

Ticket Sales Boom For Rival Game

By ROBERT MELBO

More than 30,000 tickets to the ASU-UofA football game, scheduled Nov. 30 in Sun Devil Stadium, have been sold, according to Frank Rispoli, assistant athletic director.

Students carrying less than seven hours are considered members of the general public and must get tickets at the University ticket office in the men's gym.

BOTH SIDES of the stadium have been filled by reservations and sales. Tickets are being sold for temporary bleacher seats only.

"Several thousand" $4 tickets are available at the ticket office for fans and part-time students.

Capacity of Sun Devil stadium is 30,000, but will be increased to 40,000 by addition of temporary end-zone bleachers.

Only 7,500 seats in the east stadium are available to students, faculty and staff for regular season games. However, an unlimited number of bleacher seats will be made available to accommodate the expected overflow.

TWO YEARS ago, with an enrollment of approximately 11,500, more than 8,000 students and faculty attended the game.

This year, with a total enrollment of more than 15,000 students, officials are expecting an attendance of 10,000.

Tickets will be distributed on either a reserved basis, one per student with ID card, or on a reserved section basis. Under the latter plan, students with ID cards would either claim their tickets and buy guest tickets on a first-come, first-served basis, or pick up reserved tickets and return later to buy guest tickets after everyone entitled to one had claimed his.

"THESE ARE matters which still have to be worked out with student leaders," Rispoli said.

Dates for distribution of reserved tickets to students have not been set.

A total of 5,200 seats have been allocated to the UofA, which includes 2,800 on sale to the general public in Tucson.

More than 22,000 tickets have been made available during the last three weeks to the general public.

ASU STUDENTS and faculty will occupy the southeastern end of the stadium and southern end-zone bleachers. ASU alumni will be seated in northeastern sections of the stadium, Rispoli said, and the public will be accommodated in the west stadium and southern bleachers.

UofA STUDENTS and fans will sit in the northern three rows of the west stadium, northern end-zone bleachers, and northern part of the east stadium.

Better seating may be in sight for ASU students next year and during future football contests with the UofA.

Preliminary plans were approved by the state Board of Regents last week for a 10,400 seat addition to Arizona Stadium in Tucson. Construction will begin at the end of this season and will be completed in time for the opening of the 1964 season.

Tuesday Primary -

Fifteen Candidates To Vie In Freshman Senate Race

Polls will be open from 8-5 Tuesday for the Freshman Senatorial Primary Election.

Fifteen candidates will be listed on the IBM ballot.

Voting booths will be located on the corner of College Ave. and Orange St. in front of Matthew's Library and between the Physical Science building and Life Science center.

Booths will be staffed by members of Spurs and Sophos and supervised by the Election Board.

Candidates are Wil Adrian, Dusty Blethen, Bruce Briggs, Chuck Cowley, John Elan, Randy Ellexson, Ira Friedman and June Kettering.

Ted Marsella, Dan Ramatulla, Bill Scherrer, Randy Silver, Sharon Waggoner, Sandra Walmsley and Alan Warne are also candidates.

Providing no one receives a majority of votes cast, four candidates with the top totals will vie for the two Senate seats in the Oct. 15 general election.

Nominees will begin campaigning at 6 a.m. Monday.

Campaign materials are limited to five posters, two banners and any number of handbills and cards. All materials must bear the candidate's campaign number.

Senate Hears Proposals For Executive Expansion

By FRANK DUCCESCHI

Expansion and reorganization of the Executive Branch of the Associated Student government was proposed Wednesday by ASASU president Daryl Winn in his "State of the University" address.

Two major proposals were suggested by Winn for the reorganization of the Executive Branch.

THE FIRST proposal was the addition of a third vice president to the list of student government officers.

The new officer, entitled Administrative Vice President, would head an Administrative Coordination Board much the same as the Activities Vice President directs the Activities Coordination Board.

The Administrative Coordination Board would consist of the present Executive Boards; Organizations and Leadership; Memorial Union, Education and Elections.

A CHANGE in membership of the Executive Council was Winn's second proposal. He suggested the council be cut to seven members.

The Executive Council, principal administering agency of ASASU, now consists of the four ASASU officers, AWS and AMS presidents and members of the four Executive Boards.

WINN'S PLAN would replace the representatives from the Executive Boards with the Administrative Vice President.

The president's speech also struck at constitutional and statutory inconsistencies.

MANY STATUTORY inconsistencies can be corrected in the Senate, according to Senator Karl Wochner, chairman of the senate rules committee and speaker Pro Tem.

However, there are problems which can not be solved by the legislature alone, said Wochner. There is "a very good chance" that constitutional revision will be necessary.

Any change in the ASASU constitution requires ratification by the student body.

Senator Wochner has already promised that revision of the constitution and statutes will be the "main project" of the rules committee this semester.

IF ANY constitutional changes are recommended, they should be ready by the spring elections, he said.

In other Senate action, the oath of office was administered to Senators by the Chief Justice and a list of executive appointments was given to the Senate membership and election committee for consideration by Winn.

ASU Executive Vice President William J. Burke welcomed the Senate in behalf of the administration.

A reception was conducted in the MU upper lounge after adjournment.

Singers, Dance Head Schedule

Peter, Paul and Mary are coming Saturday, Nov. 9.

Tickets are on sale at the corner of College and Orange Aves., Bill's Records around the Valley and Hill's Records in Tempe Center.

A sports dance will take place tomorrow, 8-11 in the MU ballroom and the Devil's Den.

Students attending the dance will be able to hear the ASU-Colorado State game over the public address system.

Ready For Debut -

Extra Show Of First Play Sells Out, Too

The extra performance of "The Miracle Worker" scheduled for Sunday evening has been sold out.

A full house of 200 was achieved yesterday before the date of the extra performance had been announced.

The Players turned away 100 people for this showing. No other showings will be scheduled, according to Ester Louise Moore, press representative for the Players.

"Never in the history of this theater has anything like this happened before," Miss Moore said. She recommends that everyone make their reservations early for the next Players' productions.

East Hall Wins Banner Contest

East Hall placed first last week in the banner contest sponsored by the Rally and Traditions Board.

Banners are judged on the basis of theme, neatness, originality and artistic value, according to Ken Bacher, committee chairman.

Bacher said a trophy will be presented to the organization with the greatest number of points at the end of the football season.

Application blanks may be picked up at the activity center in MU 212, Tuesday at 3:30 p.m.

Completed banners must be displayed before 6 p.m. the Friday before a home game. Judging will take place Saturday mornings.

UofA Fraternity Gets Probation

University of Arizona has placed the Phi Delta Theta men's fraternity on probation until the spring semester for an infraction of University conduct rules.

The penalty was imposed this week after 10 fraternity members allegedly raided the Beta Theta Pi house on Sept. 22.

This ruling means that the fraternity, one of 29 on the campus, cannot rush new members or sponsor parties until next semester.

Respiratory Cases Rise On Campus

A major outbreak of "upper respiratory infection," was reported this week by the Student Health Service. Head nurse, Elaine McFarland said lab tests to detect influenza proved negative.

Miss McFarland states there is no medication for this respiratory ailment, but all students, especially those living in close quarters, are advised to obtain influenza shots at the infirmary.

Shots are fifty cents each. One booster shot is required for those who received shots last year. Those who have not received a shot within the last year will need two shots.

Infirmary hours are 8-4. The building is located west of the Physical Sciences building.

Shaping The American Society -

American Studies Center Sets Theme

Dr. Paul G. Hubbard, director of the 1963-64 Center for American Studies, has announced "Shaping the American Society" as the theme for the 1963-64 fall series which begins Oct. 23.

The fall and spring series each consist of five programs. The spring series is to be called "To Form a More Perfect Union."

DR. RICHARD S. Wells, assistant professor of political science, will begin the series with a lecture entitled "The Structure and Use in Early American Political Experience: The Origins of a Recurring Problem," on Oct. 23.

Marvin R. Jackson, instructor in economics, will deliver the second lecture entitled "Early American Capitalism: Evolution or Revolution?," on Oct. 30.

Third lecturer in the series will be Dr. Frederic F. Mitchell, assistant professor of education, who will speak on "Education and the Shaping of the American Mind: Pre-Civil War Influences," on Nov. 6.

DR. MARVIN M. Fisher, associate professor of English, will speak on "Walt Whitman: An American Original," on Nov. 13. Concluding the fall lecture series will be Dr. Harry Wood, chairman of the department of arts, speaking on "In a Larger Sense: The Poetry and the Pattern of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address," on Nov. 19.

All fall lectures will be in the MU ballroom at 2:45 p.m. except the last which will be at 8 p.m. Admission will be free.

Rotarians Announce Fellowship Deadline

Applications for the 1965-68 Rotary Foundation Fellowships for international understanding sponsored by Rotary International, must be turned in no later than April 15, 1964. All applicants must register with the Rotary Club nearest his permanent address.

The fellowship provides one fully paid academic year of graduate study abroad, including round-trip transportation and living expenses.

An applicant is required to list at least five preferred universities. Ten fellowships will be awarded each year. Applicants must be single and a bachelor's degree is preferred.

For further information students should contact Dr. Fred W. Hicks, Director of Financial Aids, in the Administration Building.

Court Issues Order On Road Obstruction

Superior Court Judge Charles Stidham issued a restraining order last week against Ernie Mohamed, a former Phoenix contractor and sports promoter.

Mohamed was named by the University for digging a six-foot hole across the north parking lot entrance road before the Wichita game.

Mohamed claimed that the entrance road leading from the "River Bottom Road" to the lot was on his property. There is no proof of this, however.

According to John Duffy, director of the Department of Security, the Superior Court will convene again Oct. 11 in order to discuss a permanent injunction.

Sahuaro A Ruling Body Amends Hall Constitution

Sahuaro A formed the basis of a constitutional governing body Wednesday to decide the fate of hall government.

In an attempt to promote an interest in some form of hall government, Head Resident Bob Bradford sent six assistants to inquire if residents desired a hall government or not.

BRADFORD RECEIVED ANSWERS FROM FOUR OF THE SIX ASSISTANTS AFFIRMING A CONSTITUTIONAL RULING BODY. THE CONSTITUTION THEY APPROVED WAS SIMILAR TO LAST YEAR'S EXCEPT FOR SEVERAL AMENDMENTS. BRADFORD THEN CALLED FOR NOMINATIONS OF HALL OFFICERS.

Only a third of the dormitory had been heard from. Recognizing that their vote hadn't been called for, the non-voting residents considered it an undemocratic procedure.

In protest these men voted to approve the old, unamended constitution and demanded a hearing. The representatives then met in a general hall meeting to decide on the form of government to be used in Sahuaro A.

THE QUESTION was voted upon and the amended constitution was ratified 55-19. The basic differences in the two constitutions lies in student representation on the Hall Council. The old constitution provided for 10 members with the president, vice president, secretary and treasurer.

The amended form, however, provides for 12 representatives who would elect the officers.

In addition, the new constitution made provisions for its ruling authority to be carried over to the first 60 days of next year.

Head Resident Bradford stated that until now little or no interest had been shown in dorm activity and the recent issue has brought about new enthusiasm.

Sun Devils Take Rodeo Event Titles

Two members of the Sun Devil Rodeo Association won three Arizona Rodeo championships in the 1963 state finals at Sonoita, near Tucson, last week.

Senior Tom Harsh took all-around cowboy honors and the calf-roping title. He received a trophy buckle and an engraved saddle for each honor.

Clarkson Collins, a graduate student, won the steer-wrestling championship. He also received a trophy buckle and an engraved saddle.

At the recent Northern Arizona Rodeo Circuit finals at Winslow, Pat Brunotte took the barrel racing championship and Clarkson Collins placed second in steer wrestling.

Child's Workshop Registration Set

Registration for the first session of the Creative Art Workshop for Children will be at 9 a.m. Saturday in the Arts building.

The weekly class, designed for students between the ages of six and 18, is under the direction of Jack Taylor, associate professor of art, assisted by art instructors from local schools.

Classes will meet Saturdays from 9 a.m. to noon for 10 weeks. Tuition, including all costs, is $20.

Topic Of SNEA Is Communism

"Teaching About Communism In the Public Schools" will be the topic of W. W. "Skipper" Dick, Arizona Superintendent of Public Instruction, at a meeting of the Student National Education Association Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the MU.

Refreshments will be served.

Auditions

The University Players will have auditions for the next production, "Lysistrata," at 7:30 p.m., Oct. 7-8 at the Lyceum. A cast of 30 people is needed for the play.

Lysistrata will be presented Nov. 21, 22, 23 and Dec. 5, 6, and 7. The play by Aristophanes relates the outcome of a plan by women of Greece to end war.

Dr. James Yeater will direct the production.

What's the difference?

According to Will Shakespeare, a rose that's called a petunia still smells like a rose. It would, however, tend to confuse the uninitiated and even puzzle the horticultural experts.

Seven years ago we opened the first Varsity Shop at 30 North First Street with the announcement that it was for students and young executives. At first, most of our customers were students. The young executives came around when they found our traditional styles were perfect for their business and social needs.

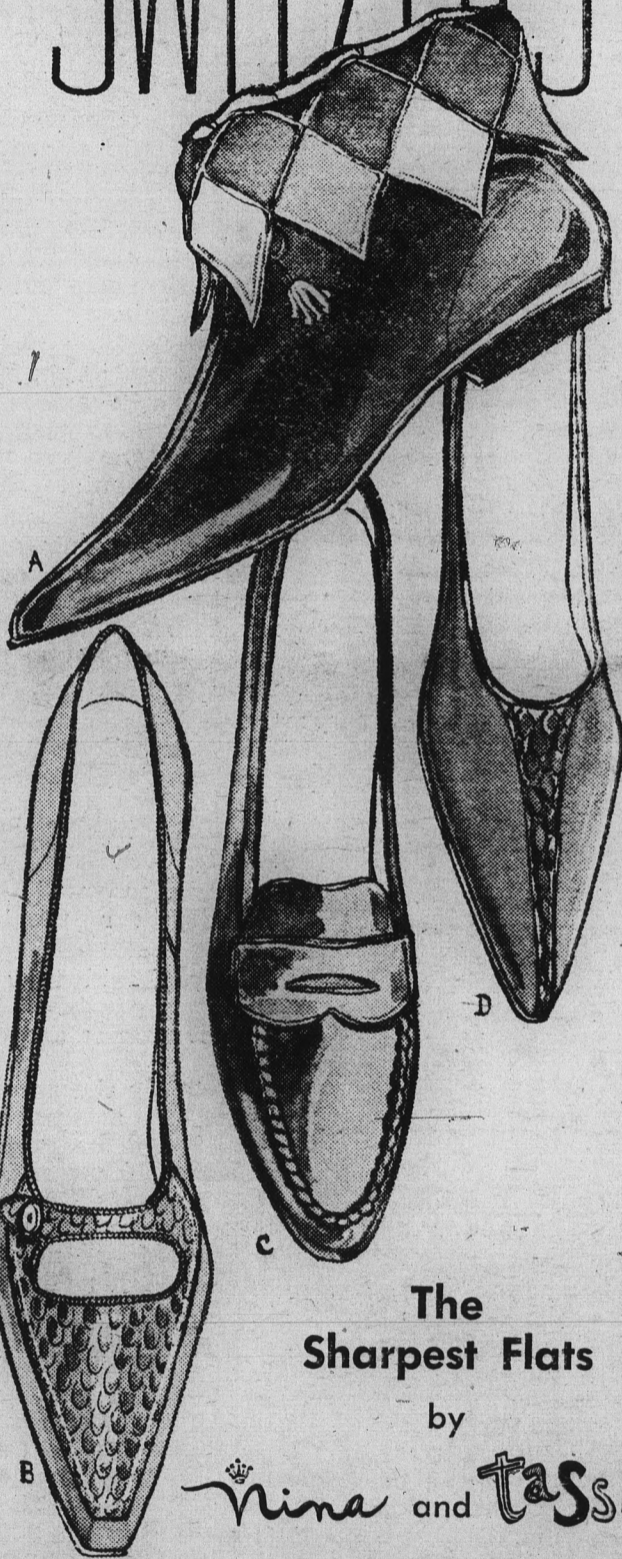

We have since opened two more Varsity Shops (at Christown in 1961 and Scottsdale in 1962) and they're doing nicely, thank you. However, we feel that the time has come to give the shops a more fitting name. We decided on The Racquet Shops... an old English term denoting youthful spirit, quiet dignity and love of sports.

That is the only change we're making. We will continue to carry the same authentic natural shoulder clothing and furnishing that have made the Varsity — oops — we mean the Racquet Shops — a favorite shopping place for young men of all ages.

Parking — A New Frontier

This fall's record enrollment has created such a parking problem that all the changes and improvements made during the summer are made to look inadequate.

CONSTRUCTION projects have taken over parking lots relatively close to campus buildings and pushed the parking frontier farther into the Tempe suburbs. Houses have been moved to make way for the commuters.

These new lots as well as the once dusty parking lots behind Palo Verde have been oil-coated, marked with white lines and bordered by concrete slabs. A vast improvement over preceding years that was acutely needed and greatly appreciated.

NEW SIGNS were put up to denote specific parking areas, faculty, dorm, etc. . . . still regulated by the "first come" method. — all well and good. But for late arrivals (after 7:40 a.m.) it's still a struggle to find a parking space. — unless it's up against the Buttes in the Palo Verde lots.

If, for instance, a faculty member couldn't find a spot in one of the more "choice" faculty parking lots closer to the main buildings, he would have to park on another lot farther out.

AH, BUT if it was not a faculty lot, he would get a parking ticket. Because his sticker says he can only park in his area. Even if he attempted to crash an off-campus lot on the outskirts of Tempe he would get a ticket.

If a person has a sticker for a more desirable lot, he should be able to park on a less desirable lot if there is room — namely off-campus lots.

Giving a person a ticket for parking in the twilight zone just isn't cricket.

We Are Behind You . . . And You

Freshman Senator candidates sit up and take notice.

The State Press is behind each and every one of you.

We are not taking any sides or backing any candidate as far as Senate seats are concerned.

Referring to Wednesday's State Press, the picture on page one showing a frosh senator candidate handing in his petition to ASASU secretary, Marilyn Vihel, was not planned to feature that specific candidate.

The story and picture were planned to emphasize the election in general and encourage voting.

The candidate happened to be in the student government offices at the right time. Our photographer set up the shot with the people who happened to be there.

We thought a timely picture would be just a little better than using the frosh candidate's picture of last year.

We repeat to the rabble rousers. The picture was taken with all good intentions. As far as Greek influence on the pix is concerned, they quit the State Press and opened a restaurant a long time ago.

Take A Bow

The curtain's open, University Players — take another well-deserved bow.

Slick, well rehearsed plays like "The Miracle Worker" are expected from a university the size of ours — you have lived up to the expectations.

Again, congratulations — keep up the good work!

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

"YOU'RE CHARGED WITH 'FRUSTRATING' YOUR STUDENTS BY YOUR CONSTANT CLASSROOM REFERENCES TO 'THE DAY OF RECKONING' AFTER FOOTBALL SEASON."

I Cover College Avenue

By ROSS FISH

Freshmen will vote Tuesday for the first time on campus.

Why should they bother?

Only a small percentage of the class will go to the polls.

They'll never hear directly what the victors of the race accomplish as senators. For that matter they'll probably never hear of the senator again until elections next spring.

REALIZING that academic goals are of primary concern to every freshman, why should they begin their college career by taking time out to mark a couple of X's on a ballot? Few will understand the obligations and responsibilities of an ASASU senator; moreover, few will know the candidate they "X" beyond a firm grip and Pepsi-scented smile.

The attacking mob of campaigners on the street corners will assure the freshmen that each candidate is the best-qualified, most-admired, sharpest all-around person they've ever known. So, join the forces, hop on the band-wagon — rah, rah, rah.

Cheer, stomp, clap, wave a flag. Oh, what spirit.

This is college. Yeah, we got our man in.

"OUR" MAN? "Our" man?

Freshmen will vote Tuesday for the first time.

Why should they bother?

The reasons are obvious.

Certainly the academic hours of a freshman's day should be carefully budgeted. However, the few minutes it would take him to analyze his class officer nominees might aid his education, too.

AFTER ALL, when we untied Mommy's apron strings and headed for the University doors, we stood proudly as an adult. So, why should we avoid one of our first responsibilities by neglecting the first opportunity to help control the government that controls our University lives.

You see, it doesn't really matter if you never see your "X" or hear what legislation he pushes through the Senate if you are confident that you have selected the right person for the job.

But, if you don't bother to find out anything about the candidates or the positions they are seeking, perhaps you should leave the voting up to those who do care.

It's worth the "bother" to know that you're a real part of the Associated Students.

Letters to the Editor —

Cleve Still 'Champ'

TO THE EDITOR:

Concerning your editorial, "No Champion of His Cause," of Sept. 27, 1963.

We do believe this editorial to be one of the most blindly ever written. Cleve McDowell apparently felt that there was a need to carry a weapon on his person at the University of Mississippi. We feel that there is no further need for martyrs for the cause of "Human Rights." There are too many already. For example:

1. Medgar Evers was not carrying a concealed weapon when he died.
2. Four children were not carrying weapons in church when they were killed.
3. The child riding the bike with his brother was not carrying a weapon, he also died.
4. Judge Aaron was not armed when he was emasculated.

We could go on and on. We believe any thinking person will agree that on a campus the size of the University of Mississippi, there would have to be a cordon of soldiers around it and each student admitted with a special pass, and even that would not rule out some of the cranks.

Mr. Editor, we do believe you are a blind idealist; step inside the black skin of a Negro and be the only one of your color on the campus of the University of Mississippi. Would you really believe that the Secret Service men would be able to protect you?

- Karen Kerry
- Frank Lawson
- Roberta Lewis
- Donna Ward
- Earline Wilburn

(Editor's Note—Monday's newspapers report that Cleve was arrested on one count of speeding and one of driving without lights at 12:45 Sunday morning. Police quoted McDowell as saying he did not realize he had no lights. Maybe Cleve did not realize he was carrying a concealed weapon.)

TO THE EDITOR:

It seems that there has been some injustice done as far as the Freshmen Senatorship is concerned. It seems as if Wil Adrian was singled out among the 14 candidates to have his picture published.

Was he at the right spot at the right time, or could it be that his fraternal connections with the Greeks of ASU are supporting him in his campaign through other brothers, and sisters on the staff?

In any case, I believe that due consideration should be shown to all candidates running for Freshman Senate.

Dan Clark

TO THE EDITOR:

We feel that it was unfair to all the candidates for Freshman Senator to feature only one of these candidates in a picture on page one of the last issue of the State Press.

Campus Police Designate Parking Location Changes

A number of new parking lots are open this year and several old lots have been moved to new locations, Campus Security announced this week.

The Haigler Hall parking area number 49 has been moved to the south end of area 72.

Faculty-staff area 23 has been moved to the south side of the Electronics and Technology building.

Faculty-staff area 24, a new parking lot, is behind the nurses' annex, and faculty-staff area 25 is behind annex 11, across from the Lyceum.

Avoid That Ticket -

Parking Decals Rules Stressed

By RON CHALLIS

ASU's Campus Security Department has particularly stressed the following regulations to ASU students, faculty and staff:

Parking decals must be attached to car windows "as decals" and not simply taped on, according to Lt. Thomas Godbehere. The reason for this is to prevent the decals from being stolen or used illegally.

Students, faculty and staff are violating regulations if they display more than one current parking sticker on the vehicle.

TO PARK ON University owned streets, students must have a current parking decal. Signs are being posted to distinguish these streets from others.

Faculty and staff are not restricted to any one faculty-staff lot.

Graduate-assistant and part-time-staff-member decals may be issued sometime after Nov. 1.

Issuance will be on a space-available basis.

Campus Security will conduct an initial survey of the faculty-staff lots this month. Deans' offices of the various colleges will be notified as to the number of spaces available.

CAMPUS SECURITY warns that any destruction of parking signs or University property is a criminal offense under state law.

The speed limit in parking lots is 10 m.p.h. Anything over this constitutes a moving violation.

Tempe city ordinance requires that all bicycles operated in the city limits must be licensed by the city and a registration plate displayed on the bicycle. Compliance with this ordinance will assist in recovering abandoned or stolen bicycles.

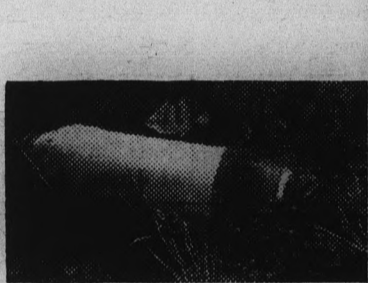

It would help considerably if students would start locking their bicycles, said John O'Leary, Director of Security assistant.

Finally, Campus Security wishes to correct a printing error on the parking citations under "Schedule of Fines." It should read "Failure to remove expired decal" not "Failure to renew expired decal."

September Ticket Toll Hits 1,372

A total of 1,195 citations were issued from Sept. 23 to Sept. 30 for illegal University parking, John B. Duffy, director of security, announced this week.

Moving violations included five for speeding, one for driving while intoxicated, 11 stopping violations and seven for miscellaneous infractions.

The addition of 161 city parking citations issued brought the parking citation total to 1,356. Total citations issued last month was 1,372.

Students wishing to contest citations may appeal to the Student Appeals Board now being organized. Notices will be published in the State Press as to time and place of meetings.

Graduate Sociology Program Available

An academic program tailored to both general and professional needs as well as to a future Ph.D. study plan is offered by the new Graduate School of the sociology department.

The new program provides study for a bachelor of arts or bachelor of science degree and, if the student desires, emphasis on social welfare in either sequence.

The master of arts degree program may lead to further study to the doctorate degree, which is in the department's future.

"Our hope is that this approach will add greater academic vitality and rigor at all levels," said Dr. Martin U. Martel, associate professor of sociology, and executive supervisor of the department.

"In this way, we are trying to make the best of both 'worlds,' meeting the dual pressures of mass education for general and pre-professional students," said Martel.

"We are looking ahead to the development of a comprehensive graduate program," Dr. Martel said.

The M.A. program provides a broad foundation for doctoral studies and careers as professionals in sociology. It also offers graduate traineeships to candidates intending careers as college sociology teachers. This plan, conversely, allows graduates a personal, small-college contact with their teachers through discussion classes.

Faculty members and trainees teach the small discussion groups, and five senior faculty members lecture in areas of their greatest competence to the larger classes in the survey courses. The trainees closely consult with the senior faculty members and attend seminars in college sociology teaching.

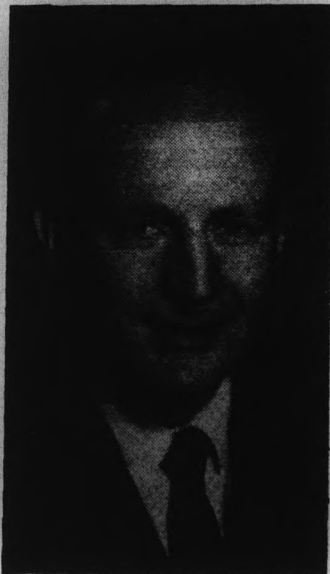

Most college teachers have had no systematic training in teaching, a void which the traineeship program fills.

The B.A. is offered "primarily for the 'general student' not particularly planning a professional career," said Dr. Martel. This choice provides a broad grounding in major areas of sociology dealing with contemporary society.

The B.S. is offered for students entering teaching, research, social work, law, business, government, or the ministry. Dr. Martel said that many opportunities exist in such growing occupations as industrial sociology, criminology, census taking, population analysis, and family counseling.

Newly Elected -

Alumni Association Elects Officers For Coming Year

HARRY MEHRTENS

Phoenixian Harry Mehrtens, a 1950 graduate, is the new president of the ASU Alumni Association as a result of summer elections.

Mehrtens' vacated directorship is being filled by Bill Kinnerup, '56, who lives in Phoenix.

First, second and third vice presidents respectively are Dr. Morrison F. Warren, Booker T. Washington School principal; Everett Reed, vice president of Western American Mortgage Co. and Margie (Carpenter) McDonald. All are from Phoenix.

THELMA PRICE GEIS, teacher at Alhambra District's Catalina School, will be the secretary.

ASU purchasing agent George Morrell is treasurer.

Phoenix builder representative for Arizona Public Service Co., Dave Graybill will fill a two-year director's term, as will Ralph Watkins Jr. of Buckeye and C. K. Rose of Phoenix.

DAL BENNEWITZ of Phoenix will remain in his two-year directorship in order to finish a one-year term.

The Alumni board re-appointed John R. Sandige of Phoenix as trust officer.

Host Families Sponsor Event For Students

The committee of families hosting foreign students will have an open house today for students and faculty, 4-5:30 p.m.

The first meeting for the Foreign Student Club will be Sunday at 3 p.m. in MU 211.

ASU Nigerian students, who earlier in the week celebrated their country's independence day, will continue celebrations Saturday with a banquet at 8 p.m. at the Alumni House.

U.S. Air Force Tempts Graduates With Numerous Job Opportunities

There is a great demand today for college graduates in the United States Air Force, according to M/Sgt. Thomas C. Stephens, of the ASU AFROTC.

Many fields of specialization are open to graduates, including pilot, navigator, aircraft controller, weapons director, missile specialist, weatherman, nuclear researchist, mathematician, physicist, chemist and metallurgist.

Also listed are research and development specialist, aeronautical engineer, communications and electronics specialist, electronics, mechanical and astronautical engineers, avionics-munitions specialist, aircraft and motor vehicle maintenance specialists and civil engineers.

Interested seniors may apply for qualification seven months before graduation to M/Sgt. Stephens, room 214, Old Main, or call 966-3183, 261-3346 or 967-8277.

Savant Sets Second Try

Savant, ASU's independent campus humor magazine, will publish its second issue of the year about Oct. 21.

The October issue will be a spoof of ultra morality, stated founder and editor Charles Stough.

Savant gained national recognition last month when Cavalier magazine reprinted two articles from Savant.

This is the second year of Savant publication.

Education College To Hold Conference For Principals

The College of Education will sponsor a clinic for secondary and elementary school principals in their first year next Wednesday at 8:30 a.m. The meeting will be in Ed 109.

Dean G. McGrath of the College of Education, will welcome the members at 9 a.m. This is the first of two conferences this year. The next one is April 15.

Three teachers who attended ASU's ten-week pioneer orientation course in school administration last summer will report on their research.

Dr. Marwin Deever, director of the Bureau of Educational Research and Services, will lead a discussion by a panel of superintendents on, "What Does the Superintendent Expect of the Principal?"

Dr. Raymond Wochner, professor of education, will introduce Dr. Marion Donaldson, superintendent of Amphitheater High School, Tucson. Dr. Donaldson, who received his doctorate from ASU will be the featured speaker at a luncheon in the MU.

Topics that will be discussed during the day will be, "Instructional Leadership," "Getting Organized," "Discipline in the School," "Effective Communication Techniques" and "Teacher Evaluation."

Although the conference is for principals, assistant principals and other school administrators in their first year, it is open to all school administrators.

Newman Club Offers Courses

The Newman Club will offer several non-credit religious courses beginning Oct. 7.

Inquiry, a one and one-half hour course dealing with basic teachings of the Catholic Church, will be taught on Mondays.

Christian Marriage, a one hour course, will be taught on Wednesdays, and Church History and Sacred Scriptures, a one hour course, on Thursdays. All classes will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Father Thomas Walsh, club director, will be among the instructors. Others will be Father Albert, OFM, and Father Leander, OFM.

A great books discussion group will meet on alternate Thursdays for two hours, also at 7:30. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Miller will lead the discussion.

Interested persons may obtain information at the Newman Center, WO 7-3483. The Newman Center is located at the corner of 8th St. and College Ave.

Nature Of Man Is Panel Topic

Dr. O. Ray Bontrager, special lecturer for the College of Education, is panel moderator during the three-day conference of the Young Presidents Organization in Houston, Tex.

Topic of Dr. Bontrager's panel is the "Nature of Man and Human Relationships in the Light of Man's Future."

The three-day conclave is currently in progress at the Sheraton-Lincoln Hotel.

During the conference, Dr. Bontrager will lunch with America's astronaut John Glenn, hear speakers on corporate direction in the space age and tour the National Aeronautics and Space Administration headquarters in Houston.

YPO is a national organization of people who, by the age of 40, became presidents of organizations employing 50 or more persons and grossing at least $1 million yearly.

Traffic Appeals Board Now Forming; Executive Committee Will Nominate

By GORDON ROBBINS

Have you been trying to appeal that parking ticket?

If so, you don't have long to wait. The student Senate will soon take action to approve appointments to this year's Traffic Appeals Board.

Members of the Appeals Board are nominated by the ASASU Executive Committee subject to approval of the student Senate. The nominations and approval should take place in the next two weeks, according to Marilyn Vihel, ASASU secretary.

ROBERT C. HILL, assistant professor of accounting, will serve as advisor to the Department of Traffic Appeals, and was appointed by President Durham.

A non-voting student chairman will be appointed by the dean of students to preside over the five-member board. This appointment is also approved by the Senate.

TWENTY-EIGHT appeals have been received by the Department of Security since school started. Two of these appeals have not been accepted because they were not validated by the cashier's office, according to John O'Leary, assistant chairman, Department of Security.

Students who wish to appeal a parking citation should first post a bond equal to the amount of the fine at the cashier's office. They will then be given a validated appeals blank to enter their appeal.

APPEALS SHOULD be submitted to the Department of Security and the student will be notified when to appear before the board.

A three-fourths vote of all board members present is necessary for a not guilty verdict. All decisions may be appealed to the supreme court.

Any defendant who appeals to the high court must notify the chairman of the Traffic Appeals Board within two days. Arrangements and the necessary hearings must take place within the next two weeks. All decisions of the supreme court are final.

KTVK Sets Discussion

"The Viet Nam Situation" will be the topic of discussion by four ASU students on "Editorials USA," a weekly program on KTVK, Channel 3, Sunday at 5 p.m.

Appearing on the half-hour discussion will be Steve Price, Charles Stewart, Arvin Palmer and Stanley Weightman.

— MODERATOR is Ernest W. McFarland, former governor of Arizona.

"Editorials USA" features ASU panels every third week. On the alternate weekends, panelists from ASC and UofA will be presented.

Before the discussion, student panelists are given newspaper and magazine editorials and other materials selected by KTVK on the subject to be reviewed.

THE SHOWS are taped about one and one half weeks ahead of time, enabling students to see themselves on television during the actual broadcast.

Students interested in politics and public affairs are eligible to participate. Past panels have covered such topics as foreign aid, juvenile delinquency and public education.

Students can register in the office of Dr. Leonard Goodall, acting director of the Bureau of Government Research, SS 220.

AWS To Exhibit Japan In Speech, Slide Show

Japan will be the topic of a speech by Pat Kurtz in the first of a series of Cultural Programs sponsored by Associated Women Students Oct. 10 at 3:30 in BA 103.

Miss Kurtz, former student body president of Phoenix College and winner of the AWS Experiment in International Living Scholarship, will show slides of her summer trip to Japan.

THE PROGRAM, under the chairmanship of Sarah Burns, will be open to the public.

In addition to the inauguration of the cultural program, AWS has announced plans for a campus-wide women's talent show, according to Mary Sue Ittner, publicity chairman.

Under the direction of Beth Mitchell, AWS vice president, and Linda Blalock, activities chairman, the talent show will feature acts from every hall. The show is scheduled for 8 p.m. Oct. 16 in Palo Verde East.

An informal open house with a tour of the new dorm will follow the show.

The following women appointed by AWS President Paula Eiseman and approved by the general council have taken office:

THEY ARE Kitty Silsbury, "Coed Cues" editor; Vergie Behrens, parliamentarian; Mary Sue Ittner, publicity chairman; Linda Blalock, activities chairman; Daryl Klumb, financial chairman; Sarah Burns, program chairman, Sally Davis, scholarship chairman.

Members of the general council have announced plans for a newsletter which will be distributed to women around the campus.

Residence halls and women's groups will be asked to submit articles to the general council for publication. Articles should be of general interest to both residents of women's dorms and women living off campus.

Group To Vote On Constitution And By-Laws

Accounting Club members will vote on the new constitution and by-laws at its regular meeting Oct. 8 at 12:40 p.m. in MU 211.

Richard Ray, past vice president, addressed the club at its last meeting. The CPA discussed the experiences and problems of a beginning accountant.

Coeds To Compete For Moonlight Girl

Phi Sigma Kappa is sponsoring a contest to select a girl as the Phi Sig sweetheart, the Moonlight Girl.

Women's residence halls and sororities will nominate two representatives each. The finalists will be judged in a series of dinners, according to John Moore, contest chairman.

GIRLS MUST BE above freshman class standing, not pinned or engaged, not honorary members of any fraternity and returning to school next year.

The 34 candidates will be invited to dinners at the Phi Sig house Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Seventeen finalists will be invited to return in two weeks for two more dinners.

Ten girls will be asked to attend the after-game party after the University of Utah game. A week later five finalists will be chosen at two additional dinners.

The final dinner will be Dec. 3.

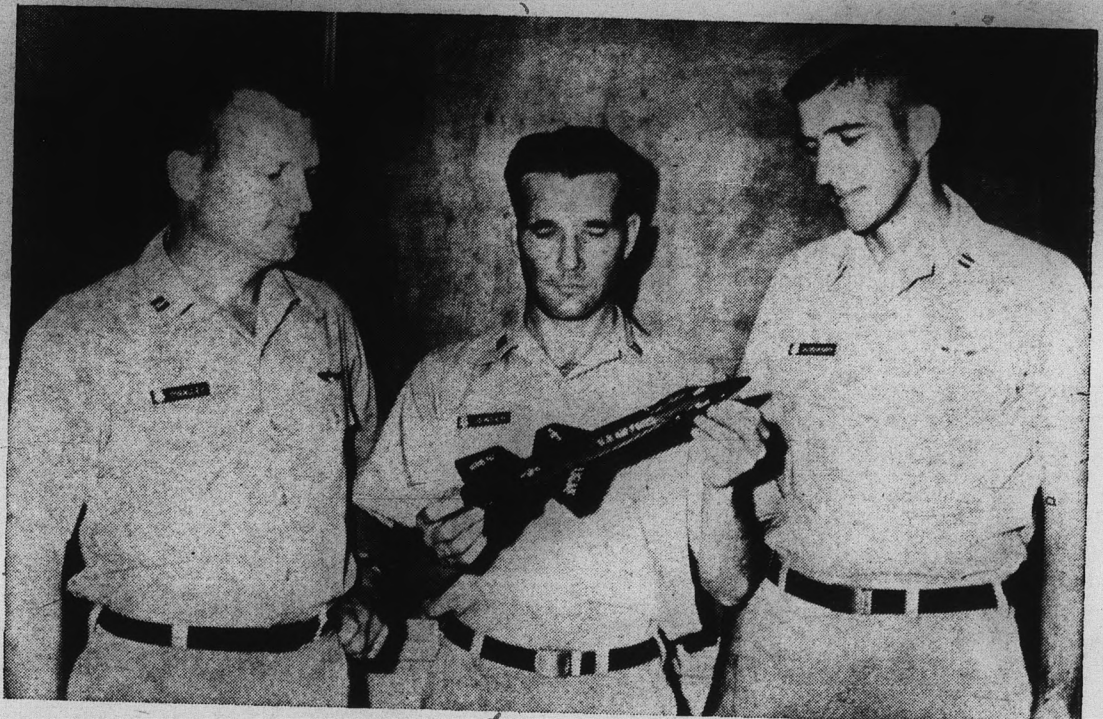

PHI SIG's Moonlight Girl will be coronated at their annual Christmas formal.

Sandy Berry, Chi Omega, is the present Moonlight Girl.

A traveling trophy will be awarded to the "sweetheart."

PILOT TO PILOT — Captains Richard Jensen, Richard Robinson and Thomas O'Malley recall similar Air Force memories. All three men are pilots and all three were graduated from the same university.

Trio Relates Triple Events

By BILL DALEY

'Tis true, that old adage, about things coming in threes.

To this fact Air Force Captains Richard Jensen, Richard Robinson and Thomas O'Malley can vouch. All three men have discovered that they are very much alike and have quite similar backgrounds.

All three graduated from Utah State University, are pilots, and came to ASU in the same year. All are attached to the AFOTC program, have birthdays in May, purchased the same model home in the same housing tract and two of them have wives named Joyce.

Capt. O'Malley is the exception here. His wife's name is Coie.

Each man has a distinguished military record.

CAPT. JENSEN was graduated from Utah State with a B.S. degree in 1952. He served at Mt. Home Air Force Base, Idaho, at a base in Weisbaden, Germany and at Spence Air Force Base, Moultrie, Ga.

Jensen had the distinction of being a Special Air Mission Pilot in the Pacific. He reported to ASU in August, 1962.

CAPT. ROBINSON was graduated from Utah State in 1954 with a B.S. degree. He was then assigned to the Strategic Air Command at Travis Air Force Base, California, where he flew as a combat crew member in B-36's until the aircraft was phased-out in 1958.

Robinson then went with the 322nd Air Division at Dreux Air Base and Evreux Air Base, France. He returned to the United States and was assigned to ASU in 1962.

CAPT. O'MALLEY was graduated from the school of business administration at Utah State in 1954.

After pilot training, O'Malley attended Gunnery School at Laughlin Air Force Base, Texas. He flew F-89's for three years at Presque Isle, Maine. There he was flight commander and conducted the squadron instrument school for two years.

O'Malley was an instructor pilot in T-33's at Elmendorf Air Force Base, Anchorage, Alaska until he rotated to his present assignment to ASU in February, 1962.

Nigerian Students Honor Birth Of Their Republic

By MIKE LONGSTRETH

The birth of a republic this week gives cause for five visiting students to celebrate.

Three Nigerian princes, Edward Bucknor-Smartt, Dele Oderinlo and Olatunji Agoro join their companions and fellow countrymen Yemi Babalola and Alao Adigun in a celebration of their country's independence and the republic's inauguration.

Nigeria, the most populous country in Africa, was declared an independent state by England on Oct. 1, 1960 and became officially recognized as a republic this Wednesday.

"WE HOPE that by blending our own indigenous system with the good parts of the British type of government," projected Prince Bucknor-Smartt, "that we shall be able to achieve prosperity and life more abundant."

Bucknor-Smartt is one of four of the Nigerian students majoring in civil engineering and expects to receive his B.S. degree in two years.

Prince Olatunji Agoro from the Nigeria Federal Government Emergency Science College, believes his country "will project, in the future, Africa's real personality."

NIGERIA's becoming a republic, according to Prince Dele Oderinlo, "will lead to the realization of our dreams of unity, thus paving the way for possible solutions to our problems."

The five Nigerian students will commemorate the republic's formation and the anniversary of Nigerian independence at a celebration in the Alumni House. The event will start at 3 p.m. and will feature special talks and art works about Nigeria.

Programs Set

Newman Club is sponsoring appearances of a folk singer and guest speaker in two separate programs.

Lynette Rugel will sing folk music tonight at 8:30. The regional director of National Council of Christians and Jews will speak Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. on "Inter-Religious Cooperation."

The public is invited to both events at the Newman Catholic Student Center.

ROYAL ROSES — Prince Oladele Oderinlo, Prince Edward Bucknor and Prince Olatunji Agoro look over the program for the Nigerian Republic's Saturday celebration as Alao Adigun and Yemi Babalola discuss plans. The event will be held at the Alumni House at 8:30 p.m. (State Press Photo by Larry Ward)

Groups To Feature Talk, Tryout, Trip

RUSSIAN CIRCLE

Russian instructor Rolf Ekmanis will lecture on his last "Visit to Finland," Tuesday at 7 p.m. to members of the Russian Circle.

The group meeting at the Alumni House will discuss business for the semester and serve refreshments afterward.

Sun Devil Star Earns Degree

Jim Sims, former Sun Devil baseball star, completed work last month on his Ph.D. in chemistry at UCLA.

Sims, a pitcher, was a four year varsity letterman and the team's most valuable player in 1959.

He is presently in Zurich, Switzerland, on a National Science Foundation Research Fellowship, conducting studies on vitamin B-12.

Sims went into the doctorate program at UCLA following his graduation.

Stetzar Sizzles At Center Bredehoff To Give Talk

By DICK MULLINS
ASU

Sports Information Director
Chris Stetzar is a convert and a converter. He has been converted to center on the ASU football team and the state of Arizona, and wishes to convert Sun Devil fans into the belief that all is not lost this year.

Taking them from the top. This 6-1, 215-pounder came to ASU as a quarterback, but was switched to center and line-

"It was a tough switch to make, going from a position of relatively no contact to one of mostly contact, and I wasn't too happy at first. But I'm used to it now, and I wouldn't want to play any other position. You get a lot of satisfaction out of hitting every play," Chris said.

AS FOR converting to the state of Arizona from Scranton, Pa.:

"I liked Pennsylvania, but this easy Arizona living got to me, and you can't beat the weather, so I'm here to stay."

And finally, the ASU team, after a 33-13 loss to Wichita and a 14-13 win over New Mexico State with Colorado State coming up this weekend:

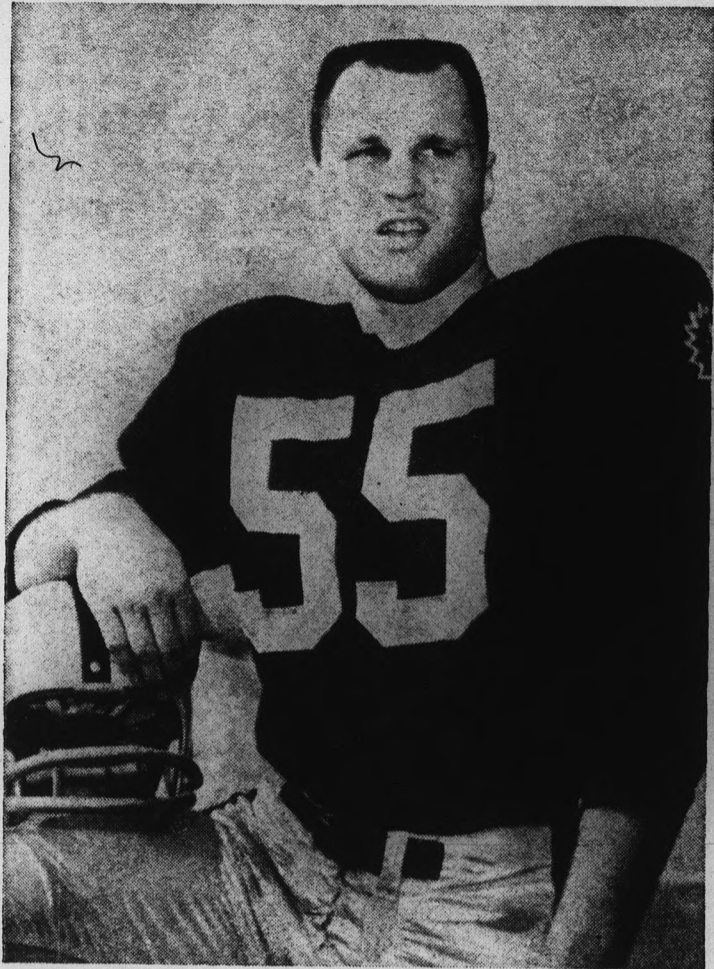

"I wouldn't advise the fans to forget about this season. We're a little slow starting, but we've got a good team and we'll get nothing but better. The season's far from over."

CHRIS came to ASU from West Scranton High where he won numerous football honors under Coach Sam Donato, a mentor who numbers among his athletes ASU Coach Frank Kush, whom he coached at Windber, Pa.

Bill Stetzar, Chris's brother, is presently a standout tackle and linebacker at West Scranton High and Chris admits "he's thinking about ASU."

Chris is rated one of the outstanding linemen in the Western Athletic Conference. He won "Lineman of the Week" honors a year ago, and, last week, was a key factor in holding national rushing leader James (Preacher) Pilot to 64 yards in 15 carries. Chris was credited with one unassisted and 15 assisted tackles.

Stetzar married his high school sweetheart, Linda Kimnick, in December, 1961. They reside in Tempe with their six-month-old son, Chris Robert. And the future for Chris Stetzar, he hopes, holds a teaching and coaching career in Arizona.

DEVIL STOPGAP — Center-linebacker Chris Stetzar, Sun Devil indispensable iron man, is ready for tomorrow night's battle with Colorado State at Fort Collins. The 6-1, 215-pound senior from Scranton, Pa., is a physical education major.

Ted Bredehoff, Sun Devil school and college levels in order to better chances of winning.

This fact has drawn considerable criticism from the National Federation of High School Athletic Associations; and from coaches, parents, and the American Medical Association, of which the American College of Sports Medicine is an affiliate.

Bredehoff's topic will be "Health and Safety Aspects of Interscholastic Wrestling Programs Throughout the United States." The meeting is scheduled for March 19-21 in Hollywood, Calif.

The primary theme of Bredehoff's presentation will concern extreme intentional weight losses of wrestlers on both high school and college levels in order to better chances of winning.

Bredehoff is presently serving as secretary-treasurer of the NCAA Wrestling Coaches and Officials Association.

Devils Get Road Test Tomorrow

Rams Rated Real Ragged Following Falcon Fallout

By AL MICHAELS

Colorado State's Rams, practically bombed out of existence by the Air Force Academy last weekend, are braced for the invasion of the Sun Devils at Fort Collins tomorrow night.

CSU, which snapped a 26-game losing streak in its opener against the University of Pacific, absorbed a 69-0 thrashing from the Falcons last Saturday.

As yet, Governor Love of Colorado has not declared Fort

Collins a football disaster area and an expected crowd of 10,000 will be on hand for the ninth game of a series that began in 1940.

The Sun Devils have won all eight previous meetings, including a 35-0 rout last season.

ASU is 1-1 this year.

RAM COACH Mike Lude is in his second season at the CSU helm and feels his squad is improved over last season's aggregation which dropped all 10 games.

Lude has a fine quarterback in John Christensen, whose 749 total yards in 1962 was the most gained by any Ram since Gary Glick rolled up 827 in 1955.

The Sun Devils will again be without the services of halfback Henry Carr, whose thigh injury has not sufficiently healed.

GENE FOSTER, hero of last Saturday's 14-13 win against New Mexico State, is also a doubtful participant.

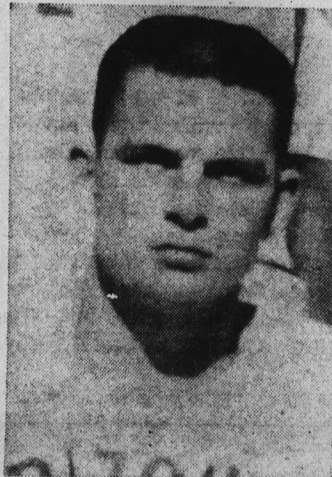

Foster has a fractured right forearm.

Junior John Torok, who looked impressive in leading the Devils to Saturday's win, is tentatively slated to open at quarterback tomorrow.

DEVIL PACER — With two games gone on the 1963 Sun Devil football schedule, fullback Tony Lorick is the leading rusher with a total of 159 yards gained. Lorick, a 6-1, 200-pound senior from Los Angeles, also passes, blocks, catches and kicks. In last week's game with New Mexico State, he boomed a 61-yard quick kick that sent the Aggies deep into their own territory.

JOHN TOROK

TOROK completed six of 10 throws against the Aggies and engineered both touchdown drives.

John Jacobs, last season's All-Western Athletic Conference quarterback, and Torok give the Devils a potent 1-2 punch at that spot.

Fullback Tony Lorick is the Devils' leading rusher through two games with 159 yards. The 6-1, 200-pound senior also boomed a 61-yard quick kick against New Mexico State.

IN OTHER Western Athletic Conference action tomorrow, Arizona meets Washington State at Spokane, Brigham Young faces Montana at Missoula, Utah takes on New Mexico at Albuquerque, and Wyoming plays host to Kansas at Laramie.

The Sun Devils will depart from Sky Harbor this afternoon and headquarter in Denver tonight.

Off The Cuff

By JOE HEATH

On the spot sports coverage of Sun Devil road football games will be made available by the State Press for the first time this year, thanks to the Athletic Department.

For tomorrow night's game with Colorado State University, my assistant sports writer, Al Michaels, will make the trip to Fort Collins.

I will be going to El Paso to cover the Texas Western game on the 19th of this month, and tentatively, Al and I both will be in San Jose for the only other ASU road trip.

On behalf of the State Press sports department, I would like to formally thank Athletic Director Clyde Smith and his assistant Frank Rispolli for making this possible.

WELL, JUST BEFORE I started writing this column yesterday afternoon, the second game of the world series ended.

It's looking rather bad for the annual Las Vegas favorites . . . but, fret not, there are still a few games left. The next three games will be played at the LA Brickyard (better known as Dodger Stadium) and the Yanks will probably win two of the three.

However, the way it looks right now, all the smart money is still in the owner's pocket.

I can't really say a thing right now. I'm still on the "If McCovey had hit that ball a foot higher" kick.

Frosh Kickoff -

Sun Imps Start '63 Campaign

By BILL SCHAMMEL

The Sun Imps open the 1963 football season tomorrow at Eastern Arizona Junior College minus 12 injured ball players and a team lacking experience under the ASU-type offense.

Coach Bill Kajikawa had to move left halfback Jerry Hoffman, Burbank, Calif., to back up starting quarterback Alex Sotomayor, Los Angeles, Calif. THE SUN IMPS haven't had much time to perfect their offense since most of their time has been spent scrimmaging the varsity.

The Gila Monsters, however, have played three games this season and have many veterans returning.

The Sun Imps have a tough four-game schedule with only one game played at home — against New Mexico University freshmen on Oct. 26 at 8 p.m. in Sun Devil Stadium.

COACH KAJIKAWA is pleased with the backfield speed this year and mentions such standouts as Ron Barber, Jess Fleming, Hal Lewis and Jim Bramlet.

The schedule for the Sun Imps this year continues, after tomorrow with San Diego State College at San Diego on Oct. 12.

New Mexico University

Sun Devil Facts

Clyde B. Smith, athletic director at Arizona State University, has coached football teams at LaCrosse (Wis.) State College, University of Indiana and Arizona State University. One of his athletes at LaCrosse was Ned Wulk, now head basketball coach at ASU.

Intramural Rule Change

Eligibility rules for the members of varsity college teams and Junior College teams that wish to participate in intramurals were changed Tuesday in the Intramural Managers meeting.

The new ruling which affects Eligibility Rule "E" in the Intramural Handbook is as follows: "No person who has received a varsity letter or has lettered two years consecutively at a Junior College can participate in Intramurals in that sport or associated sports. Persons who have received a freshman letter or have lettered one year at a Junior College are eligible to participate in the sport."

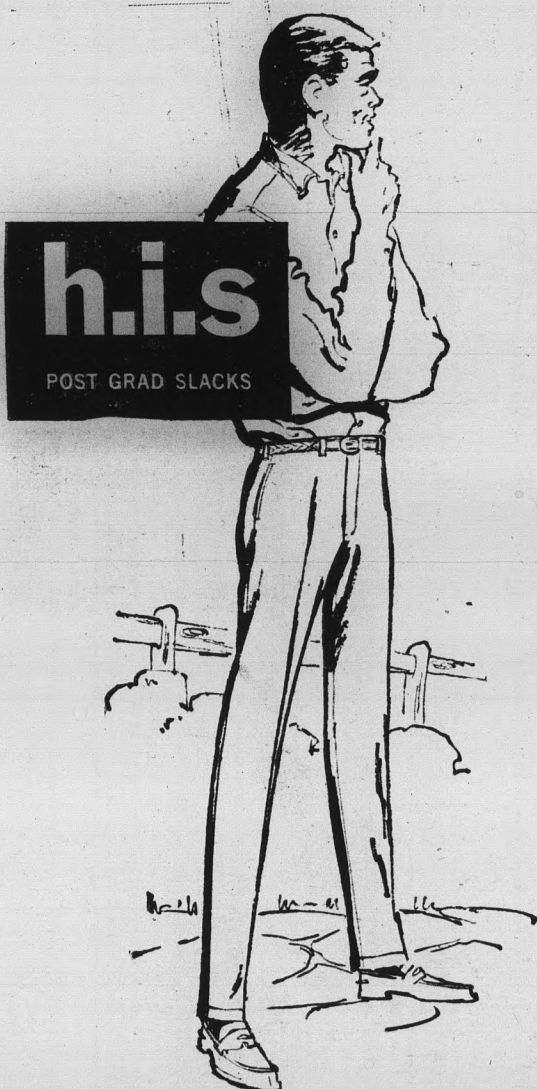

"Those organizations entering ineligible players will be disqualified from that sport in which the violation occurs and forfeit both entry and individual points for said sport."

comes to Tempe Oct. 26 and the season ends at Tucson for the game with the UofA Nov. 16.

Coach Kajikawa states, "The enthusiasm is good and we hope the students, especially the freshmen, will be out to support the Imp's only home game of the season."

The tentative starting lineup:

- LE — Frank Lawson
- LT — Ray Shirey
- LG — John Rychlicki
- C — Pat Clevenger
- RG — Paul Palumbo
- RT — Chuck Grounds
- RE — Dewey Forrister
- QB — Alex Sotomayor
- LH — Ron Barber
- RH — Pat Genell
- FB — Jim Bramlet

No doubt about it. H.I.S Post Grads are the slacks everyone tries to imitate . . . but no one ever succeeds! They've got traditional belt loops, regular pockets and regular cuffs. No tricky jazz with Post Grads . . . they've got that real honest-to-goodness natural look . . . and you can choose yours from a flock of colors—blended of Dacron[®] and cotton.
