How about Mr. Moores Card

Dear Dr. Conklin

I hope you will persuade Dr. Montgomery to join us. The Irish Com. invitation has been quite general, and it will probably take a few men from our roll. That I shall regret but it can not be helped, and it is better for it to happen under Burrows than any one else, as Burrows will turn things so far as possible to the benefit of the M.B.L.

I think the action of the Ex. Com. in sending Mr. Brooks a cordial invitation to accept a place on the Board, and the explanations given to him by Clarke & others will remove any hard feeling.

I am anxious to see you again at W. H. Best wishes to Mrs. C. and the babies.
