THOMAS KECK is pursuing a Doctor of Musical Arts degree in Wind Conducting at Arizona State University. In addition to his studies at ASU, Keck co-conducts the Concert Band and assists all of the bands in the School of Music, including the Sun Devil Marching Band. For the past five years, Keck served as Director of Athletic Bands at the University of New Hampshire. In that capacity, he oversaw all aspects of the Wildcat Marching Band and Pep Band, and taught courses in conducting, music education and percussion. In 2001, the UNH Marching Band was chosen to perform for Prince Rainier on New Year's Day at the Palace of Monaco as part of a nine-day tour through France and Italy. Additionally, Keck has presented clinics and lecture-recitals at all-state music conventions and the Eastern Division CBDNA Conference. He guest conducted district and regional bands, all-state chamber ensembles and the 2003 MENC Eastern Division Conference. Keck served as the New Hampshire State Chairperson for CBDNA and NBA, and was Collegiate Coordinator for the NHMEA. In addition to these affiliations, he is a member of Pi Kappa Lambda and an honorary member of Kappa Kappa Psi. Keck received his B.S. in Music Education from the University of Illinois and M.A. in Music Education from the University of Iowa.

SHAWN SMITH is in his first year at Arizona State University pursuing a D.M.A. in Conducting. He recently completed a Master of Music degree in Wind Conducting at Louisiana State University, where he served as graduate assistant and conducting associate, working with the Wind Ensemble, Symphonic Winds, Concert Band, Tiger Marching Band and Bengal Brass Pep Band. After receiving a Bachelor of Music in Music Education from Boise State University, Smith was appointed Director of Bands and Orchestra at Meridian High School (Idaho), where his ensembles were distinguished as among the finest in the state. Smith's studies in conducting have taken him throughout the country, including the Advanced Conducting Symposium at Offutt Air Force Base (Nebraska) with Mallory Thompson and the University of North Texas Conductor's Collegium with Eugene Corporon. In 1998, Smith was awarded a fellowship to attend the University of Minnesota's Art of Wind Band Teaching Symposium. Smith is an accomplished trumpeter, having played in the Boise Philharmonic Orchestra (Idaho) and served as principal trumpet in the top ensembles at both Boise State University and Louisiana State University. Most recently, Smith played principal trumpet in the Louisiana 2003 CBDNA Intercollegiate Honor Band under the baton of H. Robert Reynolds.
