Sports, Careers Help, Honors Night

By MARY GORMAN
This weekend might be a lively one.

Tonight, tomorrow afternoon and tomorrow night we can all go out and watch the Wildcats hit the dust at the traditional ASU-UofA home baseball series at Mesa's Rendezvous Park.

THE BASEBALL games here at ASU don't always draw the big crowds that football and basketball do, but since we're playing the UofA this weekend everyone should show up to back the team.

No matter what sport we're playing we should want to attend, and of all the teams we play we want most to beat the UofA.

See you all out there this weekend.

IF YOU LIKE water sports, then Water Sports Day tomorrow at Saguaro Lake is for you.

There will be a water show, motor boat races and various other swimming events.

There's also a queen contest, if you're interested.

THE CAREERS FOR YOUTH program that was mentioned last Wednesday in an editorial by Bob Zache seems like a top notch way to do some very rewarding work.

So many youth projects do not work directly with the kids themselves, and this is one of the first ones that does.

HOW MANY have been lucky enough to receive an education, and would like to help others find their place in life.

How many of us have ever seen some of the living conditions of kids who live in the depressed areas of our own cities?

Well, working with these kids, and helping by tutoring and guiding them, is an education in itself.

WE CAN READ all the books in the world, and never learn about the actual problems of these kids.

If you're interested see Dr. Horace W. Lundberg, dean of the Graduate School of Social Work in SS 331.

Congratulations to the individuals who so carefully planned the Honors night for the Army and Air Force ROTC this year.

The date has been set for Friday night, May 31. Finals this year are scheduled through Saturday, June 1.

So if you have to study for a big test the day after the assembly you'd better plan in advance and not try to study that night.

If you haven't been advised, tomorrow at noon is the deadline. Without one of those blue slips signed by your adviser you'll have to register late next semester.

If you don't have to be advised because you're graduating then you had better go pick up your cap and gown today at the Bookstore. Today's the last day to order them.

Advisement

Today and tomorrow are the final days for students planning to attend ASU next fall to obtain advisement slips from their faculty advisor. Students failing to obtain these slips will not be able to register at their regularly scheduled time in September.

Students who are planning to carry six semester hours or less are not required to have advisement slips. Class schedules are now available at the Administration building.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

I WOULDN'T REPEAT LAST NITE'S PERFORMANCE AT THE DOOR, WORTHAL - MY HOUSE MOTHER IS WATCHING YOU.

College Kiddies -

Cause Cosner Chaos

Everyone is seated, the lights go out, the movie starts. Suddenly something goes wrong. The sound is lost or the picture starts jumping. This is the cue for the racket to begin.

People stamp their feet, yell, whistle, generally raise Cain. The place? A kiddies show you might say and you're close. This all takes place at Cosner Auditorium during the movie each week.

IF YOU WANT to see the real college kiddies acting up, Cosner is the place to go. Maybe they feel like sounding off and know that in the dark they won't be recognized. Whatever the reason, they seize upon it like Willie Mays goes after a hanging curve ball.

And then there is the smoking problem. There is a sign that says "NO SMOKING" but go to a movie at Cosner and you would think you were at a weanie roast.

During a movie a couple of weeks ago someone even flipped his live cigarette upon the stage. Gee that must be fun; trying to burn the nice old building down.

YES, THESE THINGS, and even more, happen during the weekly movie at Cosner and they are completely un-called for. True, Cosner is not the most comfortable place on the globe and most of the students are just killing time but these types of actions are un-excusable.

We ASU students are always griping about not having enough freedom or responsibilities . . . well if this childish action is typical, we don't deserve any more freedom than the playground at the Payne Training School.

Letters To The Editor

To the Editor:
I wish to report an extremely biased and unfair article that appeared in the State Press May 1.

It concerns the results of the drill meet held at El Paso, Texas, where many southwestern colleges were supposed to have been represented.

I deem it only fair and unbiased to state that the ASU Angel Flight turned out to be the only women's collegiate drill team present at the meet, thus automatically giving them the first place. Also, they were in their own class and had no competitive status with any other team at the meet.

Also, I deem it necessary to extend congratulations to the ASU Army drill team for placing overall second at the meet (of the six competing teams).

This is a singular honor since the team had only been organized three months ago.

I sincerely believe that the ASU student body should take notice of the efforts put forth by the men on their drill teams, as this is becoming a more and more important phase of inter-collegiate competition.

Louis H. Di Salva (grad student) Ex Commander Scarlet Rifles Drill Co. Rutgers Univ. AROTC New Brunswick, N. J.

Editor's Note: The facts of the story are correct, the implication is misleading. Angel Flight was the only collegiate women's team present but they did compete against high school women's drill teams. All ASU teams are to be congratulated.

Plan Ahead - It Could Happen To You

Once upon a time there were two ASU seniors. Both were eager to graduate in June. John A. Doe was kind, brave and courteous and had an outstanding grade index of 4.00. John B. Doe was neither kind, brave nor courteous and just had an acceptable grade index of 2.00.

Both seniors had excellent post-graduation plans; one was going into his father's business and the other was marrying money. Both failed to register for employment at the Placement Center. They felt there was no need for filling out more forms.

THE YEARS drifted by and suddenly 4.00 Doe found his plans scuttled. He applied for a job and his potential employer asked for university references. Doe confidentially listed his old professor.

Professor No Nonsense pondered mightily over who was Doe? He called the Placement Center. No record. He thought and thought and then settled upon 2.00 Doe. Swiftly he filled out the recommendation and sent it back.

Fairy tale? Perhaps. But it could happen. ACCORDING to Placement Center officials, all students should register one year before graduation. There are still a few seniors who haven't bothered. It is well worth the slight inconvenience to register, for faculty recommendations are valuable. In this day of frantic competition, most of us cannot compete for jobs without them. Time has a corroding effect on memory. Give your future and your faculty a break—register. BOB HUDNALL

Action For Strength --

Inter-Hall Council Depends On Water Sports' Success

By JON MORRIS

"Two days after Water Sports Day, we will know if Inter-Hall Council has been revitalized," said Dick Scott, IHC president.

IHC has been having difficulties for years, Ken Calbeck, IHC advisor, said. The big trouble was that the council had "no authority and still doesn't," Calbeck said.

IHC IS only a "recommending agency," Calbeck added. It can advise the student body that certain things should be done, but cannot act decisively.

AMS, recognizing the problem, this year turned over the Water Sports Day sponsorship to Inter-Hall Council.

Inter-Hall Council was established in 1954 "to promote communications among men's dormitories and to act as their voice on student issues," according to Scott.

DEAN GARY Anderson's records indicate the council existed in 1954-59, but did nothing. In 1959-61, attempts were made to spring the council into action, but the work failed.

The extent of activities for 1961 was a dance, Scott said.

Every year, there was such a large turn-over of men living in the halls that the council had to be recognized. This was so much trouble in the past that the men had a meeting last fall to decide whether to keep the council.

THE "VETERANS" voted it down, but the incoming council representatives over-ruled them. The council was retained in the same form.

Since September, Scott and his council have been working toward the goal of sponsoring Water Sports Day.

IHC also wants to put up ideas for next year's council, Scott said. "We will work with AWS in trying to form a joint council with women's dorm."

OTHER PROGRAMS include MU activities, publishing a dorm handbook for men's halls, setting up an IHC workshop similar to the Payson Leadership Workshop and continuing the sponsorship of Water Sports Day.

IHC represents approximately 1,000 men, Scott said.

Officers of IHC include Dick Scott, president; Gary Abrahams, vice president; Ron Hoff, secretary-treasurer, and Dan Baker and Wes Parsons, senators.

A GENUINE FORMAL BUTTON-DOWN?

Oh yes, and genuine even without this [] label

MANY of you like our button-downs so much that you can hardly bear to wear anything else even on special evenings; now there is no reason why you should. And since we already make button-downs in 386 fabrics, patterns, and colors it would have been unthoughtful of us not to make it an even 387 with this button-cuff button-down of fine broadcloth.* You can find it at the best men's shops although not always under our label (many stores like our shirts so much they sell them under their own names). If you'd like to know which in your vicinity please write us: Eagle Shirtmakers, Quakertown, Pennsylvania.

*Notice it bulges gracefully at the collar just like the other 386. One time a man, new to our button-downs, wrote to say that the collar didn't lie flat. When we told Helen Mohr, in Collars, about it she said that she was relieved.

MAKE ROOM — Campus paths were cut off this week when construction crews began tunneling for utility ducts and preparing for the double-purpose overpass over Eighth street. The first campus overpass will carry heating and cooling to the Palo Verde dormitory area and aid campus pedestrians in crossing the street. Marching Honor Awarded 'Angel'

Angel Flight drill team member Marian Brown received top honors and a trophy for the execution of impromptu marching at the Sun City Invitational Drill Meet sponsored by the Pershing Rifles in El Paso, Tex., April 26-28.

Marian was selected to represent her squadron in the individual drill for competition at Texas Western stadium.

Judging was based on appearance, marching ability, cadence, arm swing and turning ability.

Other ASU drill teams represented were the Army, Air Force and Pershing Rifles.

Of 1200 possible points, the Angels lost first in sweepstakes by four points and received a first in regulation drill.

The Army drill team conquered a second in sweepstakes, a second in regulation drill and a third in exhibition.

The Air Force team captured a fourth in regulation and a fourth in sweepstakes.

Professor Searches In Monastery Ruins

By DAWN FELICE

An ASU professor has slept in a straw-filled coffin dug up from under the floor of a monastery, stored his food in a crumbling baptismal font, and battled with a large rat for possession of his dinner.

This extraordinary man is Dr. Milton Lowenstein, archaeologist, and professor of architecture at ASU. He encountered these unusual experiences while excavating and reconstructing a monastery in Serrabonne, France.

LIVING IN THE RUINS of this monastery for five months, he made detailed sketches of carvings in the building. He worked with a candle strapped to his wrist because there was only one window.

Dr. Lowenstein has excavated and reconstructed several isolated monasteries for the governments of Spain and France.

DR. LOWENSTEIN has also practiced architecture in Indonesia, China, India and other Eastern countries. He feels that architecture has its basis in the understanding of aboriginal peoples, who live according to fundamental values.

He explains that, "before we have great architecture, we must have profound experience. Out of the rediscovery of himself, man has found the fundamental values of which architecture can find expression. Western culture had its most profound expression when it was isolated from society."

Board To Seek Devil's Disciples

Men's organization leaders have been asked to submit names to the Rallies and Traditions Board for membership into a newly-formed spirit group.

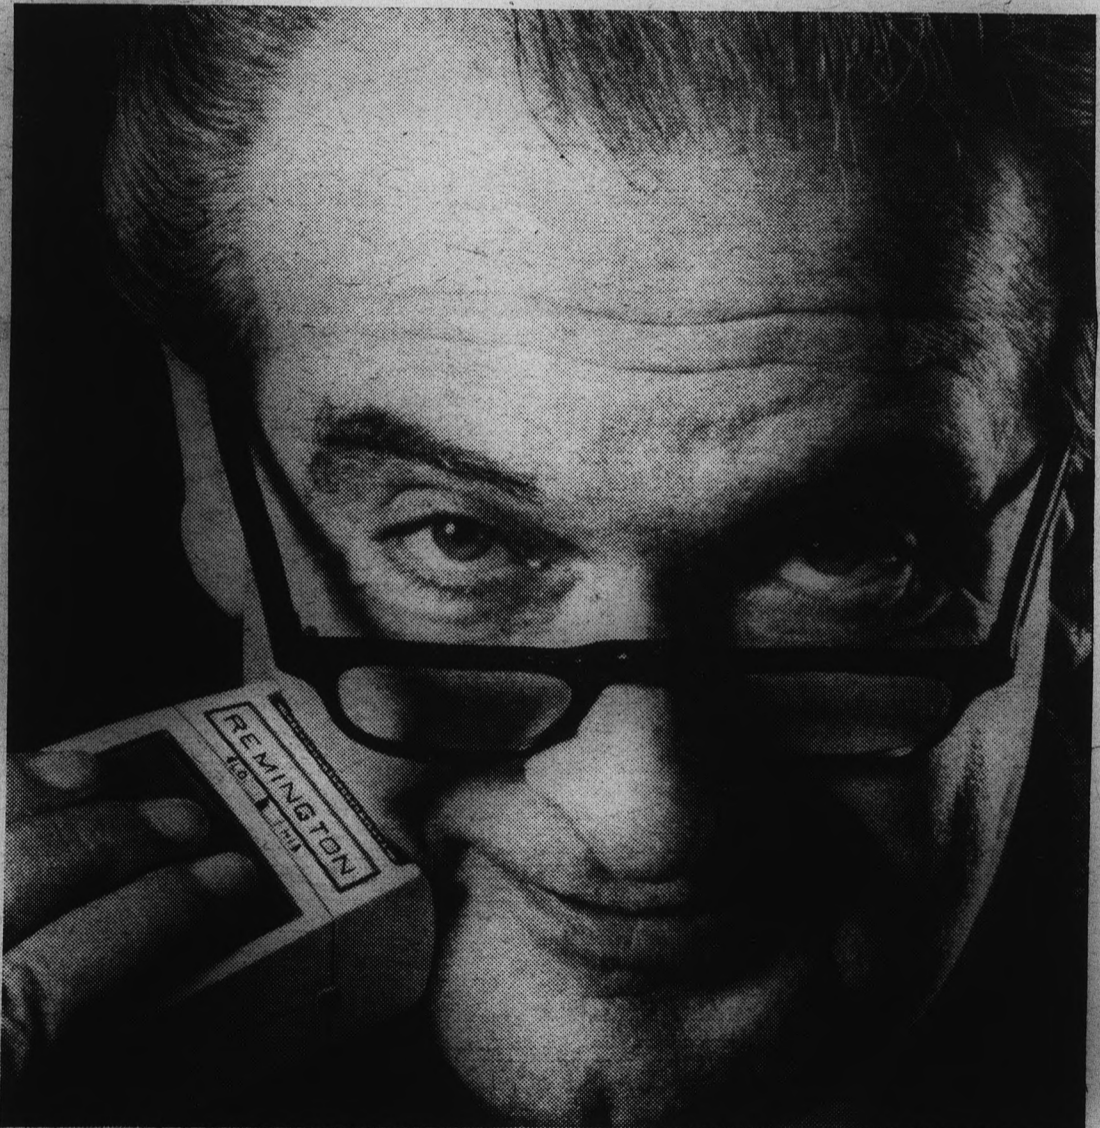

The group is to be called the Devil's Disciples. It will help the cheerleaders and pom-pom girls at the football games next Fall.

Lists of nominees should be left at the MU information desk.

Guest Speaker

Dr. J. A. Krout, visiting history professor and former vice president of Columbia University has been invited to be the keynote speaker at the first annual regional conference of Phi Alpha Theta, national history honorary.

The conference, scheduled to be at the University of New Mexico, will be in session today and tomorrow.

Tiens, regarde donc le prof! Ce qu'il a l'air en forme! En forme, bien sûr, grâce à son REMINGTON 25 qui lui permet enfin de se raser de près; les poils longs et courts sont coupés net. Rasage impeccable, doux et rapide, puisque les fameux rouleaux-supports Remington protègent sa peau. C'est peut-être bien pourquoi les professeurs ne portent plus la barbe!

Miren el profesor. ¡Qué contento está! Contento con la afeitada al ras y tan suave que consigue con la REMINGTON 25. Afeitada al ras porque la REMINGTON 25 es más potente para rasurar que ninguna otra máquina de afeitar. Suave porque los rodillos-peine de Remington le protegen la piel. Tal vez por eso ya no se ven más profesores con barbas.

Hier ist der Professor. Der Professor ist glücklich. Er ist glücklich, weil er sich mit seinem REMINGTON 25 so glatt und angenehm rasieren kann. So glatt, weil sein REMINGTON 25 grösseres Schnittvermögen hat als jeder andere Rasierapparat. Angenehm weil die Rillenwalzen beim Remington die Haut schützen. Vielleicht haben deswegen die Professoren keine Bärte mehr.

 If you have to turn this page upside down for the translation you're wasting your father's money.

See the professor. The professor is happy. He is happy because of the close comfortable shave his REMINGTON 25 is giving him. Close because the REMINGTON 25 shaver has more whisker-cutting power than any other shaver. Comfortable because Remington roller combs protect his skin. Maybe that's why professors don't wear beards any more.

Depth Study -

KAET Will Cover Turkish Wedding

Have you ever seen a Turkish wedding? It will be featured in a depth study, "The Turkish Question," to be broadcast on Channel 8, KAET, May 6 at 10 p.m. and May 9 at 9 p.m.

In the framework of a village wedding the modern history and the religious and economic forces that have shaped Turkey are explored.

Turkish novelist Cevat Sakir, Professor George Bean of the University of Istanbul, and Fatmah Monsur, one of the few female professors at the Middle East Technical University, are among the intellectuals who will discuss problems facing the only member of the democratic alliance which has a common frontier with Russia.

Joseph Krungold, writer-director of the program said, "Turkey is a visual fantasy and every colorful person or view can lead you away from the script line."

Among the dozens of citizens who speak during the program are a village priest and Bulent Ecevit, Turkey's Minister of Labor.

Research Bureau Prints Handbook For Mayors

"Handbook for Arizona Mayors and Councilmen," by Dr. Leonard E. Goodall and Dr. David Bingham, has been published by the ASU Bureau of Government Research, recently.

Dr. Goodall is assistant professor of political science at ASU. Dr. Bingham is a member of the Bureau of Business and Public Research at the UofA.

In the foreword, President G. Homer Durham states that the people of Arizona, like other people of the United States, must solve basic problems of political life within the framework of the municipal corporation.

Dr. Durham said "It is sincerely hoped that this volume will prove useful to the dedicated citizens who render this important service as mayors, councilmen and other municipal officers."

The authors said that "this handbook is intended as an aid to old and new mayors, councilmen and to other interested municipal officials and students of Arizona municipal government."

The book is available at the ASU Bureau of Business Research for $1.

Dean Smith Completes Book On Conservatism

Dean Smith, director of the bureau of publications, announced the completion of his latest book recently.

"Conservatism: Its Past, Present, and Future in American Politics" is published by Avon

Publishing Co. as part of a two book series. "Liberalism: It's Past, Present, and Future in American Politics" by Milton Viorst, Washington Bureau of the New York Post, completes the series.

The introduction of Smith's book was written by Senator Hubert Humphrey (D-Minn).

Smith's book is written for the layman on political matters. "It presents a responsible conservative viewpoint. It may well be termed a "debate," Smith said.

The book is a 225 page paperback which sells for 60 cents.

The most elaborate parties of the year, the spring dances, range from formal theme parties to sophisticated formals and all-day celebrations.

Another informal party will be the Alpha Phi's Ridiculous Party tonight at the Coro Club in Phoenix.

Phi Kappa Psi, Phi Delta Theta and Pi Kappa Alpha were the first to have spring formals. Phi Psi's had their dinner-dance at the Ramada Inn last Saturday while Phi Delt's were dancing at the ABC Club in Phoenix and Pike's at the Bali Hi.

The ADPi Man will be announced at Alpha Delta Pi's formal following the dinner at the Phoenix Backstage Club this Saturday evening.

Kappa Alpha Theta will announce their Theta Man at a formal dance at the Royal Palms Inn in Phoenix, Saturday.

Sweethearts will be announced at Sigma Nu's annual White Rose Formal at Phoenix's ABC Club Saturday evening.

Dancing to the Gar-Mu-Co Band will highlight Lambda Chi Alpha's Starlight Serenade formal next Friday evening at the Phoenix Country Club. Lambda Chi's will crown their Crescent Queen at the dance.

A buffet dinner followed by an evening of dancing will complete a full day of leisure activities next Saturday at Paradise Valley Racquet Club for Alpha Tau Omega. During the dance, the new ATO Sweetheart will be crowned and serenaded.

Sigma Chi's will present the Sweetheart of Sigma Chi at a formal dinner dance climaxing two days of activities, May 17-18 at Camelback Inn.

A three-day weekend of activities for Alpha Epsilon Pi will begin with a luau May 17. Other events of their "Final Fling" include a dinner, dance and party at Saguaro Lake.

Lambda Chi Alpha and their auxiliary, Crescents, collected $920 for the American Cancer Society last Saturday at a Tempe Bridge toll.

Lambda Chi recently initiated David Ashworth, Tommy McDowell, Warren Higgins, Bob Hosford, John Morales and Ted Brazelton.

UofA Series Is Final Chance

The Western Athletic Conference Southern Division baseball race could be decided this weekend during the Arizona State University-University of Arizona three game series at Mesa.

The series opens Friday night with a 7:30 p.m. contest and continues Saturday with a 1:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. day-night doubleheader. All games will be played at Mesa Rendezvous Park.

Arizona holds the division lead with a 5-1 record including two victories over ASU in a three game series at Tucson earlier this season.

ASU is second at 3-3 with UNM trailing with a 1-5 record.

"IT'S PRETTY obvious what we must do," said ASU head coach Bobby Winkles, "if we lose another conference game, we're practically out of the race."

Sloppy defense cost the Sun Devils all three conference defeats.

Unearned runs led to ASU's downfall twice at Tucson and in last week's finale against UNM after ASU had taken the first two games.

A SIDELIGHT in the Arizona series is the matching of two teams rated in Collegiate Baseball newspaper's top ten. Arizona is fifth and ASU sixth.

The last time both teams met, UA was 17th and ASU sixth.

In Arizona, Coach Winkles feels the Devils will run up against a greatly improved team.

"THE WILDCATS' pitching and defense have come along tremendously since the start of the season," said Winkles.

Pacing the Arizona mound corps are Marty Martinez, Sherwin Scott and Jim Nichols.

All three started against ASU in the games at Tucson but only Martinez and Nichols were around for decisions.

MARTINEZ was the victor in a 5-2 game while Nichols lost, 2-0, in an 11 inning pitching duel with ASU ace, Sterling Slaughter.

Hitting-wise, Arizona boasts one of the hardest men in college baseball to strike out — Ron Theobald.

The 5-8 second baseman leads the Wildcats in hitting and tops the nation with 37 runs batted in.

Other leading Wildcat hitters include outfielders Craig Morrison and Grant Hawgood.

MORRISON is tied with ASU's Luis Lagunas for the nation's lead in triples at six.

Facing the Arizona batsmen will be Slaughter and team captain Gary Graham plus a yet-to-be-named hurler.

Slaughter (10-2) starts Friday, probably against Martinez (7-1). Sterling leads the nation in strikeouts with 126 in 91 innings. He shows a 1.37 earned run average.

GRAHAM (5-2) will match slants with Scott in the Saturday afternoon game. Gary has a 1.99 ERA. Nichols will throw Saturday night but his opponent on the hill hasn't been named by Winkles.

Based on times at bat, the Devils' lone .300 hitter is short-stop Lagunas at .305.

He has six doubles and six triples as well as leading the team in RBI's with 29.

FOLLOWING Lagunas are John Ruedy (.288), Alan Schmelz (.275) and Dennis Starkins (.266). Dick Heiden is hitting at .319 and Tony Alesci at .288 but they lack necessary times at bat to qualify for team leadership.

Alesci is ASU's long ball threat with six home runs including one against New Mexico, the first hit out of the Lobo Field this year.

THE DEVILS hope Merrill Hyde has recovered sufficiently from a leg injury suffered against Arizona in the first game at Tucson.

Off The Cuff

JOE HEATH
Sports Editor

There are 18 events in the Western Athletic Conference track and field program and ASU spikers hold seven first places and are tied for another.

The closest team to the dominating Sun Devils is rival Arizona. The Wildcats hold down four of the top positions.

Pacing the WAC for the Devils are:

Henry Carr, with his World, American and NCAA record of :20.3 in the 220-yard dash; Eric Owers, 1:50.2 in the 880-yard dash; and ASU's 440-yard relay team, :40.8, and the mile relay team with its World, American and NCAA record of 3:04.5.

In the field events, Larry Hendershot has a toss of 55-3 in the shot put; Frank Covelli is tops in the javelin at 259-11½, John Rose has pole vaulted 15-6¼, and Joe Caldwell is tied with Bob Cowart of BYU in the high jump at 6-8¼.

POOR WYOMING, a spankin' new ball diamond and no dedication.

If you'll remember the April 26th issue of the State Press, I mentioned that the Cowboys, after having several games canceled by rain, would have the dedication of Cowboy Field before the scheduled doubleheader with Denver University.

Well, that series was snowed out and the ceremonies postponed till May 11 and the Utah game.

Good luck Cowpokes!

JUST SOMETHING TO ADD about Wyoming — their tennis team will have its first home match this Saturday on their newly completed three-quarter million dollar physical education, recreation and athletic facilities.

By the way, the enrollment at Wyoming is 4,840.

I HOPE THAT as many people as possible can get out this weekend to support the Sun Devil baseball team in their three game series with the UofA.

The Devils need to sweep the series in order to keep their chances alive for the WAC crown and a bid to the NCAA playoffs.

The games will be played in Rendezvous Park in Mesa. Times for the games can be found elsewhere in the State Press sports section.

P.S. Don't forget Water Sports Day this Saturday. It's a good chance to get out in the sun and see some real good competition.

Wildcats To Host Dual Track Meet By Syracuse

By ALAN MICHAELS

Arizona State's track and field team swings back into action tomorrow when the Sun Devils travel to Tucson to meet the UofA in a Western Athletic Conference struggle.

The teams have met once before in 1963 with the Wildcats gaining the nod in a triangular meet with Occidental March 9.

Final point totals gave Arizona a 59-58½ decision over the Devils that afternoon.

It's extremely doubtful that ASU's record-holding mile relay team will threaten its newly established mark of 3:04.5 tomorrow.

A-STATE COACH Baldy Castillo has scheduled heavy duty in other events for the foursome of Mike Barrick, Henry Carr, Ron Freeman and Uli Williams in an all-out effort to net an ASU victory.

Castillo is concerned with the physical well-being of his squad at the moment.

Half-miler Eric Owers is in sub-par condition with a spike wound suffered in Saturday's Mt. San Antonio Relays.

HURDLER DARRELL Jansen and jumper Dan McPeck are still hobbled with leg injuries and weightman Jon Cole has yet to fully recover from the flu.

Arizona boasts some of the outstanding individual performers in the WAC.

The Wildcats are paced by miler Jack Hudson (4:07.3), discus performer Karl Johnstone (181-1) and Gayle Hopkins in the broad and triple jumps (25-0, 49-10).

Significant from the WAC point of view are the latest listings of best times throughout the nation.

These statistics, supplied by the NCAA, show the Western Athletic Conference, in its first year of operation, second only to the AAWU (Big Six) in the number of best marks listed.

TAKING ONLY those events normally found on a dual meet program, the AAWU leads the field with 32 listings, followed by the WAC with 25.

In fairness, it should be pointed out that some of the major eastern conferences, due to colder weather, are just getting into the heart of their outdoor campaigns and can be expected to add more listings in the future.

Nonetheless, the WAC is busily making inroads in the track and field world, the likes of which are unprecedented in American collegiate annals.

Tony (The Horse) Cerkvnik, captain of ASU's 1962-63 basketball squad, was the fifth round selection of the Syracuse Nationals in the annual National Basketball Association draft Tuesday.

Cerkvnik holds the Sun Devil record for most rebounds over a three year span and recently starred for the West team in the Shrine Game at Kansas City.

Ira (The Large) Harge of New Mexico was the only other Western Athletic Conference performer drafted by the pros. Harge was a choice of the Detroit Pistons.

The New York Knicks had first pick in the draft and selected Art Heyman of Duke, college basketball's player of the year.
