

PROGRAM

REFLECTIONS OF ITALY IN NORTHERN EUROPE

Sequitur praeambulum in C et postest variari in d f g a (1448)	Adam Ileborg von Stendal
Mit ganzem Willen	Conrad Paumann (1410-1473)
My Lady Nevells ground	William Byrd (1539-1623)
Echo fantasia in d	Jan Pieterszoon Sweelinck (1562-1621)
Tiento de medio registro de mano derecha de primo tono	Pablo Bruna (1611-1679)
Choralfantasie "An Wasserflüssen Babylon"	Johann Adam Reincken (1623-1722)
Praeludium in e-moll	Nicolaus Bruhns (1665-1696)
Ciaccona in Bes	Johann Bernhard Bach (1676-1749)
Toccata prima	Georg Muffat (1653-1704)

MATTEO IMBRUNO

A native of Pietramontecorvino (Italy), studied organ in Bologna, Rotterdam and Lübeck. He is resident organist of the Oude Kerk in Amsterdam, the same position that Jan Pieterszoon Sweelinck held in the 17th century, and the Amsterdam Hermitage. Active as a concert performer, he has played in the most prestigious festivals and music centres of Europe, Japan, South America and the United States.

He is visiting teacher at the Buenos Aires conservatory and at the university of Rosario (Argentina). He gives masterclasses throughout the world and is in demand on international juries. He has recorded CD's on historical organs in The Netherlands and Italy, and has made several recordings for the BBC radio London. Matteo Imbruno is the artistic director of the International Organ Competition "Jan Pieterszoon Sweelinck".

UPCOMING CONCERTS

Sunday, Nov. 13, 2:30 pm

Everything is Illuminated

An ecstatic experience evoked by three pipe organs, hurdy-gurdy, rabab, tsimbl, violin, piano, sine waves and more. Organists Ilona and Jacob Adler will be joined by an eclectic group of improvising musicians from around the world.

Sunday, December 11, 2:30 pm and 5 pm

9th Annual Organ Christmas concert

Kimberly Marshall and the ASU Organ Studio retell the age-old Christmas story with seasonal carols and noëls. The festively decorated Organ Hall is sure to get you in the holiday spirit!

MATTEO IMBRUNO ORGAN

October 23, 2011

2:30 pm

ASU Organ Hall