ASU distributes directories

ASU's 1973-74 telephone directories are now distributed to faculty, staff and students.

The Mail Room is distributing the new directory to faculty and staff members, and the Housing Department will be giving out directories to students living in dormitories.

Students living off campus can pick up the directory at the Information Desk in the Memorial Union or at the ASU Bookstore.

Mall booth carries impeach petition

By KEVIN GUSTAFSON

"We believe that President Nixon's Watergate actions, culminating in the firing of Special Prosecutor Cox, amount to a deliberate obstruction of justice. We believe that his attitude reveals a lack of respect for the doctrine of the rule of law, not men, that it is dangerous to this country and its professed ideals. We urge you to support the immediate impeachment of President Nixon."

So reads the impeachment petition at the College Democrats, formerly Young Democrats, booth on the mall across from Hayden Library.

The primary purpose of the booth, however, is to register students to vote in Arizona. "This table is primarily for registering voters, and the petition is a drawing card for this," said Bruce Kerns, member of College Democrats.

The booth has been on the mall since Oct. 31, and the

College Democrats plan on keeping the petition available for signing until they have accumulated 20 per cent (about 5,000) of the ASU students signatures. On Wednesday, approximately 650 persons had signed the petition.

"Right now we plan on sending them (the petitions) to the White House and the Arizona congressional delegation," stated Kerns.

"We are not wasting our time on the Arizona Legislature, as they are conservative, and we would have no impact on them," said Susan Alden, chairperson of College Democrats.

College Democrats is also accumulating a list of all congressmen throughout the country for students interested in writing their own congressmen about impeachment without changing their registration to Arizona.

Arizona voter registration is not a requirement for signing the impeachment petition.

UFO group documents evidence

By JIM BRALY

The next time you spot a silvery-grey body with a pumpkin-shaped head, glowing eyes, claw-like hands extending to the ground, triangular-shaped feet and robotic motions, remember there is a place to report it.

Bill Spaulding a president of Ground Saucer Watch West, (GSW) said Tuesday in the MU Pima Room that this type of creature is the most frequently observed in saucers or around saucer landing areas.

Spaulding said there are five possibilities that will explain UFO sightings:

Hoaxes account for two per cent; natural phenomena, such as lightning, account for .05 per cent; misinterpretation, such as seeing an airplane, almost 70 per cent; the possibility that one of the superpowers might have a new secret weapon, zero per cent; and the unidentified sightings that remain unidentified account for 30 per cent.

It is this 30 per cent that GSW is concerned with, said Spaulding. GSW has 186 trained people all over the United States who get to the location of a sighting as quickly as possible to investigate.

GSW has hundreds of documented cases in which it has found secondary evidence of landings, such as impressions in the ground, bits of unusual metal at the sights of reported crashes, burnt rings in grass, and radiation levels much higher than those of surrounding areas.

Some of the most concrete cases have been radar-visual, in which pilots of planes locate a blip on their radar screen and also see the object with their own eyes, Spaulding said.

"In 1952, a military plane equipped with three radar scopes spotted a large blip on all three simultaneously. The object was heading at the plane at great speed and the pilot had to take evasive action," Spaulding said.

Next the radar showed a wave of six UFO's coming towards the plane and it again had to take evasive action. The objects were moving at an estimated 6,000 mph as they passed the plane and the pilot saw a glowing blue streak of light go by, said Spaulding, who interviewed the pilot later.

The Air Force said that the pilot and radar operator had seen a weather inversion, an atmospheric condition that can play tricks on vision.

The pilot said to Spaulding, "If I hadn't moved my plane, the weather would have destroyed it."

"In 1957, there were massive reports of landings just after the Russians sent up the first sputnik," Spaulding said.

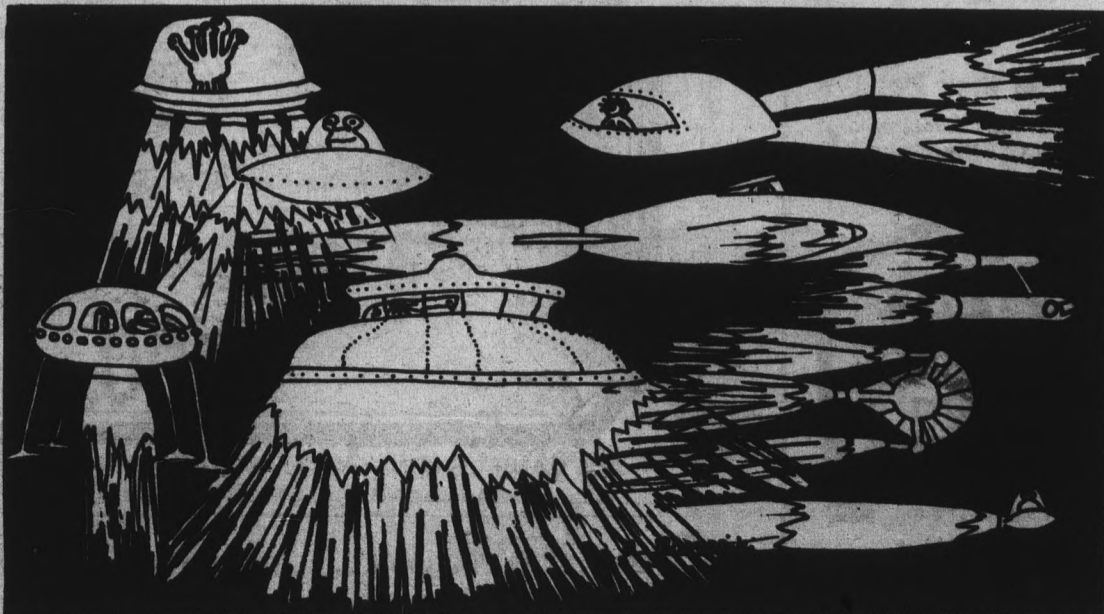

A 200-foot-wide, glowing, egg-shaped disc reportedly landed in Texas at the time and completely knocked out nine cars (lights, radio, and engine) that were in the area, Spaulding said.

"The Air Force tried to explain it away by saying the points on the cars got wet which caused them to stop running. But I've never heard of a case where the points got wet on nine cars simultaneously," Spaulding said.

Spaulding believes the saucers are powered by an electromagnetic or anti-gravity device, and said they are following a pattern similar to that of the NASA space shots.

He said they started with high flyovers and then they got closer and closer until now they have been landing.

"It can only go two ways now. Either they will make contact or forget about us," Spaulding said.

U.S., Egypt renew diplomatic relations

The White House announced Wednesday the United States and Egypt have agreed in principle to resume diplomatic relations.

The announcement came while Secretary of State Henry Kissinger was meeting with Egyptian President Anwar Sadat.

The U.S. and Egypt broke off diplomatic relations during the 1967 Middle East war because the U.S. was supporting Israel.

Israel says Egypt preparing for war

Israel claimed on Wednesday that Egypt is preparing to go to war soon. The announcement came while Secretary of State Henry Kissinger was saying that peace was near in the Middle East during a meeting with the Egyptian President.

A spokesman for the Israeli military command said Egyptian troops were put on high alert. The spokesman said, "We are taking a very grave view of the situation."

Egypt's official Middle East News Agency said the situation on the Suez front is tense and explosive. The agency said the Israelis on the west bank of the canal are in pockets which could easily be destroyed.

Third tape may be missing

A White House aide testified Wednesday that part of a Third Watergate tape may be missing or nonexistent.

John Bennett told U.S. District Court Judge John Sirica that Rose Mary Woods, the President's personal secretary, called him into her office Tuesday and said she had discovered a gap in a tape recording of presidential conversations.

Bennett's testimony came after Sirica was notified that Woods would appear to testify about the missing tapes. She is expected to testify today.

Judge denies Watergate motions

U.S. District Court Judge John Sirica denied Wednesday various motions by six of the original Watergate defendants for new trials or withdrawal of guilty pleas.

Sirica set Friday morning for sentencing of James McCord Jr., E. Howard Hunt, Bernard Barker, Eugenio Martinez, Virgilio Gonzalez and Frank Sturgis.

Features group sessions

Social workshop opens

"Arizona Responds to Human Needs," a workshop sponsored by Human Rights of Arizona, Inc. (HRA), will be held from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Friday in the College of Law.

The workshop will feature group sessions on children's services, services to adults, health care, assistance payments and Supplemental Security Income. Discussion will follow on Arizona's legislative needs in social services and plans for citizen involvement and action.

ASU Undergraduate Social Service Association, the Grand Canyon Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers and the Lutheran Social Ministry of Arizona will co-sponsor the workshop.

Registration is $5 for non-students and $2.50 for students. The public is invited to attend.

For further information contact Ruth Wootten, program chairman, at 966-7039.

Pre-registration starts again

Pre-registration for the Spring semester 1974 begins Wednesday and will continue through November 21.

Students should pick up class schedules and course request forms in their departmental offices starting Wednesday. They should then fill them out in consultation with their advisers and return them to the same offices.

The forms are part of a new high-speed optical scanning system designed to cut down on the number of errors and expense to the University in registration process, according to the Registrar's Office.

Republic editor talks on Far East visit

Harold Milks, managing editor of the Arizona Republic, will speak at 9:40 a.m. Thursday in the Social Science building, room 212A.

Milks, who recently visited the Far East for three weeks, will speak on "Dateline Tokyo: The Far East Today."

STATE PRESS is published by Arizona State University Tuesday through Friday during the academic year, except holidays and examination periods. Entered as second class matter at Tempe, AZ, 85281.

A declaration for our times

When in the Course of human Events, it becomes necessary for one People to dissolve the Political Bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the Powers of the Earth, the separate and equal Station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent Respect to the Opinions of Mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to separation.

We hold these Truths to be self-evident, that all Men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness. That to secure these Rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just Powers from the Consent of the Governed, that whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive to these Ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its Foundation on such Principles, and organizing its Power in such Form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient Causes; and accordingly all Experience hath shewn, that Mankind are more disposed to suffer, while Evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the Forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long Train of Abuses and Usurpations pursuing invariably the same Object, evinces a Design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their Right, it is their Duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new guards for their future Security. Such has been the patient Sufferance of these People; and such is now the Necessity which constrains them to alter their System of Governemnt. The History of the present President of the United States is a History of repeated Injuries and Usurpations, all having in direct Object the Establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. To prove this, let Facts be submitted to a candid World.

He has refused to Assent to Laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public Good.

He personally approved on July 23, 1970, the "Huston plan" for political surveillance by such methods as Burglary, Wiretapping, and Spying on citizens of these States.

He established within the White House a personal Secret Police called the "plumbers" who operated outside the Law and engaged in Unlawful activities.

While Daniel Ellsberg was facing trial, his psychiatric records were burglarized by White House Aides, and at the direction of the President, a White House Aide discussed the Directorship of the FBI with the Judge presiding over Ellsberg's trial.

Supporters of possible Presidential opponents were marked as Enemies and singled out for harassment by the Internal Revenue Service.

He caused to be illegally arrested more than 13,000 citizens of these States in May, 1971 in Washington, D.C. These arrests were later declared Unconstitutional by the Courts.

He bombed Cambodia, a Neutral country, without the authorization of Congress in 1973. We later learned that the bombing had been going on for three years and he had Deliberately concealed the bombing from Congress and the People, there by Usurping the War Making Powers of Congress.

He has attacked the fundamental Freedoms of the Press.

In every Stage of these Oppressions we have Petitioned for Redress in the most humble Terms: Our repeated Petitions have been answered only by repeated Injury, A Prince, whose Character is thus marked by every act which may define a Tyrant, is unfit to be the Ruler of a free People.

We, therefore, in the Name, and by Authority of the Good of the People, do Publish and Declare, That these United States ought to be free of the rule of Richard Nixon and that all political Connections between them and Richard Nixon ought to be totally dissolved. And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm Reliance on the Protection of divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes, and our sacred Honor.

Lyceum conjures witchcraft play

As the lights go up the audience in the tiny theater is shaded with the green, misty atmosphere and hanging moss of the North Carolina hills.

The University Players' production of "Dark of the Moon" creates a startling intimacy between the audience and the cast with the wooden floors and beamed ceilings of the set reaching to the first row of seats. The surrealistic moss and cobwebs serve as a backdrop to the tale of John the witch-boy and his love for Barbara Allen.

The witch-boy (Frederic Winslow Oram) calls for the Conjur Man (Michael Lopez), asking him to change him into a human. The boy has fallen in love with a mountain girl, Barbara Allen. But he can only marry her if he is human.

Conjur Man refuses the boy's wish. But Conjur Women (Ann Politz) makes a deal with John. If Barbara Allen remains faithful to John for one year he will remain human. If not, John becomes a witch-boy once more.

The suspicions of the townsfolk are aroused by the marriage. Their meddling causes Barbara Allen to be unfaithful, with predictable results.

Frederic Winslow Oram intensifies the drama and holds the audience spellbound. His interpretive dance sequence with the temptuous witches only adds to the mystical air surrounding John and the other supernatural spirits of Baldy Mountain.

Joseph Kenny is outstanding as Barbara Allen's jilted suitor. Richard Phillips as the Preacher Haggler carries the revival scene to fever pitch. The whole cast is authentic in their mountain characters and dialects. With few exceptions they resist the temptation to overdo the characterizations.

The show will continue at 8 p.m. tonight through Sunday in the Lyceum theatre. Tickets are on sale at the Lyceum box office, 965-3437. —CF

Commission starts area poet search

Arizona poets are invited to apply for the Arizona Commission on the Arts and Humanities' poet in residence program.

The commission sends published poets to Arizona schools and communities for brief residency periods to work with teachers, students and civic groups. The poets will direct writing and reading discussion periods, and give readings of their own and others' works.

Applicants must have had examples of their work published by an acceptable press and be free to travel occasionally. Arizona residents are given preference.

Applicants are asked to submit a brief biography, including educational background, work experience, five reproductions of their published work, and a list of the publications. The writer's work will be considered by a Poets Selection Panel.

Persons interested should contact Mrs. Nancy Pierce, 6330 N. 7th St., Phoenix.

The program is supported by grants from the National Endowment for the Arts, The Arizona Commission on the Arts and Humanities, the U.S. Office of Education and various state and local sponsors.

Two top stars shine on stage Friday evening

Pianist Peter Nero and singer Cleo Laine go onstage at 8 p.m. Friday in Gammage Auditorium in a Celebrity series presentation.

Nero has performed with, and conducted many of the world's major orchestras and has made more than two dozen hit recordings including "Summer of '42" and Gershwin's "Rhapsody in Blue."

Cleo Laine will be accompanied by an ensemble headed by her husband, John Dankworth. She is currently on tour in the United States after appearing at a Carnegie Hall concert last April. She is an accomplished English singer and theatrical star having performed in "Midsummer Night's Dream," and a London revival of "Showboat."

Tickets prices range from $2.50 to $5.50 and are on sale at the Gammage box office, 965-3434.

Miller Memorial

Competition in the third annual John Miller IV Memorial Golf Tournament will begin at 8 a.m. Sunday, at the Pima Inn Golf Resort.

The tournament is sponsored by the Delta Sigma Phi Fraternity at ASU.

Miller attended ASU from 1967-70 and was a victim of cancer.

Twenty per cent of the proceeds will go to the John Miller Scholarship Fund for the Beta Psi Chapter and the rest donated to the American Cancer Society.

Roger Weinberg, tournament director, said entries can be made by contacting him at 967-9905 or 967-7369.

The entry fee is $20 and includes green fees, electric cart and a banquet following the tournament.

'Swim-a-thon'

The ASU men's swim team is having a "Swim-a-thon" at 8:30 a.m. Monday at the ASU pool.

The swim team's goal is to raise $1,500, which would help defray costs of recruiting, training and traveling.

Coach Dick Smith encouraged pledges to be made in any amount of money per lap, times the number of laps a swimmer completes.

Smith said team members are collecting pledges now and encourages individuals or organizations to make a donation.

The team's season begins Dec. 8 with a home contest against Arizona. The following day ASU hosts Denver University.

Hockey against NAU

The Sun Devil hockey club begins its first season of competition at 4:30 p.m., Nov. 16, against Northern Arizona at Veteran's Memorial Coliseum.

The Phoenix Gazette, Arizona Republic and the Phoenix Roadrunner Professional Hockey Club will award a trophy to the winning team.

"We want to encourage hockey in the Valley and we hope this game will be an annual contest between the schools," Norm Smith, Phoenix Roadrunners promotional director said.

Cross country champs decided in six mile race

There seems to be no clear cut favorite to win the 1973 Western Athletic Conference cross country championships, hosted by last year's champion Brigham Young University.

Not even the coaches of the competing teams can agree on a favorite for the six-mile race to be run over the Wasatch State Park Golf Course in Midway, Utah, at 11 a.m. Saturday.

No less than five teams have a shot at the title.

ASU coach Baldy Castillo said Texas-El Paso is probably the top team in the conference, but will be strongly challenged by New Mexico and Colorado State. He said ASU will have a tough time finishing with the top teams.

"We have some good runners, but they're just not good six-milers," Castillo said. "Our men are better at the shorter distances."

Arizona coach Dave Murray picks Brigham Young as the team to beat because of the home course advantage.

BYU coach Sberald James likes Texas-El Paso and Colorado State. "It looks like a four-way race involving UTEP, CSU, New Mexico and ourselves or the UofA," he said.

Texas-El Paso coach Ted Banks says, "BYU and CSU have top ranking, but I think we'll definitely make ourselves known."

James said the course will present a real challenge to the runners, since there has never been a six-mile race on it before.

He said the race is all on the golf course, but the runners won't cross the same part of the course twice. "The race starts with a one and a half mile climb, followed by two miles downhill and then rolling hills the rest of the way. "The hills are deceiving and long, with a pretty good grade."

Castillo said the individual favorite is undoubtedly Ed Mendoza of Arizona, who transferred this year from Grossmont JC in San Diego. Mendoza is the national junior college record holder for three miles (13:39.1) and two miles (8:52). He set five consecutive course records in six appearances this year.

"Mendoza will most likely win it," Castillo said. "I don't think anybody can beat him."

The Sun Devil coach said Senior letterman Larry Lawson and transfer Abel Arebalo will probably be ASU's best finishers.

ASU offense remains on top

ASU remained the national leader in total offense among major college football teams with an average of 529.1 yards per game, according to statistics released by National Collegiate Sports Services.

The Sun Devils, behind the arm of quarterback Danny White, rank as the No. 2 team in passing offense behind Western Athletic Conference rival Brigham Young University.
