Officials cancel AWB concert

By Art Moore

ASU administrators cancelled the Average White Band concert Saturday night without notifying the sponsor or the concert promoter until minutes before the doors were scheduled to open.

Associated Students, which sponsored the concert, "had no part in the decision," Special Events Board Chairperson Lyn Waldman said. "We were not notified until after the decision was made."

The show was cancelled around 6 p.m. by University officials, and Waldman said it was unknown by her and promoter David Thayer of California Concerts, until they arrived at the University Activity Center. The show was scheduled to begin at 7:30 p.m.

"The administration took control and cancelled a contract that had been signed on behalf of ASASU," she said. "Our integrity has been shot down. ASASU will get the blame from the people involved."

AWB cancelled its performance because lead singer Alan Gorrie was reported ill. The group performed in Tucson Friday night.

However, Waldman said, the other groups scheduled to perform — Tower of Power and Brick — wanted to perform despite the absence of AWB.

"The (other) bands believed the show was still going on and production people were still there as late as 6:30," she said.

Allan Frazier, assistant to dean of students for budgetary affairs, said the show was cancelled because the contract was no longer valid after AWB pulled out of the performance.

"The way the contract was written, when the principal act does not appear, there is no show," Frazier said. "Knowing what the contract read, I made the decision to cancel."

Gammage event coordinator Miriam Boegel said she advised Frazier to cancel based on "common practices."

"I based my advice on a particular rule that you deliver what is expected, or cancel it," she said. "I would have told the same thing to anyone else using the facility. I don't have the authority to cancel, all I do is advise."

Frazier said to allow the other acts to perform would have required a new contract, but it could not be done because Jack Penick, vice president of business affairs, was out of town.

"Penick has to sign the contracts and he wasn't available," he said.

Penick said although he wasn't contacted, he felt the decision was a good one.

"The best thing to do under these circumstances is to cancel," he said. "If you can't deliver the goods, you shouldn't put on the show. It's not our job to cancel from this office."

Waldman said she was more upset over the lack of student participation in the decision than the decision itself.

"I think ASASU should have had some say in this," she said. "I wouldn't care what was decided, we just didn't get a say in it."

"When I inherited the problem at 3:30, I was on the phone constantly until 7 with various people," Frazier said.

Frazier said Waldman was notified by the concert promoter at 2:30 p.m. that AWB might not appear but did not contact anyone.

Waldman said she agreed with Thayer when he contacted her the show should go on without AWB.

"David felt he should contact University officials about the situation and he did," Waldman said. "I heard no more word about the situation until I arrived at the UAC (University Activity Center) at 6, when I was told the (entire) show had been cancelled."

Waldman said the cancellation would hurt ASASU efforts to book future concerts with other promoters.

"When promoters hear about this, they won't want to come to ASU," she said.

Phoenix to ask regents to split Route 22 costs

By Patricia Walsh

The city of Phoenix wants to give the Arizona Board of Regents one more chance to split the cost of Bus Route 22, now that Tempe has joined Phoenix and Scottsdale in subsidizing it.

The Phoenix City Council decided Monday to continue funding the route through November, but delayed making a final decision to see if the board will change its mind and share the cost.

The regents decided in September not to help subsidize ASU's only bus line from north Phoenix and Scottsdale because they said it is not the school's responsibility to provide transportation.

"They (council members) are going to give the regents a chance to get in the act," said Leo Moore, public information specialist for Phoenix.

Moore said one reason the city decided to delay a decision was to give Associated Students the opportunity to present the regents with a resolution asking the board to share the costs.

Originally, ASASU told the regents they should not fund the route because it's not the University's responsibility to fund city services, ASASU President Mark Barnes said.

However, the ASASU First Council reversed ASASU's stand and drafted a resolution to present to the board. It stated if students could not get to school there would be an emergency situation requiring action, including state funding of the bus route.

The Regents will meet Nov. 25 and 26 at ASU.

Route 22, which is run by the Phoenix Transit Corp., goes down Camelback Road from 43rd Avenue to Scottsdale Road where it turns south toward ASU.

Another line, run by Sun Valley Bus Lines Inc., goes down Van Buren Street from 1st Street to Mill. It then goes around Mill Avenue to Apache Boulevard and down Main Street to Mesa.

Funding of the route has been in question for several months. Tempe refused to share the $16,000 yearly cost of the project with Phoenix and Scottsdale until last week's council meeting. Tempe councilmen ruled last summer that not enough Tempeans were using the line to warrant funding it.

Doug McNeal, co-director of the ASASU Campus Affairs Committee, had been working toward Tempe's participation in the funding and said he feels the decision was a result of a joint effort.

"This is one of those rare occasions when the University community has been able to work together," McNeal said.

"There was a cooperative effort . . . by the people at the University as well as some lobbying done by people in Scottsdale and Phoenix."

Tempe Mayor Bill LoPiano was the only dissenting vote on the Council.

LoPiano said he opposes Tempe funding of a bus route that only extends a mile and a half into Tempe and is used by non-Tempe residents.

"There are still Phoenicians and Scottsdalians being brought into the city (Tempe) at local taxpayers subsidy," he added.

SUPREME COURT SUPPORTS STATES

WASHINGTON — The Supreme Court supported states Monday with tough drunken-driving laws, dealt a blow to news reporters seeking to protect confidential sources, and placed in jeopardy a consumers' victory over insurance companies. The court gave what amounts to an endorsement of state laws that suspend the driver's licenses of motorists who refuse to take a chemical or breath analysis test after being stopped for alleged drunken driving — even when the motorist receives no pre-suspension hearing. The high court refused to review the contempt of court conviction of an Idaho newspaper reporter — an indication that the justices believe reporters have no right under any circumstances to withhold information from a court or grand jury.

NATIONS TO VETO RESOLUTION

UNITED NATIONS — The United States, Britain and France said Monday they would veto three African resolutions in the U.N. Security Council calling for economic sanctions and other stringent measures against South Africa. The Western powers, supported by West Germany, Canada and Japan on the 15-member council, have proposed only a six-month mandatory arms embargo — subject to renewal — against the white-minority government in Pretoria.

TEENAGER CHARGED IN RAPE

BISBEE — A grand jury indicted Carlos Cano, 17, of Chihuahua, Mexico, on charges of rape, assault, robbery and burglary in connection with an alleged attack on a Bisbee housewife. Following the indictment Friday, Cano was scheduled to appear before Superior Court Judge Anthony Deddens for arraignment Nov. 7. A sheriff's posse, including Mayor Chuck Eads, captured the suspect within a few hours. The incident followed by less than a week the acquittal of Thomas and Patrick Hanigan of nearby Douglas, who had been accused of torturing three Mexican farm workers.

IMPORT PENALTIES SOUGHT

WASHINGTON — Claiming thousands of jobs are at stake, a major clothing workers union asked the Carter administration Monday to impose penalties on imports of apparel and textiles from eight South American and Far Eastern countries. The 500,000-member Amalgamated Clothing and Textile Workers Union charged unfair competition in formal petitions filed with the Treasury Department. It was the latest in a growing number of complaints from American industry and unions about imports. The clothing workers union said its members face the loss of "tens of thousands of jobs" because of what it claimed are low wages paid by foreign manufacturers in Korea, Taiwan, India, the Philippines, Brazil, Argentina, Uruguay and Colombia.

'GAS-EATER' PROPOSAL DEBATED

WASHINGTON — Members of a House-Senate conference committee failed Monday again to break an impasse over how to deal with cars that get poor gas mileage. House members of the negotiating panel refused anew to accept any form of a Senate proposal to outlaw the manufacture of such cars. The Senate proposal would begin the ban in 1980 with those cars that get less than 16 miles per gallon.

OBSCENITY TRIAL BEGINS

KANSAS CITY, Kan. — Testimony began Monday in the federal obscenity trial of New York sex magazine publisher Al Goldstein who is charged in a 12-count indictment with mailing obscene publications into Kansas. Herald Price Fahringer, an attorney for Goldstein, reminded prospective jurors during questioning they will be shown magazines that contain sexually explicit and sometimes sacrilegious photographs and articles. On trial with Goldstein, the principal defendant, are his former partner, James Buckley of Stockbridge, Mass., and Milky Way Productions. They were indicted in December 1974 on one charge of conspiring to mail obscene material, and 11 charges of mailing issues of "Screw" and "Smut" magazines into Kansas.

Athletic directors deny feuding

The athletic directors of ASU and UA denied Monday that a dispute existed between their departments.

UA athletic director Dave Strack said he has no hard feelings over a recent controversy involving the profit-splitting of a surcharge made on tickets to ASU football games.

"Whatever their ticket decision is — then that's their ticket decision," Strack said.

"We have no hard feelings," he added.

Strack and Fred Miller, ASU's athletic director, met in Salt Lake City last weekend when the Sun Devils played Utah there and the Wildcats played Brigham Young University in Provo.

"We were close by, so we just got together to chat and play some golf," Strack said.

An extra surcharge was initiated this year on ASU home-game football tickets to finance the stadium expansion.

The dispute arose over whether ASU should split the surcharge with a visiting team.

ASU and UA are under contract to implement the traditional 50-50 PAC-8 profit-splitting method at their Nov. 26 game in Tempe.

A flat gate rate of $25,000 is given to a visiting team under the WAC practice of splitting game profits.

The surcharge made on tickets would total $68,000 for a sell-out home game.

The meeting between the two directors was an informal discussion, Miller said, but he would not say what was discussed.

"We have no problems with Arizona," he said. "If they have problems, it's not with us."

Strack wouldn't discuss the UA threat of reducing the money given ASU when the Sun Devils play the Wildcats in Tucson next fall, because the game is too far in the future.

"Another year is another year," he said.

"We change some policies annually, and so we'll see what happens next spring," Strack said.

"The meeting in Salt Lake was really nothing important," Strack added.

"We played golf and tied in that. That's good for him (Miller)," Strack said.

I don't drink. I don't like it. It makes me feel good.

Oscar Levant

A Different POV

The Fight

First of a series on minority women.

I was sitting in the MU, talking with a "stranger," discussing the ills and evils of ASU and its counterparts, discussing majors, minors, classes, lack of classes, treatment in classes . . .

During the course of the conversation the "stranger" asked me a question that set me to thinkin' — and wonderin' — and then finally learnin'. The question:

How does it feel being a black woman on this campus and in this society?

My first reaction was, "I feel good, I feel proud." My second reaction was, "I feel oppressed, I feel like I've been pushed down by this whole damned society, that my place in it is somewhere between hell and hell."

I got to thinkin' about how I came to have these feelings and wondered did my minority sisters feel the same. I knew I was the bearer of three ills: my race, my sex and my economic status. I also knew these ills, though they are my oppressors, have given me the capacity to gain entrance into every aspect of American life.

The fact that despite all the upward movement, I am still at the bottom of the socio-economic scale, dose not stop me from struggling to the top.

The fact that there are one million more black females than males and many of the black households are filled with one single, female parent, does not make me give up my fight for freedom.

The fact that my African tradition, lost somewhere between here and there, featured a society that revered mothers and gave a relatively high status to women in general, plus the fact that they were dragged across the waters to an institution unlike any other in the history of the world, that they were stripped of pride, heritage, religion . . . This keeps me fighting.

The fact that my ancestral sisters, Sojourner Truth, Harriet Tubman, Mary Bethune and others fought to make life better for me, leads me to fight to make it better for my children and their children.

The fact that I can now attend universities across the country, fulfill a double minority requirement for a prospective employer and earn an income 86 percent of that of white women, makes me keep fighting.

Knowing that in a matter of years, if such rude interferences such as the Bakke decision do not get in my way, I will reach white women's economic position and will no longer be at the end of the totem pole, makes me fight, keeps me fighting.

Throughout the nation and in every realm of life, black women and other minority women are fighting to reach their goal — equality as a person. Their influx into education, politics, the job market and other social institutions is evidence of the fight.

— Cheryl Haynes

No seating shift yet: ICA Board

If there is no reasonable change that will, in fact, improve the present seating arrangement, everything will remain as it is at the present time.

. . . no single portion of our constituents — students, faculty-staff or public — can be handed a Utopian seating plan at the expense of others.

Because of recent speculation on seating changes for 1978 in Sun Devil Stadium, the Intercollegiate Athletic Board would like to clarify the matter.

First, construction in the north end zone and in the upper east stands will be completed prior to the 1978 football season. It was the fact that construction in the east and end zones and modification of the stadium was taking place that encouraged the Athletic Board Facilities Committee to begin studying the seating arrangements in these areas.

Second, the Athletic Board is doing nothing more than studying the issue. Only if a more acceptable plan can be accomplished for student, faculty-staff and public seating by a rearrangement of seats will the Athletic Board consider making such a change — and such a plan would be well publicized before any decision was made. If there is no reasonable change that will, in fact, improve the present seating arrangement, everything will remain as it is at the present time.

Third, the Athletic Board has no interest in "taking away" from ASU students any seats they have been using or are likely to use in the foreseeable future. The ICA ticket office presently reserves 12,064 seats for student pick-up. Student attendance in 1976 averaged 6,670 per game.

Only on two occasions, once in 1972 and once in 1973, have as many as 10,000 ASU students attended a game in Sun Devil Stadium. It is important to the Athletic Board that every interested student eligible to obtain a game ticket have the opportunity to do so, and the Board is concerned that appropriate seating be available in adequate numbers for future expansion.

Fourth, as part of the studying process, the Athletic Board will have to calculate with great care the financial impact of any seating changes. The revenues produced by the football program are essential to the support of many non-revenue-producing intercollegiate sports activities.

Even at this preliminary stage of studying the problem, it is clear that no single portion of our constituents — students, faculty-staff or public — can be handed a Utopian seating plan at the expense of the others. The Intercollegiate Athletic Board is committed to the best possible seating plan that can be devised for the pleasure of those who attend football games — which may, in fact, be the present arrangement — and will continue to study the matter to see if there is reasonable hope for IMPROVING the present arrangement.

The Intercollegiate Athletic Board will welcome any and all specific suggestions individuals may want to make. Send such ideas to Professor Wallace Adams, History Department; Professor Bill Arnold, Speech and Theater Department; Mark Barnes, ASASU President; Don Dotts, Alumni Association Executive Director; or to any member of the Athletic Board. While it will not be possible to answer each suggestion individually, each will contribute to the study process.

Letters To The Editor

He's wrong . . .

Editor:

As graduates of the College of Architecture we feel compelled to comment on Dean Burgess's statements concerning the architecture curriculum, which appeared in Thursday's State Press.

The comment that, "The curriculum isn't such that you can have free time," is totally inane. The cultivation of interests beyond the classroom is an integral part of a college education. Free time allows for the pursuit of these interests.

Architecture is by nature a profession requiring flexibility, knowledge in numerous fields and the ability to interact with many different people.

By isolating architecture students from the University community in a completely rigid program, Burgess is denying the students the opportunity to develop all of the skills they will require to function effectively in a professional practice.

Burgess' policies typify the narrow-mindedness of many educators who see themselves as the only ones capable of judging what is beneficial to any given student. This attitude is harmful in every situation, but is especially detrimental in a creative environment.

Editor:

Is "El Mestizo" an editorial writer for the paper, or just an overwordy letter-to-the-editor writer? Either way, you ought to use the editorial blue pencil. He writes on the Klan clowns' offer to help the Border Patrol patrol the border and becomes almost hysterical, flying in all directions with his irrelevancies.

Now, defending law school quotas, he digs up old Indian persecutions, the slave trade, miscegenation ("Your cry in anguish . . . as you see your daughter taken to the master's house . . . and raped at his whim." What's whimsical about rape, incidentally?), the conditions affecting migrant farm workers, both legal and wetback, and segregated schools (seems not to have heard of busing).

El Mestizo weaves in and around his usually irrelevant subject matter like a broken field runner around would-be tacklers. Let us know a day or so in advance of his next writing effort and we can set up a betting pool as to the number of varied issues he can drag in.

Heather Grace, a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority, ended up in the mud Saturday morning during the Phi Psi 500. [State Press staff photos by Brian Brainerd]

A 'grand' day

The annual Phi Psi 500 earned about $1,000 this year and was a charitable event, the president of the fraternity said.

"Basically, all of it goes to charity," Joe Lopez said.

The Phi Psi 500, a fund-raising event held Saturday at Sahuaro field, featured a tricycle race as the main event.

Sponsored by the Sun Devil Lounge, members of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity invited all twelve sororities to participate. Six hundred people attended the race, Lopez said.

"The Sun Devil Lounge gave us $1200 to work with," he added.

Other events were a beer-chugging contest, a tug of war and a mystery event.

The mystery event was an egg-throwing contest. A member of the fraternity wore a T-shirt printed with a bullseye. Members of the sororities tried to hit the bullseye with eggs.

Participants in the race rode tricycles through a 75-yard obstacle course of mud pits, a bridge and tire obstacles. Two women from each chapter competed in the race.

Each time a contestant won a contest, the sorority earned points. The over-all winner for the events was Kappa Delta sorority.

Lopez said the fraternity purchased shorts and had the sororities' insignias printed on them. These were sold to sorority members for $4.

The money was raised by selling newspaper advertisements for Tempe and Scottsdale stores, Lopez said.

The Phi Psi 500 was presided over by a sorority queen elected by the fraternities last week.

Reading Course Increases Comprehension and Speed

Do you want to learn how to comprehend more of what you read? Would you like to read faster with improved comprehension? Would you like to study more effectively? If your answer is YES, the Arizona State University Reading Center has a highly systematized reading improvement course that is designed to fit your needs.

The six weeks non-credit course can be taken by anyone who pays the $35.00 fee. Registration begins the week of Oct. 31 in the Reading Center, Room B112 of Payne Hall. Further information may be obtained by calling 965-7766. Pick a class that fits your schedule from the list below:

SECOND FALL SESSION: November 7 - December 16

Section 1	M night	7:00 - 9:30 p.m.
Section 2	W night	7:00 - 9:30 p.m.
Section 3	Th night	7:00 - 9:30 p.m.
Section 4	M-W-F	9:40 - 10:30 a.m.
Section 5	M-W-F	10:40 - 11:30 a.m.

DESCRIPTION OF

THE COLLEGE READING PROGRAM

The College Reading Program is a comprehensive fifteen (15) hour non-credit course designed to increase comprehension, speed and retention of reading materials. The course focuses on comprehension as the key to rapid and efficient reading. Reading is defined as an active decision-making process whereby the reader selectively looks for those clues which will enable him to reconstruct meaning from print. Therefore, no special eye or finger movements are stressed. Within the framework of large group, small group, and individual experiences, the student will actively participate rather than be lectured to by an instructor.

Students can benefit from the program as study becomes more productive through increased speed and comprehension. Also, those students who may have to take aptitude or qualifying examinations will find that increased speed and comprehension aids them in sections where reading ability is tested.

On the basis of past experience and research, improvement in reading is promised by the program. Classes in the past have attained average increases of fifty (50) to one hundred thirty (130) per cent. The question is not whether the student can improve but how much he can improve.

Women's conference to make recommendations to Congress

By Chet Barfield

Nearly 2,000 delegates, including two women from ASU, will convene this month to try to influence Congressional legislation on women's issues, the assistant director of the Associated Students Women's Affairs Board said Monday.

"This will be the first really big national conference. I'm not a delegate, but I'm going. I wouldn't miss it for the world," said Lorri Jean.

The International Women's Year Conference will meet in Houston Nov. 18-21. Sponsored by the U.S. Congress, the purpose of the conference will be to make recommendations to Congress concerning how the women of America feel about issues such as the Equal Rights Amendment (ERA) and government funding of abortions, Jean said.

Other topics will include child care, credit, education, rape, women in political offices and other areas of discrimination against women, Jean added.

The delegates cannot expect to change national policies themselves, Jean said, but nevertheless their recommendations will be important.

"The president and the Congress will have to listen," she said.

Delegates will represent various nationwide groups, she said. Representing ASU will be Jennifer Sharkey, director of ASASU Women's Affairs Board, and Dr. Janet Elsea, an associate professor in speech and theater.

Sharkey is reportedly recovering from surgery.

Neither she nor Elsea could be reached Monday.

"You can never have a meeting where every group is represented, but this is closer than we've ever been before," said Jean.

The recommendations the conference makes will be based on a majority vote of the delegates, Jean said.

"It's not going to be unanimous. You'll get dissent on everything," she said.

Besides controversial issues such as the ERA and abortion funding, Jean said some delegates will object to women's rights in other areas.

"You'd be amazed," she said. "Two women verbally and almost physically attacked me after a speech. They said God had ordained women as being inferior to men."

Jean said there will be lobbyists from "right-wing groups" at the conference who will try to put pressure on delegates.

"There are rumors there may be trouble. These groups are well organized and well funded. They don't want to see changes made. They want women to stay in the home," she said.

Besides debate between the various delegates, the conference will feature feminist speakers, workshops, films and exhibits, Jean said.

The public will be invited to the conference, although only the delegates will be allowed to vote.

"Our liberty depends on the freedom of the press, and that cannot be limited without being lost."

— Thomas Jefferson

Jean said.

"Anyone who wants to can show up as long as there's room," she said.

"This (conference) came about because of women who are progressive and are working very hard," Jean said. "I hope the women can unite and present solid proposals."

The world is full of injustice and persecution. No injustice is more basic than slavery — the denial to people of the right to leave a country that persecutes them. No persecution is more ancient, so familiar, so easy to pass off among "enlightened" Westerners than Jew hatred. The Soviet Union refuses to let its 3,000,000 enslaved Jews emigrate.

Trial postponed for man accused of coed's death

The murder trial of David Leroy Bueker, 25, accused of strangling a 21-year-old ASU woman this summer, has been postponed to Nov. 14 because the court was engaged in another trial, Marc Budoff, prosecuting attorney, said Monday.

Maricopa County Superior Court Judge Ed Hughes ordered the postponement this month, Budoff said. Hughes is standing in for Judge Howard Thompson, who is presiding over the Don Bolles murder trial.

Bueker had been scheduled to stand trial Oct. 11 for the murder of Susan Marie Greene, who was found beaten, stabbed and strangled on the living room floor of a Tempe home she was house-sitting for the summer.

Thomas Foster, Bueker's attorney, said the case is still in the preliminary stages and delays of murder trials are fairly standard procedure.

"Because of the severity of the case, we need more time to complete our investigation," Foster said.

Greene's body was discovered July 31 at 1633 E. Fremont Drive at the home of the Herbert Argabright family, who was on vacation.

Police said evidence indicated Greene had put up a struggle with her assailant before she died.

She had been stabbed repeatedly with a two-pronged barbeque fork.

Bueker, whose palm print was found on the fork, was arrested Aug. 2 at Mesa Lutheran Hospital.

He was receiving treatment for injuries he told police he sustained when he was assaulted by a stranger near the Salt River bottom in Mesa.

Applications now available for assistant dean position

An assistant dean position is open in the College of Liberal Arts.

A professor is needed to fill this new, experimental position in order to work on expanding evening and off-campus resident instruction for credit, said Guido Weigend, dean of the College of Liberal Arts.

"We need more manpower to find out what kind of courses are in demand in various distant parts of the Valley. We want to promote our services to the greater Phoenix community," he said.

The deadline for applications is Nov. 7 and interested persons should contact the Liberal Arts office at 965-3391 or write a letter to Weigend.

THE GREAT DICTATOR

This film was brave and controversial when it was originally released, because it exposed Nazism and Anti-Semitism with both humor and horror. In this political satire, Chaplin plays the dual role of Adenoid Hynkle, der Fooey of Tomania, and a Jewish barber who resembles Charlie's tramp character in previous films. Jack Oakie plays Benito Napaloni.

Skateboarders endanger people on crowded malls, official says

By Bevey Miner

A federal report estimates 375,000 skateboard riders will be injured this year, but at ASU the pedestrians are in more danger than skateboarders.

"Usually the person riding the skateboard doesn't get hurt as much as the people around the person riding," a spokesman for University Police said. "But we have had to chase them off campus because they are simply a nuisance."

Police Chief George Bays said it is not a policy to chase skateboard riders off campus unless they ride down the mall in a crowd.

"There was an incident last week where we had a person riding a bicycle run into a person on a skateboard," Bays said. "There were some minor injuries but nothing serious. This opened some eyes as to how dangerous they are to the students that are walking."

The report, put out by the Consumer Product Safety Commission, said skateboard injuries are expected to surpass football mishaps for the first time.

Ione Sharp, head of medical records at Tempe Community Hospital, said the hospital has had no real serious injury reports involving skateboards and football injuries are still worse.

"Most of the injuries caused by skateboards are cuts, bruises and scratches, but nothing really serious," she added. "Usually the person riding the skateboard knows what they are doing. Sometimes they even wear helmets."

Skateboards are much less of a problem than bicycles, Carol Atkinson from the ASU health and safety department said.

"About a year ago we had a kid break his arm seriously, but that has been the only real problem. We haven't had any serious injuries lately," Atkinson added.

The federal report, that will not be released until next month, said 40 percent of the injuries caused by skateboards will require emergency room treatment. These usually include fractures of the lower arms and lower legs.

"We don't see many fractures caused by skateboards. In fact usually the injury isn't serious enough to come and see us," Atkinson said.

Set in Amsterdam at the turn of the century, "Cathy Tippel" is the story of a young woman's rise out of poverty and exploitation. This is her story, the story of a woman who fought her way up out of the gutter. From an illiterate, naive young prostitute being sold on the streets by her mother, she became a genteel lady of means, culture and sophistication.

'Yew-neek,' ramblin' act key to Martin's success

For all practical reasons, he should not be funny.

He bends balloons around his head, seemingly imitating the kiddie show host all of us had to endure as children. He wears an arrow through his head as if he were the life of the party.

He juggles oranges like countless other performers. He strums the banjo in fitful late-night-talk-show style. His klutzy slapstick has been seen once too often.

But it is because of these practical reasons that Steve Martin is funny.

Friday night Martin brought his gags and buffoonery to the Gammage Center for the Performing Arts, and delighted the almost full house to an hour and fifteen-minute performance spoofing comedy and its ironic forms.

The salt-and-pepper-haired Martin has risen rapidly over the last few months to the top of the comedy ladder. His seemingly irrelevant and disjointed approach to comedy has captured the imagination of both "mature" and college audience groups alike.

Martin's success lies in the fact that nothing is too sacred — or too stupid — to be laughed at.

The old, usually unfunny ideas are recycled by Martin and given new meaning — and new irrelevance. Therein beats the heart of Martin's comedy.

When he twists balloons around his head it is not funny. But when he labels the twisted idea "a case of VD" and then puts it on his lips to demonstrate VD of the mouth, it becomes funny. Martin has taken a mundane idea and stretched it to its ridiculous limits.

But Martin is more than just a clown. He is adept at improvisation and is quick with the ad libs.

When he was juggling his oranges and dropped one, he slyly kicked it underneath the curtain and quipped, "Time to feed the backstage crew."

It is doubtful Martin's brand of comedy could work for other comedians because they lack one essential ingredient — his rubberized, plastic-fantastic, expressionistic face.

Martin is capable of saying something that makes little sense and selling the idea with his facial expressions. His eyes open wide, a smirk creeps across his face and in his best suave and debonair manner, he says he is a "ramblin' and gamblin' type of guy."

Not funny, right? Wrong. It is funny — and "yew-neek."

Chaplin, Hitler meet in classic

What happens when history's funniest and most beloved man takes on the world's most despicable dictator?

The result was the 1940 film classic "The Great Dictator," a thinly disguised satire on Adolf Hitler, directed by Charles Chaplin.

"The Great Dictator" will be shown at the MU Movie House Nov. 1 and 2.

Chaplin began the film in the 1930's — before America became involved in World War II — probably as a response to his obvious physical similarity to Hitler. Chaplin was pressured to halt the film, but steadfastly continued his project.

The film is set in the '30s. Adenoid Hynkel (Chaplin) has become the fanatic dictator of Tomania, and in neighboring Bacteria, Benzini Napolini is dictator.

Chaplin also plays another character in the film — his usual "little tramp." The tramp is a Jewish barber, who, after recovering from a long spell of amnesia, returns to his shop in the Jewish ghetto and naively tries to re-establish his business.

This was Chaplin's first all-dialogue film and marked the last appearance of his "little tramp" figure. "The Great Dictator" also was probably one of his most political and didactic films.

Although the moralizing, by today's standards, hits you over the head like Goddard's frying pan hits the head of a storm trooper, the film does have moments of pure Chaplin slapstick — the kind audiences have come to love.

As Hynkel, Chaplin delivers a frenzied, guttural oratory that chokes him into prolonged coughing fits. He parodies the conceit of Hitler by having Hynkel do a long, egotistical ballet with a balloon painted to look like a globe.

Time is ripe for bargain in cricket sales business

By Mary Connell

If you're in the market for crickets, now is the right time to buy. But if frogs are what you want, don't expect to find any bargains.

That's what Dr. Rob Patterson would say if you asked him how business is these days.

As director of ASU's animal resources center, Patterson is in the animal business. He raises and sells guinea pigs, trout, rats, crickets, turtles, frogs, mice, mud puppies, meal worms and beetles.

"Last year alone we sold 22,000 crickets, 91,000 meal worms, close to 3,000 mice, and more than 2,000 rats," Patterson said.

Crickets sell for anywhere from $1 to $3 per 100, Patterson said. Juvenile mice bring in 15 cents, whereas an older mouse sells for 25 cents, he said.

The price on rats depends on the rodent's weight, he said.

"For a rat weighing 100 to 200 grams we charge $1.10," he said. "From 200 to 300 grams, we sell him at $1.65."

Frog prices vary with the weather, he said.

"Sometimes they cost as little as 70 cents apiece," he said. "But when it gets too cold, they can go up to as much as $2 each."

"This place is just like any other business — a bookstore or something — only there isn't any routine," he added.

The biggest market for Patterson's animals is on campus.

"They're used primarily in teaching situations or for professors with research grants," he said.

A university is better off raising its own research animals than shipping them in from another state, Patterson said.

"It's chancy to buy animals," he said, "and it's risky to ship them."

"When they travel for a distance, they get stressed and develop respiratory diseases."

Disease is always a big problem for animal raisers, Patterson said.

"We once bought 30 guinea pigs to build up our stock and held them in quarantine for three weeks," he said.

"Then when we moved them in with the other guinea pigs; they all died. "That's why it's important to maintain the facility in a manner so that diseases don't crop up."

Other problems occur when the complex plumbing system hooked up to rid the center of animal waste goes on the blink, Patterson said.

"A week ago the water was cut off to our building right when we were in the process of cleaning out the bedding material from the rodent cages," he said. The physical plant had turned off water while working on plumbing in another room, he said.

The center uses about $9,500 worth of animal food and bedding material a year, Patterson said.

"That's about six tons of wood shavings and beet pulp a year for bedding," he said.

Crickets are a hot item these days, Patterson said.

"Crickets are used in behavior studies and bioassay work, where the researcher works with scorpion venom.

Crickets also are used by zoos for feeding other animals, he added.

Researchers have found an unusual way to use beetles raised by the center, he said.

"People request domestic beetles to clear away flesh and organic material from the bones of desert rodents for identification of the animals," he said.

Another animal in high demand is the guinea pig, Patterson added.

"They're the classic research animal for anaphylactic shock (failure of cardiovascular system from hypersensitivity).

"They're used by students in immunology laboratories."

Patterson said the humans," he said. "We don't animals he raises are not treat them as pets.

Spring equitation courses inaccurate in catalog list

Equitation courses for the spring semester are listed erroneously in the course catalog as being offered in the department of health, physical education and recreation.

Associate Registrar Bill Haid said the courses are being offered by the division of agriculture for the spring semester.

Flyers on the department change are available in both the agriculture and HPER offices, Haid said.

Registration, Facility Use Policies and Rules Set Forth

As a service to students, the STATE PRESS and the Dean of Students office present below University rules and regulations pertaining to registration of student organizations and policies governing the use of University facilities.

They were adopted by the University Scheduling Board and revised in August, 1977. Inquiries should be directed to the Scheduling Coordinator, Matthews Center, phone 965-6116. The rules and regulations are subject to annual review by the University Scheduling Board.

They are contained in a booklet, "Policies and Procedures — Activities, Conduct, Rights and Responsibilities at Arizona State University." Copies of the complete booklet are available without charge from the Dean of Students office in Matthews Center.

In addition to the material reprinted below, the booklet contains the "Code of Conduct" adopted by the Arizona Board of Regents; the section of Arizona Revised Statutes, Article 17, covering "Interference with Peaceful Conduct of Educational Institutions"; and certain ASU parking regulations.

I. POLICY

A. Every campus organization, i.e., a student, faculty, or staff group of at least ten members which operates or wishes to operate within the University structure for an expressed purpose, shall register with the University. Honorary or scholastic student organizations sponsored by academic units of the University, and residence hall organizations, e.g., fraternities, sororities, residence halls, shall follow the same registration procedures as prescribed for other student organizations. Faculty and staff organizations shall follow such registration procedures as are prescribed by the Academic Vice President and the Vice President for Business Affairs, respectively. Registration shall be necessary before the facilities of the University are made available to any campus organization.

B. The Office of Dean of Students shall administer the registration of student organizations, and shall maintain a listing of all currently registered student organizations.

C. Registration shall be permitted unless the University finds that an organization seeks to accomplish its local or national objectives, goals and purposes or activities by the use of violence and advocates and incites immediate action which will probably materially and substantially interfere with the discipline and normal activities of the University and the rights of others, constituting a clear and present danger to the property, personnel and orderly function of the University. In determining whether an organization shall be permitted to register, the University, through the Office of Dean of Students or the office of the appropriate Vice President, should make proper inquiry as to the past conduct, declarations and stated objectives of the organization. Inquiry should also be made as to whether the organization advocates the violation of the law and the disregard of University regulations and whether there is a probability that such advocacy has incited or will incite and produce closely related lawless action.

D. If registration is denied by the Office of Dean of Students, the Office of the Academic Vice President, or the Vice President for Business Affairs, the organization may appeal the decision to the University Review and Advisory Board.

E. Each student organization shall have a University advisor whose assignment shall be to assist the organization membership in providing educational experiences in keeping with University standards. An advisor shall be a member of the faculty or staff at Arizona State University.

F. Registration of an organization by the University does not constitute University endorsement or approval of the policies and activities of the organization. It does, however, signify the willingness on the part of the organization to comply with the policies of the University and the Arizona Board of Regents.

G. A registered organization shall neither represent nor imply, in any manner, its contacts with the public that it speaks for or in the name of the University.

H. A registered organization shall not use the name of Arizona State University, nor abbreviations, nicknames, or other familiar forms thereof, as part of its own name.

I. The Office of Dean of Students shall assist registered organizations with the scheduling of a special use of a university facility under the policies of the University and the Arizona Board of Regents.

II. REGISTRATION PROCEDURE

A. INITIAL REGISTRATION

1. A student organization with at least ten members may seek registration at any time during the school year by submitting a completed Student Organization Registration Form, together with the organization's constitution and by-laws, if any, to the Office of Dean of Students. If no constitution has been adopted, a statement of purpose, signed by the University advisor and the student president of the organization, may be substituted.

2. The registration form shall include the following:

- Name of the organization.
- Date of application for registration.
- The signature of the presiding officer, i.e., the highest elected or appointed officer of the organization, such as President or Chairman, and his/her address.
- The signature of the University advisor.

3. The Office of Dean of Students shall notify the organization in writing of its completed registration.

B. REGISTRATION RENEWAL

1. In order to retain its registration, a student organization shall complete and submit each year a Student Organization Registration Form to the Office of the Dean of Students not later than the end of the fourth week of each fall semester. The registration form shall be accompanied by a copy of the organization's constitution and by-laws or statement of purpose, if not previously filed, and any additions, deletions or alterations to the constitution or statement of purpose previously submitted.

2. The Office of Dean of Students shall notify the organization in writing of its completed registration renewal.

C. TERMINATION OF REGISTRATION

The registration of a student organization may be terminated for the following reasons:

1. Failure to renew registration in the manner specified shall result automatically in termination of registration.

2. By written request of a student organization signed by the presiding officer and the University advisor, the registration of an organization may be terminated at any time.

3. The Dean of Students may, after investigation of a complaint against a student organization, direct termination of registration as a sanction for violation of University regulations. The decision of the Dean of Students may be appealed to the University Trial Board.

III. MEMBERSHIP

A. Membership in a registered organization shall be limited to members of the University community, i.e., students, faculty, staff and their spouses.

B. Membership shall be extended to qualified members of the University community without regard to race, color, creed or religion, sex, national origin, age, or physical or mental handicap.

C. An officer of a student organization shall be enrolled for at least seven semester hours of University credit.

D. A guest of a registered organization shall not assume the role of membership or exercise any privileges derived therefrom, nor serve on any of its committees.

E. A student on academic probation is not eligible to hold office but may continue as a member of an organization.

IV. CONDUCT

A. Registered organizations and their members are subject to all state and federal laws and to the rules and regulations adopted by the University and the Board of Regents. Violations shall be handled in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Code of Conduct.

B. In the event the majority of the members or the officers of a registered organization shall vote in favor of, actively encourage, join the preparation of or directly take part in the commission of an offense specified in the Code of Conduct, a complaint may be filed against the organization. The complaint or statement of charges shall be processed against the president or someone appointed by him/her to represent the organization and, in the event of a trial, the organization shall be entitled to the same procedural due process granted to an individual. The sanctions which may be imposed against an organization include probation, denial of the use of University facilities for a definite period of time or permanent cancellation of registration. The filing of a complaint or statement of charges against an organization shall not affect, in any way, the filing and processing of a complaint or statement of charges against an individual member of the organization.

C. The Dean of Students shall process all complaints filed against registered student organizations. After an investigation of the matter, the Dean of Students shall report his findings in an oral conference with the representative of the accused organization and shall advise the representative what sanction, if any, he intends to impose on the organization. If the accused organization accepts the findings and recommended sanction of the Dean of Students all action on the complaint shall be considered closed. In the event the accused organization refuses or fails to accept the findings and recommended sanction, the decision of the Dean of Students may be appealed to the University Trial Board. Appeal from a decision made by the University Trial Board may be made to the University Review and Advisory Board (see Code of Conduct, II. The Maintenance of Order with Justice; Administrative Procedures).

V. SCHEDULING, ADVERTISING ON CAMPUS

i.e., Posters, Distributing Literature on Campus, Banners

A. SCHEDULING EVENTS

All inquiries or requests involving scheduling of special uses of University facilities should be referred to the Scheduling Coordinator, Office of Dean of Students.

B. ADVERTISING ON CAMPUS

Posters and handbills are the general media for advertising events and activities held on campus and sponsored by registered organizations or by agencies or departments of the University.

1. The posting of advertisements or distribution of handbills, pamphlets, etc., or other material, is a privilege afforded only to registered organizations or agencies or departments of the University.

a. The privilege of posting or distributing material on campus is non-transferable.

b. Mere sanction or endorsement of any non-university activity by a campus affiliated group or individual(s) is not an acceptable basis for allowing the posting or distribution of material by an off-campus company or group.

2. The posting of advertisements or distribution of handbills, pamphlets, etc., or other material, by or on the behalf of any off-campus company or organization is prohibited.

C. POSTERS

Twelve kiosks and numerous University bulletin boards are provided for the display of posters and other advertisements.

1. All posters must bear the name of the sponsoring registered organization, or agency or department of the University.

2. All posters must display the Office of Dean of Students' date stamp on the lower right hand corner.

3. All posters not displaying the sponsor's name and the Office of Dean of Students' date stamp shall be removed and discarded.

4. Poster size is limited to 14" x 22" and no more than two posters per kiosk shall be displayed per event/activity.

5. Posters will be removed after two weeks display, or the day following the date of the scheduled event under policies supervised by the Office of Dean of Students.

6. University bulletin boards are supervised by the individual responsible for the building in which they are located and whose approval is necessary prior to the posting of any posters or other advertisements.

7. All posters or other advertisements posted in areas other than the campus kiosks or University bulletin boards shall be removed and discarded.

8. Advertising by student organizations of campus activities not open to the public must be confined to the campus media.

9. All advertising must be factual, in keeping with the stated nature of the event, and in the case of registered organizations, must not imply endorsement or sponsorship by the University.

D. HANDBILLS, PAMPHLETS, OR OTHER LITERATURE

All handbills, pamphlets, or other literature distributed on campus must bear the name of the sponsoring registered organization, or agency or department of the University.

1. Literature distributed:

a. Shall not contribute unduly to the problem of littering on campus.

b. Shall not physically interfere with academic or administrative functions on campus.

c. Shall not interfere with the normal operation of residence halls.

2. The distribution of handbills, pamphlets, or other material is restricted to areas outside of University buildings, unless prior approval has been obtained from the individual responsible for the particular building.

E. INDIVIDUAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. Individual members of the University community may use the kiosks for personal announcements.

2. Such announcements are removed weekly.

F. BANNERS

Registered organizations, or agencies or departments of the University wishing to display a banner must submit a Facility Request Form to the Office of Dean of Students at least fourteen calendar days prior to the date the banner will be displayed.

1. There are four locations on campus from which banners may be displayed:

a. Over Orange Drive between the Engineering Complex and the Swimming Pool.

b. Over College Avenue just south of the intersection with Perimeter Road.

c. Both sides of the pedestrian bridge over University Drive.

2. Banners may be displayed for a period of ten calendar days.

3. Banner size is restricted to a maximum of 36' x 32'.

4. The Office of Dean of Students should be consulted regarding other banner specifications as required by Physical Plant.

VI. SALES, SOLICITATION ON CAMPUS

A. The sale or distribution of food and/or beverages, except by those firms under contract to the Arizona Board of Regents, is prohibited.

B. Sales or solicitation of services or commodities not under contract to the Arizona Board of Regents, except by registered organizations and agencies or departments of the University, is prohibited.

C. Sales or solicitation by registered organizations is subject to review and authorization by the Office of the Dean of Students.

D. Sales or solicitation of services or commodities by or on the behalf of any off-campus company or group which is not under contract to the Arizona Board of Regents is prohibited.

E. Sales or solicitation may not be conducted for personal gain.

F. All registered student organizations are required to submit a formal request to the Office of Dean of Students for authorization to sell or solicit on University property.

G. Authorization to sell or solicit will be limited to a period of one five-day class week. Extensions beyond this period will be considered on the basis of a new application.

H. Sales or solicitation will be conducted only by authorized members of the registered organization and will be limited to a specific Mall area and adjacent to the Mall so as to encourage the free flow of pedestrian traffic.

1. Tables will be allocated for vending and soliciting in accordance with VII. Activities on the University Malls (see below).

2. Vendors and solicitors will be required to remain behind the table. They may not circulate in the pedestrian traffic lanes to confront customers, or otherwise obstruct the free flow of traffic as specified in the Code of Conduct. Posters may be placed on the table informing the public of what is being sold, or the purpose of the contributions.

I. University tables must be properly checked out from the Office of Dean of Students. Organizations may not construct booths, or bring other outside equipment or helpers on the Mall for the purpose of vending, soliciting, or advertising.

VII. ACTIVITIES ON THE UNIVERSITY MALLS

A. Registered organizations may schedule activities on the University Malls by securing and completing a Mall Facility Use Form from the Office of Dean of Students.

B. Tables and chairs can be furnished in connection with an activity, provided notice of at least seven calendar days is given from the time the Mall Facility Use Form is submitted. There is no charge for this service. Tables and chairs may be obtained, subject to the following limitations:

1. Tables will not be placed in an area which restricts pedestrian traffic or otherwise interferes with the access to buildings.

2. Tables and chairs may be picked up any time after 8:30 a.m. and must be returned prior to 4:30 p.m. unless special prior arrangements have been made.

3. Tables and chairs must be received by a student member or University advisor of a registered organization, or an officer of a registered staff or faculty organization.

4. Tables must be manned by members of the registered organization.

5. Responsibility for transporting the tables and chairs to and from desired locations on the Mall rests with the registered organization.

6. Requests are limited to one table and two chairs unless special prior arrangements have been made.

7. Failure to return tables/chairs to their storage area by the above specified time, unless special prior arrangements have been made, may result in the loss of this privilege by the registered organization.

8. Agencies or departments of the University wishing to schedule activities on the University Malls shall follow the same procedures as prescribed for registered organizations.

9. Off-campus companies or groups will not be permitted use of the Mall, except for agencies of the state or federal government, subject to approval by the Office of the Dean of Students.

C. Only members of a registered organization may staff a table on the Mall, distribute materials or solicit on behalf of a registered organization.

A guest of a registered organization acting a resource person may be present, provided that a member of the registered organization also be present at all times.

D. The use of any record player, tape recorder, or other type of amplification equipment in connection with the use of tables, booths, etc., on the Mall is not authorized without the prior approval of the Dean of Students.

VIII. SCHEDULING THE OUTDOOR ACTIVITIES AREAS

A. Outdoor Activities Areas have been provided for use by students and other members of the University community.

B. The following locations have been approved by the University Scheduling Board for outdoor activities:

1. Old Main Park east of the Language and Literature Building.

2. Lawn area behind the southeast corner of the Memorial Union.

3. Lawn area east of West Hall.

4. Palo Verde Main Lawn.

5. Gammage Auditorium Lawn.

C. A registered organization wishing to present an off-campus speaker, or program outdoors, other than a musical activity; or wishing to incorporate the use of amplification as part of its presentation outdoors, may request the use of any of the Outdoor Activities Areas by submitting a Facility Request Form to the Scheduling Coordinator, Office of the Dean of Students, at least seven calendar days prior to the event.

1. The use of amplification on or in connection with the use of the Outdoor Activities Areas must have prior approval of the Office of the Dean of Students.

a. Controlled volume amplification shall be allowed in all of the Outdoor Activities Areas for speakers only.

b. Outdoor musical presentations of any variety shall be restricted to the lawn area back of the southeast corner of the Memorial Union, the Palo Verde Main Lawn, and the Gammage Auditorium Lawn.

2. Any amplification system used in connection with an activity presented at one of the Outdoor Activities Areas must be checked out from the Audiovisual Center.

a. The use of Audiovisual Center equipment is contingent upon availability.

b. A student I.D. and driver's license or equivalent is required to check out equipment from the Audiovisual Center.

3. For scheduling convenience, the Scheduling Coordinator, Office of the Dean of Students, should be consulted prior to planning an event regarding electrical requirements, irrigation, or other Physical Plant work schedules in any of the Outdoor Activities Areas.

USE OF UNIVERSITY FACILITIES

I. GENERAL POLICY

Arizona State University is an educational institution provided and maintained by the people of the State of Arizona. Its academic buildings, campus properties and facilities shall not be utilized for private or personal gain nor for activities other than those which relate to its general educational purposes. The Board of Regents delegates to the President authority to establish facility use fees where appropriate. No contractual commitment involving University funds shall be made without the approval of the appropriate University Vice President.

II. UNIVERSITY FACILITIES

A. University facilities may be used by faculty, staff and students for cultural, educational and recreational activities.

B. Other institutions, state or federal agencies, charitable or civic organizations, or commercial organizations, may, at the discretion of the University, use University facilities.

C. A sponsoring organization may be responsible for the applicable facility use fee, if any, and all other costs incurred as the result of an event, including but not limited to, guarantees, insurance, security, and staging arrangements.

D. University Scheduling Board

1. The University Scheduling Board will schedule all special uses of University facilities. Regular academic, intercollegiate, Performing Arts Series, Departmental Seminars, non-credit continuing education activities, and other similar day-to-day normal or other academically related uses of University facilities will not be scheduled by the University Scheduling Board, but are not limited to: Gammage Center for the Performing Arts, Sun Devil Stadium, Sun Angel Stadium, Packard Stadium, Physical Education Buildings East and West, Armstrong Hall, Memorial Union, Neeb Hall, Murdock Hall, Music Building, University Activity Center, ASU Swimming Pool, Apache Tennis Courts, Whiteman Tennis Court Center, and all University playing or recreational fields.

2. University facility use fee-schedules for special uses will be developed by the officer responsible for the facility. These University facility use fee-schedules shall be subject to review and application by the University Scheduling Board.

3. Any facility request denial or approval or fee application may be appealed in writing to a committee of the President and Vice Presidents.

4. The permanent assignment of a University facility to a student organization for instructional or training purposes, or purposes other than regular organizational "business" meetings shall not be authorized.

5. A University Facility Request Form must be submitted no later than seven calendar days prior to the date the facility will be utilized. The University Scheduling Board shall render a decision within four days from the receipt of the request. A University Facility Use Application must be submitted no later than fourteen calendar days prior to the date the facility will be utilized. A decision will be rendered within ten days.

6. Facilities will be scheduled with a preference for University-sponsored uses, subject to availability and all applicable fees and costs.

7. Facilities will be scheduled for off-campus organizations on the basis of space availability, provided that they do not conflict with normal activities of the University community, and subject to all applicable fees and costs.

E. No commitment regarding University facilities shall be made without advance approval by the University Scheduling Board.

III. SCHEDULING UNIVERSITY FACILITIES, SERVICES AND ACTIVITIES

A. The University Facility Request Form will be used to schedule all activities, facilities and services presented on campus by registered university organizations. Forms are available in the Office of Dean of Students.

B. The University Facility Use Application will be used to schedule all activities, facilities and services presented on campus by non-university groups. Forms are available in the Office of Dean of Students.

C. Sponsoring organizations must complete all applicable parts of the appropriate form, obtain the necessary signatures, and return it to the Office of Dean of Students.

D. A registered organization wishing to use a University facility, subject to approval by the University Scheduling Board, must contact one of the following regarding the availability of the facility, before the form is submitted to the Office of Dean of Students:

College of Business Administration	Dean's Office
Gammage Center for the Performing Arts and University Activity Center	Director's Office
College of Law	Dean's Office
Memorial Union	Director's Office
Music Building	Music Department
Sun Devil Stadium, Sun Angel Stadium, Packard Stadium	Athletic Director's Office
Physical Education Building East, Physical Education Building West, ASU Swimming Pool, Apache Tennis Courts, Recreation Fields	Intramurals-Club Sports Recreation
All other classrooms and lecture halls	Central Room Scheduling Office (Moeur Building)

e. A non-University group wishing to use a University facility, subject to approval by the University Scheduling Board, must contact the Scheduling Coordinator in the Office of Dean of Students before any arrangements, tentative or otherwise, are made regarding the facility.

F. All fees and costs involved in the use of the facility will be determined and applied solely by the University Scheduling Board, consistent with policy stated in IV. Application of Facility Use Fee Schedule (see below).

G. Sponsoring organizations may be expected to post in advance rental fees and other costs, including insurance, security, guarantees, and special arrangements as established by the University Scheduling Board.

IV. APPLICATION OF FACILITY USE FEE SCHEDULE

A. INTRODUCTION
In accordance with the section Use of University Facilities, I. General Policy, and subject to authority as delegated by the President, the following policy on the assessment of fees and costs for the special use of University facilities is adopted by the University Scheduling Board.

B. CATEGORIES
University Scheduling Board shall consider requests for the special use of University facilities on the basis of the following priority use preference. Each category within this priority use preference shall be assessed all fees and costs appropriate to that category.

1. University-wide events and activities, e.g., Commencement, Sun Devil Football, Gammage Series Events, Freshman Orientation Assembly, Registration.

2. Colleges, Schools, Academic Divisions, Departments and Agencies of Arizona State University, e.g., English Department, College of Liberal Arts, Associated Students, Memorial Union, ICA Department, ASU Student Foundation.

3. Registered Organizations, e.g., Faculty Women's Association, Phi Beta Kappa, Young Republicans. To be included in this category the requesting organization must meet the University's requirements for, and be a registered faculty, staff or student organization.

4. Non-Profit/Tax-Exempt Organizations. To be included in this category the requesting organization must be qualified for exemption under section 501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code (Non-Profit, Tax-Exempt Status).

5. Commercial Organizations.

C. DEFINITIONS

Fees and costs are defined as follows:
1. Extraordinary Costs. Those costs associated with the special use of a University facility beyond the minimum ordinary costs incurred when the facility is used. Extraordinary costs are always applicable.

2. Costs. All minimum normal and ordinary operating expenses incurred by the University as a result of the use of the facility. Ordinary costs are as follows: facility prepared and operable for use, minimum supervisory personnel, cleanup and waste removal.

3. Base Rental Fee. The fixed minimum rental fee established for the use of a particular facility. The base rental fee includes and is greater than the minimum ordinary costs associated with the special use of that particular facility.

4. Admission-Charged Fee. The fixed minimum rental fee established for the use of a particular facility when admission is charged by non-University organizations. The admission-charged fee includes the minimum ordinary costs associated with the special use of that particular facility, and is generally expressed as a fixed dollar amount (greater than the Base Rental Fee) or a percentage of the gross receipts, whichever is greater.

D. APPLICATION OF FEES AND COSTS

Category shall be determined by the University Scheduling Board and the appropriate fees/costs shall be applied in accordance with the following:

- Units in Category 1 shall not be assessed a fee for the special use of a facility, unless there are extraordinary costs associated with its use.
 - Units in Category 2 shall be assessed all extraordinary costs associated with the special use of a facility. If admission is charged, costs shall be assessed.
 - Units in Category 3 shall be assessed all costs associated with the special use of a facility. If admission is charged, a base rental fee shall be assessed.
 - Units in Category 4 shall be assessed a base rental fee associated with the special use of a facility. If admission is charged, an admission-charged fee shall be assessed.
 - Units in Category 5 shall be assessed a base rental fee associated with the special use of a facility. If admission is charged, an admission-charged fee shall be assessed.
- Mere sanction or endorsement of any non-university activity by a university affiliated group or individual shall in no way alter category. University Scheduling Board may consider requests to alter category when made by units in Categories 1 or 2, provided that such co-sponsorship of a non-university activity has direct and legitimate relevance to the educational interests of the University, and that:

1. The co-sponsoring unit assumes full budgetary responsibility for all assessments and liabilities resulting from the special use of the University facility.

2. The co-sponsoring unit has a participatory role in the decision-making process in determining the time, place, and manner of the non-university activity.

3. A full accounting is made available to the University Scheduling Board by the co-sponsoring unit of all funds expended and received as a result of the non-university activity.

4. The non-university activity be consistent with the normal and specific function or purpose of the co-sponsoring unit.

E. GENERAL POLICY

1. The University Scheduling Board shall receive all requests for the special use of a University facility, determine the fee category, and apply the appropriate fee/cost for that category.

2. Neither the director of the facility nor the University Scheduling Board shall assess a fee other than the one applicable under this policy. Any applicant dissatisfied with the fee applied may appeal to a committee of the President and Vice Presidents in accordance with the policies of the University Scheduling Board.

3. Each facility director shall be responsible for a facility use fee schedule using language consistent with this policy to describe the fees and costs associated with the special use of the facility and shall submit the schedule to the University Scheduling Board for review and application.

4. Any unit requesting a donation before the event or at the door, or in any other manner wherein such donation is a prerequisite for admittance shall have its use treated as one for which admission is charged and the appropriate fee applied.

5. The current application of the policy, IV. Application of Facility Use Fee Schedule, may be amended by the University Scheduling Board subject to review and authorization by the President of the University.

6. Authorization for the use of a University facility by the University Scheduling Board shall not mean that Arizona State University, nor any of its constituent agencies, departments, or divisions in any way support, sanction, or agree with the policies/activities of the applicant.

V. UNIVERSITY-SPONSORED EVENTS

A. PUBLIC LECTURES SERIES

The Public Lectures Board, composed of faculty and students, will be responsible for planning an annual Public Lectures Series to present a broad spectrum of views and philosophies in the areas of social science, humanities, science and the arts. Major issues of widespread interest will be selected as subjects for discussion by nationally-recognized spokesmen in a balanced lecture program. Speakers qualified by position or experience to make a significant statement will be invited by the Lectures Board to participate in the Series. The Series will be open to faculty, students and staff of the University, and to members of the public. The Public Lectures Board shall submit for prior review and authorization the names of all speakers to be included in the Lectures Series, as well as all other appropriate information pertinent to the use of University facilities by such speakers. The Public Lectures Board may co-sponsor lecture programs in accordance with IV. D. Application of Fees and Costs (see above).

B. COLLEGE-SPONSORED EVENTS

Academic units of the University sponsor addresses, seminars and colloquia at the institution involving off-campus speakers. Such undertakings will be coordinated with the University Scheduling Board for purposes of scheduled convenience. However, responsibility for the events — including invitations to speakers — shall remain with the deans of the respective colleges.

C. SPECIAL GUEST LECTURES

Special guest lecturers may speak on scholarly or scientific topics before classes, seminars or other academic meetings solely at the invitation of the faculty members responsible for the academic content of the occasion.

D. PERFORMING ARTS BOARD

The management of Gammage Center for the Performing Arts in conjunction with the Performing Arts Board is responsible for presenting to the University community and the general public a full session of concerts, plays, dances, popular attractions and special entertainment events. The management of the Center determines ticket prices, University discounts, and contractual arrangements with the respective performing artists.

E. EVENTS SPONSORED BY REGISTERED ORGANIZATIONS

1. Sponsoring of Off-Campus Speakers

a. A request to invite an outside speaker to the campus will be considered only when made by an officer and a University advisor of a registered student organization or an officer of a faculty or staff organization.

b. A request to invite an outside speaker to the campus must be submitted in writing by an officer of the organization to the University Scheduling Board. To assist the University in providing a suitable forum for the speaker and to avoid any conflict with academic functions and the normal activities of the University, the request shall contain the following information:

- (1) The name of the sponsoring organization.
- (2) The signature of an officer and a University advisor of a registered student organization or an officer of a faculty or staff organization.
- (3) The proposed date, time, location and anticipated attendance of the meeting.
- (4) The name of the speaker and the topic of the speech.

c. A request to sponsor a speaker must be submitted not later than seven calendar days prior to the date of the proposed speaking engagement. The Board shall render a decision within four days from the receipt of the request.

d. The sponsoring organization will not publicize the appearance of any outside speaker until approved by the University Scheduling Board.

e. A request may be denied if the University Scheduling Board determines, after proper inquiry, that the proposed speech would probably constitute a clear and present danger to the normal activities and the essential purpose of the University (see Code of Conduct, IV, D. Outside or Off-Campus Speakers, pages 23 and 24).

f. When a request to invite an outside speaker is denied, an appeal may be made by the sponsoring organization to the University Review and Advisory Board for de novo consideration. The Review and Advisory Board shall have the power to grant or deny the request, and its decision shall be final. If the request is not acted upon by the Board within three days following the filing of the written application for appeal, it shall be deemed granted, and the speaker's invitation shall be issued.

g. The extension of an invitation to speak on the campus shall not constitute endorsement of a speaker nor approval of his views by the University or the sponsoring organization, and no speaker or sponsoring organization shall represent nor imply, in any manner, that the speaker has been endorsed or that his views have been approved by the University. The University may require that the meeting be chaired by a member of the administration or faculty.

h. A speaker is subject to all state and federal laws and all University rules and regulations. By his acceptance of the invitation to speak, he shall assume full responsibility for any violation of such laws or rules committed by him while on the campus.

i. Candidates for public office may address University organizations on the campus; however, such meetings will not be open to the general public. Persons holding public office may address University organizations and the general public on the campus of the University provided the speech is of a non-partisan and non-political nature.

j. The University shall assess the sponsoring organization all applicable fees and costs associated with the use of a University facility for the appearance of an off-campus speaker.

k. Sponsoring organizations are subject to all state and federal laws and to the rules and regulations adopted by the University and the Board of Regents. Violations shall be handled in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Code of Conduct.

2. Sponsoring of Entertainment

a. A request to sponsor entertainment on the campus for the University community and/or the public will be considered only when made by an officer and the advisor of a registered student organization, or an officer of a faculty or staff organization.

b. A request to sponsor entertainment must be submitted in writing and accompanied by all supporting documents to the University Scheduling Board at least seven calendar days prior to the date of the proposed entertainment. The Board shall render a decision four days from the receipt of the request.

c. Approval by the University Scheduling Board will be contingent upon the receipt and review of the following:

- (1) The completed University Facility Request Form.
- (2) The availability and suitability of the requested facility.
- (3) Entertainment will not be scheduled which will interfere with the pursuits of the classroom, library, offices, on- and off-campus living areas, or the Health Service.

3. Performance or Entertainment Before an Audience

a. All members of the University community have the right of freedom of speech and the right to assemble and to petition for redress of grievances, in a peaceful and orderly fashion. However, the exercise of these rights carries with it the responsibility not to interfere with nor obstruct the rights of others to use University facilities for their normal activities and functions.

b. There is no absolute right on the part of any organization or on the part of individual members of the University community to assemble and hear a speech at any particular time or place and under any and all circumstances.

c. No non-member of the University community may speak, perform, or entertain before an audience on the University campus except as a result of an invitation by a registered organization, and the written approval of the University of the time, place, and manner of such appearance.

d. Non-members of the University community are required, while on campus, to observe and comply with the rules and regulations adopted by the University or the Board of Regents, and with all state and federal laws.

VI. OFF-CAMPUS ORGANIZATIONS

A. State or federal agencies, charitable or civic organizations, or commercial organizations may use University facilities at the discretion of the University, subject to availability and all applicable fees and costs.

B. A request to use University facilities must be submitted no later than fourteen calendar days prior to the date the facility will be utilized. The University Scheduling Board shall render a decision within ten days from the receipt of the request.

C. Facilities will be scheduled for off-campus organizations on the basis of availability, provided that such use does not conflict with the normal activities of the University community, and subject to all applicable fees and costs.

D. Off-campus organizations are responsible for facility use fees and other costs to be incurred as a result of the event, including, but not limited to, guarantees, insurance, security, and staging arrangements.

E. The off-campus organization assumes full responsibility for any loss or damage resulting from such use and agrees to hold harmless and indemnify the University as to any loss or claims arising out of the use of such facility.

VII. CAMPUS LIVING UNITS

Emphasis within the Sororities, Fraternities, and Residence Halls at Arizona State University is on individual student responsibility and intellectual, cultural and social development. Through the Panhellenic Council, the Interfraternity Council, and the various Hall Councils, students may become active participants in the decision-making processes which directly affect student lives. The following rules and procedures should be noted:

A. CLOSING HOURS

Sororities, fraternities, and Residence Halls are closed between 12 midnight and 6 a.m., Sunday through Thursday nights, and between 2 a.m. and 6 a.m. on Friday and Saturday nights.

B. OPEN HOUSE

Campus living units may schedule open house (visitation) hours for parents, faculty, and invited guests in accordance with University policy. The following maximum limits have been established:

1. Sunday through Thursday — 12 noon to 12 midnight.
 2. Friday and Saturday — 12 noon to 2 a.m.
- Except for the main lobby, members of the opposite sex may not be in any other area of a campus living unit except during the hours prescribed above. They must be escorted to and from the main lobby area by their host or hostess.

C. ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES

1. The possession and consumption of alcoholic beverages for those of legal age (19 years or older) will be allowed only in campus living units.

a. This policy pertains to personal rather than public consumption of alcoholic beverages in campus living units.

b. Liquor consumption is not authorized in public access areas.

2. Each campus living unit, through its unit directors and appropriate councils, will adopt its own hall or house rules and procedures for enforcement thereof.

3. The unit director or student president of a campus living unit will be responsible for the observance of such rules. Violations of such rules and complaints will be processed through the appropriate judicial channel.

4. The sale of alcoholic beverages on campus is prohibited.

5. The possession and/or consumption of alcoholic beverages in on-campus facilities or areas other than campus living units is prohibited.

6. Students desiring to reside in areas where alcoholic beverages are not permitted should make their desire known at the time of application for housing.

D. STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

Students residing on campus shall assume full responsibility for any and all personal conduct, including knowledge of campus living unit regulations. A student residing on campus may be subject to university judicial proceedings concerning the following:

1. Conduct which is disruptive to other residents or willful destruction of property.
2. Violation of State or Federal laws regulating the possession of firearms, explosives (including fireworks) or other dangerous weapons. Firearms and ammunition brought to the campus must be registered and stored with the Unit Director of the campus living unit.
3. Violation of State or Federal laws regulating the possession, distribution, sale, or use of illegal drugs or narcotics.
4. Violation of any State or Federal law.
5. Violation of Open House regulations.
6. Violation of any other University rule or regulation.
7. Commission of any offense specified in the Code of Conduct.

Devils bury Utes; Kush 'not pleased'

By Walter Berry

A rolling stone may gather no moss on its downhill route from a Ute butte, but one thing is for certain . . .

It can inflict a helluva bruise. Saturday, the ASU football team — in keeping with the festive Halloween weekend atmosphere — assumed the guise of an approaching avalanche and treated the University of Utah to a 47-19 burial before a Band Day gathering of 16,528 wind-beaten, rain-drenched fans at Rice Stadium in Salt Lake City.

The win — ASU's sixth in seven outings this year — upped the Sun Devils' WAC record to 3-0, one-half game behind pace-setting BYU. Utah dipped to 2-3 and 1-3 in the league standings.

ASU's margin of victory was somewhat deceptive, however, as the Devils had to overcome a few bizarre officiating calls and had to utilize a strong second-half showing to stave off the upset-minded Utes.

After jumping to an early 27-0 lead by the midway point of the second quarter on touchdowns by George Perry (six-yard run), Mike Harris (five-yard run), Dennis Sproul (one-yard plunge) and John Jefferson (61-yard pass play), the ASU offense became lax. Two Sun Devil fumbles on botched handoff attempts turned into a pair of Randy Gomez-to-Jack Steptoe TD tosses for five and 36 yards.

Coupled with a safety on a high snap to ASU punter Mark Jones in the end zone, the Utes went into the locker room just 11 points behind at halftime.

"At the start of the second half, I knew we would have to prove what we're made of," said Sun Devil coach Frank Kush. "We gave them (Utah) great field position through fumbles and penalties in the second quarter and gave them two easy shots at scores. We really let down."

The squall-like weather, which turned the Astro-turf field into a "Squeegie Bowl" and forced many of the half-capacity crowd to scurry for the exits at the 10 minute mark of the first period, subsided by the second half's start.

The Utes' momentum didn't. Barefooted kicker Tom McNamara kicked a 37-yarder through the uprights to tie a Utah school record for field goals in a season (10) and narrowed the gap to 27-19.

Utes fight losing battle

Sproul responded masterfully by marching the Devils 75 yards in 10 plays, capping the time consuming drive with his 16-yard touchdown run on an option rollout through a maze of defenders.

Two and a half minutes into the final quarter, Sproul spotted split end Jefferson in a foot race with Utah cornerback James Wilson along the far sidelines and lofted a 91-yard scoring strike to J.J. for an insurmountable 41-19 lead.

Arthur "Turtle" Lane's touchdown carry from a yard out with 8:18 left in the game closed the scoring.

"I was proud of our effort in the second half," Kush said. "Sproul passed well and the two TDs to Jefferson were exactly the way you draw them on the board."

Sproul, ASU's bearded senior quarterback, enjoyed his best day of the season thus far with a 12-for-17 passing performance for 290 yards, no interceptions and two touchdowns — both to Jefferson who caught six passes for 180 yards. ASU amassed 330 yards through the air and another 300 on the ground for a whopping 630 yard total.

"Talk to J.J. Talk to our lineman. They're the guys that did it for us," said a modest Sproul, who is beginning to resemble Oakland Raiders' quarterback Ken Stabler with his abundance of facial hair.

"Both of the touchdowns were on a '4' play — a fly pattern," Jefferson recalled. "They tried to triple cover me at first, then went to a man-to-man defense. It didn't pay off."

"We played a guy on Jefferson that had never played defensive back or corner back before," said Utah coach Wayne Howard. "At one time, we had 10 freshmen on the field. We had a chance to get back in the game, but our guys aren't mature enough to stick it in the end zone."

Besides Jefferson, All-America junior college transfer Chris DeFrance was Sproul's favorite target. He reeled in three passes for 84 yards.

"Dennis just laid the ball in for me," said the Corcoran, Calif. native. "Plus Utah's close coverage on J.J. left me wide open a lot of the time."

Sproul's counterpart, Utah's 5-foot-7 signal caller Gomez, hit on 18 of his 37 pass attempts for 197 yards — 67 yards gained by Steptoe.

ASU sophomore tailback George Perry led all rushers with 101 yards on 20 carries before sitting out the second half with an injury. The Utes' Steve Peake had 84 yards to his credit on 15 totes.

From a defensive standpoint, the Devils held Utah to just 139 yards rushing and 197 passing, thanks mainly to the yoeman work of senior linebacker Tim Petersen who picked off one pass, recovered a fumble and had a hand in 11 tackles.

"On the interception, John Harris hit their receiver and the ball just popped up in the air to me," Petersen said. "The fumble? Just a case of being in the right place at the right time, that's all."

"Petersen played well," Kush added. "However, I am going to get on a few of our guys — offense and defense — after looking at the (game) films. I was NOT pleased overall." Kush seldom is.

Sun Devils sweep tennis tournament

By Karen Andrus

ASU junior Tonnie Sie grabbed the championship title of the men's open singles Sunday in the Greater Southwest Tennis Tournament with a win over teammate Eric Sherbeck.

The 22-year-old from Zaandam, Holland, defeated Sherbeck, a junior, 7-6, 4-6, 6-3.

The tourney was sponsored by Coca-Cola in an effort to raise money for ASU's Cancer Research Institute headed by Dr. Robert Pettit, an ASU chemistry professor.

Commenting on his victory, Sie said donating money toward cancer research was "a beautiful thing to do regardless of the individual result."

ASU freshman, Debbie Brown, defeated sophomore Nancy Belgum for the championship title of the women's open singles.

Brown, from Halifax, Nova Scotia, eliminated Belgum, 6-4, 6-2.

VOLLEYBALL

In other sports, the ASU women's volleyball team bettered its Intermountain Conference record by defeating Wyoming State University, 15-2, 14-16, 15-4, 15-10. The Sun Devils' conference record is 6-2 and their overall record is 12-3.

"Danelle Richards was our strongest player," Coach Mary Littlewood said. Richards is a transfer from Mesa Community College where she was twice named All-Conference captain.

WEIGHTLIFTING

A 14-year ASU employee took second place in the National Masters Weightlifting Championships in Detroit Saturday.

Bob Williams, 40, in the 220-lb. weight class, lifted a total of 575 lbs. "I had the winning weight over my head," Williams, a physical plant employee, said, "but I couldn't hold it long enough for the referee."

Williams came out of semi-retirement to compete in Detroit. "I went on the spur of the moment and beat a lot of the younger men," he said.

Williams said he is going to try for the master's American record in December in an invitational tournament in Safford, Ariz. "I'm going to take it pretty serious now," he added.

"A lot of the guys in the physical plant department give me moral support and have really encouraged me," Williams said.

Title hopes crushed for Colorado State

The University of Wyoming damaged Colorado State's WAC title hopes Saturday while Brigham Young continued to roll with another win.

Wyoming stopped CSU, 29-13 in Laramie, to boost its WAC record to 3-2 and drop the Rams to the same 3-2 mark. Wyoming will face ASU Saturday in Sun Devil Stadium.

Wyoming was led by Dan Christopoulos' five field goals and halfback Myron Hardeman's two touchdown runs. Christopoulos set a team record with his five field goals and set another with a 62-yard kick. His other field goals were from 41, 22, 26 and 19 yards.

CSU led the WAC in rushing defense prior to the game, with an average of 97 yards a game. Wyoming destroyed the Rams defense as it rushed for 340 yards.

BYU upped its record to 4-0, and 6-1 overall, by defeating UA in Provo, 34-14. The Cougars had 554 yards total offense in the game with most of it coming through the air.

Cougar quarterback Marc Wilson completed 23 of 43 passes for 334 yards and two touchdowns. Most of this came in the first half which provided BYU with a 27-0 halftime lead.

BYU faces Utah Saturday and then will come to Tempe Nov. 12 to play ASU in what could possibly be for the WAC title.

In the only non-conference game, the University of New Mexico crushed arch-rival New Mexico State, 35-13. C.J. Jones started at quarterback for the Lobos in his first collegiate start. Jones started in place of Noel Mazzone who had started for the Lobos in the last 17 games.

Jones passed for 105 yards and one touchdown in his debut. The win gives New Mexico a 3-5 mark on the year.

Cross country team finishes last

ASU's cross country team finished last in its first taste of Pac-8 competition Saturday.

The Devils were hampered by the loss of their second and third ranked runners, John Maas and Mike Elder. They didn't compete in the meet as Elder had bronchitis during the week and Maas fell and injured his hip during the race. If these two men had run in the race, ASU coach Roger Kerr said ASU probably would have finished second.

As it was, UA ran away with first place with 35 points, followed by Stanford, 68, University of Cal-Berkeley, 71, UCLA, 83, and the Devils, 101.

Junior Ed Blakely was the highlight of the meet for the Devils with a second place finish covering the 10,000 meter course at UCLA in 31:15. The winner was Thom Hunt of UA, 30:34.

"It was Blakely's best race of the year," Kerr said. "I was very happy with his performance."

Other runners for ASU were Paul Taysom who finished 12th; Doug Flederjohn, 25th; Craig Miers, 30th; and John Prather, 32nd. Kerr said he felt Taysom also did a good job for the Devils but he was disappointed with the other ASU runners.

"If Elder and Maas would have run and finished ahead of Taysom, that would have given us 40 less points and would have given us second place," Kerr said.

ASU's next meet is Nov. 12 in Salt Lake City for the WAC championship.

WAC standings

	Conference	All Games
Brigham Young	4-0	6-1
ASU	3-0	6-1
Colorado State	3-2	6-2
Wyoming	3-2	3-3-1
UA	1-2	2-5
Utah	1-3	2-5
New Mexico	0-3	3-5
UTEP	0-3	1-6

Pick'em winners

This week's Pick 'Em winner is Norman Moore who edged out Stephan Ybarra by one point on the tie breaker. Both men missed four games but Moore was only 16 points off in his prediction of the outcome of the ASU-Utah game. Moore predicted ASU 35 - Utah 17 to Ybarra's prediction of ASU 45 - Utah 6. ASU won 49-17.

Third place goes to Bill Kinis who missed five games.

Long pre-season play may prove effective

The pre-season is over at last for the ASU football team. After completing seven games in an exhibition season with a respectable 6-1 record, the Sun Devils will meet their first opponent of the year Saturday without a losing record.

That doesn't mean the team has a winning record. Wyoming has an even record, sporting a 3-3-1 season to this point.

The Sun Devils have been broken in slowly this year playing progressively better opponents as the season moves along. They have moved from the worst teams in the "Bottom 20" to the best teams in the "Bottom 20."

A composite record of all Sun Devil foes shows a 12-41-1 record. The worst record belongs to North-western, 0-8, and the best record goes to New Mexico and Missouri, both 3-5.

The long pre-season seems to be what ASU needed after last year's 4-7 performance. The ASU offense has rolled up 1,209 yards in the last two weeks which is respectable even if gained against UTEP and Utah.

The ASU defense has had time to learn to stop the option against New Mexico and UTEP and the pass defense has weathered games against pass-oriented teams like Utah.

Consistency has been the major problem with the Sun Devils the last two years and that problem seems to be disappearing with quarterback Dennis Sproul taking charge of the quarterback struggle. The running attack also is "The United States is a land of free speech. Nowhere is speech freer — not even here where we sedulously cultivate it even in its most repulsive form."

— Winston Churchill

beginning to gain strength, with George Perry leading the way. Perry gained 101 yards in 20 carries in just the first half against Utah. Perry also has scored 10 touchdowns this season.

With the rushing game improving, Sproul's passing almost has been perfect. The last two weeks Sproul has 18 completions in 24 attempts for 394 yards and three touchdowns — with no interceptions.

It seems the Sun Devil offense has been in a trance for a few years by trying to operate a razzle-dazzle explosion type offense of the Malone and Green days. That type of offense just didn't fit with the personnel available to coach Frank Kush.

The new offense is characterized by an option left, option right, with a plunge here and there. Add on a few short passes and an occasional deep pass to one of the talented receivers and a grind-'em-out offense is created.

The grinding offense may not be as exciting as in the past, but it is getting the job done with consistency.

The Sun Devils will be tested the next four weeks facing Wyoming (defending WAC champion), Colorado State (6-2), BYU (currently leading the WAC) and arch-rival UA.

It is certainly not the toughest schedule in the country but a 10-1 record plus a Fiesta Bowl victory would put the Devils in the top ten.
