2,088 Petition To Receive Degrees

CRAIG

NININGER

Three Noted Arizonans Selected To Receive Honorary Degrees

Honorary doctor of law degrees from ASU will be awarded to the president-elect of the American Bar Association, an internationally noted authority on meteorites and a man of 15 years service on the Board of Regents at Commencement exercises June 4.

ASU President G. Homer Durham will confer the degrees on Walter H. Craig, Dr. H. H. Nininger and Lynn M. Laney during the ceremonies at 8 p.m. in Sun Devil Stadium. Craig, who will assume the presidency of the American Bar Association in August, also will deliver the Commencement address.

THE PHOENIX attorney is a past president of the Arizona Bar Association, the Maricopa County Bar Association, the Western States Bar Council and director of the American Jurisprudence Society.

Craig was a director and founder of the Sun Angel Foundation and a director of the ASU Foundation.

THE SPEAKER and recipient represented the American Bar Association on a trip to Russia in July, 1958, and was awarded the 1958 ASU Alumni Association appreciation award.

Dr. Nininger, a member of the ASU faculty, has assembled one of the world's largest collections of meteorites and located it on campus.

While assembling the collection, he discovered more meteorites during the 1930's and 1940's than all other individuals and institutions of the U.S. combined.

THE METEOROLOGIST authority was the first to recommend the blunt nose for missiles and astronaut re-entry capsules finally adopted by space scientists.

Dr. Nininger, a past president of the Kansas Academy of Science, has authored six books and 140 papers on meteorites.

The teacher of biological sciences discovered a meteorite crater in Kansas, several new varieties of meteorites and made at least five previously overlooked discoveries at the Arizona crater.

LANEY SERVED on the Board of Regents from 1947 to January of this year and had served as its president.

Previously he was a member of the Arizona State College board of education from 1941 to 1945, when it was abandoned to establish the Regents to regulate the state's universities and college.

Today's Edition Is Final Issue

Today's issue of the State Press is the final edition of the 1962-63 school year.

The State Press will publish during the two summer school sessions once a week on Friday.

Regular semi-weekly publication will resume next fall.

Tilden, Stout Leave Chairs To Resume Teaching, Studies

Dr. Arnold Tilden, dean of the College of Liberal Arts, and Dr. Irving W. Stout, dean of the Graduate College, will relinquish their administrative positions to devote full time to teaching and research, according to Dr. G. Homer Durham.

Dr. Tilden will be succeeded July 1 by Dr. Karl H. Dannenfeldt, professor of history. Dr. Stout will be succeeded Sept. 1 by Dr. William J. Burke, who will also continue his present duties as executive vice president of the university.

Dean Stout is the author of seven books on parent-child-teacher relationships. Since his arrival at ASU in 1963, he has developed the graduate program to a point where its enrollment is among the largest in the Rocky Mountain states.

Dr. Dannenfeldt, secretary-treasurer of the American Society for Reformation Research, was head of the division of social sciences at Elmira College, N.Y., before coming to ASU in 1956.

Dr. Burke was a research chemist with E. I. du Pont de Nemours from 1937 to 1946. He served as head of the University of Utah chemistry department since 1949 before assuming the ASU vice presidency last fall.

"The ten years of Dean Tilden's leadership in the College of Liberal Arts have witnessed the development and flowering of a fledged university program in arts and sciences from the B.A. degree through the Ph.D.," said Dr. Durham.

"His personal vitality, together with his unusual ability in uniting faculty members on which Arizona State University will build," Dr. Durham continued.

"Like Dean Stout, Dr. Tilden has made a significant contribution to ASU. His leadership in the establishment of policies for the Graduate College has had a critical area on the state study," President D.

enthusiasm and his unusual ability in uniting faculty members on which Arizona State University will build," Dr. Durham continued. "Like Dean Stout, Dr. Tilden has made a significant contribution to ASU. His leadership in the establishment of policies for the Graduate College has had a critical area on the state study," President D.

WORLD RECORD HOLDERS — Sun Devil mile relay team Ulis Williams, Ron Freeman, Henry Carr and Mike Barrick show off the style that helped them break the world record for the mile relay with a timing of 3:04.5.

GATOR GRABBED — The fish pond between Old Main and the English building was the scene of an impromptu wrestling match when off-duty campus policeman Bob Marinello discovered this alligator there one morning.

PRECARIOUS POSITION — Scaling the steel structure of the Grady Gammage Memorial Auditorium, Tempe firemen extinguish a minor fire of construction scraps and a small scaffolding.

RIDE 'EM COWBOY — Campus rodeo cowboys did well on the collegiate rodeo circuit this season traveling through most of the western states. This action was caught in the Sun Devil rodeo last November in Scottsdale.

POM-PONS — Leading the pom-pom squad next season will be Marilyn Vihel, captain and Sandy Berry, co-captain.

POW-WOW — Members of Dawa-Chindi try out a ceremonial drum which they used in their second annual ceremonial dance in April. Dressed in their tribal costumes are (l to r) Bernita Fredericks, Marsha Emerson and Roberta Harris.

WATER QUEEN — Bev Bulla, sponsored by Alpha Gamma Rho, was crowned Water Sports Day Queen for 1962-63 at the annual event at Saguaro Lake.

ON THE WAY — Alan Schmelz had a perfect night against the New Mexico State Aggies with 16 points. The Devils swamped the Aggies 89-62 and were another step toward the western regionals in Provo, Utah.

ASU-1962-63

HOLD YOUR HATS — Ready for the annual Sigma Chi Derby Snatch are Yvonne Zack, Bernie Weber, Don Davis, Jackie Dragett and Casey Shindelar. Derby Day activities included a Derby Darlin' contest, pig chase, egg swat and an informal dance.

EYE CATCHER — A busy summer schedule awaits ASU freshman Susan Bergstrom, this year's Miss Arizona.

CAMPUS LOVELY — All made up for the annual Pi Delta Epsilon "Ugly Man" contest is the Gamma Phi Beta entry. The contest is an annual service project of the club to help dress needy children at Christmas time.

HOMECOMING ROYALTY — Reigning over the 1962 ASU Homecoming were Queen Sue Rawson and King Bob Clampett. Miss Rawson was the first independent to be elected Homecoming queen in ASU's history.

CRIMINAL CATCHER — Escaped federal prisoner, James H. Meador was taken into custody by Patrolman James E. Diehl last January.

Thanks And Congratulations Given

By MARY GORMAN
Another year at ASU, and every other American school as far as that goes, is quickly approaching the finish.

As with the close of every school year there are many groups and individuals who should be publicly thanked for their help, inspiration and mainly "just for being around."

These people have made Arizona State more than just another university. They have given that little extra something that makes students say "I'm glad I came to college."

Thanks to people like Dick Finley, ASU executive manager, and his capable secretary Donna Rodgers, for always being available to help no matter the time or size of the problem.

Thanks to Mrs. Scoular, Trudy Thomas, Bob Alberti, Boots, Diane and the rest of the Union staff who worked so hard to keep the building and its programs running so smoothly.

Congratulations to Jan Nichols, social board chairman, who worked so hard on the new Big Name Talent Committee this past year.

Jim Holland and Barbara Sprinkle deserve much praise for the tremendous job they did on the card section.

Harold Hines and the 110-member Sun Devil

Band deserve a "big pat on the back" for the many hours spent on the practice field as well as before football crowds.

Congratulations to the athletic department for producing a championship basketball team, a world record in the mile relay and the 220-yard dash, and for all other teams who competed so successfully this year.

The '63 Sahuaro staff deserves a lot of praise for the book that just came out last week. The year's book is truly a work of art, in layout, photography and general appearance. Gary Avey, editor, and the rest of the staff should be commended for the effort they put in on the '63 Sahuaro.

To these and all the other people who made the 1962-63 school year at ASU a success — THANKS.

Thanks for trying to give university life some spirit and atmosphere, and in doing so giving many a chance to grow up.

A final congratulations should go to the 2,088 who are graduating and with the best wishes is the hope that you will always keep something of Arizona State with you — whether it be its youth, spirit, memories, hopes or loyalty.

Many policies, individuals, groups and ideas have been questioned, criticized and praised this past semester under the heading "I Cover . . ."

There is nothing to retract, feel sorry for, or regret, aside from the fact that more could have been uncovered had there been the space.

College Avenue has been covered from every phase of university life — its education programs, its athletic departments, its personnel, its programs, and most of all, its students.

Who could ask for more on College Avenue?

From The President -

A Review Of 1962-63 At ASU

Statement by President G. Homer Durham

On Founder's Day, March 8, 1963, I summarized 13 major events of the year. In less formal terms, the 1962-63 academic year may be known as the year in which "The Nutty Professor" in the person of comedian Jerry Lewis came to the campus to make a motion picture.

It is also the year, however, in which some eminently sane professors came to the University to join our community of scholars and distinguished teachers, and in which the Governor of Michigan, the President of the New York Stock Exchange, the President-elect of the American Association for the Advancement of Science and the President-elect of the American Bar Association came to the campus to deliver important addresses.

This is the year in which the structural shape of the Grady Gammage Memorial Auditorium, designed by the late Frank Lloyd Wright, went up on the southwest end of the campus.

THE FIRST high-rise dormitory was erected, and ten small-group housing units were dedicated on the northeast side of the University, symbolizing the over-all development of the physical plant.

The Center for American Studies concluded its third successful annual series under the direction of Dr. Katharine Turner.

THE PAST YEAR will be recalled as a great one for athletic achievement, with nationally-ranked teams in football, basketball and baseball and two world records established by the track squad. The fact that three members of the third-ranked basketball squad were named to the Western Athletic Conference's first All-Academic Team quite possibly suggests the area in which the most significant progress was made during the past year. I refer, of course, to the pursuit of academic and professional excellence.

IT IS ENCOURAGING to note that during 1962-63 the following national honorary groups established chapters on the campus: Alpha Pi Mu, industrial engineering; Tau Beta Pi, national honorary engineering society; Eta Kappa Nu, electrical engineering; Phi Alpha Theta, national honorary history society; Beta Alpha Psi, accounting; Sigma Iota Epsilon management; and Beta Gamma Sigma, national honorary business society. The establishment this spring of an ASU chapter of Mortar Board, national honorary society for senior women, is a most important part of the pattern and adds momentum to this year's decision to extend the highly successful Honors Program of the College of Liberal Arts to the University's three other undergraduate colleges.

I was pleased to note that the State Press itself can claim a share of this trend, receiving word last fall from the Associated Collegiate Press that it was one of four semi-weekly college newspapers awarded All-American honor ratings for 1961-62.

This accent of academic and professional achievement will properly extend into the 1963 Commencement Exercises when the University's first Doctor of Philosophy degrees will be awarded and a graduate student will receive two earned master's degrees—in electrical engineering and in mathematics.

FINALLY, the Faculty Senate, during two regular sessions this year, has given attention to some of the elusive issues underlying general education, the meaning and significance of the bachelor's degree. Such discussions typify the abiding concern of the faculty. As the year concludes, I hope more individuals among the student body are asking themselves the hard questions: What is a University? What is the meaning of the University? Why am I here and what am I doing with my time and opportunities?

Letters To The Editor -

Buyer Beware — You Could Be Taken

TO THE EDITOR:

"Would you like to make some extra money?"

This is the come-on of another in the long line of referral selling. The agency which used this line to get this product into my home is selling color television sets. The agency works through a local television retail outlet and a loan company or bank.

Now where does the extra money come in? Here is how they work: A friend calls you and asks you if you would like to make some extra money. If you answer yes he will tell you, as he has been instructed, that you don't have to buy or sell anything. All you have to do is call your friends and ask them if they want to make some extra money.

Your friend will not be able to tell you anything more about this money making program for he has been told not to associate the agency name with color TV, not to mention the word "salesman" or to let you know in any way that this is an advertising scheme.

If you are curious enough to have your name sent in you will be contacted by a salesman. This so-called representative will begin by giving you a long sales pitch about how much money you are going to make and it later comes out that you must have a color TV set in your home at the cost of $1,333.50.

However, you are not actually buying this set! You will be earning it by referring your friends to them. You will receive $50 for each person whose name you send in that enrolls in the program and $25 for each person that he enrolls. And if you contact enough people in 45 days to make the money for the TV you will not have to pay the interest ($300) and the rest you make will be clear profit!

The average person, the salesman assures you, makes from $2,000 to $3,000 above the cost of the TV! But if you can't bring yourself to deceive your friends, you have signed to pay off the TV with interest.

Vance Packard spoke last summer in the Memorial Union about advertising and the depth approach to reaching the wants and desires of the American consumer. Salesmen are persuading prospective buyers to consider money above all else. They are persuading people to buy (often times) television sets they don't want and don't need in order to "earn extra money."

Packard said in his speech that many large firms in the U.S. have psychologists on their advertising staffs who delve into the minds of the consumer to find out why he is or is not buying.

When they know this, it is only a matter of time before the application of an advertising scheme such as this one hits the weak spots of the consumer.

This is the era of "buyer beware" where some get rich at the expense of others. The consumer must have his guard up in order not to be taken in on such a "deal". Buyer Beware!

Roger M. Burris

Editor's Note: This is the time of year when college students and especially graduating seniors are a favorite target of everyone with something to sell.

As Mr. Burris recommended, beware. If you are the least bit suspicious of any "deal" offered you, call the Better Business Bureau in Phoenix at CR 7-0734.

More Thanks And A Fond Adieu

In the tradition of end-of-the-school-year reminiscing, I will take a few liberties and join the bandwagon, shed a fond tear for one more down the drain.

First, we enjoyed serving you. I hope you enjoyed our services and efforts to present your community to you. We tried.

And, along with Mary Gorman, thanks; to just about everyone. To Dr. Joe Spring and his staff of the ASU News Bureau for their cooperation and help in covering campus, and to Mr. Edward J. Demson for his welcome advice and constructive criticism. To almost all the secretaries and clerical help around campus and to Bob Carter and his cohorts for their help. And to all of you for putting up with an occasional bloopster by us.

If my name hasn't appeared under as many pieces on this page as some would think proper, it's because I thought someone else had something just as important to say and we've covered a lot of material on this page, some good, some bad. When possible we've tried to present a situation in a positive manner—show up its good points. Sometimes it has been necessary to criticize, sometimes merely explain.

On our news pages we've tried to do our job, that is, cover the college community. We missed a few stories, lots of people didn't get their names in the paper as much as they would have liked, some letters didn't get printed.

On the whole, though, criticism was minor and I and the State Press staff bid all adieu with a clear conscience.

THE STATE PRESS, distributed by the campus chapter of Sigma Delta Chi under the direction of Circulation Manager John Nadel, is the official campus newspaper of Arizona State University. It is published each Wednesday and Friday throughout the school year, excepting holidays, and is entered as second class matter at the Tempe, Arizona, Post Office under the Acts of March 3, 1879, and August 24, 1912. Subscription price, $3 per school year.

THE STATE PRESS is a member of the Arizona Newspapers Association, Associated Collegiate Press and National Advertising Service, Inc.

Regents Hear Statement Of ASU Contracts, Gifts

ASU has been awarded $387,685 in research contracts and grants, gifts, equipment and scholarships during the past month, Dr. G. Homer Durham reported to the Board of Regents Monday.

The greatest portion of the total, $363,535, is in research contracts and grants.

In other action, the board accepted a report listing the total second semester enrollment at ASU as 15,434; 13,300 are resident students, 1,718, extension students, and 416 enrolled in correspondence courses.

Dr. Durham told the board that the National Architectural Accrediting Board has extended accreditation to the ASU School of Architecture for five years.

The board approved a leave of absence for Dr. Robert F. Menke, director of placement and professor of education, from July 1 to Sept. 1. Dr. Menke will work with the Boeing Aircraft Co., Seattle, Wash. personnel staff.

The board authorized the awarding of a $784,732 contract to Valcon Builders, Phoenix, for construction of an addition to the Engineering Center.

Final action of the board was the approval of the name "Palo Verde East" for the seven-story women's dormitory now under construction on campus and the designation "Palo Verde West" for a similar structure to be completed later.

Management Head Named

Dr. Joseph C. Schabacker has been appointed chairman of the management department of ASU's College of Business Administration, President G. Homer Durham announced recently.

A former president of the Madison, Wis., Society for the Advancement of Management, Dr. Schabacker has also held offices in the National Council for Small Business Management Development.

THE NEW ASU department chairman, a member of the Beta Gamma Sigma honorary society, is the co-author of "Accounting Problems," published by Barnes and Noble in 1952.

Dr. Schabacker was a lecturer in business administration at UCLA from 1951 to 1959 and an instructor at Temple University from 1946 to 1949.

HE RECEIVED a bachelor of science degree in commerce at Temple University and master of business administration and doctor of philosophy degrees in organization and management theory from UCLA.

Dr. Schabacker will assume his duties next fall.

Session Will Hear Allocations Debate

Governor Paul Fannin has called for a special session of the 26th Arizona Legislature to convene at 10 a.m. Monday to deal with the appropriation of capital outlay funds for ASU, UofA and ASC.

The special session had been sought by the governor, Board of Regents and University officials since the legislature adjourned its regular session.

It adjourned without solving its deadlock on the Regents' request for $20 million for construction and land acquisition for the three institutions during fiscal 1963-64.

The governor declared that the Senate president and House speaker "feel an agreement has been reached which will make the session fruitful."

The legislative leaders also expressed belief that the business outlined by the governor would take about three to five days.

Business of the session also will include problems with the Arizona State Hospital in Phoenix and the new Pima County Mental Health Center in Tucson.

Teacher Exams

Exams for teachers, on Federal and Arizona Constitution, will be given May 25 at 9 a.m. in SS 108.

The exams, part of the requirements for Arizona teacher certification, will be the last given until next October.

The fee for each exam is $4.

Goldwater Aide Appointed

ASU junior, Marilyn Fullerton, has been chosen by the Political Science Department to work as personal legislative intern to Arizona Senator Barry Goldwater this summer.

Miss Fullerton, a political science major, will serve in Washington for three months. She will accompany him both in his office and during sessions of the Senate.

ASASU Forum director this year, Miss Fullerton was selected on her scholarship and aptitude. Qualifications include a minimum 3.25 grade index.

She is the first girl to be named to the program, which is in its sixth year.

Last year, ASASU Vice President Henry Klopping served in the position. Recalling his experience last summer, Klopping stated, "It was a valuable experience because of the political knowledge a person gains. You never get practical aspects of legislative workings from a textbook," he added.

Special Advising Set For Fall

A special feature of the 1963 Orientation Week will include special advising for the incoming students enrolled in the Liberal Arts College.

Student advisors will be on hand to answer any questions relating to their major field or specialization. They also will be prepared to answer questions concerning class schedules and the registration process.

The department chairmen will be in charge of selecting three or four upper classmen to serve as student advisors on Sept. 10, 11 and 12.

An orientation study session for the advisors is tentatively scheduled for Sept. 9.

If advisors have questions they can contact Jim Stern, chairman of the education board, in MU 201.

Awards Presented To Sophomore Men

Rick Potter, president of Sophos, was named "Outstanding Sopho Leader" at a meeting of the sophomore men's honorary recently. The perfect attendance records at all Sophos meetings were compiled by Bob Hoskin, Karl Wochner and Jay Vargo. Sophos members are selling programs at the Western Athletic Conference track meet, Friday and Saturday.

They will also help at Baccalaureate and commencement ceremonies.

Certificates for all male students with a semester grade index of 3.0 or better is Sophos' last project this year.

The certificates will be distributed this summer.

Five Stipends To Be Offered

Five new scholarships for insurance majors will be offered next year in the College of Business Administration.

The scholarships, available to incoming freshmen as well as to sophomores, juniors and seniors, will be awarded on scholastic ability and financial need.

The Association of Insurance Agents will offer a scholarship of $200 to a major in insurance, $100 payments awarded each semester. The applicant must be a resident of Arizona.

AWARDS OF $375 and $300 will be offered to women students of the College of Business by the Insurance Women of Phoenix. Applicants must be degree students carrying a minimum of 12 semester hours and must be a resident of Maricopa County.

The J. Lester Shaffer Insurance Co. will sponsor a $250 scholarship.

Producers Life Insurance Co. will be awarding a grant of $250 for the 1963-64 school year.

TWO $500 scholarships will be sponsored by Robbs & Hester Insurance.

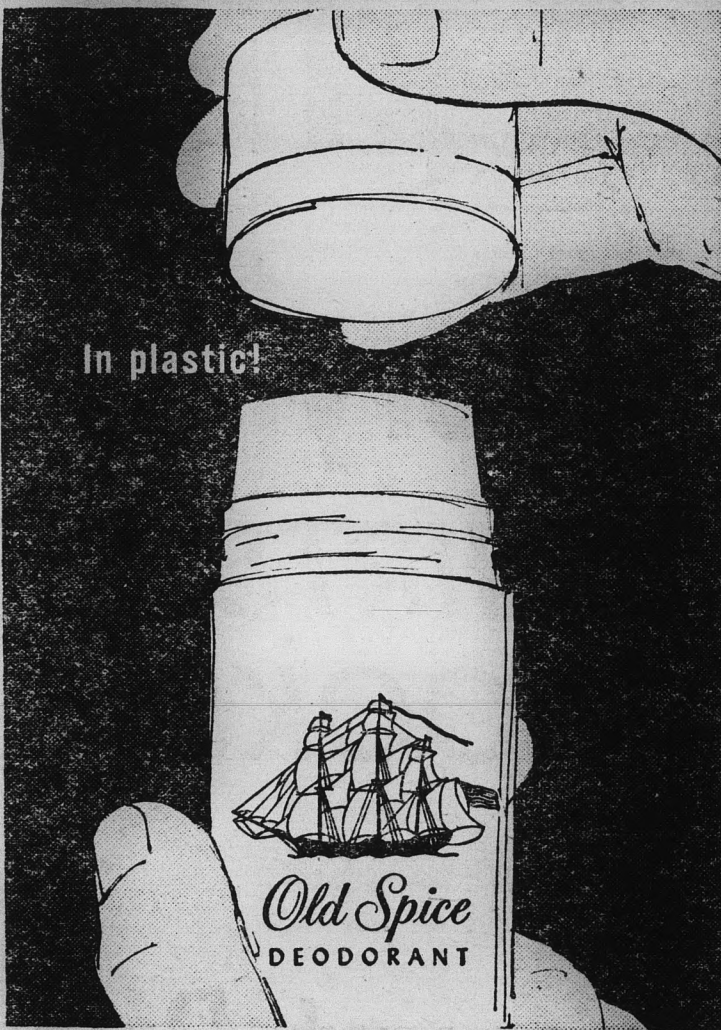

All applications must be filed with the scholarship office no later than June 30. For more information call Dr. Grant Osborn, professor of general business, College of Business Administration.

Foreign Service Test Ready

Candidates for Foreign Service officers may take the competitive written examination Sept. 7, 1963, at selected cities throughout the country and at diplomatic and consular posts abroad.

Applicants will be tested in English and general ability in addition to the three options of history, government and social sciences, management and business administration, and economics.

TILL WE MEET AGAIN

With today's installment I complete my ninth year of writing columns in your college newspaper for the makers of Marlboro Cigarettes. In view of the occasion, I hope I may be forgiven if I get a little misty.

These nine years have passed like nine minutes. In fact, I would not believe that so much time has gone by except that I have my wife nearby as a handy reference. When I started columning for Marlboros, she was a slip of a girl—supple as a reed and fair as the sunrise. Today she is gnarled, lumpy, and given to biting the postman. Still, I count myself lucky. Most of my friends who were married at the same time have wives who chase cars all day. I myself have never had this trouble and I attribute my good fortune to the fact that I have never struck my wife with my hand. I have always used a folded newspaper—even throughout the prolonged newspaper strike in New York. During this period I had the airmail edition of the Manchester Guardian flown in daily from England. I must confess, however, that it was not entirely satisfactory. The airmail edition of the Guardian is printed on paper so light and flimsy that it makes little or no impression when one slaps one's wife. Mine, in fact, thought it was some kind of game, and tore several pairs of my trousers.

But I digress. I was saying what a pleasure it has been to write this column for the last nine years for the makers of Marlboro Cigarettes—a fine group of men, as anyone who has sampled their wares would suspect. They are as mellow as the aged tobaccos they blend. They are as pure as the white cellulose filter they have devised. They are loyal, true, companionable, and constant, and I have never for an instant wavered in my belief that some day they will pay me for these last nine years.

But working for the makers of Marlboro has not been the greatest of my pleasures over the last nine years. The chief satisfaction has been writing for you—the college population of America. It is a rare and lucky columnist who can find an audience so full of intelligence and verve. I would like very much to show my appreciation by asking you all over to my house for tea and oatmeal cookies, but there is no telling how many of you my wife would bite.

For many of you this is the last year of college. This is especially true for seniors. To those I extend my heartfelt wishes that you will find the world outside a happy valley. To juniors I extend my heartfelt wishes that you will become seniors. To sophomores I extend my heartfelt wishes that you will become juniors. To freshmen I extend my heartfelt wishes that you will become sophomores. To those of you going on into graduate school I extend my heartfelt wishes that you will marry money.

To all of you let me say one thing: during the year I have been frivolous and funny during the past year—possibly less often than I have imagined—but the time has now come for some serious talk. Whatever your status, whatever your plans, I hope that success will attend your ventures.

Stay happy. Stay loose.

We, the makers of Marlboro Cigarettes, confess to more than a few nervous moments during the nine years we have sponsored this uninhibited and uncensored column. But in the main, we have had fun and so, we hope, have you. Let us add our good wishes to Old Max's: stay happy; stay loose.

Does a man really take unfair advantage of women when he uses Mennen Skin Bracer?

All depends on why he uses it.

Most men simply think Menthol-Iced Skin Bracer is the best after-shave lotion around. Because it cools rather than burns. Because it helps heal shaving nicks and scrapes. Because it helps prevent blemishes.

So who can blame them if Bracer's crisp, long-lasting aroma just happens to affect women so remarkably?

Of course, some men may use Mennen Skin Bracer because of this effect.

How intelligent!

MRA AND MR. K

"Kommunist", the Moscow organ which gives the Party Line inside the Soviet Union, recently said this of Moral Re-Armament:

"MORAL RE-ARMAMENT is certainly the most prominent association which aims to save Western civilization from Communism. It has staff headquarters in Europe, Asia and America. These people hold assemblies in Latin America and even organize Pan-African conferences . . . The leaders of Moral Re-Armament claim that it is superior to capitalism and Communism . . . At a time when the morals of the bourgeois world are bankrupt, the prophets of Moral Re-Armament say that the world requires an ideology to satisfy the longing for absolute standards, an ideology able to move the hearts of the privileged as well as the under-privileged . . . They train officers, philosophers, film directors and move with 200, 300 or 400 people in strength with up-to-date technical equipment, radio transmitters, libraries . . . Not long ago they issued a call to Communists through full pages in the press. In this the Communists are challenged to take part in 'the greatest revolution of all time.' These people say the problem is neither Communism nor capitalism, but the necessity to change human nature to the roots. They puff themselves up with pride and even suggest to Marxists they should change and take up an ideology that is for everybody. This is really the most bold strike that has come from these propagandists of reconciliation and forgiveness."

AS MR. KHRUSHCHEV AND HIS FOLLOWERS TRY TO EXPLAIN ATTITUDES OF MORAL RE-ARMAMENT, IT IS IMPORTANT TO STATE WHAT MORAL RE-ARMAMENT IS FOR AND WHAT IT IS AGAINST.

Sexual deviants in high places who protect potential spies.

Those who bully newspapermen for obeying their conscience. And newspapermen who abuse their liberty by distorting or suppressing news of Moral Re-Armament.

Communism, Fascism, or any small perilous "ism" which abolishes God and sets race against race, class against class, color against color, man against man, in an atomic age.

Debunkers of patriotism, who decry the past, debase the present and destroy the future; a United States which criticizes other countries but is itself deeply divided.

Leaders of society and government who betray their trust, and use influence and power to force decadence upon us — bigots who try to persecute those unwilling to compromise or to cover up.

Pacifism, which seems to make war certain. Leaders who cry "peace" but create conditions that lead to war. Philosophers and fools who cry "peace" but train man to live like a beast, and so doom him to live like a beast, treat others like beasts, and march the path to slaughterhouse or zoo.

Reaction, which strives to change everybody else except itself.

Steely selfishness of right, acid bitterness of left which create class war, lock-outs, unofficial strikes and lead inevitably to national bankruptcy and war.

Human "honesty" which publishes other people's shortcomings while covering up its own, tells men to get as much as they can in return for as little as possible.

Homosexuality, lesbianism, pornography, adultery, lies which say sin is no longer sin when enough people come to like it. Preoccupation with dirt which robs a nation of sweat and skill and helps to lose its markets.

Divorce by consent whether legalized or wangled.

Producers and critics who uplift grime as genius and bar those who stand for decency, faith and honor.

Human selfishness that elevates "number one" into the national idol, says all who refuse to worship it are squares.

Human "love" that tells men evil is all right, cannot be cured and so says there is nothing to forgive and that man can manage by himself.

Lies invented by knaves, endorsed by the experts and swallowed by fools, which separate a nation from moral and spiritual rebirth.

Those in and out of churches who use theology, science, personal compromise and position to rob the nations of true faith.

New Construction Covers Campus

By TROY IRVINE

The Skyline of the expanding ASU campus has been altered with a total of $5,151,945 of construction for the 1962-63 academic year.

Included in the total figure are three major building projects, the auditorium, dorm and Life Science Center addition, which are still in the construction stages.

Scheduled for completion in March, 1964, the Grady Gammage Memorial Auditorium is 50 per cent finished. Workmen are pouring floors and adding duct work this week to the skeletal frame of the 80-foot-high structure.

The modernistic multi-purpose auditorium will be 305 feet long and 235 feet wide, with a seating capacity of 3,000. The building's creator was the late architect Frank Lloyd Wright.

Palo Verde East, women's dormitory, is 75 per cent complete. Tile is being set and walls plastered on the seven-story structure this week, progressing toward completion this August. Rising seven stories high in an "X" shape, Palo Verde East will accommodate 410 coeds.

A third major addition to the ASU physical plant, the 22,000 square foot Life Science Center addition is 99 per cent complete and will be ready for the first summer session.

Other construction which will continue through the summer:

73,000 square foot addition to the Engineering Center, which was awarded Monday to Valcon Builders of Phoenix for a low bid of $784,732.

Utility tunnel to service the Palo Verde dormitory complex, including a 12-foot-wide pedestrian bridge over Eighth Street.

The new three-story wing to be built to the north side of the Engineering Center will be completed nine months after construction is begun this summer. The addition, which is identical to the present Center, will include 20 classrooms along with much-needed office and laboratory space.

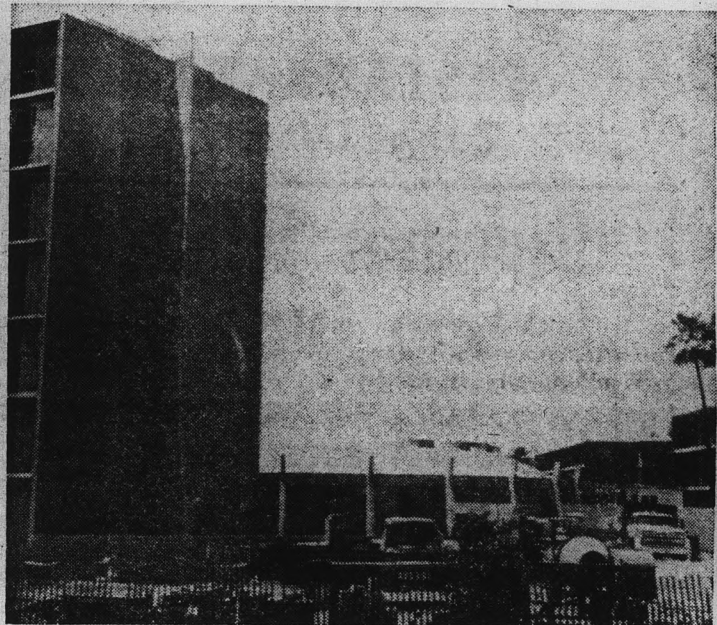

Carrying the utility system over Eighth Street, the 240-foot-long pedestrian bridge rises with a 17-foot clearance. The bridge is the first of three which eventually will span Eighth Street — soon to be widened to 80 feet for a Federal Highway secondary route.

In off-campus construction this year, two religious centers were added for University students at a combined cost of $395,000.

A new chapel and religious center for the two student wards of the Latter-Day Saints is nearing completion at a cost of $360,000.

Completed early this spring, a $35,000 student campus center is sponsored by the Lutheran Church.

The University is rapidly expanding to facilitate an estimated enrollment of 30,000 students in 1973, according to John Ellingson, physical plant director.

Drama Class Plays Set

Two one-act plays by the ASU Drama Class, using the "theater in the round" technique, will be televised on KAET, Channel 8, May 23 at 9 p.m.

It will be the first attempt to televise "theater in the round" in Phoenix area history, according to KAET officials.

"Impromptu" and "The Dollar" are the titles of the two productions. They will be presented before an invited studio audience.

The plays will be presented out-doors and television cameras will be employed in such a manner as to give the TV audience at home the same "theater in the round" effect as enjoyed by the studio audience.

Greek To Me

Splash! Year Ends

By ROSS FISH

You'd think Alpha Drive was a back alley of Harlem the way it's been patrolled this past week.

A typical scene was last Saturday around 2 a.m. Patrols cars were posted across from the row entrances alert for any break of dangerous violence.

MINUTES LATER, their chance came.

Masses of rioting Greeks rushed into the open streets dousing each other with savage splashes.

The attack was the second since sundown. The competing gangs had armed themselves after dinner with buckets, sawed-off Clorox containers, fruit cans, fire extinguishers and mudballs.

THEY MARCHED up and down the row drenching any defenders, screaming wild, obscene messages and destructively de-capping a fire hydrant.

Amid cheers from those who had scrambled to safety, the men with shiny badges cleared the streets — and justice ruled again.

YES, IT HAS been a year of excitement on the new row.

The 10 new houses saw a record herd of rushees last fall. As a result, most of the houses have a stable number to begin next season with.

The fraternities who took over the five houses on Adelphi have kept in step. In fact, a couple have broken into the top bracket.

A FEW houses are still scattered in the Tempe residential areas. Their segregation certainly hasn't stunted their growth or slowed their activities. And then, of course, the sororities are still being spoon-fed in Palo Verde.

Highlights of the social season were the crownings of fraternity sweethearts. Nancy Berncic was named Sweetheart of ATO at its spring formal. Sigma Phi Epsilon crowned Jean Salzbrenner as Queen of Hearts.

Four Chi Omega's were crowned sweethearts of various fraternities. Diane Smith was named Delta Sigma Phi Dream Girl. Sigma Nu's new White Rose Queen is Vicky Ray. Ann Verhoeven was named Pike Dream Girl and Sandi Berry, Phi Sigma Kappa's Moonlight Girl.

Delta Chi selected Margie Pavelin, Gamma Phi Beta, as its Sweetheart, Joanne Von Blume, Alpha Phi, was the Tau Kappa Epsilon Sweetheart.

Two Kappa Kappa Gamma's were sweethearts this year. Louise Diercks was the choice of Phi Delta Theta. Kay Morrell was named Sigma Chi Sweetheart.

Toby Weinberg, Alpha Epsilon Phi, has been the sweetheart of Alpha Epsilon Pi this year. Peggy Wisniewski was crowned Theta Chi Sweetheart.

FOR GRADUATING Greeks, years of active membership in ASU's fraternities and sororities comes to a close within a few days.

All over campus this past week the last meetings of the year were ended with farewells to the seniors and the singing of the chapter songs.

Maybe it's the melancholy tune, maybe it's the tear you see in a freshman initiate's eye, maybe it's the lump in your own throat — something makes you realize that all the heartaches and hard work have been worth every effort.

YOU SEE, there's a lot more than water fights, trophies, queen campaigns, charity work, making grades, walkouts, work nights, decorating, competing and partying.

There's a lot more to Greek life.

There's a loyalty, a precious loyalty, that will remain in the heart of every sorority woman and every fraternity man no matter where life leads them.

Off The Cuff

JOE HEATH
Sports Editor

Four of the six track and field teams in the Western Athletic Conference are capable of winning the league crown. The Sun Devils undoubtedly have more individual performers but ASU's lack of depth keeps the odds down on making the championships a runaway.

The NCAA can't hope for much better competition when they hold the championship meet in June than is offered at Goodwin Stadium this weekend.

Not only will the nation's two fastest mile relay teams be matched against each other, but the top three 440 men in the country will be out to do battle, with Ullis Williams and Adolph Plummer shooting at the season's top mark of :46.0 set last weekend by Bob Tolar, the third man in the race.

WHEN THE GUN SOUNDS to start the 100-yard dash, the race will be over before the echo returns from the Tempe Butte and it will more than likely take the thickness of the finish line tape to separate the distance between Henry Carr and George Gardner of New Mexico.

The UofA will probably take the mile and two-mile runs which may be enough to give them fifth place in the meet but it's about all that it can hope for.

WHEN THE 220-YARD DASH is over, the Sun Devils will have the full five points added to its score before the rest of the runners cross the finish line as Henry Carr will out distance the rest of the runners by a wide margin.

It will take a tremendous effort to break their own world mark in the mile relay as they will be participating in more events than just their specialty, but the Devil foursome should have no trouble defeating the New Mexico crew and the rest of the WAC opponents.

Devil Hoopsters In 26 Games

A 26-game basketball schedule, sprinkled with perennial national powerhouses and highlighted by the first annual Sun Devil Classic, was announced for next season by Clyde B. Smith, athletic director.

During the upcoming season, the Sun Devils of Coach Ned Wulk will meet such standout quintets as Wichita, Bradley, Creighton, Colorado, Stanford, Colorado State, Texas Western, Illinois, USC, plus all members of the Western Athletic Conference.

Featured in the Sun Devil Classic, scheduled Dec. 20-21, are California, Michigan State, Oklahoma and host ASU.

The Devils will return four starters from the 1962-63 squad, which posted a 26-3 record, best in ASU's history.

The club was ranked third nationally by United Press International and fourth by the Associated Press at the close of the season.

All home games will be played at Sun Devil Gymnasium. A change has been made in the starting time, however.

Freshmen games will begin at 6 p.m. with varsity play getting underway at 8 p.m., or one-half hour earlier than last season.

UofA Picked To Win Title

By NORDY JENSEN

The first Western Athletic Conference tennis championships are scheduled for Friday and Saturday at ASU with national powerhouse UofA rated as favorite.

Matches are scheduled for the ASU tennis courts adjacent to Sun Devil Gymnasium and at the corner of Apache Blvd. and Forest Ave. on the southwest edge of the campus.

Singles play begins at 10 a.m. Friday with the finals slated for the same time Saturday.

Doubles play opens Friday at 4:30 p.m. and concludes at the same time Saturday.

Medals will be awarded to the first two individual finishers in each bracket with a team trophy going to the winning school.

John Rose WAC Tops

By DICK MULLINS
Sports Information Bureau

Nothing succeeds like failure. At least John Rose credits failure with helping him clear 16-feet in the pole vault.

The 5-9, 170-pound senior cleared 16-1/2 in his specialty last Saturday night in the Coliseum Relays at Los Angeles. But it was two narrow misses at 16-1 the week before in the West Coast Relays at Fresno that gave him the inspiration.

"I FELT I COULD clear 16-feet," John said, "but I was thinking more in terms of next year. But when I had the two near misses at Fresno, my mental attitude changed entirely. All of a sudden 16 feet didn't seem so high."

John will be favored in the pole vault when he concludes his Sun Devil career in the WAC championships, May 24-25, at Goodwin Stadium.

John is the most unlikely pole vaulter of all. First, he is short by pole vaulter standards, and then he holds the pole some eight inches lower than other vaulters.

IN OTHER WORDS, when the six-foot tall vaulters clear 16 feet they pull their bodies a foot over their hands. When John clears 16-feet his body clears his hands by three feet.

His success lies in a fast approach (he ran the hurdles in high school) and strength (he is a religious weight lifter).

Were it not for the fiberglass pole, John might well be the best vaulter in the nation, for he uses the same technique he used on an aluminum pole, although he too has made the switch to fiberglass.

JOHN HOPES to graduate in January and then teach and coach. He also has his eye on the Olympic tryouts next summer. Because he competed as a freshman, John is not eligible for the NCAA championships.

Rose, a native of Burbank, Calif., is the second member of his family to attend ASU. His older brother, Joe, preceded him (1956-59) and at one time held the school record in the pole vault. The record has since been broken, but it's still in the family. John took care of that.

Conference Meet Starts Friday

By ALAN MICHAELS

A tight four-way battle featured favored Arizona State shapes up for this weekend's first annual Western Athletic Conference track and field championships at Goodwin Stadium.

The Sun Devils, noted for their outstanding individual performers, have suffered from lack of depth during the 1963 campaign and this could be a telling factor in the scramble for the title.

A-STATE SPRINTERS eclipsed two world marks this season when Henry Carr clocked 20.3 for the 220 and the mile relay combine of Mike Barrick, Carr, Ron Freeman and Ullis Williams streaked to a 3:04.5 performance.

The Devils can expect their toughest opposition from New Mexico, Brigham Young and the UofA.

COACH BALDY Castillo's squad owns dual meet victories over the Cougars and Wildcats but bowed to the Lobos earlier this season.

Trials in eleven events are scheduled for Friday evening with finals in all events slated Saturday.

COMPETITION on both nights will begin at 7:30.

In Friday's Los Angeles Coliseum Relays, Carr bowed to Florida A&M's Bob Hayes in the 220 (20.8), pole vaulter John Rose cleared the 16-foot barrier for the first time (16-1/2) and the mile relay tandem blazed to its second fastest clocking ever (3:05.2).
