick Jackson
- 177 lb.—Sonny McCullough
- Heavyweight—Cary Lewis

Frosh Host 'Babes

Two tough challengers face the Arizona State University Sun Imps this weekend as they attempt to sustain their 4-0 record.

The Imps meet Arizona State College Axbabes (3-2) tonight and tangle tomorrow with Central Life Assurance of the Phoenix Metro League. Both games begin at 6:30 p.m. in Sun Devil Gym.

Heading the Axbabes are former Phoenix area stars Mitch Erickson, who recently scored 35 points against Eastern Arizona JC, and John Hanley, plus spunky 5-9 guard Pete Monyer of Ajo.

In Central Life, the frosh will run up against former ASU stars as Paul Howard, Jerry Hahn, Ollie Payne, Royce Youree and Troy Neal.

The latest Sun Imp victory came Monday night at Thatcher where ASU dumped EAJC, 87-58.
